Town Manager System Seen As Grave Problem

The effect of a town manager system on Andover was spelled out this week, as the Town's official study committee placed a proposed legislative act before the town.

The bill, which will be presented to the General Court if town meeting approves, gives the plan in detail for the study of the voters.

One of the gravest problems to come before the voters in many years, the proposed change in the form of government will not come directly to town meeting for a decision - rather, the vote will be on whether all the voters shall be allowed to vote on the propo-

Tight Race For 4 Offices Seen, Many Seek Top Town Jobs

Lively contests for four town offices are in the making this week.

Candidates for the board of public works, school committee, selectmen and town treasurer will fight it out during the next six weeks. In each case, vacancies will exist due to the retirement of the incumbents.

Not opposed for election are candidates for the board of health, planning board, constable, moderator, trustee of Memorial Hall library and trustee of Punchard Free school.

Contested Offices

David Thompson and Benjamin Brown will meet in a head-on battle for the board of public works seat left vacant by the retirement of Sidney P. White, the present chairman.

Seven candidates will seek two seats on the school committee, both left vacant through decisions of the incumbents not to run for reelection. On the ballot in that hectic scrap will be Frederick Alis Jr., Reta Buchan, J. William Burke, Henry G. Holt, Phillips B. Marsden Jr., Walter Mondale, and Clarence Pope. The vacancies

1.6 Million In Budgets; Many Special Articles

A Saturday afternoon town meeting this year will consider spending well over three million dollars contained in the regular department budgets and special articles.

March 10 at 1 p.m. is the date set for the annual meeting, called by the selectmen in hopes of getting through the 80-article warrant.

Although the Saturday session is unusual for Andover, neighboring No. Andover has long held its meetings on that day. The selectmen here point out that fair-

School Head Sees 3261 Pupils In '60

Andover schools will be expected to hold at least 3261 pupils in 1960.

That estimate, based on census figures and enrollment in grade eight at St. Augustine's school, does not include children from a single new home. And it is 510 above an estimate used to establish school housing needs here during the past two years.

More than 250 mothers will answer the call of the fire alarm tonight at 7 to begin their "march on polio".

And from that time until every house with its porch light glowing is covered, the women will be collecting for the polio fund - a fund which last year was severely taxed by the local nine-case epidemic.

School Board Praised For "Good" Budget

Two members of the Finance committee - Atty. Charles Hatch and Harold Rutter - praised the school committee last week for preparing a "good" budget.

The two men, representing their committee, met with the school committee to discuss two items in the budget - conversational French and maintenance.

Later in the meeting, members of the Taxpayers association conferred with the school committee on the budget. They included Paul S. McKinnon, Harold Haller and Dino Valz.

The Finance committee questions came on whether enough money was being allowed for maintenance of school buildings and whether the money budgeted for conversational French is necessary.

Atty. Hatch said the committee felt that it may be necessary to "Alert the people" on the program, pointing out that $5440 is called for in 1956 with a possible peak of $10-14,000 in the near future.

Members discussed the program, as they have many times in the past, with only member Albert Cole Jr. dissenting. It was brought out that evaluation of the program must await the graduation of students who were part of the entire program, which may take several years.

The maintenance program, questioned by Mr. Rutter, involved a question about allowing two percent of the buildings' value for maintenance rather than the approximate one percent set up in the budget. No change was made in the figure, however.

Ward, home service representative for this area, conducted the meeting which stressed the responsibility of each Red Cross chapter to the active servicemen and their families as well as to the veterans.

Town's History Nearly Ready

The town's history will be written by fall.

That statement was included in a report received by the selectmen from Dr. Claude M. Fuess, chairman of a town-appointed committee to prepare a history of the town.

Dr. Fuess, while submitting a bill for $1000 to the selectmen, said 10 chapters are completed and the remaining chapters are in rough form. The chapters which are finished have been turned over to the selectmen for safekeeping.

Board secretary Stafford Lindsay said a bill for $200 was paid a long time ago and that the bill for $1000 now is for Dr. Fuess' expenses and secretarial services in connection with the completed chapters. The town authorized expenditures of $2000 in connection with preparing the document.

