$1,413,285 Sought In 1952 Town Warrant

Requests for nearly $1.5 million are contained in the departmental budgets and special articles that will be presented to the voters at the annual town meeting Mar. 10.

Departmental budget requests for 1952 total $1,283,560.04 and the special articles $129,725, a total of $1,413,285.04.

A year ago the requests presented at the town meeting were, departmental budgets $1,119,377.76 and special articles, $73,272. The appropriations voted were, departments $1,115,150.28 and special articles $46,972, a total of $1,162,122.28. The tax rate for 1951 jumped from $36 to $40.

The town warrant this year contains 46 articles, just six more than 1951 when the warrant was one of the shortest in recent years.

Some of the items are: To see if the selectmen will be authorized to develop "off street" parking at Shaw property; $400 to provide fireworks in observance of Independence day (sponsored by the Legion post); to accept as a public way and name Memorial Circle; to see if the town will vote all full time employees other than those appointed by the school committee accumulative sick leave of not over 30 days annually; to accept a general law allowing the town to appropriate money for the purchase of uniforms for the police and fire departments; $1500 for two new autos for the police department; $17,000 for a new pumping engine for the fire department.

Also one to authorize the board of public works to extend the 16-inch low water service main from its present dead-end to Bancroft road and to appropriate $55,000 for the project; of which $25,000 will be raised by taxation from the 1952 levy and $30,000 to be transferred from available funds.

All the articles in the town warrant are published today in full on page 12 of The Townsman.

Stores To Close All Day Feb. 22

The Andover board of trade at its meeting Tuesday night approved the closing of stores all day Friday, Feb. 22, Washington's birthday.

It was also decided to request all merchants to keep stores open every Friday evening until 9 o'clock. It was felt by doing so the public in time would realize that Andover stores are open Friday evenings and would patronize them in greater numbers.

The off-street parking situation was discussed at some length and

"Peeping Tom" Article Coming Before Voters

The first reading of one of the special articles in the town warrant seems to imply that the purpose is to make Peeping Toms out of members of the police department, but this is far from the intent of the measure.

The article asks the town to accept as a by-law a section of the General Laws which reads: "No person except an officer of the law in the performance of his duties shall enter upon the premises of another with the intention of peeping into the windows of a house or spying upon in any manner any person or persons therein."

The purpose of this article, Police Chief George A. Dane explains, is to give police officers sufficient authority to deal with any Peeping Toms who might be found on the prowl.

"The town has no law at present to cope with this type of case," said the chief, recalling that the lack of such authority has proved a handicap to the department in the few instances that came to the attention of the police in the past.

"Technically," said the chief, "we can't get anywhere now with such cases. This article is inserted in the town warrant for the purpose of protecting people from men of this type."

Adoption of this article would give no new authority to the police officers, Chief Dane says, as a police officer in the performance of his duties can do about anything to obtain evidence.

Will Make Changes For Natural Gas

Preliminary plans for the conversion of customers' appliances for the use of natural gas have been announced by William E. Casey, vice president and general manager of the Lawrence Gas & Electric Co.

Although the time when natural gas will be available is still a few weeks away, Mr. Casey said that many necessary changes must be made before it can be supplied. This preliminary work of enlarging burner ports of gas appliances will be done by experienced men carrying identification cards of Conversions and Surveys, Inc., the firm employed and authorized by the company to do the conversion work.

All that can be done in advance of the actual changeover will be completed in the work to begin about Feb. 18. When final adjustments are made, the time an appliance is out of service will be substantially reduced by this preliminary work.

Before the final changeover, all customers of the Lawrence Gas & Electric Co., will receive full information explaining the company's plans and giving the date when natural gas will be admitted into each neighborhood.

Scouts Observe 42nd Anniversary

All boy scout and explorer scout units embracing boys from 11 to 18 years of age were the invited guests of the Free church last Friday evening in a meeting in commemoration of the anniversary of the founding of the Boy Scouts of America.

Approximately 140 boys and leaders gathered for a program of songs, television and entertainment in the lower church at 8 p.m. Between 8:15 and 8:30 p.m. many of the churches of Andover rang their bells in unison with the ringing of the Liberty Bell at Philadelphia by a boy scout. The bell in Philadelphia was rung by the 19th

TO THE FRIENDS AND SUPPORTERS OF CHIEF DANE

Some of the Chief's friends are getting up a stag dinner in his honor at the Andover Country Club on Sunday evening, March 2, at 6:30 P.M.

