Evangelist Talks On Communism

Last Sunday evening the public evangelistic services continued in the November club auditorium, when Evangelist John Hayward presented the topic, "Will Russia Rule the World?"

John Hayward, the young evangelist, returned to Andover last Sunday to present the second in the series of Bible lectures. Plans are to continue these services each Sunday evening until the middle of December.

In his message for the evening, Mr. Hayward stated, "As the dark cloak of communism overshadows more and more of the nations of the world, the question uppermost in the mind of man is 'Will Russia succeed where Hitler failed?' God answered this question twenty-five hundred years ago, and it is recorded in the second chapter of Daniel the prophet. This amazing prophecy predicted the rise and fall of the great world empires from ancient Babylon right down to the present time. God predicted that after the fall of the Roman Empire no one nation or power would ever dominate the nations of western Europe again, let alone the whole world."

Evangelist Hayward concluded his discourse by stating, "Despite the fact that communism and the U.S.S.R. present a major world problem, Russia is doomed to fail just as did Charlemagne, Charles V, Napoleon, Kaiser Wilhelm and Adolph Hitler. This prophecy of God's word has never failed and never will."

Next Sunday the third service of the series will be held at 7:30 p.m. in the November club auditorium, as Mr. Jayward presents the subject, "What and Where Is Heaven?", based on Scriptural teaching concerning the eternal home of the redeemed.

FREE CHURCH CHOIRS SEEN IN NEW ROBES

A group of women, who by their labors, had outfitted the choristers with new robes and surplices.

Starting last winter and continuing during the summer the women met frequently to complete their task and all who helped were repaid by the shining faces and beautiful singing of the children, proud of their appearance Sunday morning in the new robes. Money for the project was supplied by the Women's Union.

All who hear the choirs of the Free church are impressed with the fine work done by Donald L. Amy, church organist and choir director. More than 40 children between the ages of nine and 15 practice faithfully every week under his direction and gain much spiritual and practical benefit as well as increased musical knowledge.

Mrs. Alexander Black and Mrs. A. Warren Sandberg headed the group of women who made the robes. Among the most regularly attending workers were: Mrs. James Souter, Mrs. Edwin Leidich, Mrs. Gordon Thompson, Mrs. David MacDonald Sr., Mrs. David Reynolds, Mrs. Alexander MacKenzie, Mrs. Edmund Sorrie, Mrs. Robert Domingue and Mrs. Thomas Chadwick. Nominee List Same After Recount

The recount of the Republican votes cast in the state primaries for representative in the Fifth Essex District did not change the nominee list to go on the ballot at the Nov. 2 election.

The recount, brought on petition of Arthur Williams, 127 Haverhill st., who lost third place nomination by 15 votes, established the Republican nominees as follows: Rep. Frank S. Giles Jr., Rep. William Longworth and Thomas J. Slack, all of Methuen. The net result of the recount for third place on the ballot was a gain of 4 for Slack, increasing his final plurality to 19.

In the Andover recount Slack made a new gain of three, his total having been increased by one while Williams lost two. The figures showed that Rep. Giles lost two, Slack and Clifford gains one each, White gained three and Williams lost two. There was no change in the vote of the other candidates.

Two Andover boys, Maurice F. Lynch, Jr. and Russell Robinson of Ballardvale, are attending the Essex County Agricultural school in Hathorne, for their first year.

During the late spring and summer months both these lads were enrolled in the vocational guidance program conducted by the school.

Maurice Lynch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice F. Lynch, Jr. of Gray rd., attended the Andover Junior high school, before enrolling at the agricultural school.

This past summer he was employed on the Harvey Turner farm in Andover where he gained considerable experience in the handling of fruits and vegetables.

Russell Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Robinson of 27 Marland st., Ballardvale, also attended the Andover Junior high school.

His supervised practice project consisted of a three months' experience program on the Elmer Severy dairy farm in Brandon, Vt.

Girl From France Enters Punchard

This year Punchard High school's senior class welcomes among its members a student who has come from Epernay, France; by way of Montreal, Canada. Francoise Louis, 17, daughter of M. and Mme. Andre Louis, has expressed her hope of becoming a teacher of English. Through letters between Mme. Louis and Mrs. Allan Gillingham, of Highland rd., she was invited by Mr. and Mrs. Gillingham to join their family circle for this year.