Present members of the committee include J. Everett Collins, Edward P. Hall, Frederick E. Cheever, Thaxter Eaton, Burton S. Flagg, Bernard F. McDonald, Leo F. Daley, Bessie F. Goldsmith and Dr. Fuess.

Town Cut Off From Outside World By 1898 Snow

arduous struggle against the elements in one of the worst snow storms in Andover's history.

Although the following morning only two feet of snow covered the ground, tremendous drifts ranging from six to twelve feet high had been created by gale-force winds averaging 50 miles an hour.

Losing Battle

In this snowscape of Andover's Elm square, the Musgrove building may be recognized in the background and the stalled trolley was one of three that had finally become stranded after fighting a losing battle with the raging storm. What had started as a snow flurry reached blizzard proportions shortly after noon and with the approach of night grew steadily worse. By 6 p.m., the trolleys had given up in their attempt to travel the short distance from Andover to Lawrence for already one car was stalled hopelessly in an 8 foot snow drift on Andover hill and another one at the Marland village hill. Because of this helpless situation they remained there until sometime Wednesday when a street railway plow finally reached the square.

Even the trains were stalled on the tracks. The 9:40 p.m. passenger train to Boston was destined to proceed only a few miles beyond Ballardvale before it, too, became stranded along with two night freights bound for Portland.

Cut Off

A complete blockade was the result with the activities of the town at a standstill. All communications outside of this world of snow were cut off and not even a call could get through to nearby Lawrence.

Andover town officials quickly put to the test their administrative abilities under Street Commissioner Chandler, who ordered out the town sleds, drawn by eight horses, to clear away the menacing drifts. The old fashioned shovel with a man behind it proved more effective as some of the drifts were even a herculean task for the horses. It is mentioned in the records that "like enterprise as to snow removal was not shown in Lawrence".

Lamplighter Frostbitten

The lamplighter who was employed to light the carbon arc light shown in the picture suffered frost bite while attending his duties in the sub-zero temperatures which followed the storm. Frye Village, or Shawsheen as it is known today, recorded a reading of 25 degrees below zero with Ballardvale a shivering second with 23 degrees below while other parts of town averaged from five to 15 degrees below.

Cost $3000

This ravaging blizzard, which so completely crippled Andover in the year 1898, took its toll in the town's budget, for even with the cooperative, free help given by the townspeople it cost the town some 3,000 dollars before life in the community could again be called normal.

SHAWSHEEN

Mrs. Kay Noyes, Correspondent. Telephone 2002

Busy Mrs. Young

For Mrs. Dudley Young of Union st., the past month or more has been a very active time. It began on Dec. 10 with the excitement of leaving here by plane to be with her daughter, Mrs. Richard Munroe and her new grandson, Donald Allen Munroe of Hayward, Cal.

While visiting with her daughter, the raging waters of the destructive Christmas Eve flood, which hit California so heavily, came very close to their doorstep. A nearby stream rose 20 feet overnight and vast fields of vegetables were completely underwater. The water was all around them but luckily it started to recede just two blocks from their door.

Mrs. Young's visit was cut short by word received from her family that her sister, Miss Ruth Kilburn, had fallen and injured her hip. So she flew home to be with her sister who only last Saturday was released from the hospital to return to her home for a period of convalescence.

Valentine Party

The Andover country club will be the scene of a Valentine dinner party for members of the Shawsheen Village Woman's club and their guests on Saturday evening, Feb. 4. This party, which is an annual event, will be headed by Mrs. James F. Corey as chairman with Mrs. Andrew Innes, Mrs. Thomas Neil, Mrs. Philip Winters and Mrs. Frank Stevenson, serving as her committee. Reservations for the Valentine party must be in by Jan. 31 and tickets may be obtained from any member of the above committee.

New Arrival

A daughter, Ardith Joan, was born at St. Luke's Hospital, New Bedford, on Dec. 27 to Mr. and Mrs. Warren Bell of Mattapoisett on their eighth wedding anniversary. The couple has another daughter, Lucina, who is three. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Howard Nash also of Mattapoisett and formerly of Andover. Mr. Bell is the son of Mrs. David A. Bell of No. Main st.