No evening clothes, no head table, no "pomp and ceremony".

No written invitations are going to be sent out. This notice, in this Townsman, IS THE INVITATION to all the Chief's friends AND to all Andover citizens who may want to show their appreciation of the work that has been done by the Chief and the Chief's whole force. The charge will be $2.25 per plate, payable at the dinner. Your acceptance will have to be received before February 27 and should be communicated directly to the Andover Country Club by telephone (Andover 1263) or by mail. The meal itself will be served promptly by seven, but we hope you will feel like getting to the Club by 6:30.

The accomplishments of well organized crime (outside of Andover) have begun to worry all good citizens. Right now, therefore, in this winter of '51-'52, we thought that many citizens of Andover might well be interested in hearing to what extent OUR town has been exempt from energetic attempts to establish criminal activities in OUR midst, and to what extent such attempts have been succeeding.

Red Cross Gives Aid In Many Ways

"The story of the Red Cross begins and ends with people - people who want to help and those who need help brought together under the symbol of the Red Cross," David M. Thompson, Red Cross fund chairman said recently at a planning meeting of the campaign.

"The 250 volunteer workers now active on behalf of the campaign may think their assignments have no special importance and are rather humdrum, but the money these people help to raise may easily buy safety, the necessities of life, peace of mind, or even life itself for a sick person, a victim of disaster, or someone separated from home and family by a war."

Area meetings arranged by residential captains are continuing according to schedule, according to Mrs. Harold Johnson, residential chairman. The speakers' bureau, Miss Ruth M. Whitehill chairman, is filling engagements with various organizations. In this group are Mrs. G. G. Benedict, William S. Hughes, Roy E. Hardy and Harold Howe 2nd.

A meeting for all Red Cross first aid instructors has been scheduled for 7:30 o'clock tonight at Phillips Hall.

Professional Group To Give Concert

The Lawrence Symphonietta, a group of 26 professional musicians from this area, through the cooperation of the Musicians local, 372 and the Andover school department, will give a free concert in the Memorial auditorium at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 21.

A grant from the Music Performance Trust Fund of the recording industry has made this concert possible.

Dr. Charles A. Higgins is conductor of this organization which was formed last November. Miss Gertrude Farrington of Andover, is soprano soloist and Francis Cookson of Andover, is a member of the clarinet section of the group.

For the local program Dr. Higgins has chosen works of Schubert, Mozart and Delibes as well as selections from some of the better known operettas.

the state house. The youngsters were welcomed by Senator John W. Coddair Jr., of Haverhill and Rep. Frank S. Giles Jr., of Methuen. The group included Mrs. Eleanor Gaskill, wife of the West church pastor, Mrs. Dean Hudgins, Mrs. Karl Haartz, Mrs. Herman Seinwerth and Miss Mary Fielding, teachers.

PUNCHARD 42, STONEHAM 33
Punchard topped Stoneham 42 - 33 Tuesday afternoon at the Memorial gym. The locals built up a commanding lead over the first three periods and relaxed a bit toward the end while the visitors rolled up 15 points.

The big thrill of the afternoon, however, was the J.V. game which held the crowd breathless during two overtime periods when Stoneham managed to eke out a 41 - 39 victory.

PUNCHARD 35, JOHNSON 29

Punchard had its hands full in the hoop game with Johnson high at the auditorium last Friday night but managed to stay ahead in the last period to win 35 - 29.

The North Andover visitors jumped off to a fine start in the first period, but the Blue and Gold raced ahead in the second and increased its lead in the third period. Johnson put on a blazing finish in the last quarter and threatened right up to the final play.

In the J.V. Game Punchard won 36 - 14 from its Johnson rivals.

IN HOOP TOURNEY

An invitation to Punchard high's basketball team to enter the fifth annual small and medium schools tourney in Metropolitan Boston later this month has been accepted. Coach Ken McKiniry has named the following eligible players: Capt. James Dolan, Anthony C. Sullivan, James J. Murray, Raymond R. Yancy, Jack Carver, Alan Wilson, John D. Ross, Louis F. Pigeon, Paul L. Whitley and John R. Morocco. Don Worcester and Dick Bramley are student managers.

