School Site Off Elm St. Chosen By School Bd.

An area off Elm st. for a new school was on last night's agenda of the planning board, as it met in the town hall.

The board has received a letter from the school committee suggesting that 15 acres of land be set aside for a school on the property now held by the Realty Construction company off Elm st.

The preliminary notice to the planning board was voted at the school board's May 1 meeting, after members of the committee joined planning board members in viewing possible sites in the area.

The notice did not specify which 15-acre plot would be requested out of the extensive hold-

$544,260 Value Of April Permits

Permits for new buildings valued at $429,460 and alterations estimated at $114,800 were issued during April by Building Inspector Ralph Coleman.

The total estimated value of all permits was $544,260. The figures were contained in a report to the selectmen at their meeting Monday night. Twenty-one new homes are included in the list of permits, along with such new building as garages, breezeways and a tool house.

Alec Thompson crosses the finish line in the 100-yard dash, to win that event for Punchard in its track meet with No. Andover. At left, No. Andover's May runs a close second and that town's Harrison took third. Jim Bennett, no. 16, ran fourth, Frank Carelli, no. 17, was fifth and Dick Walsh of Punchard finished sixth. Thompson's time was 10:8. Punchard took top honors at the meet, winning all but one event. (Leone Photo)

Giles Sees Little Hope For Manager Bill On Nov. Ballot; May Not Be Acted On Now

Voters probably will have to wait until at least March, 1957, to decide the town manager question.

Rep. Frank S. Giles Jr. pessimistically reported this week the chances "are not too good" of getting the proposal on the November ballot. A possibility that it might not even be ready for

March of 1957 arose, as Giles pointed out that it would be quite an effort to get the bill through both the House and Senate and have it signed in time for the March town election. He said it is possible, however, that the powerful Rules committee - before which the bill now stands - might agree to late filing in this session with the restriction that the question be put over for 1957 consideration at the town election. That chance exists, he explained, because many legislators don't like to see the national and state ballot "cluttered up" with town questions.

No Meeting Called

The bill itself was filed last week by this district's three representatives - Giles, Rep. William Longworth and Rep. Thomas Slack. Because the deadline for (Continued on Page 16)

Property, Real Estate Values Up Over 1955

A historic, record-shattering tax rate of $60 has been announced by the assessors-selectmen.

It is $7 higher than the 1955 rate per thousand of $53.

The selectmen announced the rate Monday night, after receiving approval from the state division of corporations and taxation.

The figures show a gross total of $2,311,664.89 to be raised by taxation, but estimated receipts and available funds total $862,224.89.

Thus the town must raise, through personal property, real estate and poll taxes, a net amount of $1,449,440.

Higher Valuations

In figuring the rate, the assessors show increased personal property and real estate valuations

Many Architects Interviewed For So. School Job

The school committee, its four consultants and members of the Taxpayers association interviewed architects for the South school Tuesday night.

Representatives of eight firms were interviewed during the meeting. They included the Anderson-Nichols firm of Boston, engineers and architects for the Texas Tower.

There was general agreement among the firms that preliminary plans for the school would require an average of 4-6 weeks, partially depending on how quickly the committee acted on sketches as they were presented. Final plans, following approval of the town meeting, would take from two to six months, with most of the firms asking for about four (Continued on Page 15)

The audience then enjoyed a piano duet, "Stars and Stripes Forever" played by Dorothy Minzner and Linda Watters. "A Big Surprise" was presented by Georgine Bird followed by a duet by Linda Watters and Thelma Watson entitled "In The Garden". Rose Esile and Patricia Roberge told about a "Home With Nobody In It". Richard Lacey then gave a trumpet solo, playing "Peg of My Heart". The combined chorus of grades 6 presented a medley of songs after which James O'Reilly told of the "Arrival of Spring" and an amusing pantomime of the "Mocking Bird Hill" was presented by Kathy Kraukuer and Joanne Bravacos. The program came to a close with the audience participating in the salute to the flag and the singing of America.

