Town Rapidly Recovering From Hurricane Damage

Schools Open With Record Attendance

The Andover public schools opened yesterday and today with a record attendance of 2340 pupils. This is 198 more than the number on the opening day last year. It is expected that these figures will be further increased next week by others who have not yet returned from summer vacations.

The eighth and ninth grades of junior high started their first sessions today, only the seventh grade, made up of the pupils entering for the first time, reported yesterday.

The attendance figures compared with those of the opening day last year are:

	1954	1953
Punchard	353	354
Junior high	471	376
Central	836	714
Shawsheen	333	312
West	198	250
Bradlee	149	136
	2340	2142

The figures for the Central also include the Stowe school. It may be noted that the attendance at Central also includes the fifth and sixth grades of the West school which have been transferred to the center of the town because of the overcrowded condition of the West school.

St. Augustine's
St. Augustine's school opened yesterday without lights but with a new high enrollment figure of 465, an increase of 40 pupils over the opening day a year ago.

A dismal, overcast day made classroom work almost impossible without lights but pupils remained at their desks and school will continue to remain open despite this handicap.

Junior Gardeners Win Fair Awards

All of the 12 members of the Andover Junior Garden club who submitted exhibits in the Topsfield fair won first prizes in the judging

The town is rapidly recovering from the widespread damage caused by the August 31 hurricane.

Hundreds of trees felled across streets have been removed, power and phone lines in most places have been restored, damaged roofs are being repaired and many of the torn branches of trees and leaves that were piled high on the sides of streets have been carted away or burned.

Perhaps the greatest immediate effect of the storm on most homes was the loss of electric power which cut off light, refrigeration and the use of many household appliances. Foods spoiled and the great demand for ice sent householders scurrying to various nearby communities for supplies.

Many food stores in this area remained open last Sunday to accommodate residents without refrigeration.

Lack of street lights and of telephone service in many homes added to the great inconvenience of all.

To clear up the mess left by the storm the board of public works, the Lawrence Electric company and the New England Tel. & Tel. Co., put all available forces and a large number of extra crews to work repairing the damage.

The board of public works hired about 60 extra men making the town's total force about 85. The utility companies brought in numerous repair crews and equipment from many eastern states.

Besides all of its regular equipment the board of public works engaged seven additional trucks with the extra men and the tree

United Fund Campaign Being Organized Here

A group of local citizens interested in the United Fund plan of raising money for community projects and other worthy causes met Tuesday evening to organize a campaign for Andover under the chairmanship of Selectman Stafford A. Lindsay.

Present at this meeting were Roy E. Hardy, James R. Adriance, the Rev. A. Graham Baldwin, Kirk R. Batcheller, Eugene A. Bernardin Jr., Frank J. A. Humphrey and Charles B. Cottrell. They were joined by Dr. Milton J. Meyers and Victor J. Mill Jr., co-chairmen of the United Fund of Greater Lawrence, and Thomas O'Leary, executive secretary of the fund. Atty. Vincent F. Stulgis is also a member of the local committee.

Preliminary plans for Andover to participate in this "one-shot" plan of solicitation were discussed and plans made for another meeting Thursday, Sept. 16.

Local Candidates In State Primaries

All of the town's six voting precincts will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. for the state primaries Tuesday, Sept. 14.

While at the present time there seems to be little interest in the nominations local residents will follow the contests in which several Andover residents are entered.

Foremost among these are the contests for county treasurer in which J. Everett Collins, chairman of the board of selectmen and now completing his 14th year as representative, is entered on the Republican ticket with four other candidates; and the contest for

Find Body Of Man

Dead Several Days

The body of a former Methuen man was found Monday night in his apartment on Punchard avenue where he had been living for about two months.

Police identified the victim as Dundonald Goudie, 49, Associate Medical Examiner Paul A. Oskar reported he was the victim of a self-inflicted rifle wound.

Eric Hulme, a downstairs tenant at 9 Punchard ave., discovered the body and notified police headquarters about 8:30 p.m., after checking the man's living quarters when he saw a Saturday newspaper had not been taken in.