PUNCHARD GIRLS LOSE

The P.H.S. Girls' basketball team dropped a 54 - 14 decision to the Methuen Girls' team on the latter's court last Thursday. The Methuen girls, led by Capt. Pe Devine who scored 33 points, led all the way.

Boosters Sponsor Little League Team

The Andover Boosters club held its meeting last week earmark $300 to outfit the Andover baseball team in the Little League authorized Charles O. McCullough to order the equipment.

President J. Everett Collins presided while an appropriate resolution was being voted for the Andover Visiting Nurse Assn., Inc., as announced that the papers for the club's incorporation were near ready.

He then turned the meeting over to Mr. McCullough, chairman of the club's Little League steering committee, who briefed the members on the latest developments in the project.

He reported that young and old are showing great enthusiasm in the idea. The Lawrence area will have three leagues, each of five teams. Andover, North Andover, Methuen and Salem, N.H., will make up one of the leagues. The Andover team will be made up of regular team of 18 players and farm team of equal size.

Fathers and sons are invited to attend a discussion of the team in the auditorium Wednesday evening, Mar. 12.

The next meeting of the Boosters will be Wednesday, Feb. 20.

What Our Readers Say—

NEEDS FURTHER STUDY

Editor of the Townsman:
With town elections and town meetings near at hand, a further consideration of the League of Women Voters' educational committee report may be timely.
In the opening paragraph of the report we get the league's statement of principle regarding standards, as follows: "We want to be sure that our schools come to be the best that the town can afford." The implication that schools are now as good as we are paying for is unsupported, but I wouldn't challenge it. I would never like to ask whether any town's ability to pay is the criterion of excellence.

The town's ability to pay is an elastic and therefore an illusive thing. People grumbled no less when taxes were half what they are now and the day is apparently coming when they will be doubled. I believe we can and would pay more for our schools, not for the specious reason that we can afford it, but only because of a clearly demonstrated need in the capable execution of a soundly conceived and ably presented objective. Excellence demands far more than an open purse.

The league's objective is that we should educate the individual "so that he will be socially and politically responsible, mentally disciplined, and able to use fully his innate abilities." That sounds good even though I don't fully understand it. Whether we are doing a better job than was done in grandfather's day is not revealed in the report. Can today's youngsters think any straighter than their fathers or grandfathers did when in school? I hope so but I wouldn't know the answer. Have some gains been made in new fields at the expense of losses in others—the three R's, for example? If the league's researchers have evidence to show that we are turning out a better product, the people who are paying the bills are entitled to know it. The bare statement that "by these standards the Andover schools are good" raises more questions than it answers. And the league's accompanying

Special Teachers To Meet In Boston

The Massachusetts Special Class Teachers Assn., will hold its mid-winter conference at 10 a.m., Saturday, Feb. 23 in the Sheraton Plaza (Copley Plaza), Boston. The speaker will be Dr. William M. statement, that our schools can be proud of their students' excellent scholastic records in other schools, is according to the way I was taught to read, either a meaningless platitude or a false statement which can as easily mislead the public as it has already misled the writer of the Townsman story of two weeks ago.

I believe the public wants more basic information on so important a matter as our schools. The league's present report suffers from the need to condense. But cannot some way be found to share with the public a larger slice of the wealth of data collected during the educational committee's long scrutiny? The community may be more interested than even the committee realizes and can ill afford to be deprived of a longer version.

PARKING ON SIDEWALK

Editor of the Townsman:

Next to the sidewalk is the proper place to park. On top of the sidewalk, so as to obstruct the sidewalk, is not a proper place for either short-time or long-time parking. More than one person around Ballardvale has seemed to forget these facts.

I have in mind particularly a car which seems to make its permanent home on the sidewalk whenever it is not being driven. At the first plowable snowfall, the snowplow turned out into the street to pass this car and a telephone pole. At the second, the car was absent when the plow came, so the plow went right thru; but of course the plow made a passage walled in by walls of snow on both sides, and when the car came back it filled the whole passage so that one could not get past the car without stepping into the extra deep snow that the plow had thrown up. At the third, the plow succeeded in driving some snow up against the car, which might have been a good thing if it had driven up enough snow to inconvenience the car's owner, but there was not snow enough for that.