The belief that created equal played part in the founding of the Christian church. In 1845, this created impetus for a meeting of prominent citizens of Thomas Clark, who had its beginning, a committee pointed to find a place and another was found a minister. Both were successful in their efforts. In February 1846, they elected the Rev. Elijah C. their first pastor a man who had the vision to rent the Union Church which stood at the corner of Punchard ave. and M. Took Courage

Free Church Founders Faced Severe Criticism From Town

By Kay Noyes

The belief that all men are created equal played an important part in the founding of the Free Christian church. On November 29, 1845, this creed provided the impetus for a meeting of a group of prominent citizens at the home of Thomas Clark, where the Free Church had its beginning. At this meeting, a committee was appointed to find a place to worship and another was formed to secure a minister. Both committees were successful in their tasks for, by February 1846, they had acquired the Rev. Elijah C. Winchester for their first pastor and had an option to rent the Universalist church which stood at the corner of Punchard ave. and Main st.

Took Courage
Under the leadership of Reverend Winchester, definite plans were made towards the organization of a church and on May 7 of the same year the 44 original members came together to found the Free Christian church. The problems of the new church in its stand against slavery and intolerance were many but with firm had 13 members and is now the only volunteer choir in this section of the state which can boast of a continued active existence for the past 110 years.

Bought Methodist Church

Through the efforts of John Smith the above Methodist church which once stood on Main st. was acquired and moved to Railroad ave., where it was remodeled and enlarged to hold the growing congregation of the newly established church. When completed it stood in its simple New England stateliness as a symbol of the courage and determination of the early founders who ranged themselves on the side of anti-slavery and in doing so built the foundation for one of Andover's finest christian bodies. No one was admitted to its membership who was a "slave holder or apologist of slavery, nor any who manufactured, sold or used intoxicating drinks."

Remnants of a turbulent century may be seen today on Porter rd. in the remains of the old church whose windows are displayed in the upstairs of the garage owned by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sullivan.

Why Named "Free"

How the church received its name has been questioned many times. It's name was derived from many associations and the fact that its members believed in the freeing of the slaves and that its original concept was free and independent of other ecclesiastical assemblies may have played an important role in the naming of the church. Other ideas that may have influenced its naming were that the seats in the meeting hall should be free or perhaps to many of the members there was still an affectionate memory of the Free church of Scotland. No doubt a resolution and faith the courageous men and women who founded the church faced severe criticisms as they broke away from all that had once been their way of life to stand forth as friends of the poor and friendless.

The first organization to be formed in the new church was the singing choir which began in 1846, and did much towards uniting the new members into a close-knit and friendly group. The first choir combination of these reasons played an influential part in the name given to the church 110 years ago.

The graceful brick structure on Elm st. with its beautiful columned entrance has been the new house of worship for members of the Free church since its dedication on 1908, and has remained strong even through the destructive fire which ran through the edifice on a cold Sunday night in January of 1941.

Since 1945, the Rev. J. Levering Reynolds, Jr. Th.D., has guided the vigorous growth of this church and labored painstakingly to make it a strong force for righteousness.

ings of the firm.

Action on site-selection was taken after receipt of a letter from the planning board, calling the school board's attention to the necessity of choosing a site in that area before it is completely developed.

Goodwin's Letter

A letter written last October by Clinton F. Goodwin, as consultant for the planning board, was re-read to the committee. It said the area in the northeastern section of town now holds about 400 houses, of which 20 are two-family homes and one is a multiple-family home. The letter said possibly 800 homes could be maintained in the area - or 600 if re-zoning took place.

Even at present occupancy, the letter continued, there would be some 400 children available for a school there.

Since the letter was written, re-zoning has taken place. But members of the committee were quick to point out that development on the fringes of the area has partially off-set any improvement through re-zoning.

The motion to ask for a plot of land on the Realty firm's land was made by member Albert Cole Jr. He specified, in his motion, that the exact location of the plot would be described later.

Flying Feather Farm

Previously, the committee had received Goodwin's recommendation that an area near the intersection of Westwind rd. be chosen. Goodwin said the area was well-drained and level. However, members of the committee said the land appeared very wet when it was seen last week. Their selection lies on the opposite side of the road from the Goodwin-suggested site. It may, the members said, take in part of the Flying Feather farm.

It was pointed out during the discussion that a new school in that area would not only serve homes there and expected new homes, but also would serve to take some of the excess from Central school and possibly from the Shawsheen.

Lindsay Elected To Head Youth Center

Stafford Lindsay was reelected president of the Andover Youth center at the annual meeting May 2.

Other officers named included Anne Harnedy as secretary and Harold Rutter as treasurer. David Thompson was named to the board of directors for three years and Fred I. Kent III for two years.

