Boland Urges "Mail Early"

"Mail early for Christmas". That's the advice from Stephen A. Boland, postmaster, who this week began to plan for the busy Christmas mailing season. "Christmas is just slightly more than a month away", Boland explained, "meaning we now have to give the rush of mail serious thought". He listed these ideas for public cooperation in the mail early campaign:

Check Christmas card lists carefully, making certain that each contains the full name, street and number, city, zone and state; Stock up on heavy wrapping paper, sturdy cartons, strong cord

Costs About $78,000 For Present Staff

The School Committee has adopted, in its entirety, the recommendations of the special salary committee headed by Phillips Academy Headmaster John Kemper.

The new salary schedule sets starting salaries for inexperienced teachers at $3800 and provides for annual $300 increases to the $5000 level. Additional $100 increases each year after that would take the top salary to $6000, over a total of 14 years.

The School Committee discussed the subject in executive (Continued on Page Nine)

Taxpayers Head Offered BPW Post But Refused; No "Official" Action

Complete Well Work In Vale

Workmen completed installation of the well in Ballardvale early this week.

Water Department Supt. Donald Bassett said crews have already started installing the Abbot well, moving along according to schedule. Both wells should be in use during February, according to the engineers' planning.

Next step in getting the wells operative, he explained, is receiving (Continued on Page 14)

No official request to sit down and elect a successor to the late P. LeRoy Wilson has been received by the Selectmen from the Board of Public Works.

Chairman Sidney P. White said the Selectmen have heard "not a word" from the BPW, which is charged, under the law, with the responsibility of initiating such a meeting.

But it was learned this week by the TOWNSMAN that some "unofficial" action has been taken.

Although some persons may emphatically deny their part in the affair, this newspaper learned that the president of the Taxpayers Association, Harold Haller, was offered the job, but refused. The offer came through Selectman Stafford Lindsay and not directly from the Board of Public Works. But it is apparent that the move had the approval of at least some BPW members.

Haller confirmed this report and said he also was asked if the (Continued on Page 22)

Ask Help To Curb Speeding

Argilla rd. residents have presented a petition to the Selectmen asking that the road be posted for a safe speed.

Sixteen residents signed the petition, that urged the town fathers to take immediate action to control speeding on the road. The petition listed 34 children as living on the road and explained that fast driving endangers their lives.

Kenneth Jackman, with his mobile science unit, which has been at Andover High School this week.

Kenneth Jackman, "traveling science teacher" from Oak Ridge, Tenn., has been presenting lecture-demonstrations on a variety of topics to Andover High School students all week. His visit to the school will continue today and Friday.

Mr. Jackman is one of 10 science teachers who are touring more than 300 high schools throughout the country during the 1957-58 academic year.

His mission is to stimulate student interest in science and scientific careers. The "traveling teacher" also has been available for discussion and consultation with the science staff and other faculty members as a means of exchanging ideas and experiences. He brought with him a station wagon full of demonstration equipment, much of which he and his fellow traveling teachers built themselves this summer in Oak Ridge from simple, inexpensive components. Designed to present scientific principles in a graphic, meaningful manner, the homemade apparatus can be easily and inexpensively duplicated by students and teachers.

The Traveling Science Demonstration Lecture Program, now in its second year, is sponsored by the National Science Foundation and the Atomic Energy Commission, and is administered by the Oak Ridge Institute of Nuclear Studies. Last year, seven traveling teachers visited more than 200 high schools in 48 states and Before becoming a "traveling teacher," Mr. Jackman was a science teacher at The Hill School, Pottstown, Pa. Mr. Jackman has been granted a one-year leave of absence to serve as a traveling teacher and plans to return to his former position.

A member of the faculty at The Hill School since 1943, Mr. Jackman served in the capacity of science instructor, coach and senior dormitory supervisor. He is a graduate of Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vt. and has conducted graduate work at Harvard University, the University of Pennsylvania, the University of Chicago, Northwestern University, and the University of New Hampshire; he holds a master's degree in chemistry from the University of Colorado; attended the 1955 summer institute for secondary school science teachers, held at the Oak Ridge Institute of Nuclear Studies; and was 1956 research assistant at the California Forest and Range Experiment Station. Before joining the staff of The Hill School, he spent three years as an aviator in the United States Navy.

Andover Region".
In his talk, Mr. Root congratulated Andover on being one of the first Massachusetts communities to recognize the need of conserving wildlife environment. He traced the history of conservation over the past 60 years, comparing the abundance of wild life during the days of legitimate pioneer hunting, when our ancestors were free to hunt at will, with the later activities of professional hunters, which, he said, decimated the wild life population.