And yet that car could be set two or three yards off where it would not obstruct anybody and could be driven out into the street as easily as now. The car's owner may fear that he would thus obstruct a neighbor's right of way. But is the private right of way entitled to more respect than the public right of way? Besides, if the car were parked on one side of a small tree the right of way could pass on the other side, and nobody would be obstructed. And that right of way does not seem to be used in winter anyhow.

Steven T. Byington.

Woman's Club

A valentine buffet, sponsored by the ways and means committee of the Shawsheen Village Woman's club was enjoyed by 180 members of the club, their guests and friends Saturday evening at the Andover Country club. After a delicious smorgasbord dinner, general dancing was enjoyed and all in attendance agreed that this mid-winter affair, which has become a popular annual event, was most delightful.

Preservation of Antiques

The antique department of the club met at the Historical House Friday afternoon to hear a talk on the "Story of Wallpaper" by Miss Ruth Woodbury. She explained that before commercial wallpapers came into existence tapestries, fabric and leather were used as wall covering. The first wallpapers were hand blocked and hand colored, a much more tedious process than the machine printed papers of today. The tea table was decorated in a valentine setting with Mrs. George Weldon and Mrs. Herbert Cregg as hostesses.

Dramatic Department

The dramatic department of the club will meet at the Andover Country club at 2:30 p.m. Friday. Mrs. Katherine Plaisted will give a talk on the art of palmistry and will read as many palms as time will allow. Casting has been completed for the three-act play "Ladies Lounge" which will be presented in Memorial auditorium Mar. 21. Rehearsals are now in process with Mrs. William Edwards as director. The play will be not only a dramatic presentation, but a fashion show as well, with gowns for the production being provided by Ruth Hammond.

Ways and Means Committee

The ways and means committee of the club met at the home of the chairman, Mrs. G. Edgar Best, Argyle st., Monday evening. This committee is cooperating with the dramatic department for the production of the play and will handle all details of tickets, programs, publicity, ushering, etc.

many speakers favored several spots about the business center where parking areas could be located.

It was the unanimous opinion that the board would favor a proposal for parking space at Shaw property for 50 cars or less as some objection has been raised to parking a greater number as proposed by the plans prepared for the selectmen. The board will be represented at the town meeting to favor the smaller number.

Various committee reports were made and discussed. The membership committee will continue its drive for new members and the Christmas lighting committee hopes that those who have not yet seen in their contribution to this project will do so in the next week or two days.

WE BANISH FEAR

Pardon us, but we think we help make this town and this world a better place for a lot of people, because we drive out fears.

The insurance policies we write enable people to forget fear of losses by fire, wind-storm, burglary, theft, holdup, personal accidents, and damage suits for accidental injuries to people or property.

Cites Need For Extending New 6-Inch Water Main

Storm Cripples Bus, Power Service

A severe northeast blizzard that started Sunday crippled transportation service, damaged power lines and piled up huge drifts in all parts of town before it petered out early Monday afternoon.

Early Sunday morning a storm of about three inches of wet snow fell before it stopped about noon. Later in the afternoon the severe northeaster that paralyzed all New England causing 11 deaths, settled in and continued for about 24 hours leaving seven to eight more inches, a total of 10 or 11 inches in the two storms.

The second storm started off with wet snow and as the wind grew stronger and the weather colder it changed to dry snow which was wind-packed with the high wind.

The board of public works snow clearing crews were out all through Sunday and Monday and kept all streets open. The plow crews encountered some difficulty because of the different types of snow mixture on the highways, which were so hard packed in some places that the plow blades rode over them.

The blizzard was very heavy at different times. One crew working on Lowell street near Haggert's Pond road found the snow blowing so hard and so dense across the pond that they could not see the road.

During the operations Sunday one of the sidewalk tractor plows broke down in Shawsheen and the work of plowing sidewalks was not completed at that time.

Other minor difficulties were experienced by the workers but all during the day this sidewalk plow was the only one, BPW officials report, that was crippled.