Sgt. James R. Lynch notified police cruisers and they responded with Patrolmen Calvin Deyermond, Roy A. Russell, Raymond Collins and Richard Caldwell.

The body was found on a couch and the medical examiner reported that a .22 calibre rifle found nearby had apparently been put up to the mouth and fired. He judged the man had been dead two or three days.

Police said they notified the man's wife who was visiting in New Jersey.

Storm Sends Sea Birds To Lake

A flock of sea birds, seldom seen in the Andover region, was observed on Lake Cochichewick, North Andover, on Tuesday by Oscar M. Root, biology instructor at Brooks school. Three species of terns, the Common, Roseate, and Black, along with an immature Bonaparte's Gull, were actively engaged in diving for food close to Great Pond rd. at Flatt's Bridge. The Black Tern, of which there were two, is a western bird which occurs only occasionally along the Atlantic coast, while the other birds are found commonly at Newburyport and other eastern seaboard points. These birds were presumably blown inland by the hurricane of Aug. 31. The Roseate and Black Terns were first records for this area. The numbers of birds counted follow: Common Tern 75; Roseate Tern 10; Black Tern 2; Bonaparte's Gull 1.

What Our Readers Say—

August 30, 1954
Mr. Irving E. Rogers, Publisher
Andover Townsman
Andover, Mass.
Dear Sir:

It is my strong conviction that any questions asked by a Red Cross Contributor or Member should receive my immediate attention and also the fullest and frankest answers possible because contributors really own our organization and as owners they have the right to know what keeps our Red Cross Chapter ticking.

The anonymous letter writer in the Townsman of Aug. 26th should first be informed of some of the vital statistics of the Andover Red Cross Chapter for the past Red Cross year, July 1, 1953 to June 30, 1954, so as to better understand my answers to his questions.

The Andover Chapter supplied 231 pints of blood to Andover residents. As you undoubtedly know, blood generally costs approximately $25 a pint, if purchased in a hospital, yet our Chapter supplied this blood to local people at no cost whatsoever. Thus blood costing $5,775 to the individual beneficiaries was supplied by our Chapter at less than $550 which expenditure included other phases of the blood program.

These other phases included sponsorship of the Bloodmobile visits to Andover. Thanks to the generosity of the Andover people, these visits have been uniformly successful with about one out of every 14 adults giving a pint of blood - indeed a great record of which we can all be very proud. Four-hundred-sixty volunteers worked a total of 3,368 hours to help the Bloodmobile visits. In addition, the Red Cross Canteen served coffee and refreshments to 1,630 people at the blood visits as well as at the Bedford Hospital.

Our Motor Service drove a total of 11,773 miles to aid Veterans and citizens of Andover. These included the transportation of 419 patients to hospitals, civilian, military and veterans: the regular transportation of the blind to their reading circle and the arrangement of a number of motor trips for Bedford Veterans.

Two-hundred eleven Andover Servicemen and their families receive service from the Red Cross (communications, counseling and financing). Seven Andover families were served by financial assistance, counseling and reports; 39 sick and confined citizens were made more comfortable by the loan of hospital beds, crutches, wheel chairs and other hospital equipment all owned by our Chapter.

Three boys were sent to National Red Cross Aquatic School at South Hanson, Mass. to return as instructors at Pomp's Pond where they certified 72 children in Water Safety and Swimming.

Twenty-seven persons were trained in Senior Life Saving at Phillips Andover and an additional 14 trained in Advanced Survival Swimming Instructors Course at Phillips.

Eighty-three individuals were trained during the year in either standard, advanced, or junior first aid with an additional 12 trained in Home Care of the Sick. Twelve Nurses Aides were given a refresher course to prepare them for Volunteer service to the hospitals.

From our Chapter, 31 Veterans at Bedford Hospital received one afghan, 15 pairs of socks, 15 pairs of bedsocks, all hand-knit by Andover women. Three-hundred veterans at the Hospital received birthday remembrances during Andover Supply Month which was made possible through the contributions of 21 local organizations and residents.

One-hundred ten veterans per week are benefited by the rehabilitation training and service programs of our Chapter with five Gray Ladies giving 1264 hours of service to the hospital. I take my hat off to these women.