Celebrates Fourth Birthday

Jonathan Emery, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Donovan Emery of William st., was entertained Saturday at a family party at his home in honor of his fourth birthday. The guests were entertained by several piano selections performed by youngsters present, after which the guests joined in the fun offered by a variety of party games.

Amid festive decorations, a buffet luncheon was served by Mrs. Emery along with the traditional birthday cake and ice cream. Guests present at the party were Ann Messenger, Ellen Messenger, Herbert Messenger, Emery Messenger, John Emery, Claudia Files, Mrs. Alice Cleaves, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Messenger, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Files Jr. of Stoneham, Jane Emery and Mr. and Mrs. J. Donovan Emery.

Camp Fire Meeting

The annual luncheon meeting of Camp Fire leaders will be held in Boston, Feb. 16.

The meeting will be a training program with classes in the morning. Following the luncheon there will be a speaker. Reservations should be obtained through Mrs. Michael Campagna and not directly with Boston.

Students Sell Tickets For P.T.S.A. Fund

The scholarship fund of the P.T.S.A., for which $800 is sought, will be enriched by the sale of tickets to "Good Morning, Miss Dove", a movie starring Jennifer Jones.

The show will run at the Andover Playhouse for three days, beginning Sunday. Manager Samuel Resnik has agreed to having all advance sales go towards the fund while tickets bought at the window will not be included at all.

Thus, all members of the student body at Punchard and the junior high school are selling the tickets throughout town. A free ticket is being given to each student who sells 10 or more and cash awards are being given those who sell the most tickets.

New Building Fees Might Aid Andover

Higher fees for building permits have been suggested to the selectmen by the planning board.

Chairman Eugene A. Bernardin Jr. said the higher fees might provide some extra money for the town in its capital expenditure program - caused, in large part, by the new homes built here.

Mr. Bernardin told his board that perhaps one percent of construction up to $40,000 might be a fair fee with 75 percent of the cost of new buildings from that figure to $100,000 and a smaller percentage for construction over $100,000.

Thus, Bernardin explained, industry would pay a fair fee without its being exorbitant while builders of new homes would also be paying a fair amount towards the solution of problems caused by the growth.

It was pointed out that the building inspector's fee could come out of the amount paid by the contractors.

The board agreed that the idea should be offered to the selectmen, who are responsible for setting fees and appointing the building inspector.

PERSONALS

Russell A. Carter of North Hills, Pa., visited his mother, Mrs. George A. Carter, 5 Locke st. over the weekend.

MANY SPECIAL B.P.W. ARTICLES

requested. Of that amount, $250,000 would be bonded for 10 years and $6892.24 would be raised by taxation. Unexpended balances of $61,030.03 from three drainage articles approved in the 1955 town meeting would be carried over for the project.

A partial Shawsheen Heights project - $14,079 to be raised and $30,000 bonded for 10 years - is included in the articles.

Two Reservoirs

The Wood Hill reservoir, a pumping station for it and improvements to the water system will cost $195,000, with $100,000 of it bonded and the remainder raised through taxes.

The Prospect Hill reservoir, including direct or indirect benefits to the high pressure water system, would cost $58,000, with $40,000 to be transferred from available funds and the balance raised through taxation.

The board has asked that $20,000 be raised for water system improvements. Another article calls for adopting a state law which allows property owners to be assessed for betterment of their land by the extension or improvements of the water system.

Other Articles

Other articles include Chapter 90 maintenance, $4000 raised and $2000 from transfer, total $6000; Chapter 90 construction, raise $10,000 and transfer $30,000, total $40,000; sidewalks, raise $7500; two power chain saws, raise $500; new power mower, $1200 to be raised; air compressor, $3200 raised; three dump trucks, $12,500; car for sewer and water departments, raise $2000; chlorinator, $1500 raised through taxation; fluoridation, raise $3000.