In regard to the special article in the town warrant calling for the extension of the 16-inch low service main from Phillips and Main streets to the reservoir at Bancroft road, Sidney P. White, chairman of the board of selectmen, has issued the following statement:

The extension to the low service force main which the board of public works proposes to construct from Phillips street to the Bancroft road pumping station during the coming year is an important link in the town's water distribution system. The existing section of the main which extends from the present end of the 16-inch force main at Phillips street along Main

Chest Surveys To Start Feb. 25

Appointment cards were mailed yesterday to the 428 persons scheduled to be X-rayed on the opening day of the Andover X-ray survey, Monday afternoon and evening, Feb. 25, at the town house, according to Francis J. Rodericks, general chairman.

While the primary purpose of the survey is to find tuberculosis in the early stage when it is most easily cured, other chest conditions, if they are found, will be reported by the Massachusetts department of public health to family physicians, Mr. Rodericks said.

Any Andover residents who have not now been enrolled for their free chest X-rays should telephone Andover 525, the survey office in American Legion rooms at 2 Park st.

The second X-raymobile will be located at the Tyer Rubber Co. on opening day. It will move from there to Marland Mills Thursday, Feb. 28. The following week it will be at Shawsheen Mill for two days.

Off-Street Parking Essential To Andover

Start On Final Conversion To Natural Gas

In the biggest and most important gas project in the company's 100 year history, the Lawrence Gas and Electric Company will soon start the final and most important step in converting every gas appliance of the 35,000 customers in its territory to use natural gas, William E. Casey, vice president and general manager, announced today. A great deal of preliminary work has already been done in order to speed up the final conversion and thus reduce the inconvenience to customers.

Scheduled to start Mar. 3, this project will be one of the major steps in the vast changeover of the company's system to natural gas with a heat content of 1030 btu. At present the company's manufactured gas has a heating value of 528 btu.

These appliance adjustments will be made by several hundred specially trained conversion men. The complete operation will take about two weeks and should be finished about Mar. 17, according to Manager Casey.

In order to use this new fuel, all gas appliances in homes and business establishments in the Lawrence Gas and Electric company territory will have to be adjusted. These appliance adjustments will be made by the trained specialists of Conversions and Surveys, Inc., the largest conversion company in the country.

Chief Dane Dinner To Be "Different"

The stag dinner which a group of citizens are sponsoring in honor of Chief George A. Dane is going to be unique in more than one respect.

The exercises are going to be short and snappy. Only two speakers, the chief and Chairman Roy E. Hardy of the board of selectmen.

There will be no head table, no formalities. The meal will be served at the Andover Country club Sunday evening, Mar. 2, promptly at 7 o'clock. The committee asks those who attend to get to the club by 6:30 p.m.

There will be no invitations other than these announcements in the newspapers. Any Andover citizen who wants to show his appreciation of the work that has been done by the chief and the police department under him is welcome. All that is necessary is to telephone or write the Andover Country club before Feb. 27 and say you will attend.

What those present are going to hear from Chief Dane is not a "speech" but a lot of specific instances of what he and his force are up against in regard to crime.

It will be most interesting to a lot of local citizens. Many will be surprised to learn to what extent our town has been exempt from attempts to establish criminal activities here.

A fine dinner will be served and it promises to be a pleasant evening for all who attend.

At the regular meeting of the Andover Board of Trade, held on Tuesday evening, Feb. 12, at 8 p.m., a general off-the-record discussion was held concerning off-street parking. The group was three short of a quorum.

In the unanimous opinion of those present, off street parking is essential to the welfare of the town, the convenience and safety of the public, and the maintenance and growth of shops that meet the public needs.

In order to meet this need, the group decided that because of its central location, the Shaw property, so called, should be prepared as soon as feasible to accommodate 50 cars for free day-parking and that as soon as possible thereafter other areas near the business district should be made available. The group recommend more areas both for the better dispersion of traffic and so that shoppers can get as near as possible to the places of trade.

The board members voiced the opinion that the public would energetically support a program of off-street parking when they become aware of its effect on the tax rate, since a more active business life in the town lowers the proportionate part of the total tax which falls on the home owner. Retail business pays such a high proportionate part of the tax that any action which tends to improve it will eventually accrue to the public not only in the form of lower taxes, but also in shops with more complete stocks and more sanitary areas in the rear which present less of a fire hazard.

