Land Values Increased In Parts Of Town

Land values in certain areas of the town have recently been increased by the board of assessors and this, coming with the $4 jump in the tax rate from $36 to $40 has caused a decided increase in some of the tax bills just sent out. No change has been made in the valuation of buildings.

This increase in land values follows a plan adopted by the assessors some years ago to review certain areas of the town each year and make increases where there has been a substantial change or improvements. For instance, the extension of a sewer in a street is usually followed by a 2¢ per foot increase in land values in the area served.

The land values this year have been increased in Johnson acres, Pine street and sections of Elm and Summer streets. The assessors also reviewed all of Lowell street from West Andover center to the Lowell line. In all, the increased valuation this year totals about $125,000, which at the $40 rate means about $5000 additional revenue to the town.

Last year land valuations were increased in West Andover center and on South Main street.

The assessors consider different areas each year and feel that a time is soon coming when an increase in the land values of business property in the square will be made.

Until the present plan of reviewing different areas each year and increasing valuations where improvements or changes have been made there have been no land valuation increases since the town put in the "block" system about 20 years ago.

Troop 73 Scouts Advanced In Rank

Several members of boy scout troop 73 successfully passed the examination from tenderfoot to second class at the regular meeting held in the South church vestry, Friday evening, July 13. Those advanced to second class were William F. Leahy, 54 Red Spring rd., Bruce W. Valentine, 15 Moraine st., and Allan M. Zecchini, 93 Summer st.

The examinations in first-aid, compass, cooking, knot-tying and semaphore were conducted by Robert B. Hatton, explorer advisor, assisted by Rene Beaulieu, scoutmaster and Winston A. Blake, troop chairman.

Blood Donors Aid In Emergency Case

Andover's Red Cross blood program has had two recent opportunities to serve the community in a very direct way, reports Victor J. Mill Jr., chairman of the committee.

Emergency situations involving two Andover people required the immediate donation of blood at a local hospital. The names of several persons were drawn from the Red Cross file of potential donors and the following took time out from their day's work to report to the hospital as walk-in donors: Albert L. Batchelder, Helen Batchelder, Eunice Dailey, Joseph Dearborn, Pauline Bond, Everett McCullough, Dana Hill, Herbert Muller and David Batchelder.

Such service is given at some personal inconvenience, but as one of the donors commented, "I received blood when I needed it and I know what it can mean. What does a little inconvenience amount to if I can help save a life?"

"We shall be needing a good many people with that attitude," says Mr. Mill. Andover chapter has three days this fall on its calendar for a visit of the bloodmobile, October 8, 9, and 10. The quota for each day is 150 pints, so we shall have to count on a good many public-spirited citizens for help."

Other Red Cross services are very active this summer. Mrs. Alvin Zink Jr., recruitment chairman for nurses, is calling for nurses to sign up for service to Red Cross and to civil defense in case of a war emergency.

Will Fill Position Of Rural Carrier

The U. S. civil service commission announces an examination to be held at Andover Aug. 2 to fill the position of rural carrier here. Applicants may get the necessary forms and information at the local post office.

There are two rural routes in Andover, one served by a regular carrier and the other being filled at present by a substitute.

Playground Youngsters To Hold Outing Tuesday

Phantom Boxes Now On By - Pass

Two new phantom boxes have been added to the list of Andover's fire alarm designations following two recent truck fires on the by-pass.

Phantom box 371 is on the by-pass, south from Salem street, and box 372 is on the by-pass, north from Salem street.

When box 37 was sounded recently for fire in a beer truck many of the callmen went to Prospect Hill road at Salem street and continued across the by-pass looking for the blaze when the fire was out near Wildwood road. The phantom boxes will give a clearer designation of fires on the by-pass.

Complete Summer Tarring Schedule

With the tarring of about half a dozen streets last week the board of public works has completed its summer schedule of street tarring during which time it has applied about 88,000 gallons to various thoroughfares of the town.

The latest streets to be tarred are Elm, Cuba, Kennilworth and York streets, Railroad and Maple avenues.

Pomp's To Hold Weenie Roast

A weenie roast will be staged at Pomp's pond the night of Wednesday, July 25, which will include a camp fire, story telling and the showing of sports movies.

This event will open a series of evening entertainments which the beach lifeguards will present during the rest of the bathing season.

Attendance at the popular swimming spot keeps up, the waterfront being well crowded every day. The attendance mark Sunday was 1400 and Monday 1300.