Our Junior Red Cross Chapter, which is highly aggressive and wide-awake, also contributed production items which were enjoyed by 350 patients at the Hospital.

Only a person who has had the opportunity of visiting Bedford hospital can fully comprehend the great work that the Red Cross performs for the Veterans confined at this hospital. This hospital treats the mentally ill veterans of our wars - it is a great institution staffed by extremely competent men and women who welcome the support of the Red Cross - and I think this will interest you - 19 volunteers gave 511 hours to complete garments for hospitalized veterans, all of which was done at little cost to our chapter.

This, by no means, describes the full extent of our work at the Andover Chapter but it does, I think, give you some of the highlights of our very active chapter and it demonstrates the multiplicity of our interests. As Chairman of this Chapter, I am greatly indebted to all the unselfish men and women and particularly the women for their unselfish devotion. These volunteers are the very heart of our chapter. You might be interested to know that the Andover Red Cross Chapter has 161 volunteers working on a regular basis as well as an additional 829 working during fund and blood campaigns, and only one paid worker. Naturally, these volunteer workers must be guided and directed and our chapter is fortunate in having Miss Barbara Loomer as our paid secretary. Any person who has been intimate with the activities of the Red Cross in Andover is fully aware of her unusual administrative abilities. She is conscientious in her work and if one could check her work week they would find that only a person devoted to Red Cross work would put in the work hours she does for the good of our chapter.

Against this background, I should like at this point to answer your questions.
1. Your first question speaks about a "kitty" or a reserve. I assume that you are referring to the Downs Fund which amounts to $7500 - this bequest was made to our chapter some years ago and the bequest is restricted in that the principal must be kept intact - however the income from the $7500 may be used for general purposes.
2. $13,352.31 was collected in the 1953 campaign for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1954.
We remitted to the American National Red Cross $6,885.16 Retained in the Chapter, $6467.15
By previous decision, from unexpended balance and reserves 2600.00.

Resuming The Routine

With the children now back in school, the general pattern of living takes on a new aspect. Everyone becomes more active. The leisure of summer is over, not only for the school children but also for their parents. For the greater part of the week, the clock on the wall becomes a stern master. It must be obeyed each day by every member of the family. The reopening of school annually marks the time when life's regular routine must again be taken up and followed until another joyous spring and summer rolls around.

While "all work and no play" is bad for the human system, conversely "all play and no work" would not be beneficial to body or soul. It's the right quantities of both that make for happiness.

Some children were probably not too anxious to return to their studies at summer's end, but neither was Dad happy to see the end of his vacation arrive after a couple of weeks of lolling around. Once back in harness, the routine becomes more bearable. The summer season had its rewards for everyone, both young and old. Of course some of the youngsters were probably disappointed that hurricane "Carol" didn't come a week later and provide a holiday or two from school. Yet they may receive encouragement from the knowledge that every day spent in the class room is one day nearer to another June and another vacation.

The grand days of Indian summer are just ahead. This season has been improving every year in New England and after the cold spring of the current year, nature may provide a bounty in warm sunshine before the chill days of fall arrive.

In the offing also is the World Series and the annual spirited football season. Before one realizes it, Thanksgiving will be with us and after that those gay days of the approaching Christmas season. Yes, school is back in session and the pace of living becomes more regulated. But there's much to look forward to, thank the Lord.

So long as there are people who strive to get something for nothing there will be many others who can live without working.

EASY-TO-TAKE DRUGS

By Science Features

"Taking your medicine" is no longer the unpleasant task it used to be. For drugs nowadays come in various sizes, forms and flavors that make them as easy as possible for the patient to use. Only the doctor can decide which dosage form of a drug is best for a specific illness but he does take into consideration the patient's ease, taste and convenience.

For example, many antibiotics are prepared as flavored liquids — penicillin comes in peach, terramycin in raspberry — to taste almost like candy and be readily accepted by children. Sugar-coated tablets and capsules are two other easy-to-take forms that the adult patient can painlessly swallow.