Want Shawsheen Bus Route Change

A change in the Boston-Lawrence bus line that now runs through Shawsheen Village is contemplated by the Eastern Mass. Street. Ry. Co.

G. F. Owrl, general manager of the company, appeared before the board of selectmen Monday night when a petition was presented to reroute the Boston busses in their trips between Andover and Lawrence.

The petition requests that the line that now runs through Main street and Union street in the village be changed to proceed from Elm square to Elm street and the North Andover line. The route (which would then be outside Andover) would continue to Wilson's corner and down the Den Rock road to Lawrence.

The board held the petition in abeyance and ordered a public hearing to be held at the town house at 7:30 p.m., Feb. 25.

Joseph E. O'Brien, on leave of absence from the police department offered his resignation as a member of the department effective Feb. 18, which the board voted to accept.

The Snow is Always Deeper . . .

Talk about old fashioned snowstorms! Grandpa would have been proud of that last "howler". I felt like a kid plowing through the light squeaky snow down to the station. Got inside and while I stamped the snow off I noticed that everybody was laughing and telling stories about the storm. Seems the snow was deeper in front of their house than in front of anybody else's. Lots of speculation about whether the train would be late. But Bill, he's a railroad fan from way back and always waits out on the platform watching for the train, grinned and yelled; "Here she comes, and boy, look at her!" We all went out and what a sight she was. All you could see at first was the top of the locomotive plowing through a big spray of fresh snow swirling up from the track. Then some of the cars, all outlined in white. Then the windows going by, streaked with melting snow, as the 8:08 pulled in about thirty seconds behind schedule. In a real cold spell she'll be held up a couple of minutes at each stop because there'll always be some people who'll wait in the station until the last minute before coming out to get on board. Got a seat next to the window and leaned back watching the new, white countryside go by. Nothing like the excitement of a fresh snowstorm. And nothing like a nice warm train to watch it from.

Phillips Students Prefer Eisenhower

Phillips Academy students and faculty showed an overwhelming preference for General Eisenhower in both the Republican nomination and the presidency in a straw poll conducted by the student newspaper, The Phillipian. For the Republican standard bearer, Eisenhower far outstripped the field, passing votes 405 to Senator Taft's 110. The rest of the Republican hopefuls straggled out far behind: Stassen 28; Warren 10; Lodge

The Democratic preference, though not as decisive, bespoke little confidence in President Truman who lagged in second place with 135 votes well behind the leading Estes Kefauver who racked up 229. Senator Paul Douglas trailed with 33.

For the presidency Eisenhower spread-eagled the field with a vote that more than doubled the combined total of all other candidates. The Presidential preference totals:

Eisenhower	376
Taft	90
Kefauver	34
Truman	23
Warren	8
Thurmond	7

Faculty opinion coincided with that of the students with General Eisenhower again far in front with 26 votes compared to Taft's 9 Stevenson's 5 and a scattering to other candidates.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

To Our Gas Customers In

ANDOVER

CONCERNING CONVERSION TO NATURAL GAS

On March 3, 1952, we expect to begin the final and most important step in changing over the gas appliances of all our customers to the use of natural gas. The changeover in Andover is planned to start March 7, 1952. A great deal of preliminary work has already been done in order to speed up the final conversion and thus reduce the inconvenience to customers. This will be the biggest and most important project we have ever undertaken. It will benefit both the customers and the Company so we ask your cooperation.

In order to bring this new fuel and its benefits to our customers, we plan to convert every gas appliance in the territory we serve — in every home, office, store and plant. Naturally, the costs of normal adjustments will be borne by the Company.

To use natural gas and enjoy its benefits all gas appliances must be adjusted. For this important work we have hired qualified conversion men. These experts will adjust your gas appliances to burn natural gas properly, safely and efficiently.

Since we serve nearly 35,000 customers in this area, this will be a huge engineering project. To keep the inconvenience to our customers at a minimum we have divided our territory into 15 districts. The conversion men will work from district to district until the job is completed.

We need your cooperation so that these conversion men can get into each home, office, store and plant. This is your most important responsibility during the entire changeover. It is absolutely necessary that these men be admitted to your home on the changeover days to make the necessary adjustments.