Improvement of town yard by acquiring adjacent land; $300 to be added to money appropriated under article 26 last year; curbing in metered areas, transfer $5000 from meter funds; sewer and drain improvements, $10,000 to be raised; Haggett's Pond land acquisition and improvement for protecting and increasing water supply and increasing storage of water, $3500, raised by taxation; sewage and drainage in Lockway and Carmel roads, add $1000 to amount appropriated under article 6 in 1955 special town meeting; repair and replace surface water drain from Wolcott ave. over private land to Maple ave., $6000 to be raised; Hidden rd. drain, $2500 to be added to 1955 appropriation; Hidden rd. drainage, south section, raise $16,000.

The south section of Hidden rd. drainage calls for constructing surface drainage from Lantern rd. - Gardner ave. section to an outfall between Sunset Rock rd. and Main st.

Cancel 1955 Vote

Under a Rogers brook article, the board has asked that last year's bond issue authorization, amounting to $145,000, be revoked and that the new bond issue be enacted. It is recalled that the board found there to be less money than needed to complete the Rogers brook project and that a subsequent special town meeting fizzled for lack of a quorum. The board did not spend any of the money for portions of the project because town counsel said the article referred to a complete job and could not be spent on parts of it.

Trade-Ins

The special article on trucks also stipulates that a 1941 Dodge and a 1948 Diamond T be used in part payment. In other equipment purchases, the board has specified that two old power saws be used as partial payment for the new ones; that an old power mower be traded in on the new mower; that the cost of the new compressor be partially met by trading in the 1938 Dodge truck and compressor.

Betterment Act

Town counsel Vincent Stulgis, meeting last week with the board, explained the water betterment act. He said its adoption here will allow the town to assess property owners, either remotely or directly benefitted by the extended water supply, up to 100 percent of the cost. The assessment, by vote of the board, may be made on the basis of frontage or by property depth or area.

The selectman's race, always of keen interest, finds a three-way fight for the vacancy left by Chairman J. Everett Collins' decision not to run.

Three candidates are also in the race for town treasurer, a post to be left vacant by the retirement of Thaxter Eaton.

Miss Anna M. Greeley, Wilson Knipe Jr. and James Martin seek that office.

Scholarship Funds Are Good

We wish to heartily endorse the activities of the Varsity club in establishing a new scholarship fund. The aims of the group are laudable, for there never is enough aid available for the students who wish to carry on their education.

The basketball game on donkey back scheduled for Saturday night may provide the nucleus of a good fund. But more important will be the cooperation and generosity of citizens who wish to help out, even in a modest way.

The club will gladly accept donations from individuals so that greater benefits may be granted a larger number of youngsters during the years to come.

And while we are writing about scholarships, may we add our praise to that of many other groups and citizens who are talking about the generosity of the Tuesday club. That organization, although small, has given a $100 scholarship in memory of Fannie Davis. It will go to a young woman graduate of Punchard for assistance in advancing her education.

It is good to see interest in scholarship funds among groups here, for there certainly are many young people who need the help.

Information Needed

Town manager is perhaps the most important item included in the annual town warrant.

A vote on that system of town government could make a basic change in our system, which is a far more important decision than one on administrative budgets or, possibly, even on capital expenditure items such as schools, town buildings, streets, water or drainage.

We believe that the citizens should inform themselves well during the coming weeks before town meeting so that an intelligent vote, based on facts, can be obtained.

Although the committee appointed to study the form of government has asked that the matter be taken to its logical conclusion — a vote of the citizens by secret ballot — we do not kid ourselves that the actual test of strength will come at the town meeting.

Those opposed will make every effort to kill the measure there, feeling that, if it is bad for the town, why put it on the ballot at all.

Proponents will say that it is only fair to allow all the voters to express an opinion via the ballot — and thus it should be placed on the ballot as soon as possible.

The Townsman hopes to be of some service in the coming weeks by printing the opinions — backed up with facts — of town officials, members of the town manager committee appointed at the last town meeting and any other citizens who wish to express an opinion on the subject.

There is, at the moment, too little information on what town manager might mean for Andover. It is difficult for anyone to make a decision based on present information, thus we will try to present both the pros and cons of the argument in this newspaper for our readers' enlightenment.

Down the Years with The Townsman

50 Years Ago — January 1906

Miss Maud Marion Cole has tendered her resignation as organist of the South church, to go into effect next Sunday morning.