When a doctor wants a high blood level of a drug quickly—usually with hospitalized patients—he may inject it directly into a vein. For out-patients this concentration was almost impossible to obtain with any wide-range antibiotic. Recently the situation was remedied with the development of an intramuscular form of terramycin, which gives the proper quantity in a simple manner.

Troches are good for high concentration of a drug in local mouth or throat infections. They dissolve slowly, giving prolonged contact between the medication and the infected area. On the other hand, some tablets are designed to dissolve very quickly when placed in liquid—excellent for use in infant formulas. The modern pharmaceutical laboratories work constantly to equip the doctor with drugs that are the most medically effective—and the most pleasant for the patient.

North District Group To Meet

At a recent meeting of the key members of the North District Improvement Association, a varied and constructive program for the ensuing year was planned. Officers for the 1954-55 season are: Mrs. Stanley Chlebowski, president; Mrs. Lionel Boulanger, vice-president; Mrs. Bruno Skiba, secretary; and Mrs. Philip Holmes, treasurer.

The following committees will serve: refreshments, Mrs. Stanley Chlebowski, Mrs. Edward Fortuna; membership, Mrs. Frank Robinson, Mrs. Edward Fortuna, Mrs. Lionel Boulanger; flowers, Mrs. Albert Rettele, Mrs. Ernest Gaudet; publicity, Mrs. Raymond Cooper.

The first meeting will be held Thursday evening, Sept. 30 at 6:30 p.m. at the North school on River rd. A supper will be served for members and prospective members.

Down the Years with The Townsman

50 Years Ago — September 1904
All the public schools will open Monday.

Complaints are still being made regarding the excessive speed of automobiles on streets of the town. Notices posted recently are being disregarded by many drivers.

The police are very active in their endeavor to rid the sidewalks of bicycle riders. Many arrests have been made and the offenders, rich and poor alike, fined.

Candidates for the P.A. football team will report for practice Thursday.

Lamps were used while a quoit march was played on the flagpole lot in Abbot Village Wednesday evening by members of the Village Quoit club. The lamps were a pronounced success.

The Pacific Mills pays the largest tax in Lawrence, $72,160.

An agreement has been reached between the BPW and the City of Lawrence to sell Andover water to Lawrence. Many local citizens are astounded at this report. "Andover's water supply," we say editorially, "is a monument to the far sighted judgment of 20 years ago. It is for Andover, and for Andover alone, and we can see no reason nor wisdom in going into the business of selling water for a profit to other cities and towns."

A new record for getting water on a building was established by the Andover Steam Fire Engine Co. at the regular practice Wednesday night. From the time the hose wagon left the engine house and arrived at the hydrant at Morton and Bartlet streets, via Main and Morton streets, just two minutes elapsed, and in one minute more 600 feet of hose with pipe had been laid. In one minute and a half more water was produced. This made a record of four and a half minutes. The engine left the house just after the hose wagon and went via Park and Bartlet streets. Six minutes afterwards there was 20 pounds of steam and the engine was pumping.

On the P.A. campus Labor day morning the game between the Andover A.A. and Ballardvale in the town championship series was awarded 2-0 to Andover when the visiting team failed to resume play after disputing a decision of the umpire. Saturday afternoon the Unions defeated Ballardvale 3-2 in a hotly contested game. Ballardvale won 8-2 over the West Lynn team Monday afternoon on the Plains.

25 Years Ago — September 1929

At the height of Tuesday's storm a goose that escaped from the Phillips academy sanctuary started walking down the middle of Main street, tying up traffic at various points despite the honks of auto horns sounded by impatient motorists.

Punchard high opened Wednesday with an enrollment of 55 seniors, 66 juniors, 90 sophomores, and 94 freshmen, a total of 305. The 1928 enrollment was 317.

The Eastern Massachusetts company is using busses between Stimpson bridge and Andover Hill while the street car rails on North Main street are torn up for reconstruction of the street.

Summer activities on the playgrounds closed Friday with a program in which 228 youngsters took part under the direction of Miss Margaret Davis, supervisor, and James Bisset, her assistant.

Two false alarms were rung in early Sunday morning. Box 25 was rung at 1:18 a.m., and Box 46 came in at 4:13 a.m.