If for any reason you will not be able to admit the conversion man to your home on the changeover days please make arrangements with your neighbor or leave the key at our office. It is of utmost importance that gas appliances be converted on the appointed day.

Future newspaper announcements, folders and handbills will show what district you are in and the days on which your district will be converted.

IF YOU HAVE ANY QUESTIONS about the changeover to natural gas or the conversion of your gas appliances, please call our special conversion telephone number.

We will appreciate your cooperation and patience during the conversion.

WATCH FOR FUTURE ANNOUNCEMENTS and be sure to read all the instructive material we will send you.

Moderate Driving

A steady diet of "moderate driving" is recommended for a happy, healthy existence on today's highways. "Moderate driving" means driving neither too fast nor too slow and in keeping with speed limits, prevailing traffic flow, and weather conditions. Whether you're a habitual speeder or a slow poke, it is pretty likely that sooner or later the law of averages will catch up with you.

Studies of accident causes made by the Institute for Safer Living of the American Mutual Liability Insurance company indicate that driving too fast for conditions is not only the largest single cause of fatal traffic accidents, but also is a contributing violation in many other fatal automobile accidents. Slow drivers, too, account for their share of accidents.

Of the two classes of drivers, however, speeders are by far the most dangerous and produce the most violent types of accidents. An estimated 28 per cent of all drivers involved in fatal accidents during the past year were found to be over-driving their margin of safety.

Slow drivers tend to hamper normal traffic flow, particularly on main arteries, and as a result cause congestion and impatience on the part of other drivers. These factors set up a hazardous condition which may cause an accident to cars somewhere along the line of traffic. Sightseers or other drivers who prefer to drive unusually slow should confine their trips to lesser-traveled roads where traffic will not be hampered.

Destroying Free Enterprise

Karl Marx, the intellectual father of communism, devised a ten-plank platform whereby, he believed, the capitalistic or free enterprise economic system, with its right of private ownership of property, could be destroyed. Two of these plans dealt with taxation and ran as follows: (1) A heavy progressive or graduated income tax. (2) Abolition of all right of inheritance - that is, a 100 per cent inheritance tax.

We have not yet reached the entire communist objective, but we have come an ominously long way along the road. Today the tax on individual incomes runs to a high of 92 per cent - and its minimum is 22.2 per cent on incomes of not over $2,000. The corporation tax is 52 per cent, to which 30 per cent more is added for so-called "excess profits." And the inheritance taxes are very steep.

It is this situation which has stirred up so much support for a constitutional amendment to limit the taxing power of congress. The proposed amendment fixes the rate at 25 per cent, and provides that it can be raised to a higher level in the event of such an emergency as war. The whole idea is to force economy and efficiency on the government by constitutionally depriving it of excessive amounts of money. The cloth would have to be cut to fit.

Destruction of free enterprise and truly representative government can be accomplished by drying up the economic resources that maintain them. That is what our insane fiscal policy is doing now. John Marshall said it all when he said that the power to tax is the power to destroy.

What Our Readers Say —

THE L.W.V. REPORT

Editor of the Townsman:
In the report of their year-long scrutiny of our school system, the education committee of the League of Women Voters make three more statements with tantalizing brevity.

Many of your readers must have been surprised to learn that our new school buildings — not yet completed — will not provide enough space — and that an addition will have to be built on the Shawsheen school. It is only two years since this town accepted a survey, submitted in the fall of 1949, which runs counter to the League's findings. That survey analyzed future enrollments and recommended new construction, all of which has been voted in the belief that it would be adequate for the foreseeable future.

Regarding Shawsheen, the survey said "The Shawsheen school can accommodate the number of pupils presently enrolled together with estimated increases for some time to come". Could someone have miscalculated here? An explanation is obviously in order.

Concerning our teachers the report says that we expect and receive more from them than we give in financial security. If they mean that our teachers lack security, few of your readers will buy that.
And if they mean that our teachers are underpaid they should say so clearly and provide the supporting facts and figures. There is here an inevitable conflict between the town which wants a service at the lowest possible cost and the teachers who rightly offer their services for the highest price they can get. The committee's euphemism calls for clarity and evidence.