Successful conservation today, he said, adheres to the principle that total bird population is limited by the amount of land retained in its natural state, in which the birds live and breed.

He also discussed conserving areas in which have been found many varieties of plant life, as found in other Essex County areas.

Mr. Root urged prompt action by Andover and other communities to conserve marshlands and other natural areas so that wild life and plant life won't be virtually crowded out of existence.

Directors Elected

During the meeting, the nominating committee presented the following list of directors:

Three years, Mrs. Waters Kellogg, Fred E. Cheever, Harold Rafton, Lester C. Newton and Clifford E. Marshall.
Two years, Mrs. Alfred Castle, Mrs. John B. Cecill, Donald D. Dunn, Mrs. Frank Purdon and Heinrich Rohrbach.
One year, Mrs. Wilson Kapp Jr., George K. Sanborn, David MacDonald, Edmond E. Hammond and Mrs. John C. Brown.

Local Lads In College Play

ANDOVER RESIDENTS TAKE PART - The "On Stagers" of Merrimack College will present the three-act play "Stalag 17" Nov. 23-24 in the college auditorium. This candid shot was taken by Frank Leone Jr., a student at the college, during a scene at rehearsal. Standing are John Lucey and Henry Widmer, John Forsman, all of Andover and Richard Seguine. Seated are Daniel Mulherne, Jim Doherty and Bill Peterchelli. Also a member of the cast is Robert Walsh, an Andover resident.

The Merrimack College On-stagers will present the gripping play "Stalag 17" Nov. 23-24.

With a cast schooled in the art of acting by the Rev. Francis X. Smith, O.S.A., they will bring to the public a portrayal of the tragic, comic heroism of American prisoners during World War II. The place is Stalag 17, a prison camp located somewhere in Germany. The action centers around a group of prisoners who have to contend with a traitorous informer. The process used to find who the informer is, the mistakes made before finding out who he is and the punishment meted out to him is matter enough for a play full of pathos and comedy. The play will start at 8:30 each night, in the Collegiate Auditorium. A special showing for high school students will be held Nov. 22 at 8 p.m.

INJUNCTION HEARING TODAY AT 10

the town garage addition and prevent payment of any money for this work to the Cyr Co., will be argued before Judge Vincent Brogna.

A third action, brought by Suburban Household Enterprises against the Board of Public Works and the Cyr Co., asks to have the Board's action in awarding a contract to Cyr voided and asks to be recognized as the lowest responsible bidder. This action, however, is not being heard today. Officials in the Clerk of Courts office said this case would probably be listed for appearance in January.

The case this morning centers around two writs - one a taxpayers' suit, the other brought by Suburban Household Enterprises. Ten citizens, listed on the taxpayers' suit, ask that the town treasurer be instructed not to pay any money to the L. C. Cyr Co. for work done on the town garage. The Suburban suit seeks an injunction against having any more work done on the structure.

According to the legal papers, filed last weekend, bids were opened Oct. 21 and Suburban was low bidder on the garage addition, at $23,900, while Cyr bid $24,395.

Served with papers in the case have been the entire Board of Public Works - Allen Flye, David Thompson, Francis Reilly and Alexander Henderson.

Also served were Town Treasurer Anna M. Greeley and officials of the Cyr Co.

The taxpayers suit, relating to the payment of money for work done on the garage, lists these persons as petitioners: Francis C. Robertson Jr., Marlene Blanchard, Joseph A. Horan, Peter Hagopian, Lionel P. Sirois, Eileen Sirois, Elizabeth Clarke, Thomas E. Thumser, Eleanor I. Thumser and A. Dale Blanchard.

The petition for a writ of certiorari, filed by Suburban against the BPW, stated that it is aggrieved and that the Board members failed to act "as reasonable persons". The court was asked to order the Board of Public Works to certify records.

Missile Production Plant at Andover received flu vaccine inoculations recently in a program recommended by Dr. Walter O. Blanchard, Raytheon medical director. Some 1133 persons received the vaccine.

Prior to "vaccination day", each employee received a card permitting him to accept or reject the vaccine. These cards were later tabulated so as to assure sufficient quantities of vaccine on hand to carry out the program.

Workers who were absent will be afforded another opportunity to receive their shots on a date to be announced later.

AGREE ON NEW SALARY SCHEDULE

The report, as adopted, states that teachers will do extra work, such as coaching, for the salary they receive under the new schedule, without extra compensation.

