Marks 95th Birthday

Today marks the 95th birthday of one of Andover's oldest citizens, Mrs. Irene Whittier Cole, 115 Elm st.

Mrs. Cole is also one of the oldest members of the South Church, having been a member for a little over 70 years. Mrs. Cole has always lived a very useful life and has spent most of her married life in the home she now occupies on Elm st. At the present time she is busy making a patch work quilt.

She has five children, Mrs. Ada Brown, who lives with her; Mrs. Arthur R. Lewis, Arthur W. Cole and Ralph K. Cole of Methuen and Mrs. Fred Smith of Reading; also seven grandchildren and nine great grandchildren.

A family party was held last evening at her home in her honor. Cards, flowers and gifts and visits from friends helped to make the occasion a pleasant one for her.

Names Members Of Finance Com.

Four new members have been added to the Finance Committee by Moderator Charles Hatch. He re-appointed three members of the Committee.

And at an organizational meeting, the FinCom elected Robert A. Waters, 5 William st., as chairman. Newly-appointed member William W. Rhoads, 15 Cabot rd., was named secretary.

Re-appointed to the Committee, besides Mr. Waters, were Leslie N. Hutchinson, 72 Salem st. and Richard M. Zecchini, 93 Summer st.

In addition to Mr. Rhoads, the new appointees are Phillip Clements of Sunset Rock rd.; Winth-

HAGGETT'S POND HAS 6 INCHES MORE TO GO

Haggett's Pond was six inches below high water mark last Sunday morning, the last time the measure was taken.

Rough water the first of the week prevented further accurate measurements, according to Donald Bassett, superintendent of the Water Department. The Pond was 11 inches below high water mark March 25 and showed a gain of five inches in five days.

Raytheon Employment Grows; Payroll Is Million Monthly

A bright star in the economic sky in this area is Raytheon's plant in Shawsheen Village.

Employment at the plant now stands at 3,344, with a monthly payroll in excess of $1,000,000 monthly.

And while some firms have been shortening work weeks or laying off employees, Raytheon continues to hire workers at a rate that will find about 4600 persons employed there by Dec. 31, 1958.

Andover's share of these workers is 11 percent or about 200 men and women. But in the Greater Lawrence area, including Andover, there are 1300 persons working at the Shawsheen plant.

At that ratio, some $380,000 in payroll dollars is being paid Greater Lawrence residents each month. And that would increase, as the build-up continues in employment.

The Army only last weekend announced a new $8,490,000 contract for engineering work on the Hawk missile and said this means an additional 105 employees at four Raytheon plants in Massachusetts.

Applications for employment in Shawsheen are received at about the same pace now as in preceding months, according to Dewey Dyer, public relations manager. He said more non-technical workers are applying, however, than previously. This results from the employment of most of the technical people available in the area, who formerly had been applying for work.

From the Company's financial statement, appearing in the Raytheon publication, it also appears that the firm has a substantial backlog of orders, primarily military, that officials feel will keep the firm busy and growing for some time.

The backlog amounts, company-wide, to about $300,000,000.

Eastern Star Installed Officers

Mrs. Gladys Piper was installed as Associate Matron and Irving Piper, Associate Patron. Others included Harriett Stewart, secretary; Gladys P. Brown, treasurer; Elizabeth Williams, Conductress; Helen Twigg, Associate Conductress; Isabelle Valentine, Chap-

Science Fair Promises Exhibits Of Interest

All phases of science will be included at the annual High School Science Fair April 23.

Problems in the fields of chemistry, physics, biology, astronomy, mathematics, electronics and engineering are being investigated by students, whose exhibits will be on display.

Judging will take place during the day, with the public invited to view the exhibits from 7-10 p.m. in the science wing of the new high school.

Four Objectives

The purposes of the Science Fair are: To offer opportunity for the display of scientific talent and to provide recognition for the talent;

To motivate, encourage and inspire in students the desire for scientific experimentation and discovery;

To encourage talented youngsters to enter scientific careers;

And to focus attention on science and to stimulate student and community interest.