The center celebrated its 60th anniversary this year. Mr. Lindsay spoke to the meeting briefly about the history of the center.

Buddy Poppy Sale Coming

Edward W. Thompson, a resident of Argilla rd. and senior vice commander of VFW post 2128, has been named chairman of the annual Buddy Poppy campaign.

Commander Joseph Monan announced Thompson's acceptance of the job.

Although no date has been set for the poppy sale, Thompson said it would occur between May 18 and May 30 - the time period when the rest of the country celebrates Buddy Poppy day.

Pointing out that he wants to wage the most intensive campaign possible, Thompson explained that many more requests for aid are being received by the VFW. He also stressed the fact that the VFW seeks public support only once a year.

The appointment of a committee will be announced shortly.

MRS. THOMAS S. ZOCCO
ZOCCO - HIBBERT

At a 3 o'clock ceremony Saturday in the Free Christian church, Miss Ethel Ruth Hibbert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hibbert, 34½ Maple ave., became the bride of Thomas S. Zocco, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Zocco, 56 Russell st., Melrose. The Rev. Levering Reynolds Jr., Th. D., officiated before an altar arranged with gladioli, snapdragons and ferns.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length gown of Chantilly lace over nylon net and taffeta. Her shoulder length veil of illusion fell from a pearl crown and she carried a colonial bouquet of white roses.

Mrs. Durwood Moody of Ballardvale, as matron of honor for her sister, chose aqua lace over nylon net in ballerina length. Her head-piece was of matching net and flowers and she carried a colonial bouquet of yellow roses.

Durwood Moody of Ballardvale served as best man and the ushers were Joseph Pennick of Andover and Robert Proctor of Melrose.

A reception in the church vestry followed the ceremony with guests present from Connecticut, New Hampshire and Massachusetts.

Following a wedding trip to Washington, D.C. the couple will reside in Boston.

The bride is a graduate of the Chandler School for Women and is employed as a secretary in Boston. The bridegroom attended Tabor academy and graduated from Boston university. He served with the Marines in the Korean war. He is connected with the First National bank of Boston.

HIGHWAY DESIGN

WHITE LINES

To delineate the lanes of travel. Glass beads mixed with roadway paint reflectorize the lines at night. Each white dash of the broken white line is 15 feet long. There is a space of 25 feet between each white dash. Extreme caution should accompany return from passing to travel lane. Solid white line should never be crossed.

SWISS CHEESE SAUCE

Cheese adds to the flavor and texture of many tempting sauces. Although most homemakers are more familiar with white sauces that require American or cheddar cheese, there are endless possibilities for distinctive sauces which make use of the wide variety of cheeses available. This delicious sauce made with Swiss cheese is excellent for hot cooked vegetables or served on toast with crisp bacon.

- 3 tablespoons margarine
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 1 cup milk
- 3/4 teaspoons salt
- 1/8 teaspoon ground black pepper
- 1/16 teaspoon ground cayenne pepper
- 3/4 cup finely chopped Swiss cheese
- 2 teaspoons fresh lemon juice

Melt margarine in a saucepan. Blend in flour. Stir in milk. Cook until medium thickness. Add seasonings and Swiss cheese. Mix well and cook over low heat until cheese is almost melted. Stir in lemon juice. Serve over hot cooked vegetables or on toast with crisp bacon. This makes one and three-fourths cups.

New CD Show on Radio Network

A new half-hour weekly dramatic and news show on civil defense has gone on the air coast-to-coast.

The Mutual Broadcasting System, in cooperation with the Federal Civil Defense Administration, is carrying the program, "By the People," as a public service. It is broadcast Sundays at 7 p.m. (EST), but may be transcribed by some of the more than 560 MBS affiliates for broadcast at another time.

"BY THE PEOPLE" tells the story of Dan Taylor, a 45-year-old small town newspaper editor, as he works to interest others in preparing a sound civil defense to meet any emergency.

Five minutes at the end of each show will go to civil defense news, arranged so local stations may either use it or cut in with local civil defense items.

Town Dump Problem

The town dump has been a bothersome nuisance.

The selectmen have thrown out bids for twice-a-week bulldozing (or somewhat oftener) and are apparently going to ask for bids on more careful supervision of the whole area by a man who will have the authority to enforce regulations.