It also provides that no one in the system should receive less, under the new schedule, than he or she now receives each year. Directors and principals are not included under the schedule relating to extra payment for administrative responsibility.

It was estimated that the new schedule will call for an approximate $78,000, in order to place members of the present staff in their proper place on the schedule. This figure, members of the Committee stated, does not represent anything except what will be required to take care of present employees. It is assumed, they said, that new teachers will be needed next year and that the total budget figure for salaries has not been arrived at yet.

Actually, the executive session Tuesday night was called by the chairman, Roy Russell, because he said the Committee wanted to discuss budgetary and personnel problems. But after discussion of the new salary schedule and its adoption, members agreed that this should be released for publication as it was not actually a budgetary matter.

Individual members' reasons for supporting the new schedule were not available today due to the executive session.

When the report was filed with the School Committee in October, members of the salary committee made it clear that another report will be made to cover merit increases, fringe benefits and associated matters. The schedule adopted by the School Committee does not include increments for getting degrees as does the one under which the Committee has been operating for some time. Headmaster Kemper told the Committee that he believes it will be a difficult task to prepare a schedule based on merit increases, dependancy allowances or fringe benefits, but promised that his group will come up with what it believes to be as good an answer as possible.

"And be sure to include a re-

Spoke To Class About Absences

Recently the Andover High School sophomore class had a meeting, at which both Headmaster Lindsay J. March and Charles Gregory, assistant headmaster, explained school procedures.

Mr. Gregory pointed out that a satisfactory excuse must be brought in by a student the day following his absence if he is to be permitted credit on makeup work. He also called to the class's attention that if a student is to be excused from sessions on a certain day, for reasons other than sickness the school should be contacted by the parents before that day.

Mr. March spoke of the need of

Thanksgiving, 1957

Next Thursday is Thanksgiving.

And to most people, that means football games, tables piled high with delicacies and afternoon naps brought on by too much turkey and fixin's.

It's pretty easy to forget what Thanksgiving Day is supposed to mean. Modern living has taken most of the "Thanks" out of the Day, leaving it a special holiday in the middle of the week when it's perfectly OK to break that diet.

True, most churches have Thanksgiving services. But, also true, most people just don't bother to even feel thankful, never mind attending special services to express their thanks.

It really is sort of a tragedy that the "thanks" in Thanksgiving Day has taken a back seat to the incidentals.

When this Day was first observed, it was truly one of giving thanks for being alive, being well and having enough food to eat. The people of that long-ago time gave thanks first and ate later — something most of us no longer do.

Perhaps this world would be just a little better if we stopped, next Thursday, to consider the many things we should be thankful for, before gorging ourselves on that big gobbler. It's high time that all of us returned to the spirit of our forefathers, who realized that the most important part of that Day was the giving of thanks, not the food.

State's Red Tape

As this is being written, no word has been received from the state division of waterways about Rogers Brook — although that division has promised to have plans completed by now.

The Selectmen, whose baby this is, are still waiting to see the plans. As a matter of fact, they're still waiting to get even a letter from the division commenting on progress.

The town has anteed up its half of the money; the state has agreed to undertake the project; but nothing gets done.

Plans for the huge job were let out to a consulting engineer last spring — and subsequent news stories quoted state officials as saying completed preliminary plans were in the consultant's office awaiting his personal inspection. But he was in California. The man has since returned and a TOWNSMAN news story two weeks ago quoted state officials as claiming to have the plans in their hands, all but done, with every intention of consulting the selectmen within a week or 10 days.

This is a farce.

The division has been promising results all summer. But they have been empty promises, without action. It looks like the usual state red tape, only more so.

For that matter, we have also noted with some misgivings that the same consultant, in whose office the Rogers Brook plans lagged, has been given the Route 28 job, north of the river. If he doesn't do speedier work on that, the road won't get done even in 1960.

But back to the brook.

It is obvious that even speedy discussion of plans will produce nothing now, for construction probably can't begin until spring. We hope there is some way to guarantee work starting then, but on the basis of past performance, we can't be sure. Next time the town wants to get tangled up with the state in a construction project of any magnitude, we suggest everyone look carefully at this record of inefficiency and delay before voting yes.

Down the Years with The Townsman

50 Years Ago — November, 1907

The barge will leave at 6:45 for West Andover, where tonight's big event is the West Church Fair.

About 125 quarts of milk spilled on Flint ct. last Monday when the horses started up and ran the cart into a post, while the milkman was in a house making a delivery. The wagon was broken up considerably.

The Free Church reading circle will meet next Monday night.