Francoise's mother and Mrs. Gillingham were classmates for two years in Albert, a small town in the Somme district when the latter's father was engaged to plan and direct the construction of war memorial parks after World War I. They have only seen each other once since then, when Francoise was born.

Francoise, her brother Pierre, 15, and her sister Genevieve, 13, know the meaning of war, having watched their own small brother, Dominique die at the age of eight months in an overcrowded air-raid shelter from cold and hunger.

While in France, Franny, as her classmates have nicknamed her, studied chemistry, biology, physics, algebra, English, and French grammar. The French children go to school from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. every day except Sunday and Tuesday. One of Franny's favorite American subjects is gym since she has not had that in France. Her other subjects are English, U.S. history, French and American Problems Today.

Franny finds Punchard unlike her French school. She does not have to wear her uniform of a long sleeved blouse and pinafore every day.

Although the American food is different from her native food, Franny enjoys the new and strange dishes.

To Supt. Edward I. Erickson who wrote to the embassy in Paris, and to the staff of Punchard who have been so kind to help her make a happy adjustment to American school-life, Franny feels a special debt of gratitude.

Her enthusiasm and friendliness have already won her many friends who hope that she will continue to be happy among them.

75 Years Of Service

A large number of Andover people are assisting in a campaign to aid the Lawrence General hospital raise a $600,000 development fund to meet the specific needs brought about by the continuing advances in medical science and the techniques of hospital care.

The hospital's medical staff has reported to the trustees that a program for the development and enlarging of the various facilities and services vital to the health of the Greater Lawrence community is needed at once.

To make these facilities and services available to the people of this area the trustees have laid out a program with two objectives: the first, a new wing extending southerly from the main building and attached to it. This will have two sections, an ambulance entrance leading from Garden street to a new accident and emergency room, and connected to this a new four-story structure which will house most of the services and facilities which are to be added or expanded. The estimated cost of this addition is $500,000.

The second objective is the sum of $100,000 which it is estimated as the minimum required as a service fund for the next three years in order that the free and below-cost care may be assured for those patients who most need it, and that the hospital may close these fiscal years without a serious deficit.

That the need for enlargement is urgent may be seen by the fact that the hospital "family" of doctors, nurses, aides, employees and trustees have already contributed one-fifth of the entire fund.

The worthy objectives of the program deserve the support of all. The whole community will benefit, and the success of the campaign will be fitting recognition of our responsibility to the Lawrence General hospital which since its humble beginning as a day nursery in 1875 has given three-quarters of a century of service to the people of Greater Lawrence.

SLEEPERS AWAKE by Science Features

According to an old joke, there was a man who snored so loudly that he kept himself awake at night. Actually, of course, snoring is no joke—at least to the person who must listen to it.

Snoring, some scientists think, is too apt to be considered a trivial matter. In the past 25 years less than half a dozen scientific papers have been written on the subject, despite the fact that an estimated 19 million Americans shatter the silence of the night with their nocturnal wood-sawing.

How loud can a snorer snore? Professor Donald A. Laird, a Colgate University psychologist, took audiometer readings of well-tuned snorers going at full blast and found that they registered a volume of sound equivalent to a noisy business office or a busy street. Other investigators have said that his findings were conservative.

Generally speaking, snorers can be divided into two groups—those who snore because of an actual disturbance of the nose or throat, and those who snore . . . simply because they snore. Those of the first group can sometimes be successfully treated with minor surgery, antibiotics, or antihistamines, but the others are often beyond medical aid.

As for the person who suffers the most from this malady—he who must listen to the snorer snore—the best remedy is often a pair of ear plugs.

Home Care Is Aim Of Arthritis Drive

Mrs. Vincent Treanor, chairman of the Greater Lawrence committee of the Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation announces that one of the aims of the 1954-55 program of the arthritis campaign is the effective protection of patients through home care from preventable damage caused by rheumatic disease.

The slogan of the current $300,000 Massachusetts campaign, she says, is "Stop Arthritis Now."

Local committee members assisting Mrs. Treanor are, Frederick W. Gould, treasurer; Joseph F. Bacigalupo, 27 William st., Miss Margaret Curran, 250 N. Main st., Dr. John J. Down the Years with The Townsman

50 Years Ago — September 1904

At a session of probate court in Newburyport this week an inventory was filed on the estate of the late Mrs. Esther H. Beyers, the amount being $496,337.21.