Some of the exhibits April 23 will include rocketry, the effect of common solutions on tooth enamel, cancer in tomato plants, electric computer, electromagnetic applications, Geiger counter, Wilson cloud chamber, effect of water on paint retention, water purification, the kitchen chemistry set, metabolism, plant propagation and ultra-high frequency broadcasting.

G. Arthur Danforth and Paul Hopkins of the faculty are in charge of the program.

Rocket Display

This is what Irene Cordts, a member of the Press Club at the High School, has to report about George Desmet and the rocket he is building for the Fair:

Easter Egg Hunt Saturday At 2

The Annual Easter Egg Hunt, sponsored by the Andover Recreation Committee, will be held Saturday afternoon, April 5, at 2 p.m. in the Park.

As usual, the sounding of the fire alarm at 2 o'clock will start the youngsters in their quest of candy and Easter bunnies.

Cancer Crusade Is Underway

Special gifts are now being solicited throughout the town on behalf of the American Cancer Society.

The annual Cancer Crusade, headed here by N. Penrose Halliwell Jr., will reach its peak April 29, when precinct workers will canvass every section of town for donations.

Mrs. Gerry A. Lebach and Mrs. Frederick Worthen are co-chairmen of the house-to-house canvass.

Last year, $7,160 was raised here for the Cancer Crusade. And in 1956, $6,883 was donated to the Cancer Crusade. The Crusade this year is hoping to receive a

May Have To Borrow Funds

The town may have to borrow money this year, in anticipation of income, for the first time since 1941.

The possibility loomed this week, following an announcement by the Assessors that the tax rate may not be set until July. Last year the rate was announced the last week in March.

After announcement of the rate, time-consuming clerical procedures must be followed in both the assessors' and the tax collector's offices. All property, its assessed value and the tax must be entered in the tax book before bills can be prepared.

This year, a new bookkeeping-typing machine will be in use for the first time. Collector James P. Christie explained that the machine should make the clerical processes

On The Move!

MOVING DAY - The Children's Theatre Workshop moved into the barn on the Shaw property Sunday, where they will finish work on the scenery for "The Ghost of Mr. Penny", scheduled for April 11-12 at the Jr. High School Auditorium. Unloading the truck were Samuel Rogers, Fred McCabe, David Robinson, Mac McCabe and Mark Robinson. Mrs. Rogers, Mrs. Dudley Robinson, Mrs. Harford Powell and Mrs. Frederick McCabe in the upstairs window make an attractive crew. (Leone)

Sunday afternoon is a time of relaxation and rest for many husbands, stretched out with the Sunday papers and replete after an excellent mid-day dinner.

However, for three loyal and devoted husbands, last Sunday afternoon was far from a peaceful one. Samuel S. Rogers, Frederick C. McCabe and Anthony Puma, pressed into active service by persuasive wives and officers of the Children's Theatre Workshop, obtained a truck and spent many hours pushing, lifting, heaving and hauling.

At the end of the day, scenery flats which are in the process of being made and painted, paint pots, brushes, boxes, sets of stairs, trunks and assorted paraphernalia, all equipment necessary to the operation of the theatre, were safely ensconced in the new headquarters at the Barn on the Shaw property on Main st. Mesdames Rogers, McCabe and Puma worked busily at their husbands' sides, giving encouragement and directions freely!

Workshop and designer of the scenery flats, was at the scene with Mrs. Dudley Robinson and a youthful group of helpers composed of Mac McCabe, Mark Robinson, David Robinson, Denise Puma, Robert Cole, Darleen Bennett, Susan Bamford and Carol Jones.

Mrs. Powell and Mrs. Puma are responsible for scenery for the CTW and are being assisted by an adult committee of Mrs. Margaret Cross, Mrs. John Cole, Mrs. Stephen Parson and Mrs. Karl Roehrig. The children busily painting, nailing and gluing during the week are Robert Cole, Thomas Critchley, Susan Bamford, Darleen Bennett, Dudley Whitney, Carol Jones, Denise Puma, Matthew Roehrig and Louis McAloon.