Everyone wants to attend the championship football game at the Playstead Thanksgiving Day between Methuen and Pynchard. This is the decisive game of the series and a hard-fought contest is anticipated.

John C. Angus will talk to the men's group at the Free Church next week.

The M.D.S. club will hold a dance in the town hall next Tuesday eve.

Signs of spring were in the air this week, even though it is months away according to the calendar, when a resident brought a dandelion into the office.

25 Years Ago — November, 1932
The students of Phillips Academy have agreed to give $150 monthly to the committee working for the unemployed. The boys will get money by having one meatless meal each week for six months. Other contributions from the boys and the Academy have also been received.

The Pynchard-Methuen game will be played tomorrow, after being washed out by a deluge last Friday.

The Woman's Guild of Christ Church will hold a bakery sale, with all manner of extra goodies, Tuesday afternoon.

The Taxpayers Association has appointed a committee of seven to meet with each town department to examine next year's budgets. It is hoped that the budgets can be kept down to a level consistent with a $21 tax rate, the association said.

The water main approved for Beacon st. by the special town meeting has been finished.

The Andover Legion drum and bugle corps won first prize at a competition Armistice Day in Haverhill. A handsome cup was given by the lieutenant governor as first place prize.

Two recounts will be held here Tuesday, one for lieutenant governor and the other for state senator. Both defeated Democratic candidates have petitioned for the recounts, one for the entire senatorial district and the other statewide.

The local committee is busily engaged planning the Christmas Seal Sale which begins this month.

10 Years Ago — November, 1947

The 76th annual Firemen's concert and ball will be held Thanksgiving Eve in Memorial Auditorium. A new feature of the affair will be an amateur show.

The union Thanksgiving service, sponsored by the Andover Council of Churches, will be held Thanksgiving morning in Cochran Chapel.

Plans for re-decorating Post 8, American Legion quarters on Park st. are progressing. An active committee is planning many improvements and a general overhauling to improve the appearance of the rooms.

Racks that will hold 52 bicycles were set up at the Shawsheen School last week. The four racks, holding 13 apiece, were built by the manual training class at Pynchard and were presented to the school by the PTA.

F. Tyler Carlton has been elected president of the Andover Village Improvement Society, at its annual meeting. Fifteen trustees were named by the nominating committee and elected. They also named G. Richard Abbott, first vice president; Fred E. Cheever, second vice president; William Perry, third vice president; Helen Eaton, treasurer and Mrs. H. Allison Morse, secretary.

SPLASH PARTY

Members of the Ballard Vale United Church Youth Fellowship enjoyed a splash party last Friday evening in the Lawrence Y.M.C.A. Adults attending were the Rev. and Mrs. Ralph A. Rosenblad, Mrs. Henry Meyers and Albert Warner, Boys and Girls attending were Linda Mitchell, Janet Sherry, Marjorie Hunt, Bruce and Richard Meyers, Craig and Kent Warner, Richard Brown, Donald Brouck, Edna Turner, William Butler, Richard Sheaff, Richard Carbon, Carol Ann Shaw and Edward Davison.

GOURMET "STEALS"

BY BETTY BLAISDELL

How best to roast a turkey is a perennial subject with even an experienced hand at turning out sumptuous Thanksgiving dinners. Mostly, though, it's just a way we women have of talking turkey at this happy season of the year for there's little variance now, I find, in methods of preparation.

Nowadays turkey is somewhat of a year-round offering on family tables — and the annual hunt on hands and knees to find a pan big enough to roast the critter in is a thing of the dark ages. Remember when you tried to fit a 20 or 25 pound turkey in a roaster and the darned neck would be dragging on the outside? That neck!

Thank goodness commercial growers got together and really did something besides grow their turkeys big. They've developed their birds to look handsomer, to eat better and are turning them out to be less work to the housewife in all around preparation. No neck to disjoint, no pin feathers, a clean cavity, tendons removed and slits that can be drawn together neatly after stuffing.

A few hints from Mary Reed

Mary and her husband, Raymond, work with turkeys from morning until nightfall the year round and, of course, Mary pops a turkey in the oven as easily as sipping a coke through a straw. These are her points: For a large turkey use a 300 degree oven, for a small, 325 degrees. Tie the legs together only and roast in an open pan breast side down. One hour before the finish, cut the strings and turn on its back (unless you use a V-shaped rack, then turning is unnecessary). For a wonderful shiny skin, brush thoroughly with unsalted fat; do all your salting from inside the cavity. Spread over a fat-soaked cloth, if you like, or baste occasionally with the fat drippings in the pan. Mary sometimes uses just a brown paper bag to cover the bird; lets the steam escape. She doesn't advocate aluminum foil for either the bottom of the pan or as a cover. She believes the stuffing should be put into the bird just before roasting (make it ahead, if you like but refrigerate in a bowl) and as for cooking time it is safe to allow 15 minutes a pound for a large turkey and 20 minutes for a small. If ice-cold 30 minutes more are required. For testing? Don't spear the poor thing! If his leg moves up and down at the joint, that's it.