A break in the water main on Central street near Stony brook last Monday kept employees of the BPW busy for some time. The break was so near the brook that it was repaired with difficulty.

The tower of the fire engine house, damaged by lightning last summer, is being repaired.

Cars run every half hour Saturdays and Sundays on the Haverhill-Andover line. It is not known how long this arrangement will continue.

P. H. S. SPORTPunchard Wins Opener

Punchard opened its 1954 football season last Saturday by running wild over Wilmington on the latter's grounds to the tune of 33 to 6. This is the same score that Coach Bob McIntyre's eleven beat Wilmington last year.

Punchard jumped to an early lead by scoring two touchdowns in the first period, one more in the third and two in the final quarter. The host team managed to escape a shut out by putting over a touchdown in the third.

Outstanding in the Blue and Gold victory were Bob Grudzinski at fullback, Al Wadman at half, and Alex Thomson, playing quarterback. Thomson broke away for a 55-yard scoring run in the first period and Wadman sliced off right tackle for a 65-yard gallop before being knocked out of bounds at the Wilmington 10. The run paved the way for Punchard's fourth touchdown. Grudzinski's line plunging added much yardage to the Blue and Gold gains.

The summary:

PUNCHARD (33)

Dear Mr. Collins:

I wish to express to you and the other members of the Board of Selectmen the sincere appreciation of our company for the splendid manner in which you, and all town departments, cooperated with us during the recent hurricane emergency.

It certainly is nice to know that such a mutual spirit of service prevails in our work for the people of the Town of Andover.

Yours very sincerely,
W. E. Casey
Vice President

The reply of the selectmen was as follows:

Att. - Mr. W. E. Casey,
Vice President
Dear Mr. Casey:

The Board of Selectmen of the Town of Andover wishes to thank you for your most cordial letter of September 20th regarding the cooperation of our town departments with your force during the recent hurricanes. We appreciate as do most of our people that it was a super-human task, and as you well know many of our men including this office worked day and night to restore conditions back to normal. Your very kind letter makes us feel that we have accomplished much with the help of your good force and the very excellent assistance from out of town squads in restoring electricity to our hard pressed townspeople.

Very sincerely yours,
J. Everett Collins
Chairman, Board of Selectmen

Teachers Favor
4-Year Senior
High School

A four-year senior high school removed from the center of the town, with plenty of parking space, an athletic field of its own and an auditorium large enough to seat a prospective student body of 1000 to 1200 were among the recommendations made by teachers in various high school departments interviewed in two recent special sessions of the school committee.

The latter had invited the teachers to outline the facilities they required in their various departments in a proposed new high school. One session was held Sept. 21 and another Tuesday night.

The teachers interviewed at the Sept. 22 meeting were Miss Beatrice Stevens, head of the English department; Miss E. Marjorie Smith of the Language department; Mr. Master Charles A. Gregory; Mr. Arthur Danforth, head of the science department; Mervin E. Stevens, head of the commercial department, and Mrs. Gertrude Hardy, head of the mathematics department.

At Tuesday's meeting the teachers interviewed were Mrs. Frances Gahan, head of home economics; Carl Gahan, head of the industrial arts; Donald D. Dunn, director of physical education, and Kenneth K. McKiniry, faculty manager of athletics.

A four-year senior high school was favored by almost all of those interviewed. All laid stress upon the need for ample storage facilities, and the department heads all advocated having their departments arranged in suites or sections.

At the meeting Tuesday night the following members of the School Building committee attended the session at the invitation of the school committee: Chairman Gordon Colquhoun, Stephen H. Brennan, Fred Kent and Supt. Edward I. Dickson, secretary of the building committee.

Next Tuesday other teachers will meet with the committee to discuss their needs in a new building. Mrs. Drew suggested a suite set to include a clothing room, a study room and a general community room in which a part could be given over to repairing and painting furniture.

Mr. Gahan's recommendations included a woodworking room, a metal-working room, an electrical-working room and another for mechanical drawing.

For the physical education department Mr. Dunn laid stress on showers and toilets being open so that they could be under observation at all times. This he felt was necessary because of the increasing prevalence of perversion in all parts of the nation. He told the committee it starts in junior and senior high schools and "we have got to face it."