There was a large attendance at the annual supper and meeting of the Congregational church held in the Vestry last Thursday evening. William Shaw was elected clerk.

About 40 members and guests gathered in the rooms of the Andover club last Friday evening to hear William F. Dana, president of the Massachusetts Senate, discuss Railroads and the Laws Governing them.

Over 50 men who will be in charge of various departments and offices at the Wood mills met at the home of William M. Wood last Saturday evening so that there might be built up a closer tie between responsible officials.

The annual meeting of Christ church was held in the Parish house Tuesday evening with over 125 members present.

James A. Eaton has taken over duties as janitor of the Indian Ridge school. Mrs. Nettie Anderson had been serving in that capacity.

The town hall was thronged with members of the Knights of Columbus order, the occasion being the exemplification of the third degree to 65 members of the newly-formed council here. There were over 600 visitors present for the memorable occasion.

Stephen Sullivan has been elected president of a new club at the Andover Guild. Many boys attended the meeting which had been called to talk over the possibility of forming one general club.

The Rev. W. E. Lombard has accepted the call to the Baptist church and will begin his pastorate next Sunday.

25 Years Ago — January 1931

The special town meeting voted an appropriation of $10,000, as requested in the article, to serve as unemployment relief. The money will be spent by the board of public works for street improvements, including work on Lupine rd., Argilla rd., Abbot st. and Red Spring rd. The meeting, numbering 150, also voted to abolish the post of town auditor and replaced him with a town accountant.

There will be a meeting of the Junior Christian Endeavor Sunday afternoon at 3:30 in the Baptist church.

Jesse Kelly, a noted magician, will entertain at a show Saturday afternoon at 2:30 in the South church vestry. The program is presented by the A.P.C. sorority.

The Brotherhood club will hold a public dance in Crystal ballroom Feb. 4.

About 125 persons attended the annual Robert Burns anniversary celebration held last Friday evening in Fraternal hall under the sponsorship of Clan Johnston 185, O.S.C.A.

Over 250 members of the Free church attended its annual meeting last Wednesday night in the vestry. The meeting followed a supper prepared by women of the church.

The American Legion auxiliary will hold a whist party Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Thomas Platt on Bancroft rd.

County Commissioner Frederick Butler will be in charge of a program sponsored by the League of Women Voters Feb. 3.

A Tewksbury st. family fought a fire in the cellar of their home Tuesday morning until the fire department arrived, keeping the flames from causing too much damage. Spontaneous combustion was blamed for the fire.

10 Years Ago — January 1946

The Junior High school varsity basketball team will practice at the Guild gymnasium, with permission of the school committee. Kenneth L. Sherman asked that the move be made because the Memorial gymnasium is being used to capacity by the senior high groups.

The annual meeting of Christ church was held Tuesday night in the parish house, with the Rev. John S. Moses acting as moderator.

An old-fashioned sleigh ride was enjoyed after the recent storm by members of the Pilgrim Fellowship of the Free church and the Young Peoples' society of the South church. The combined groups toured many of the roads in West Andover and stopped at the Shattuck farm for refreshments.

Many candidates are circulating their nomination papers for town offices this week, with the closing date being next Thursday at 4:30 p.m.

The sum of $9200 will be sought for improvements to the central heating plant, on vote of the school committee. An article will be inserted in the warrant.

The current clothing drive in the schools was the subject of a special assembly Monday. Supt. Kenneth L. Sherman announced that Donald Dunn will be in charge of the drive in the schools and stressed the need for clothing of all kinds — particularly for small children.

The Red Cross has reported that 2911 hours were spent by volunteers in aiding 390 individuals during 1945. The district nurse made 2042 house calls during the year and received blood from 1128 donors in a period of five days.

Mid-Year Examinations

Mid-year examinations for Punchard and Junior high pupils began last Tuesday, Jan. 24 and continued on Wednesday and Thursday. There were two examinations a day and they followed the same order in which the subjects appeared on the regular Monday schedule.

On Friday, Jan. 27, there will be no school for pupils unless one of the previous exam days is lost due to weather; in which case, the program will be moved along into Friday without breaking the order.