The Andover Board of Selectmen has turned over to the CTW, a non-profit, community organization open to all interested members of the community, the old barn as a permanent home for the Workshop. Electricity is now completely installed and an outside stairway, necessary to comply with state fire laws, is being made. The Barn's exterior is soon to be freshened with a bright new coat of paint. Members of the committee made the following appeal:

"Come one, come all - come help us get settled! Bring buckets, brushes, old sponges, rags, canvas or mattress ticking or old tarps. Second-hand lumber is needed for stage braces and supports. If you have anything you wish to donate along this line or anything you think would be of use to the CTW to set up house-keeping, please call Mrs. Powell or Mrs. Puma. They would be glad to pick up any useful material and your help would be greatly appreciated. The Children's Theatre Workshop is an organization devoted solely to the youth of the community - their well-being and enjoyment."

Friday night, April 11, at 8:15 p.m. in the Andover Junior High School Auditorium, the curtain will rise on "The Ghost of Mr. Penny," an enthralling mystery-comedy, now in final rehearsal. Tickets may be obtained at the Andover Book Store. The performances will be repeated Saturday, April 12, at 3 p.m. at the Junior High School and the following Wednesday, April 16, at 8 p.m. at the No. Andover High School. Tickets for the North Andover performance may be obtained at Finneran's Drug Store on Main st., No. Andover.

Sunrise Service Sunday At 6:30

The public is cordially invited to attend an Easter Sunrise Service at West Parish Church at 6:30 a.m.

The Rev. Horace Seldon will give the message, with Andover Youth Council officers Linda Johanson, Jack Van Nest and Robert Twigg participating in the order of worship.

This service is an activity of the Andover Youth Council and the program has been arranged by the delegates of the youth groups of the various churches in town, with the Rev. Lou R. Steigler serving as advisor.

SQUARE DANCE The next square dance of the Ballardvale Outing club will be held on Saturday evening, April 19th.

DOGS SHOT WHILE RAIDING POULTRY

Two dogs were shot Monday noon on River st., as they molested a pen of ducks. Theodore A. Mikulewicz reported to police that he shot the animals.

Sgt. William R. Hickey said the dogs had apparently slain two white ducks and a mallard. Two mallards and a white duck were reported missing by their owner, Mr. Mikulewicz.

The dogs were a shepherd, about 1 1/2 years old and a mixed breed-collie, about the same age.

Sgt. Hickey, who acts as town dog officer, only last week urged residents to keep their dogs under control, following several reported raids on chickens. He explained that any livestock owner has the right to shoot a dog caught molesting animals and that the police will also shoot the dogs if they are caught doing this sort of damage.

What You Should Know About Your Manager Charter

By David E. Young

Concluding Article In The Series

In three prior articles in this series, we have examined the manner in which the Town Manager charter was written and adopted; how it affects elected offices and the powers and duties of a manager.

There are a few provisions in the charter, not falling under these general headings, that should certainly be understood. Let's examine them this week, then wrap up this series by quickly summarizing the main features of the manager charter.

Contractual Arrangements

Section 14 of the charter specifically outlines how a town official may do business with the town.

It states that no selectman, town manager or elected or appointed official of the town may make a contract with the town, or even share in the profits of a contract made with a corporation or other person, unless the Selectmen are notified by registered mail that the transaction is to take place. No person, as a town official, is allowed to vote on awarding a contract with which he is directly or indirectly involved. Rather, the Selectmen may designate some other official to act in that regard.

Violation of this section will automatically void the contract, at the option of the town. And any person violating the law under this section will be punishable by a fine of not more than $1000 and imprisonment for no longer than one year, or both.

Repeal of Charter

The manager charter may be repealed by the voters at an annual town election in 1961 or after. The pertinent section specifies that a vote on repeal may not be taken earlier than three years from date of its acceptance — in other words, three years from March, 1958.

The mechanics initiating a vote on repeal are these — within 90 days of the town election, a petition must be filed with the Selectmen asking that the question be placed on the ballot. At least 10 percent of the registered voters must sign the petition.

The Selectmen must advertise the intent to place the question on the ballot for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the town and this must be done at least 30 days prior to the election.