Fritz Kreisler will open the musical season at Phillips academy with a violin recital Oct. 2.

The Pomp's pond committee has voted to close the public swimming beach Saturday for the season.

10 Years Ago — September 1944

The Andover Town team on its first barnstorming trip gained victories over the Conomatics of Windsor, Vt., at the Lancaster, N.H., fair and the Lebanon, N.H., Cardinals, defeating the former 2-1 and the latter 9-4.

Abbot will begin its 116th year next Tuesday with a maximum enrollment of 181 girls.

The Red Cross mobile unit will collect blood here Sept. 27, 28 and 29.

The Andover Servicemen's Fund house-to-house drive for funds starts Saturday, Sept. 9 and runs through Sept. 16. Stafford A. Lindsay is chairman of the fund drive, J. Everett Collins chairman of the special gifts committee, and John Erving chairman of the house-to-house canvass.

Everett M. Lundgren, 59, well known local funeral director, died Sept. 8 at the family home on Elm st.

The playgrounds closed for the season at the Central playground Friday with a candlelight service in memory of those serving in the armed forces.

One of the many crews which the board of public works employed to remove trees is shown here working where three giant elms were felled in front of the

The lawn covered with sections of a fallen elm, the sidewalk lifted several feet by the uprooted stump, and fallen wires pulled up off the roadway and attached temporarily to a utility pole, this section of Elm street at Carmel road is typical of the hurricane damage that was repeated scores of times in every section of the town. (Look Photo)

Uprooted by the hurricane last week a giant elm toppled over and came to rest on the home of Arthur Flynn on Summer street at the corner of Whittier street. Another tree on this lot was blown across Summer street. (Look Photo)

Split in half by the fury of the storm was this giant elm tree on Lowell street which crashed to the ground across the highway. (Look Photo)

These are the Cash Collections and Disbursements. They provide no reflection of the innumerable services, time and materials provided by the Volunteer Workers which, if accounted for in a business-like manner by charging so many dollars per hour of labor and so many dollars for the material involved, would add considerably to the dollar value of our collections and services.

3. You ask why we can't have one Red Cross Chapter for Greater Lawrence. You can if you think Andover would be better served by a Greater Lawrence Chapter, but our directors feel strongly that we can serve the people of Andover more efficiently as we are now set up.

4. I do not believe that a Greater Lawrence Red Cross Chapter could save in Administrative costs if Andover is going to be served the way it has been in the past. Certainly to carry out the Andover work, it would require additional help in Lawrence at little or no savings in cost over those presently incurred by our independent Andover Chapter.

But even more important, I believe, is the Greater benefits to Andover residents themselves, arising from the existence of our independent Chapter which assures each contributor that his dollar is used for the benefit of Andover townspeople and their responsibilities without dilution — except for the assessment by the National Headquarters.

I have attempted to be as frank as possible in answering your anonymous letter. I trust that the above information will be satisfactory. However, if any doubts or questions remain, I urge you to visit me at our Chapter Office where I should be happy to give further details.

I hope you and every other contributor, anonymous or otherwise will feel free to ask questions about the Andover Red Cross Chapter. Our records are public property and we are glad to show them to any contributor. We feel certain that anybody who takes the time to examine them will find that their monies have been wisely and judiciously expended for the welfare and help of the people of Andover.

Sincerely,
Leo Daley
Chapter Chairman

ON FINANCE BOARD
Mrs. Robert D. Mayo, Dascomb rd., Ballardvale, has been named neighbor-to-neighbor chairman of the Andover Republican finance committee according to an announcement from the state headquarters in Boston.

Tractors are the largest single farm users of petroleum fuels. The average farm tractor is used approximately 800 hours annually, and in a greater variety of ways than ever before.

New Teachers At Pike School

Pike school on Hidden rd., will re-open, Wednesday, Sept. 15, with a nearly capacity enrollment of 140. Most remaining vacancies are in the nursery, kindergarten and first grade.

Additions to the faculty include, Mrs. Frederick B. Noss, a graduate of Mt. Holyoke college who will teach the second grade, and Mrs. Glen Grant, a graduate of Sarah Lawrence college will teach the fourth grade. She was an apprentice teacher at Shady Hill school in Cambridge before her marriage and has this summer completed an intensive teacher training course at Lowell Teachers' college.