All regular examinations are a full two hours, and all pupils are advised to use the time to their greatest advantage. The marks on these examinations have the same weight or value as the marks for a full marking period.

The pupils are not required to attend school during periods when they are free of scheduled examinations, but should you find it desirable or necessary to be in school at such times, you are requested to go directly to the study room and remain there.

Yearbook Pictures

Yearbook pictures will be taken Monday and Tuesday, January 30 and 31. All students are asked to dress appropriately.

SCHOOL POPULATION

ESTIMATES GIVEN

School Supt. Edward I. Erickson detailed the estimated school population as part of educational specifications for the proposed South District school, which was discussed with the State School Building Assistance commission last week.

His figures show 2718 students in public schools when school opens next September, 2840 in 1957, 2990 in 1958, 3167 by 1959 and a huge 3261 in 1960.

The figures included estimated enrollment from graduates of St.

Augustine's school, many of whom enter the ninth grade of the public school system. The remaining figures, Erickson pointed out, are based on solid census figures available from the selectmen's census and present school population figures.

In his specifications, the superintendent told John Marshall, head of the state agency, that three steps are planned here to help solve the crowded school situation.

The South school, the report read, is the first of three schools which will be needed. A second one will be planned for the northeast section of town "which will be needed within two or three years" and the third in the west Andover section "in the not-too-distant future".

It will be recalled that the building inspector's report for 1955 showed permits issued for over 200 new homes during the year. Town officials have pointed out that building here shows little sign of slackening. Thus it is possible, they say, for the superintendent's estimates to be on the low side, based on new construction bringing in many new families during the next few years.

TOWN MEETING ON SATURDAY THIS YEAR

ness dictated having all articles in the same warrant rather than splitting it as was done last year.

The regular budgets to be acted upon call for about $1,692,096.56 while special articles would have the town spend about $1,019,571, excluding the cost of a new South district school.

Estimates in rough form place the cost of that building at $850,000 although a clearer picture of its cost will only be received after preliminary plans are completed. School department officials point out that the plans must be cleared through the state school building assistance commission before an accurate estimate can be offered the voters.

Schools Top List

The school department budget still tops the list of town department budgets with $695,357. The selectmen's budget, which includes all but school, board of public works, cemeteries and the library, reaches $667,000. The library budget is $50,161 and the BPW budget, as it appears in another news story this week, calls for $279,578.56.

Meet With FinCom

The selectmen have stressed that their budget is not yet specific but will be as soon as a discussion with the Finance committee takes place this Saturday. The BPW is also due to talk with the financial committee tonight.

A $6 across-the-board pay raise for town employees is not included in the selectmen's budget nor in the BPW budget.

The selectmen have explained that figures will be readily available for the increase and will be added to the budgets if the town meeting votes the raise.

The proposed 48-hour work week for firefighters is included in the fire department budget, it was explained. Figures will be presented to show the total budget if the raise is given as well as the shorter work-week.

The special articles include a whopping $317,000 for Rogers brook drainage; a library addition; improvements to the water system and two new reservoirs and many rezoning articles which would change the residential area requirements to larger lot sizes in several sections of town.

Articles In Warrant

Summarizing quickly the articles as listed in the official warrant, there are:

Appeals Bd. Files Split Acme Decision

A sharp division in opinion was shown this week among members of the appeals board, as official documents were filed relating to the Acme Concrete company's petition for permission to operate a manufacturing plant on Fletcher st.

Member Edward P. Hall differed on all major points from Chairman James Eastham and Member Hugh Bullock. The majority refused permission for the Acme firm while Mr. Hall would have allowed the request.

Acme had applied for permission to use its contractor's yard on Fletcher st. for the manufacture of concrete and concrete castings.

The majority opinion, after reciting the circumstances of the appeal and explaining the board's procedure in holding a hearing and inspecting the proposed site, said:

"A majority of the board is unable to find that the proposed use of the premises by the petitioner will not be seriously detrimental or offensive to the adjoining district or tend to reduce property values in said adjoining district. The petitioner has failed to show to the satisfaction of a majority of the board that the use of the premises for which application is made will not constitute a nuisance because of noise, vibration, fumes, dust or other objectionable features and that such other use will not be otherwise injurious to the inhabitants or their property or dangerous to the public health or safety. A majority of the board finds itself unable to grant the permit under the provisions of paragraph 4 of section VII and paragraph 4 of section XIII of the Andover zoning by-law. A majority of the board finds that the building inspector should not issue any permit for the use of the premises sought by the petitioner."