Having followed these procedures, the town clerk can then be instructed to place the following question on the ballot: "Shall the acceptance by the town of Andover of an act passed by the General Court in the year nineteen hundred and fifty-six, entitled 'An Act Establishing a Selectman-Town Manager Plan for the Town of Andover' be revoked?"

If a majority of the voters casting ballots favor repeal, the manager form will be revoked as of the following annual election. The town would revert to operation under statutes governing the operation of the town prior to adoption of the manager plan. But whatever by-laws, rules and regulations are in effect at the time shall remain in effect unless they are inconsistent with statutes.

If the voters do not repeal the manager charter, the subject of repeal may not be voted on again any oftener than once each three years.

Summary

The manager plan, with subsequent charter, was studied and recommended by a committee appointed with the approval of town meeting. After town-wide hearings, a legislative hearing and debate in the House and Senate, the charter was approved for voter consideration here.

Adoption of the charter came this year, after having suffered defeat in 1957. It will go into operation in March, 1959, at the annual town election.

At that time, five selectmen will be elected — with incumbents having to seek election under the new charter if they wish to serve. Each candidate for selectman must designate the term he seeks — with two to be elected for three years, two for two years and one for one year. Each year thereafter, the office will be for a three-year term.

Most other boards and offices are changed to appointive with the moderator, school committee, Pynchard Free School trustees, Trustees of Cornell Fund and Housing Authority remaining as elective offices.

The manager, appointed by the selectmen, has authority to appoint the other major office holders, all with the approval of the selectmen.

In general, the manager has full supervisory powers over most town departments and activities. The Selectmen set policy which is carried out by the manager.

A restriction on service as a Selectman, School Committee member or Finance Committee member was established — no elected or appointed town official on these three boards may serve in another capacity in the town, either elected or appointed.

The manager is the chief fiscal officer of the town; prepares budgets, signs warrants for payment of bills and salaries and may set salaries and wages for employees in departments over which he has supervision through appointment of the department head. Several departments now under elected heads will qualify under this category and the Board of Public Works will be abolished, with the Selectmen taking over

PARALLEL BARS - Charlie Barrett of the Andover High Gym Team is shown on the parallel bars last Saturday night during the state-wide gym meet. He later won the long horse event. Andover ran second to Wellesley in the competition. (Leone)

Andover 2nd At Gym Meet

Andover was runner-up to Wellesley High School at the State Inter-scholastic Gymnastic meet last Saturday night at the High School.

Wellesley won the Eagle-Tribune trophy, piling up a solid 527½ points. Andover ran up a total of 401 in the second place position. Ten high schools took part in the nine-event competition, which included about 90 contestants.

The meet was the first since 1938. Andover will be host again in 1959 and it is hoped to make it an annual competition in the state.

New Bedford was third, with 100 points, followed by Tantasqua High of Sturbridge, 82½ and Winchester High, 71½. Ipswich, Milton, Mansfield, Amherst and Scituate also took part.

Andover High Capt. John Fitzgerald was the only double winner, taking the flying rings and the horizontal bar events. Charles Barrett was the other Andover winner, in the long horse event. Fitzgerald also picked up a second in the still rings.

Bartlett Pina of New Bedford was judged the outstanding performer. He won the still rings and scored in two other events. Ralph Colson, Massachusetts physical education director, presented the Eagle-Tribune trophy. Harold Whitworth donated prizes for the second and third place teams, while Headmaster Lindsay J. March presented trophies to the winning contestants.

Aside from the 10 schools competing 18 other schools replied to the invitations, saying they were in the process of starting a program in gymnastics and expressing interest in future meets.

ATTEND INVESTITURE

Islamic Paintings At Addison Gallery

An exhibition of Islamic Painting, lent by three Massachusetts collectors, is open to the public at the Addison Gallery of American Art, Phillips Academy, Andover, and may be visited without charge on weekdays from 9 to 5 and on Sundays from 2:30 to 5 until May 18.
Mr. and Mrs. Moses Alpers of Salem, Dr. and Mrs. Maurice Shulman of Brookline and Dr. and Mrs. Leland Wynan of Jamaica Plain have collaborated in forming an exhibit of Persian painting from the 13th to the 17th centuries and Moghal painting from Northwest India of the 16th to 17th centuries. A catalogue is furnished with a brief historical resume and with copious notes explaining each of the 42 pictures.