Later Mr. McKiniry recommended facilities for group showers for girls as well as boys, and toilets without doors.

Mr. Dunn felt that in a building for 1000 pupils there should be four teaching stations, and in a building for 1500 there should be six teaching stations. He felt that the project should be laid out to include a swimming pool, a first aid and examination room and all lockers below the gym. He would eliminate lockers in corridors, letting each pupil have one in the space below the gym. He also suggested that the gym for a building of 1000 pupils should be 100 X 120, with seats on the side to take care of 2000, and double doors that could divide it into four sections. He advocated having six playing fields.

Mr. McKiniry saw the need of a training room and equipment room with medical cabinets and whirlpool baths. He said that there were about 150 boys in athletics in any one season and facilities for them should be separate from the physical education department. He recommended a gang shower with one control and a similar arrangement for girls.

Another recommendation he made was a cage two-stories high with a dirt floor, glass roof and net. For outside he felt that six or seven playing areas, cement stands with rooms under the stand for teams, were needed.

The committee also discussed proposed sites for a new building. One was the Esther Smith property on Shawsheen road opposite Beech and Lincoln circles, another in Carmel woods, and a third west of Abbot street in the vicinity of Pomp's pond.

At the Sept. 22 session some of the needs listed were audio visual apparatus, provisions for television, a much larger area with plenty of parking space and large auditorium.

Mr. Gregory said that the nicer the building is the better it will be appreciated by the students and the greater care they will take of it.

One of the reasons advanced for a four year senior high school was that it takes pupils a year to get adjusted to senior high after being in junior high.

Sen. Saltonstall To Visit Andover

U. S. Senator Leverett Saltonstall will be the guest of the Andover Town Republican committee on a visit here next Thursday. He will be met by Chairman Alexander D. Gibson and Vice Chairman Donald G. Thompson and other members of the committee as well as town officials during his stay.

He is expected to arrive in Andover at 10:30 a.m., and will spend about half an hour meeting people of the town in front of the town house.

The Saturday program will include a game period in the morning and an assembly for contests in the afternoon. A camp fire will be held in the evening at which time each unit will present a skit.

The Sunday program will include church services at 8 a.m. A protestant church service will be held in the grove and Catholic boys will be transported to St. Augustine's church in a body for Mass.

There will be an assembly for games later in the morning, a cub program in the afternoon, and the closing exercises will include the presentation of awards.

Perry Schwarzer, district commissioner, and James Butler, co-chairman of the camporee, have issued instructions to all units. The camp is to be judged on the good camping theme only. Games will be judged on sportsmanship and spirit in which the boys take part. Winning or losing will not add or take away any points.

Cooking is to be done on a Patrol basis and each unit will handle its own refrigeration.

Parents and friends are invited to attend the campfire at 7:15 p.m., Saturday and the closing exercises at 3:30 p.m., Sunday.

Free Films Ready For Organizations

During the summer, catalogs giving detailed information about the free film service offered to clubs, organizations and societies were mailed to the presiding officers or chairmen of program committees of local groups.

For the first time, the library has arranged for a limited number of films to be available to the community without charge. Those who have no projectors may arrange with the library for the use of the 16mm sound projector which is part of the library's equipment. Early booking of films is most desirable, and films wanted for winter or spring showing should be asked for as soon as possible.

The first two films available from Oct. 4 to 23, both about senior high, college and adult level are "Song Of Algonquin" in color, a 20-minute film on the Northeastern Ontario park, and "Tanglewood Story", a 20-minute film showing scenes of Tanglewood music festival.

Nature lovers should find the Algonquin film particularly beautiful, ranging as it does over the entire spring, summer and autumn season, showing the woods, lakes and rivers, animals and canoe trips.

Serge Koussevitsky conducts the Boston Symphony orchestra in the second film.

If further information is needed on this film loaning service, call the Memorial Hall library, Andover 314. The library will have something to offer for most dates from Oct. 4 through next April.

SELECTMEN'S MEETING

A large delegation from Shirley road appeared at Monday night's meeting of the board of selectmen regarding a drainage problem which has existed in their neighborhood for some time.

The matter was discussed at some length but no action was taken.

Appearing in the group were: Mrs. Carl Schulze, John A. Murphy, Patricia Hogan, Halbert Dow, H. J. McDowell, Richard McCallagat, Robert H. McGonigle, Harold Lewis Lane.