Miss Alice Hopkins, who has retired from the Andover public school system, will rejoin the Pike staff as remedial reading teacher. A graduate of Boston Normal school, she has also studied at Harvard and Boston university and taught in Winchester and at Eaglebrook school in Deerfield.

Mrs. Allan Gillingham will assist Mrs. Alan Blackmer with the expanded French program to be offered in all grades through the fifth. Mrs. Gillingham graduated from Memorial college in Newfoundland where she later taught secondary school French. She has also taught in England.

ANDOVER BAPTIST CHURCH

Having returned from a month's vacation Rev. Roy E. Nelson, Jr., pastor of the Andover Baptist church recently released some of his sermon subjects for the months of Sept. and Oct.

The general theme will be "Protestants, Know Your Faith!"
In this series Mr. Nelson will seek to answer questions as to why we are Protestants. Subjects include:
Sept. 12, "Protestantism's Beginnings;" Sept. 19, "Only One Way to Redemption;" Sept. 26, "Why Protestants Go to Church;" Oct.
3, "All One Body, - We!" Oct. 10,
"Lait Leadership;" Oct. 17,
"The Bible and Infallibility;"
Oct. 24, "Living Up to Your Faith;" Oct. 31, "Too Many Lost
Week Ends."

New sanctuary windows were installed in the church during the month of August.

Reopening Sunday for the Church
School will be on Sept. 12 at 9:30 a.m. There will be classes for all ages; including an adult women's class and a men's Bible class.
Lessons will be based upon the Holy Bible.

The general theme for the early
Fall season at the local Baptist Church will be "Christ in Every Home - including Your Home and Mine." The church, in every organization, will emphasize the need of every Baptist family becoming actively engaged for Christ.

Wedding...VIETS - MORSE

At a 3 o'clock ceremony Saturday in St. Monica's church, Methuen, Miss Kathleen Theresa Morse, daughter of Mrs. Frank Morse, 46 Oakland ave., Methuen, and the late Frank Morse, became the bride of Wando A. Viets Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Wando A. Viets Sr., of Dascomb rd. The Rev. Francis Delaney officiated before an altar arranged with white gladioli. Mrs. Albin Seyffert and Mrs. Alfred Augeri were the soloists with Edward Walsh organist.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Francis J. Morse, wore a gown of Chantilly lace over satin fashioned with an insert of pleated nylon tulle on the front of the gown. Her fingertip veil of imported illusion fell from a headpiece of satin trimmed with orange blossoms and seed pearls and she carried an arrangement of stephanotis centered with an orchid.

Mrs. Edwin J. Dzioba of Lawrence, sister of the bride, as matron of honor, wore a gown of hunter green which combined a velvet bodice with a skirt of nylon tulle over taffeta. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Francis J. Morse, sister-in-law of the bride, Mrs. Alfred J. Nicholson, sister of the bride, and Miss Patricia A. Quinlan, all of Methuen wore similar gowns in coral and all carried mixed colonial bouquets.

Andrew C. Morse of Methuen, brother of the bride, was the best man and the ushers were Edwin J. Dzioba of Lawrence, brother-in-law of the bride, Raymond E. Braun, cousin of the bride, and Alfred J. Nicholson, brother-in-law of the bride, both of Methuen.

A reception in the Merrimack Valley Golf club followed the ceremony with many guests present.

After a wedding trip to Wolfboro, N.H., the couple will reside at 46

Oakland ave., Methuen.

The bride is a graduate of Edward F. Searles high school, Methuen and the bridegroom is a graduate of Roosevelt high school, Yonkers, N.Y. He is an army veteran of World War II and is associated with the Victor Coffee company.

End Grappling Hooks To Lowell

The Andover fire department at the request of Lowell police sent 15-foot pole-type grappling hooks to Lowell Tuesday morning for several workmen on the new bridge at Hunt's Falls were thrown to the river by the snapping of a cable on a steel cage suspended from a power lift. Deputy Chief H. Lester Hilton and Fireman Woodrow Crowley made the trip in the jeep and delivered the poles. They did not take part in the grappling.