We certainly hope that the dump area can be kept as free as possible from wind-blown papers and other refuse which has spread over a wide section. Having a man on the job, with the use of a bulldozer whenever needed, seems like the answer to the problem.

The answer partially lies in the willingness of residents to take some care in dumping their papers and rubbish. Having a man on the premises to prevent dumping indiscriminately will be a tremendous help.

Good Work

We congratulate the school committee on its action last week in calling for interviews of architectural firms.

We were happy to see that the committee listened attentively and acted promptly on its consultants' advice not to sign a contract with the firm which had been working on plans for the school. And we hope, of course, that future advice from the consultants will be similarly heeded.

Men's Glee Clubs

As most lovers of music know, the Andover Male Choir will be host May 19 to the New England Federation of Men's Glee clubs.

An afternoon competition is open to the public as is the evening concert. The banquet, at which awards will be made, is also a public affair.

The series of events should offer a rich experience for lovers of men's singing groups, for there will be several hundred male voices combined in the evening program. We're looking forward to the event and hope that many others are, too.

Town Manager Bill

The town manager bill has been filed.

Now the Legislature must, through endorsement of its powerful Rules committee, agree to accept the late-filed bill for consideration at this session. We strongly urge our three elected representatives to put every effort into seeing that the bill does not die now - for the citizens of this town have the right (as voted at town meeting) to accept or reject the proposal via the ballot. And we believe the November ballot is the best place for the question, for that is the election in which most citizens have an interest, thereby guaranteeing a larger turn-out of voters to express an opinion.

Will Show Method Of Using Film In Teaching Piano

MISS MARY E. CHURCH

A method by which films may be employed in teaching music reading will be explained and demonstrated at Phillips Academy in the choir room of Cochran chapel by Miss Mary E. Church of Cambridge on Friday, May 18, at 4.

Miss Church is a prominent teacher of piano in the Boston area and has pioneered in bringing the use of films into the field of piano teaching. She will explain how her series of lessons with identical films, progressing from simple to advanced, may be used with individual students as well as with groups.

The use of films with companion lessons is the answer to the age old problems of teaching piano sight reading, she believes.

The presentation is open to the public.

Flag Service Coming To Town

Both the selectmen and BPW have given approval to a plan to have flags displayed along Main st. on patriotic holidays.

Nimrod Olson of the Amesbury Flag shop appeared before both boards Monday night. He told them he had been urged by patriotic organizations here, as well as the patriotic committee, to provide service to merchants so that flags could be displayed.

The BPW agreed to allow Mr. Olson to use the town compressor to drill holes for the iron socket, placed in the sidewalk near the curb. Olson said he will pay one of the town employees to operate the compressor. He estimated that at least 40 flags would be displayed along Main st.

Olson also received approval from the selectmen, who sent him to the BPW because his work involves use of the sidewalks. Olson sells his service to merchants on an annual basis.

Cost Of Widening Thought Too High Ballardvale Road

Members of the board of public works will face a decision on Ballardvale rd. widening at their meeting next Monday night.

Engineer Ralph Preble presented cost estimates for land damages alone that might reach $15,000. He said three plans for the road had been discussed with state engineers.

The work has been approved under Chapter 90, where the state pays half, the county a quarter and the town the remaining 25 percent. The sum of $10,000 was appropriated as the town's share of the work.

Preble said one plan involved moving a house; a second would have the road go to the left of the house but through ledge; and the third plan would follow the present road layout. The third possibility would require some land damages, it was explained, and a lot of work to get the road down from a peak 13 to a six percent grade.

Members Alex Henderson and David Thompson said they felt the cost to be too much. There was general agreement that the original project was not planned as an elaborate one.

Preble told board members that the money could be "encumbered", telling the state that this year's money should be put aside for a project next year.

It was originally decided to widen Ballardvale rd. due to the proposal that a school be built at the ball ground.

GREAT BOOKS GROUP TO COMPLETE DANTE READINGS

At the next meeting of the Great Books group, the discussion will be on Dante's "Divine Comedy", the Paradiso section. The group decided to take the three sections one at a time, and have already finished the "Inferno" and the "Purgatorio".

Any person wondering about the Great Books Discussion Group as a possible undertaking for next year is most cordially invited to attend this meeting and become acquainted with the members and the idea behind this very popular form of adult education. The group has been meeting every other Tuesday evening at 7:45 in the Memorial Hall library for the past few years and are midway in the fifth year readings. The members will decide on the date of summer recess at the next meeting, May 15.