Regular classes are held each week for beginners, intermediates and adults with an additional class of adults starting tonight at 7 o'clock.

The girl scouts who are enjoying day camp life flock to the beach each morning for instructions in swimming and water safety.

New sand has been added to the center of the bathing beach to help improve the area for bathers, and a small snow fence has been set up to restrict some of the younger fry to shallow waters.

A new feature has been introduced at the beach with the installation of a basketball court where leisure moments may be spent in practice or an occasional scrub game.

Plans for future events are being arranged and a program for the closing days of the beach is being prepared which will be in keeping with the splendid pageants which have marked the conclusion of the bathing season in previous years.

New Garden Sprays May Be Injurious

"Some of the newer poison sprays for home gardens may contain tetraethyl pyrophosphate and parathion compounds which are extremely toxic to humans," warns Clarence I. Sterling, director of sanitary engineering, Massachusetts department of public health.

The poisons contained in these insecticides may enter the body through food which has been sprayed, or by direct contact through the skin and eyes. Symptoms of poisoning include headache, excessive sweating, giddiness, blurred vision, weakness, nausea, cramps and diarrhea.

"Absorbing even very small amounts of these organic phosphate compounds is so dangerous," said Mr. Sterling, "that the department of public health advises using the better known insecticides, until safer compounds are developed."

Leaves To Study Hotels In Europe

Robert E. Hooker, a native Andover and manager of the M lauke Ravine lodge near Wa N.H., resigned his position manager, effective July 15, in order to study hotel management in Europe.

The lodge is owned and operated by Dartmouth college for benefit of Dartmouth student faculty, alumni and the general public.

Mr. Hooker has been managing the lodge since November 1, 1930 at Dartmouth. Following his experience in sales and management, Mr. Hooker entered the U.S. Army in 1942 and served with the Mountain Infantry regiment overseas. He was later commissioned a second lieutenant in the Ordnance department and served as administrator in the Pentagon Building in Washington. After discharge from the service he went into business for himself and his appointment as manager of the Ravine Lodge.

He will study languages during the summer at the University of Neuchatel in Switzerland and will attend fall start courses in hotel management at Ecole des Hoteliers in Lausanne, Switzerland. He expects to be in Europe about two weeks.

POLIO TREATMENT $1,000 FOR

One month's treatment of a ten-year-old polio victim cost nearly $1000 according to a nationally known insurance organization. In severe cases, the cost is $10,000 or more.

To meet this situation, we are now offering $10,000 family polio insurance. This new plan, which doubles the usual polio protection costs only $15 for two years in any size family.

The new plan provides $10,000 polio insurance for each member of the family who contracts the disease. It pays for medical hospital and nursing care—including Kenny and other physiotherapeutic treatments—the use of an iron lung, even transportation and ambulance service if needed.

POLIO TREATMENT COSTS $1,000 FOR ONE MONTH

One month's treatment of a recent 10-year-old polio victim cost nearly $1000 according to a nationally known insurance organization. In severe cases, the company stated, total expenses can run $10,000 or more.

To meet this situation, we are now offering $10,000 family polio insurance. This new plan, which doubles the usual polio protection, costs only $15 for two years for any size family.

The new plan provides $10,000 polio insurance for each member of the family who contracts the disease. It pays for medical, hospital and nursing care—including Kenny and other physiotherapy treatments—the use of an iron lung, even transportation and ambulance service if needed.

We offer, in addition to the $10,000 plan, two other plans for families desiring standard limit policies: two-year $5000 polio insurance at a cost of $10 and three-year $5000 polio insurance for $13.

All three plans protect husband, wife and unmarried children with the same legal address from birth to age 25. The insurance pays from the first day polio strikes and thereafter as long as three years.

You need not apply in person to enjoy this protection for your family without delay—just pick up your phone and call 870, Smart and Flag, Inc., the Insurance Office, in the Bank Building, Andover.

The Polio Season

The time of the year is approaching when infantile paralysis in the United States reaches its highest point.

While avoiding unnecessary alarm there are a few simple precautions which experience has taught us to take at this season.

Among the safeguards advanced by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis there are two which are pretty sound for children and adults to observe the year round: don't get chilled, and don't get overtired.

Two other pointers apply to the polio season only. They are: don't mix with new groups, and don't have mouth or throat operations.