TOWN RECOVERING FROM HURRICANE

warden's division sent out 11 saw crews of three men each with graders and tractors. Trees that blocked the streets were sawed into several pieces and with the aid of the bulldozers and other power equipment pushed back to the sides of the streets and roadways.

Chairman Sidney P. White stated that by nightfall of the following day employees of the department had a path through all but three streets of the town.

The trees and branches piled on the side of the roads are still being removed, some to the town dump on Chandler road and others to the old High street dump. The work was carried on under the direction of Stanley Chlebowski, foreman, and members of the board of public works.

Only two minor injuries have so far been reported in the clearing-up work by the department. Walter Baker of Baker lane, a regular member of the department, was hit in the eye with a flying stick, and John Morgan of Morton st., an extra man, received a cut on the leg from a chain saw.

Phone Situation

In Andover, as of today, except for some isolated cases, services will be restored to pre-storm normalcy, Frank P. Desmond, manager of the Lawrence - Andover area announced today.

Since Tuesday of last week, when the hurricane hit this area, the telephone employees have been working from dawn to dusk in an effort to restore service. The local repair forces have been augmented with crews from the western part of Massachusetts, Vermont, New York, New Jersey, Maryland, Washington, D.C., and Virginia.

In the Massachusetts area at one time there were over 150,000 telephones out of order and 250 exchanges out of service by the hurricane.

Andover has 5500 telephones and at one time there were over 500 telephones out of order. Material and supplies were shipped from the Western Electric company, the suppliers to the Bell system, on an around the clock basis and with the exception of the rain last Friday evening the work has not been deferred.

Those customers, where service was interrupted by this storm, will receive an adjustment for the out of service period as a credit on an early bill.

Now that the restoration work has been completed may we again thank our customers for their patience and understanding. The cooperation from the town officials, other utility companies and tree servicemen was outstanding during this emergency.

Restoring Power

An official of the Lawrence Electric company stated that 28 extra line crews have been brought into the Greater Lawrence area from New York, Pennsylvania and all the other New England states to repair the widespread damage caused by the hurricane.

Crews have been working around-the-clock ever since the storm a week ago last Tuesday. Two electrical storms have set the repair work back several hours but all are attempting to have normal power service restored by tonight. Any further setbacks by storms may delay the completion of this work until Friday noon. Repair work will continue as fast as possible until it is finished.

Declare Emergency

The selectmen met immediately after the storm and declared an emergency. They made a quick estimate that $30,000 would be needed right away to take care of the immediate necessity of clearing trees from the road and sent a request to Herman B. Dine director, division of accounts at the state house, for permission to take this amount from available funds to establish an emergency fund account.

As for a future clean-up of stumps uprooted and left in the roadways and on sidewalks it is expected that action will depend upon what the legislature does on that subject in the present emergency session. The same applies to the removal of trees from private property.

In order to take out the large stumps, some weighing as much 10 tons, it will necessitate the use of powerful machinery and special equipment to haul them away and to unload them at the dump.

There is a possibility that federal or state funds will be allotted for this work.

Storm Notes

The first storm payroll for labor alone up to Tuesday night this week amounted to $3741.07.

At the beginning of the storm the town hired all of the power saws it could get, but since then has bought four units at a cost of $1250.

TELEPHONE SERVICE NOW RESTORED IN MASSACHUSETTS

Last week 150,000 telephones in over 250 telephone exchanges located in Massachusetts were put out of service by the hurricane.

This was 8 per cent of the telephones normally served in this state.

Normal service has now been restored.

The work that was done over the long weekend permitted us to finish the restoration job that was started even before the storm was over.

If by any chance your service has not been restored, or is not working satisfactorily, please notify Repair Service, so that we may get at it immediately.

Those customers whose service was interrupted by this storm will receive an adjustment for the "out of service" period as a credit on an early bill.

Now that the restoration job has been completed, may we again thank our customers for their patience and understanding; all public officials for their prompt assistance; other utility companies for their cooperation and all telephone employees for their outstanding performance during this emergency.