Permits to open Riverina road and Andover street for gas pipe construction and repair work were granted to the Lawrence Gas Co.

Blood Unit Coming To Free Church

For the visit of the Red Cross bloodmobile at the Free church Oct. 4 and 5, Mrs. Charles B. M. Whiteside, chairman of recruitment workers has announced the following precinct leaders: Prec. 1, Mrs. Edwin E. Leidich, Prec. 2, Mrs. William V. Emmons, Prec. 4, Mrs. John E. Rooks, Prec. 5, Mrs. L. Fraser Colpitts and Prec. 6, Mrs. Clinton D. Shaw. As Mrs. Whiteside was unable to get a leader for Precinct 3, she will be in charge there. Any one who is not solicited but who wishes to donate blood may make an appointment by calling Red Cross headquarters at 1496.

Frank W. Lilley, chairman of the local blood program, wishes to call attention to the new location of the blood donor center. The trustees of the Free church kindly made that church available to the bloodmobile unit as the South church, which has given its facilities for many years, is undergoing alterations.

Elimination of a traffic hazard at the junction of School, Wheeler and Main streets has been completed with this new divided highway on Main street at the Phillips academy campus. The lane on the right was once a grass plot which has been removed to widen the road and facilitate the flow of Route 28 traffic which passes over this street. gathering that besides these public events he had (a) answered 115 requests for information about Andover's schools, churches and stores; (b) answered 35 requests for information about local property for sale and rentals; (c) answered six requests for information regarding factory space available here; (d) had on four occasions taken representatives of outside business concerns on tours of factory and office space, and (e) during the convention of the Junior Red Cross at Phillips academy last summer had provided each boy and girl who attended with 180 souvenir books of historic Andover which were compiled for the town's 300th anniversary in 1946. Some 300 of these books were supplied by the Andover National bank and copies were also sent to most of the people who had made inquiries about the town's schools, churches and stores.

With them Sec. Mosher also included a flier on Essex county published by the Essex County Associated Boards of Trade.

During the discussions Tuesday night plans were formulated for the first open dinner meeting of the season to be held Oct. 20 at the Log Cabin.

At this time there will be a short business session, an election of officers for the coming year, discussion of the Christmas lighting, and entertainment program and dancing.

Main Street Improvement Eliminates Traffic Hazard

A traffic hazard on the heavily travelled Route 28 on Main street at the Phillips academy campus has been eliminated with the completion of a divided highway which now is open in both directions.

This improvement, long advocated by The Townsman, relieves a bottleneck which was the scene of many accidents.

Previously, Main street at the south easterly intersection of Chapel avenue had a grass plot which extended 33 feet into the roadway which abruptly narrowed the travelled way to 33 feet at this point.

This condition was brought about back in the street car days when the single line of tracks that ran up the hill widened into a double line turnout as it entered the area. When the car tracks were removed this plot was covered with grass and closed to vehicular traffic.

Autos and trucks going south had to swing abruptly to the right at this point and traffic in the northerly direction had to make a sharp turn toward the opposite side of the street.

Blinking traffic lights installed by Phillips academy, the type that could be operated manually by pedestrians, and a reflector signal that flashed red with oncoming headlights were used at the intersection as warnings of the hazard that existed there.

Traffic on Wheeler street, which crosses Main street and enters School street just below the intersection, adds to the number of vehicles operating in the area.

Back in 1932 Phillips academy had an engineering study made of the situation and came up with a divided highway plan with safety islands and crossovers for vehicular traffic which would relieve much of the traffic hazard there.

When the state entered the project a year or more ago it adopted a plan similar to that which had been prepared for the academy. Besides the two-lane highway and safety islands the improvement also included widening a portion of Main street at the northwest intersection of School street.

All that remains of the work now is to have parts of the islands grassed over. The improved highway greatly facilitates the flow of traffic at this point.

See Hurricane Damage Thru Townsman Photos

The three recent editions of The Townsman carrying pictures of the damage done here by the two hurricanes were of special interest on the west coast when they were received by the children of the late Lt. Cmdr. Allan C. Edmonds and taken to the school they attend. Mrs. Mary C. Edmonds of High st., who sent The Townsman editions to Centralia, Wash., received a letter from her grandchildren telling her of the interest displayed by the west coast pupils in getting such graphic information about the damage done here by the two storms.