Cost Of Widening Thought Too High Ballardvale Road

Members of the board of public works will face a decision on Ballardvale rd. widening at their meeting next Monday night.

Engineer Ralph Preble presented cost estimates for land damages alone that might reach $15,000. He said three plans for the road had been discussed with state engineers.

The work has been approved under Chapter 90, where the state pays half, the county a quarter and the town the remaining 25 percent. The sum of $10,000 was appropriated as the town's share of the work.

Preble said one plan involved moving a house; a second would have the road go to the left of the house but through ledge; and the third plan would follow the present road layout. The third possibility would require some land damages, it was explained, and a lot of work to get the road down from a peak 13 to a six percent grade.

Members Alex Henderson and David Thompson said they felt the cost to be too much. There was general agreement that the original project was not planned as an elaborate one.

Preble told board members that the money could be "encumbered", telling the state that this year's money should be put aside for a project next year.

It was originally decided to widen Ballardvale rd. due to the proposal that a school be built at the ball ground.

months to prepare detailed drawings and specifications.

Most of the firms said their fee is based on the Blue Book - rates and fees established by the American Institute of Architects. Some agreed, as well, to some restriction on the fee, based on their own cost estimate. While one firm agreed to accept only the percentage fee of their own estimate even if the eventual job cost more, others said they usually redraw some of the plan to bring it into line with the budget at no extra cost.

Interviewed by the committee were the Rich and Tucker associates, Burton Phinney; Shepley, Bulfinch, Richardson and Abbott, Mr. Holloran; Perry, Shaw and Hepburn, Robert C. Dean; Architects Collaborative, Norman Fletcher and Louis McMillan; Anderson-Nichols, C. M. Koelb and Charles Johnson; Adden, Parker, Clinch and Crimp, Frank W. ## TOWN MANAGER BILL DELAYED filing bills was last December, the Rules committee must approve every measure before it can be considered by the current session. Some 300-400 bills are now waiting for Rules committee action, he stated, with no indication of when they may be studied by the committee. "There is no meeting scheduled for this week", he explained.

Moreover, Rules committee sessions are called less frequently toward the close of the session, Giles stated. Thus, he reiterated, "I don't see any immediate prospect of getting it reported out".

Two Changes

The bill as filed included two changes from the original document provided the voters prior to town meeting. The library would be allowed to purchase its own books and related audio-visual aids. And the school department would retain control of book purchasing for the schools. Other purchasing would remain under the manager, although several committee members explained during public hearings that a manager often delegates some of that authority to departments when their purchases are of a type not used in other departments. The school department had questioned the practice, pointing out that some school articles are usable only in the schools, with no possible resultant saving through bulk-buying.

Big Vote In November
The manager committee had sought to have the question on the ballot in November. It was explained on different occasions that the state and national elections would draw more people to the polls in November, thus offering an opportunity to have a decision from as many voters as possible.

TAX RATE OF $60
ANNOUNCED FOR 1956

over 1955. Real estate valuations went up $798,291 to a new high total of $21,249,466. Personal property increased $44,259 for a grand total of $2,750,534.

According to the assessors figures, personal property and real estate taxes will net $1,440,000 for the town this year.

Poll taxes this year will account for $9440 — based on 4720 men paying $2 apiece. That figure has grown from last year too. Then, it was 4470 men and payment of $8940.

State Taxes

Looking at state taxes and assessments, briefly, worksheets list state parks and reservations at $2318.14; state audit of municipal accounts at $1395.36 and state examination of retirement system at $619.06. The total owed the state for these items is $4332.56.

County Taxes

County taxes and assessments run to a total of $89,689.20. That breaks down into county tax, $64,137.46; TB hospital assessment, $24,114.76 plus an added $1436.98 which was an underestimate on last year's county assessment.

Income

Estimated receipts from the state, based on "Cherry Sheet" figures provided by the state, are income tax, $90,840.97; corporation taxes, $138,341.35; reimbursement on account publicly owned land, $1,408.97; old age tax, $2,773.92.