Fruit Cakes, Anyone?

Surely some of you early birds have started baking holiday fruit cakes, for grocery managers tell me they're kept busy stocking fruits and nuts. A very yummy sounding Scottish recipe came to me from Mrs. Theodore Dodge some time ago which I have been saving for the holiday season. It was served to Queen Mother Elizabeth when she visited the White House, and is called

HOUSE OF BLANCHE FRUIT CAKE (Contributed by Mrs. Theodore Dodge)

- 2 cups sifted flour
- 1 tsp. baking powder
- 1/8 tsp. salt
- 1 tsp. cinnamon
- 1/2 tsp. allspice
- 1/4 tsp. cloves
- 1/4 tsp. mace
- 1/2 cup seeded raisins
- 1/2 cup currants
- 1/2 cup shredded citron
- 1/2 cup candied orange peel
- 1/2 cup maraschino cherries (chopped)
- 1/2 cup blanched almonds (chopped)
- 1/2 cup shortening
- 1 cup sugar
- 1/2 tsp. orange extract
- 3 well beaten eggs
- 1/2 cup molasses
- 1/2 cup orange juice or fruit brandy

Mix and sift flour, baking powder, salt and spices; mix with prepared fruits and nuts. Cream shortening until soft and smooth, adding sugar gradually. Beat in eggs and flavoring, then molasses. Gradually stir in flour, fruit and nut mixture, alternately with juice. Turn into waxed papered pans. Bake in slow oven (250 degrees) for 2 1/2 hours. It makes 2 loaves, 8"x4".

PUMPKIN OR SQUASH PIE (Miss Charlotte Foster)

My quest for a good squash or pumpkin pie, seasoned just right, full and firm with a nice shiny surface, has come to an end with the tasting of one turned out by Miss Foster. She lives on Foster st., No. Andover; grows her own pumpkins and squashes and therefore uses only the fresh vegetable, but she does prefer canned evaporated milk. To me, this pie is the best of its kind:

- 2 cups strained pumpkin or squash
- 1 cup sugar
- 2 cups evaporated milk
- 1/2 tsp. salt
- 3 eggs
- 1 tsp. ginger
- 1 tsp. cinnamon

Mix altogether in mixing bowl and bake in a 350 degree oven for about an hour. It makes a good 9-inch pie.

QUACAMOLE (Avocado dip)

Avocados are here in all of their green glory and as inexpensive as they'll ever be. This Mexican Quacamole is a choice and beautiful cocktail dip and the only possible snag in springing it on impromptu company is in finding two avocados in their just-ripe stage. However, keep this recipe handy for the holidays just ahead:

- 2 ripe avocados
- 1 small onion, cut up
- 1 clove garlic, chopped
- dash of Worcestershire sauce
- 2 Tbl. lemon juice
- 1 tsp. olive oil
- salt & pepper to taste
- paprika

Blend to a smooth consistency in electric blender. If not thick enough for serving on crackers or chips, then add mashed cream cheese and blend.

STUFFED AVOCADOS (with crabmeat)

- 2 ripe avocados, halved lengthwise
- 1 box fresh crabmeat
- Small jar hollandaise sauce
- Lemon juice
- Pinch of curry

Bread crumbs, buttered
Simply delicious for a bridge-luncheon, for instance, with a tossed salad and hot buttermilk biscuits. Just brush the surface of the halved pears with lemon juice. Mix the crabmeat with hollandaise, stir in a pinch of curry, and heat the mixture before spooning it into the avocados. Top with buttered crumbs and pop under the broiler for two or three minutes, until brown.

Bradlee School PTA Plans Party

The Ballardvale Parent Teacher Association held its monthly meeting in the Bradlee school Nov. 14. James Gardner presided at the meeting.

A Christmas party was discussed and it was decided to bring a gift to the next meeting to be given to the Salvation Army.

Mrs. Harry Dustin requested that all extra cook books be returned as the demand is greater than the supply.

Dr. William Wagenbach was the guest speaker and he described the functions of the Greater Lawrence Youth Guidance Center.