On the other hand, Mr. Hall presented a minority report which included completely opposite opinions from the other two members. He wrote:

"The land on which Acme Concrete, inc., proposes to carry on its business has been an industrial zone in the town of Andover since the town was first zoned. All of the owners of property on Binney, Fletcher and Shepley streets knew or should have known that this area was zoned for business when they purchased their properties.

"Mr. Hall does not believe that there will be any unusual dust, fumes or noise from their operations. The stone and sand used in the operation goes through a washing plant and the cement is conveyed from railroad cars to the bins through an airtight pipe, thus eliminating any cement dust. He feels that there is no dust, odor, fumes, gas, excess noise, vibrations or smoke as a result of their operations. The main building is of fireproof construction.

Fletcher, Binney and Shepley streets are all dead end streets, so there is no through traffic past the plant. Mr. Hall does not feel that the use now proposed to be made of the area is an unreasonable extension of the use for which the area was originally zoned industrial and, therefore, dissents from the majority opinion and it is his opinion that a variance could be granted subject to certain restrictions as to the travel of trucks through the area consistent with public safety.

TOWN MANAGER

PLAN IS EXPLAINED

sition by ballot in a state or town election.

The article asks that a committee be appointed by the moderator to file the legislation with the state body. Subsequent approval by the legislature would mean that the question would come up at the next possible election — either in November at the presidential elections — or next March at the annual town election.

Some Changes

Although the plan as drawn appears in much the same form as one outlined recently as a model charter, several changes have been inserted. At a public meeting, the committee pointed out that any charter for Andover must be tailor-made, with necessary changes from an average charter.

It is noted that the proposed plan would have the selectmen giving their approval before appointments to town boards and committees become final — although the manager would make the appointments.

The text of the legislation will be published in the Townsman in two installments, beginning next week.

$279,578 Is BPW Tentative Budget

The board of public works wants to spend $279,578.56 in the coming year under a tentative budget set for discussion with the Finance committee.

The over-all budget figure is $22,168.56 more than the appropriation in 1955 for the several departments under board control.

At the same time, the board has revealed that $8964.76 will be turned back into the town treasury from its 1955 appropriations. Moth suppression funds totalling $4953.79 are to be turned into the general fund and a street lighting balance of $1191.41 is also to be turned back. Other departments show smaller returns, according to the board's balance sheet.

While several budgeted items show a decrease from last year's appropriation, several have jumped. The highway department item for 1956 is $71,194.80 compared with $64,672 last year. The water department budget is listed at $70,350 while $65,730 was appropriated last year. Snow removal and sanding has jumped to $18,000 in the proposed budget compared with $12,000 in 1955.

Other budgeted items and the comparative figures for 1955 are: street lighting, $27,000 in 1956, same in 1955; administrative supervision and office account, $26,511.76 this year, $22,050 in 1955; park department, $8400 this year, $9738 last year; sewer department, $7850 and $7320 in 1955; trucks, garage and repair shop maintenance, $27,900 requested, $26,770 appropriated last year; tree department, $7470 asked in 1956, $7560 voted last year; moth suppression, $7552 in 1956 proposed budget, $7620 voted in 1955; Dutch Elm disease, $7350 requested, $6950 voted.

Bonds Sold At 2.2 Percent

Four investment firms, combining in one proposal, have been awarded a $2,085,000 bond issue.

The bid came in at 2.20 percent interest and a premium of 49 cents per $1000 bond — thus paying the town $1021 over the worth of the bonds.

Three bids at the same rate of interest were received by Town Treasurer Thaxter Eaton, but premiums of two were less than those offered by successful firms.

In all, 38 investment houses were represented in the bidding while seven actual bids were received.

Successful were the First Boston corporation, the Northern Trust company, Harris Trust and Savings bank and White, Weld and company.