The school report closes with a remark to parents that the last applicant should be hired regardless of where he lives. I agree fully with that statement. I am surprised and disappointed that any individuals or groups in this town should bring pressure to bear to gain a favored status for any one at the expense of a better qualified candidate and of our children's education. This comes from a low-grade citizenship which puts personal interest above community interest and is a thoroughly despicable practice. If such a practice exists the League did well to call it to our attention, however briefly. We want no tariff wall against ability.

In general what Andover needs is more flesh to put onto the League's skeletonized report.
Dino G. Valz

(Editor's Note: This newspaper would welcome other opinions on the L.W.V. report, or on other items important to the town.)

Open Incinerators Cause Grass Fires

Incinerators without covers are blamed by fire officials for most of the 13 brush fire alarms they had to answer during the high wind Wednesday and Thursday of last week.

Burning papers, they claim, were blown from the incinerators and ignited grass bear by which spread quickly over the dry surface endangering several buildings.

In responding to an alarm Thursday the ladder truck and a car coming out of Railroad avenue were in collision near the railroad station. Both were slightly damaged. W. Gordon Coutts was operating the ladder truck and I. Theodore Freije of Duroso ave., Lawrence, was operating the other vehicle.

The forest fire hazard was so great in several parts of the state last week that several forest fire lookouts were put into operation. The hazard in this locality did not call for this emergency service. Sunday's blizzard put an end to the forest fire menace for some time.

How smart can a Wife get?

" . . . I don't know . . . but my wife can sure spot a bargain. She knows most people earn nearly twice as much today as they did in 1940. But she also says all her costs are up. Most things she buys for the family cost 2 or 3 times as much as they did then . . . but not our telephone. Telephone rates in Massachusetts are up on an average of only 17% (less than 1/5). So she figures — the telephone bill takes a smaller proportion of my paycheck than it did in 1940. And she's right!"

IT'S A BARGAIN THAT'S GROWING BIGGER

There are twice as many telephones today as there were in 1940 and more are being installed every day. There are a lot of new stores and businesses that you can reach by telephone — probably more of your friends have telephones now. And service is faster, better and more dependable.

Your telephone is truly Big in Value — Little in Cost.

CITES NEED TO EXTEND WATER MAIN street, South Main street, and Bancroft road to the reservoir is of 12-inch diameter and was installed in 1890.

Based on our experience with other sections of pipe of like age, it is to be expected that the effective diameter of this main has been reduced by tuberculation to at least the equivalent of an 11-inch pipe. This condition causes increased friction during pumping hours, which lowers the output of the pumps, and during the non-pumping hours it reduces the backflow thru this main from the reservoir to the central part of the town.

The consulting firm of Weston and Sampson made a comprehensive study of the Andover water system in 1944 and submitted a report to the town in January of 1945. One of the principal improvements recommended at that time was the installation of a new and larger force main from Haggetts Pond station to the intersection of Main Street and Phillips street, and from Phillips street via Central street to the square.

This work was done in two stages during 1945 and 1946 at a total cost of about $300,000. As next in importance in its effect on the downtown distribution system, it was recommended that the force main be extended to the reservoir. This project has been placed before previous town meetings; but has not been voted upon favorably. However, the board of public works continues to feel that this extension is of great importance to the town and that it should again be considered at this time.

The demands of the town as it continues to grow place an increasing load on the pumping and storage facilities of the water system. Under certain conditions of use it is impossible at present to supply an adequate quantity of water to the center of town when the pumps are shut down. The installation of the proposed 16-inch extension will double the quantity of water presently available to the distribution network under gravity flow and will also furnish the added protection of an auxiliary line between the center of town and the reservoir.

The new and larger line, which will be of cement lined cast iron pipe, will reduce the pumping friction losses during the hours when the reservoir is being filled. While it is difficult to accurately forecast the potential savings due to more efficient pumping, because of the many variables involved, it is not unreasonable to expect the annual saving in power costs to be on the order of $800.

In addition to the above stated major benefits to be obtained by present construction, it should be further considered that this extension is an integral part of the overall water improvement program. Its importance and necessity will become more and more apparent as time goes on, and ultimately it will have to be constructed. At the present writing it is estimated that the construction cost will be $55,000. The cost trend of such work has been rising steadily since the last war and it is reasonable to assume that this trend will continue. Hence the board feels that in terms of dollars this proposed extension will never be constructed any cheaper than it is presently estimated.