If polio comes the foundation suggests to watch for signs of sickness, such as sore throat, headache, fever, upset stomach, sore muscles, stiff neck or back, extreme tiredness or nervousness; put a sick person to bed at once and call the doctor.

It is well to remember that at least half of all polio patients get well without any crippling.

Shares In America

A short time ago the New York Stock Exchange appointed a new president, choosing a man who has been head of a Connecticut college. Asked by a reporter what his policy would be, he said, "I'll try to be a salesman of shares in America."

That is a pertinent phrase. The present-day security exchanges give everyone the opportunity to buy, in large or small amounts, shares in America—in the enterprises which produce and process and distribute the raw materials, the finished goods and the services which keep this country strong and vigorous, and which create and maintain its unrivalled living standards. Today's typical stockholder is, literally, "the average man." Each year he manages to save a little money out of a moderate income, and he places a part of it in stocks he considers sound.

A good many people are not aware of the protection the investor now enjoys when he buys securities. Stringent controls are exerted by the securities and exchange commission. But it does not do the whole job by a long shot. The New York and other exchanges have extremely strict rules of their own which govern all corporations which list shares on their boards. Detailed information of every possible kind is gathered and compiled, and it becomes public property. No one can control the price at which any listed stock is bought and sold. The prices of stocks vary from time to time—just as do the prices of land, homes, or any other kind of property.

Stock ownership gives the American people the chance to own American enterprise. This is the kind of "public ownership" which is the opposite of socialism, and is the best possible thing for the nation.

HERE'S TO YOUR HEALTH PRESCRIPTION PROBLEMS

There are certain powdered drugs which become moist when thoroughly mixed with one another. Obviously, then, when a prescription calls for two such substances to be thoroughly mixed to form a dry powder, the pharmacist is faced with a special compounding problem.

Another similar problem the pharmacist is often confronted with is that of combining oil and water to form a uniform liquid.

Without going into the technical details involved, your pharmacist can and does solve these and similar prescription problems every day. Years of training and a continual study of the latest developments in the field of pharmacy make your pharmacist competent to compound whatever prescriptions your physician may write. You may entrust your prescription to us with complete confidence.

INTERNATIONAL WHIRLIGIG - By John Fisher

Red Vulture Posing As Dove Of Peace

The peace gestures should not blind us to other aspects of communism.

Two of the most terrible and dangerous characteristics of the Red system are its aggression and its oppression—each used whenever possible. The first peril may be lessened for a time, at least in northern Asia.

But, simultaneously with waving a dubious olive branch in Korea, Stalin has ordered his European slave-masters to re-apply the lash to non-communists in Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Poland, Bulgaria and Rumania. Through a series of mock trials and mass deportations, unnumbered thousands of innocent people are being crushed.

This fresh display of wickedness reveals the utter hypocrisy of the Kremlin crew. Had they been sincere in their recently expressed desire for the free world's goodwill, they would have called off their curs in Prague and, in proof, would have released William N. Oatis, the doomed American correspondent.

But the martyred newspaperman was flung into a dungeon at the very moment that home-sailing Malik gave a farewell plug for friendship between Americans and Russian communists.

Were Stalin in earnest about easing tension, he would set free Archbishop Groesz. Instead, his Hungarian tools are engaged in one of the most cruel deportations in history, tearing "non-productive" elderly men and women from their city homes and dumping them on the countryside without means of support.

Korean Armistice Does Not Ease Menace

Wise statesmen warn against the assumption that a Korean armistice will greatly mitigate the communist menace. Until communism is defeated or the hearts of its leaders are changed, they predict, the Reds will continue to terrorize any individual or nation in their claws.

The Budapest forced migration could happen here, if the Reds had their way, for it happened in the Baltic and is spreading into Poland, Bulgaria and Rumania.

The infamy outrages morality. But the callous Reds don't care a fig for the conscience of the world.

Their purpose is three fold: 1. Oust the "unproductive" from munition plant cities so war workers can occupy the vacated dwellings. 2. Eject "unreliables" from metropolitan areas lest in war they become centers of revolt. 3. Work the evicted to exhaustion on farms, building up food reserves for the army.

2096 ballots, 1561 of which were answered. 830 favored present plan, 727 in favor of merging with Lawrence, four "not interested."

Old Joyce estate on North Main street to be razed.

Auto thieves busy in Shawsheen. Three cars stolen Wednesday found later but had been stripped of all four wheels.