Miss Burnham's kindergarten room won the banner reward. Refreshments were served by the fourth grade mothers.

IMPROVEMENT ASSOC. MEETS TONIGHT

The monthly meeting of the North District Improvement Association will be held tonight at 7:45 in the No. District School house. Following the short business meeting, A Penny Social will be held and there will be a door prize. Friends are welcome.

Science Thoroughly Covered Here, Press Club Declares

By The Press Club

With the news of the world explaining the exploits of satellites, sputniks, rockets and the like, it is small wonder that the science facilities of the new Andover High School are being exploited by the students in increasing numbers.

The three major sciences — chemistry, physics and biology — are being taught in their own individual rooms. Expensive, modern facilities and equipment, perfect in detail, encourage student interest. Special work tables are equipped with water, gas and electricity; an electrical control unit capable of adjusting the output desired, a double-fume hood and display cabinets.

Presently, the science program consists of biology, chemistry, physics and senior science. With three divisions of chemistry, two of physics, four of biology and one of senior science, an interested student can adapt himself to a full four years of one of the most important subjects in a school curriculum. Two teachers are presently teaching the three sciences with all classes, excepting senior science, requiring a double period weekly for laboratory work.

In the last few years interest has increased to the extent that 250 students, which represents 57 percent of the student body, are enrolled in science courses. The cost per student in relation to other courses tends to be higher because of the expenses of the equipment required.

Of real interest to these students will be the coming Rafton Essay this December and the Science Fair next spring. A one week visit by a representative of the Nuclear Energy Commission at Oak Ridge, Tenn., also provoked much interest.

With such a program in effect, science-minded students at Andover High School will be well prepared for the future adventure of higher education in this field.

IN 58 DAYS A '58 PLYMOUTH RAN 58,000 MILES—EQUAL TO

MORE THAN TWICE AROUND THE WORLD

AND IT DROVE EVERY INCH OF THE WAY!

We knew this car was tough.

We designed it that way.

That's why we weren't afraid to give Plymouth the toughest test run of all time... with all America as the "track."

We didn't coddle this Plymouth. Didn't crate it and ship it carefully from place to place. Instead, we aimed it out of Los Angeles one misty morning and sent it through a course that ran 58,000 miles through 37 states.

The time limit? Only 58 days.

A thousand miles a day!

The equivalent of 6 years' driving crammed into little more than 8 weeks!

Three times this Plymouth crossed the Rockies. Three times it wound its way up and down across the country... passing through more than 1200 cities and towns. Whipping over turnpikes... creeping through city traffic... arrowing down super-highways... feeling its way through 500 miles of rutted detours. And when the drivers turned the key to end the marathon, it still looked, ran and rode like new.

This is what lasting value really means. The ability to take everything that American roads and weather can dish out—and come up grinning. Why don't you give Plymouth a test drive yourself—today? You'll see what we mean.

That's the Plymouth "track"... and just look at that route! Every possible road and weather condition. Plymouth ran every inch of that murderous route 3 times in just 58 days. What greater proof of lasting, built-in stamina!

The petition, presented by Mrs. Harry O. Blaisdell, read:
 "Argilla rd. is being used by private cars as well as trucks as a cut-off between Lowell and Central sts. The traffic hazard, by way of very fast driving, is endangering the lives of our children, who are playing alongside the road which is too narrow and too curved for speeds up to 60 and 65 miles per hour, which we repeatedly have noticed along this road. In order to protect our children, we herewith respectfully request that, at both ends of Argilla rd., signs be erected giving a maximum speed limit, to be determined by your board and the Board of Public Works as a safe speed. Immediate action will be greatly appreciated."

WHICH MAN PASSED THE N. P.* TEST?

*NINETY PERCENT

The poised, smartly-dressed man at the left of course. You can tell at a glance... and that's why the Ninety-Percent Test is so important. People judge you by what they see (sometimes that's all they have to go on) and ninety percent of what they see of you is what you wear. The fresh finish of drycleaned clothes is more than an extra touch... like a flower in the buttonhole. It's an integral part of good grooming. The state of your clothes tells volumes about the kind of person you are. In fact, your clothes never stop talking about you. You buy your clothes to make a good impression. As you wear them, have them drycleaned often. A smart man takes care to keep that impression fresh.

Raytheon Parking

The Selectmen were notified Monday that Raytheon Manufacturing Co. has allocated $33,000 for another parking area at its facilities in Shawsheen.