Other estimated receipts listed by the assessors include motor vehicle and trailer excise taxes, $130,000; licenses, $9000; special assessments, $3000; general government, $2000; protection of persons and property, $8000; health and sanitation, $1000; charities other than federal grants for aid to dependent children, $8000; old age assistance other than federal aid, $38,000; veterans benefits, $5000; schools (funds from state income tax not included), $18,000; libraries, $2000; public service enterprises (such as water department), $58,000; cemeteries, other than trust funds and sale of lots, $3000; interest, $2000 and state assistance to school construction, $40,000; for a total of $560,365.21.

School Aid

Under the state income tax returns to the town, the state "Cherry Sheet" lists a total of $90,840.97, broken down this way: school aid under Chapter 70 of the General Laws, $62,257.14; state tax apportionment, $24,117.83 and school aid under Chapter 71 of the General Laws, $4466.

Available Funds

Available funds are listed at $301,859.68. Included in that figure are two payments to the town based on over-estimates last year. They are $2739.42 from the TB hospital assessment and $340.26 from the tax last year for state recreation areas.

Two-Year Boost

The $60 tax rate, while substantially higher than 1955, did not reach predicted levels in the mid 60's. It does, however, show an increase in a two-year period of $13-per-thousand. The rate in 1954 was $47; jumped to $53 in 1955 and now rests at $60 for this year.

HEARING MONDAY

The appeals board will conduct a hearing Monday night at 7:15 in the Memorial Hall library on the Raytheon Manufacturing company's application for light manufacturing at the Shawsheen mills.

The firm's option on the mill expires May 15.

Town May Raise
Wire Permit Cost

The selectmen are investigating the possibility of raising the price of electrical permits.

At a conference April 30 with Wire Inspector William J. Young, it was pointed out that present permits cost $1 — with an average of three inspection trips. A second permit for fixtures also is rated at $1.

The board discussed either raising the permit price or charging a fee per fixture so that the income would make the inspector's salary self-sustaining.

Mr. Young told the board that at least half an hour is spent "on the job" each time an inspection is made, with the probability that considerably more time would be spent with the electrical contractors.

One of the worst problems described to the selectmen is the case of a large building such as a hotel, which only requires a $1 permit but requires many visits for inspection purposes. Industrial plants, new schools and other large construction falls in that same category, it was explained.

Another point under discussion was the possibility of amending existing regulations controlling the wiring of a house itself. It was explained that many kitchens should now have separate circuits for each outlet, based on the premise that most homes will have several electrical devices in use that might overload the circuits if used at the same time.

300 Pints Of Blood Is Quota

The Red Cross Bloodmobile will visit Andover next week, May 16 and 17, from 1 to 7 p.m. each day, at the Free Christian church on Elm street. The quota is 300 usable pints of blood.

In order to meet the quota, Red Cross headquarters said this week, it will be necessary for 210 persons on each of the two days to be registered to give blood. This will allow leeway for failures of various kinds, such as inability to show up for one reason or another.

A telephone call to Red Cross headquarters will bring answers to questions. Transportation will be furnished on request. Children will be cared for at the church while donors are giving.

Try To Control Mess At Dump

Bids are being requested for cleaning and policing the town dump.

The selectmen, after receiving bids for twice-a-week cleaning and then rejecting them, are calling for bids on a four-times-a-week cleaning basis. Included will be policing the dump for a minimum of four hours a day, seven days a week.

It was pointed out that many persons, as well as contractors, tree companies and other firms, use the dump but do not always drop the refuse far enough back in the area. Thus, it blocks the entrance. The policing job will involve supervision of the dumping, it was stated, so that less debris will clutter up the area. Cleaning four times a week will, the selectmen felt, be adequate to keep papers and other matter from blowing around in the neighborhood.

Bids will be returned by May 21, they said.

YOUNGSTERS WILL GET POLIO SHOTS THIS SPRING

Salk polio vaccine for those who have not received their first shot will be available in about three weeks.

Charles O. McCullom, chairman of the board of health, said the board anticipates giving the initial shot before school closes, although it is impossible to set a definite date yet. Word that the vaccine will be available soon was received this week, he said.

purposes was approved in principle. Methods of undertaking the project consistent with the organization's by-laws will be studied by a special committee. Harold Rafton was appointed committee chairman.

Mr. Rafton has appeared before the planning board urging that some land throughout the town be bought up before it is completely developed, so that future generations will have some recreational areas. He suggests that the land be maintained in its natural state, however, rather than making formal playgrounds and like areas.