Miss Mary P. Lanigan of Lawrence appointed organist of St. Augustine's church.

Fortunes of Legion Junior baseball team at low ebb with loss of three games this week.

Youngsters on playgrounds enjoy nice clean fun in soap bubble contest held Friday.

Large attendance at funeral of Paul Simeone, Main street business man who died last week.

The irony is that communists, who pretend detestation for fascism, are using in Hungary decrees passed in 1939 and employed by the Gestapo in driving Jews from their homes.

The victims of the current secret police are described as "remnants of rotten liberalism with roots in the past"—retired government employees, including policemen and army officers, persons on old age pensions, returned exiles, Social Democrats, Titoists and bourgeoisie.

Dirty Work After Dark

The kick-off purge was on the night of May 21 (the MVD always does its dirtiest work after dark.) Just before dawn Budapest gendarmes roused from sleep more than a thousand old folk without previous notice and ordered them to be ready for evacuation trains within 24 hours and to take a three-day food supply.

The first batch was shipped to the eastern provinces of Hajdu and Szolnok. Some of the arrivals are billeted on peasants that are too poor and too crowded to accommodate the influx and hence are inhospitable.

Others are quartered in tents without water or medical care. The only food is sold in communal kitchens. As most of the newcomers are without money, the feeble aged must do heavy farm work to earn enough to keep from starving.

Fear of further deportations has precipitated a wave of suicides, the desperate preferring the grave to fresh persecution. But poison is hard to obtain. The death toll of elderly people in prison colonies is high.

A companion forced transportation is in Poland. Members of the non-communist middle class in Warsaw, Cracow and Poznan and other big centers are removed and left to fend for themselves in rural areas. "These criminal elements," explained the Red press, "had to be transferred from our large cities in which creative work is being done."

Uprooted From Homes

Hundreds of families are seized and sent to villages that cannot house the flood. The migrants are forbidden ever to return to their former homes. As they are urbanites, they are untrained and often unfit for farm labor.

Polish peasants are reluctant to hire the newcomers. Farmers already are in trouble with the government over their resistance to collectivization. City bureaucrats not only tried to enforce collective farming but also shipped poor seed which growers refused to plant. Angry peasants have destroyed crops, wrecked state-owned machinery and secretly slaughtered their livestock.

Hence they have scant food or jobs for deportees and, in some cases, they are afraid that a display of friendship for the outcasts will be reckoned as another crime and charged against them.

So pitiful is the lot of the castaways that Cardinal Sapieha, a sick man, dispatched a special message urging village priests to arrange aid for the hungry, homeless wretches. For this act of mercy he was denounced and threatened by the communists.

Beer bottles were popping with machinegun rapidity in a fire that destroyed 200 cases of the brew and badly damaged the truck in which they were being transported on the by-pass Wednesday night.

Responding to a still alarm at 11.50 p. m., firemen sounded box 37 at 11.55 p. m., when they saw the truck ablaze with flames shooting up through the flooring and the top and nearing the gasoline tank.

The bottles started to pop as soon as firemen turned a stream on the blazing cargo. Cause of the fire is reported to be due to friction of a rear tire following a blowout.

The truck was owned by the Lawrence Beverage Co., of Methuen and was driven by Cirino Consoli of Methuen.

INTERNATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

are evacuated from a wide belt near the borders of Yugoslavia to prevent them from spying on the frontier maneuvers of the truculent Rumanian army. Lesser evictions are in Prague and Bratislava in Czechoslovakia and in Sofia, Varna and the Kulu district in Bulgaria.

The Bulgarian population shift is double-edged. City suspects are moved to the country. Property-owning peasants, who resist collectivization, are overtaxed. If they cannot pay the levy, their land is confiscated. Then, to save themselves from being forced into slave labor gangs, the refugees flee into Turkey, Greece and Yugoslavia.

These various new phases of genocide are repetitions of the horrible mass deportations that in three successive waves—1941, 1945-46 and 1949—depopulated the Baltic states. Hundreds of thousands of Lithuanians, Estonians and Latvians—men, women and children of all social classes, even deposed communists—today either are slaving in Arctic concentration camps or have died from over-work, hunger, cold or torture.

Such is the Red Vulture now posing as a dove of peace.

International Problems.

There is a right way to settle all international problems—the trouble is that too many nations are trying to avoid that way.