Highway Work

Highway Supt. Stanley Chlebow-ski reported to the BPW Monday night that his men have been doing the following work: setting curbing at Central st., cleaning additional streets, graded Gleason st., cleaned catch basins, installed 56 feet of two-foot drainage pipe on Dascomb rd., patching water trenches and streets, second coat of tar on Greenwood and Prospect rds. and first coat of tar on Woodland st. and Gleason st.

Crews of the Park Department were kept busy marking the football field, cleaning up leaves in the park and aiding in street cleaning. The Tree Department has been cutting brush along roadsides and pruning, plus continuing the program of Dutch Elm removals.

May Use Unspent Funds

The Board of Public Works may use any unspent portion of the funds for Shawsheen rd. reconstruction on the new Andover st. bridge project, in 1958. The County Commissioners agreed to the procedure, at the request of the BPW. The money comes under Chapter 90 funds.

To Remove Trees

An elm and a pine tree on Lupine rd., at the property of Roland Demers, will be removed for the sake of better visibility.

Trustee Coming

The BPW will meet with the coordinator of the Trustees of Public Reservations Nov. 25. The meeting was requested by the trustees and concerns the land on Prospect Hill, on which the new reservoir is located.

Who'll Plow The Road?

A request from John W. Kimball, received by the BPW last summer, that Prospect rd. be plowed to his house was under discussion Monday night. Mrs. Ward, who bequeathed the property to Mr. Kimball, had not lived there in the winter, the members stated and the entire road had not been plowed. It was agreed to plow up to a chain across the road, the last place where there is sufficient room for the plow to turn around. The BPW also agreed to grade off the road for the winter, at Mr. Kimball's request.

Install Light

A 21,000 lumen light has been installed at the corner of York and Haverhill sts., at the request of the police department. The light shines on the area where an officer must stand to direct traffic after dark.

ing bids and awarding contracts for the pump and chemical feed houses, with their equipment. This should be underway within a week, it was indicated.

Bassett explained the mechanics of installing a gravel-packed well, in terms of the one in Ballardvale, this way:

First, a 36-inch casing is driven into the ground to a depth of 20 feet. Then, a 24-inch casing goes down, inside the larger one, this time to the full depth of the well, more than 70 feet in this case.

Then an 18-inch casing goes down inside the other two, with a screen on the bottom. This casing is the actual well pipe, through which the water is drawn up.

The 24-inch casing is then pulled up above the screen - followed by packing between 18 and 24-inch casings. This packing material, Bassett explained, is specially prepared for the well and acts as a sort of screen to keep out undesirable material.

During this process, a deisel-operated pump is attached and the well is pumped, to see whether it functions properly. Once this is established, the pump is removed.

Then a concrete packing goes in between the original 36-inch casing and the 24-inch one, to a depth of 20 feet. This makes the installation complete.

A similar process will be repeated at the Abbot well site, with depths and sizes of pipe varying slightly from the one in Ballardvale.

Braeland Work Held Completed

The Selectmen have released the final payment of $2500 for work done in the Braeland development off Elm st.

The Dow Construction Co. received payment for its work in finishing streets and doing 10 other jobs specified by the Board of Public Works for acceptance of the streets. Dow was not the original contractor on the job. He had been hired by the town to do the jobs, after contractor William Heard agreed, with his attorney, James Eaton, to have someone else do the work.

Originally, about $13,500 had been tied up by the town, Veterans Administration and various banks. The sum of $2500 had been deposited with the town by Mr. Heard and $400 from each sale was also held aside as a guarantee that the development would be completed according to town specifications and the plan filed by the developer.

The work has dragged on over three years, with the money slowly being paid out as work was done.

The payment last weekend to the Dow Co. completed the work specified by the town and apparently clears the way for acceptance of the streets at the annual town meeting in March.

Donald Bassett, superintendent of the Water Department, was assigned by the BPW to inspect the area, along with the Selectmen, and also gave his approval.

Cambridge Beats Andover, 26 - 13

Andover High School bowed to Cambridge Latin, 26-13, last Saturday at the Playstead.

The loss was the Blue Devil's fourth in seven games, Cambridge scored once in the opening quarter, twice in the second and again in the fourth period. Andover scored in the second and fourth quarters.

Jim Bennett scored the first Andover TD on an end sweep, shortly after Cambridge had made the score 13-0. In the fourth, Bennett and Dave Simpson teamed up on a 60-yard pass play that took the ball deep into Cambridge territory. Two plays later, with the ball at the 13, Bennett tossed to Frank Carelli for the TD.

The Blue Devils threatened several times after that TD, but failed to score. A 45-yard run by Bennett into the endzone was disallowed and, later, an interception on the Cambridge seven stalled an Andover drive. The final Cambridge touchdown was an 85-yard run by Bob Skalsky.

The Blue Devils rest this weekend, getting set for the traditional Thanksgiving Day clash with No. Andover at 10:15 a.m. at the Playstead.

Alternate Site Discussed For Off-Street Parking

The Selectmen may purchase property on Barnard st. for off-street parking.

The possibility was raised at a meeting of the Board of Trade and Selectmen Monday morning, following a report that the area off Park st., suggested by the Trade Board, would be too expensive.

Selectman Stafford Lindsay said the Selectmen "may" negotiate for land on Barnard st., buying as much as possible with the $25,000 appropriation granted by the 1957 town meeting.

During the discussion it was brought out that enough property probably could be purchased to create parking for 30 cars and that the area could be developed. More property could be purchased next year taking the parking area along Barnard st. to Bartlet, if town meeting approved additional funds.

Although Board of Trade members felt more parking facilities than 30 spaces will be needed, they generally agreed that a start should be made as soon as possible. And it was pointed out that these would not be 30 all-day spaces so that there could be considerable turn-over. The area would also be metered, according to the sense of the discussion, perhaps for two-hour parking. There was also discussion about creating some 4-hour parking spaces, allowing shoppers plenty of time down-town without worrying about their meter running out.

Attending the session were Board of Trade President John Zenevitch, Louis Finger, James Doherty, W. R. Hill, George Lister and Douglas Howe.

Two weeks ago, the parking committee met with the Selectmen, asking consideration of the area behind Park st. This section was considered before, the Selectmen recalled but they agreed to talk to property owners again.

Mr. Lindsay said it appeared that the land would be too expensive, if it could be purchased at all, to warrant creating off-street parking on it.

Care Food Crusade Is Underway Here

Mrs. Scott H. Paradise, 10 Stonehedge rd., newly appointed Care representative for Andover, has announced the Holiday Care food crusade.

A special effort is being made between now and Christmas to encourage everyone to give to the needy overseas through Care.

"Hunger and despair are the constant companions of many millions of people in the world today," Mrs. Paradise said. "A Care package carries with it the very essentials of life to those who are suffering from starvation, disease and dire poverty."

One dollar will deliver a 22-pound Food Crusade package of U. S. surplus food - milk, cheese, flour and cornmeal - to a hungry family abroad. It goes as a "person-to-person" gift; the name of the donor is inscribed on the package.

Other packages contain medical supplies, warm clothing and tools. Care sewing machines, woodworkers' kits and fishermen's kits all provide the means to help others help themselves.

Mrs. Paradise urges everyone to contribute to Care so that stricken families overseas will be given new hope in the long winter months that lie ahead.

Anyone wishing to know more about the Care program should contact Mrs. Paradise.

OFFER POST TO TAXPAYER HEAD

Taxpayers Association would care to "recommend" one of its members or anyone else for the post.

This suggestion was declined, he stated, because members of the Board of Directors felt they shouldn't become involved in a "political problem of that sort".

Haller said he refused the appointment because he didn't feel he had the time nor did he feel "qualified" for the post.

Former Taxpayer President Henry Wolfson agreed that he had heard about the offer, but it had not been made to him at any time. He said he felt the Taxpayers Association should not be involved, in order to retain its position as a commentator on town affairs.

Although it was generally agreed that the BPW members did not make the actual approach, the TOWNSMAN has been told, by reliable sources, that members of that board decided to put the Taxpayers Association on the spot by asking them to, in effect, "name their man". This, they believed, would silence a large part of the criticism directed at the Board from the Association.

Some members of the Association's board of directors were consulted by telephone, Haller told the TOWNSMAN, about recommending someone for the job. He denied a report that none of the directors would accept the responsibility, stating that the only specific offer was to him.

Meanwhile, as this unannounced activity was underway some town officials and citizens were puzzled over the state law governing the filling of a vacancy. The word "shall", appearing in the law, may be construed to mean "must", in which case, they point out, the BPW has an obligation to see that the vacancy is filled. Others, disagreeing, say this is a matter of discretion with the BPW and that they may let the vacancy remain until the March election.

Under the statute, the Board of Public Works must initiate any action - by asking the Selectmen to fill the vacancy.

Then the two boards meet and name someone to the job by a majority vote of the combined boards.

Spectators have pointed out that four members of the Board of Public Works, if agreed, could name whomever they choose, out-voting the three Selectmen. Or, they comment, any four men of the seven involved could get together and agree on a candidate, then elect him when the combined boards met.