Although the Addison Gallery collection is devoted exclusively to American art, temporary exhibitions of foreign works are frequently arranged in order to broaden its service to the community. As the introduction to the catalogue notes, "Once remote strangers are now near neighbors. The magic of modern air transportation and radio communication has brought this to pass. The people of the United States have proper concern that neighbors should be friends, and that an understanding of a neighbor is, therefore, desirable. This exhibition purposely leads toward that end. The degree to which it can be enjoyed will be the measure of its success."

Also simultaneously on display until April 22 is a group of 20th century Burmese Embroideries which come to the Addison Gallery under the auspices of the Smithsonian Institution, Washington, and the United States Information Service, Bangkok. The exhibition marks the introduction to America of an ancient Burmese art form only now being revived. Going back in history to the early days of the Ava kings (Fourteenth century), this technique consists of creating pictures by sewing bits of colored silks to a velvet or silk background.

This art was considered lost when in 1954 an American, James H. W. Thompson of Bangkok, accidentally came across an old Burman, U Khin, in Mandalay, who had learned the technique under the master gold embroiderer at the court of King Thibaw (1878-1885); and soon two more septuagenarians, U Chit and U That, were also found to have studied the technique as boys under royal auspices. With a view to encouraging the training of another generation so that the art would not be lost, these three were supplied with new materials, Burmese and Thai silks, and commissioned to make the 20 pictures that compose this exhibition. As many as 19 different colors are used in a single scene, and the overall effect is harmonized and balanced by skillful embroidery in Silver and gold thread and by the liberal application of sequins and Mogut jewels — lowgrade rubies, sapphires, moonstones, bits of jade, etc.

The subject matter of these simple and formal compositions is drawn from the repertory of Buddhist lore that is the common heritage of every Burman; this includes scenes from the life of Buddha and also from the Jatakas, moral tales of his previous lives in the ages before he was born into the present world.

The gallery will be open Easter Sunday during its usual hours, 2:30-5 p.m.

YOUR HELP IS REQUESTED

We'd like to enlist your cooperation in handling club notices and news of coming events.

Whenever possible, would you try to get this material to the TOWNSMAN office on Monday?

While our Tuesday afternoon deadline still holds, it has become evident that much of the club and social news could better be processed here if we could have it earlier in the week. This would go far towards assuring publication, for the later the news item comes in, the more difficult it is to have it "set".

Your help will be greatly appreciated, for as always we want our coverage of all town activities to be thorough and our calendar of coming events to be complete.

Please remember, then, that Tuesday morning is better than Tuesday afternoon; and Monday is by far better than Tuesday, when you're planning on calling us with a news item. Only major news stories of significant interest throughout the town can be handled Wednesday morning, so please don't wait until then to call about your club or organization.

50th Wedding Anniversary

Although Mrs. Elander has been back to Sweden seven times, most recently in the summer of 1956, Mr. Elander has returned to his native land only once, in 1921.

MAY HAVE TO BORROW FUNDS

much faster once the employees become proficient in its use.

But whether the speed of the machine will compensate for the unavoidable delay in announcing the tax rate is still a big question. The tax bills were mailed Aug. 1 last year, after about four months hard work in both offices. Whether that same period of time will be required this year, following the anticipated July rate announcement, is as yet anyone's guess.

But if it appears that the bills will be held up very long, it may well be necessary for the town to borrow money in anticipation of tax receipts.

Treasurer Anna M. Greeley explained that some heavy spending may be expected this summer, particularly on the South School, which is scheduled for occupancy in September. Other town obligations must also be met, whether or not the money is already coming in from real estate taxes.

The cost of borrowing is somewhat less than it might have been last year. Miss Greeley said the interest rate is down around one percent on such loans as there is now considerable interest among banks for the business.

Reason For Delay
The assessors originally had set April 15 as a tentative date for completion of the revaluation work. This would have been followed by about a month's clerical work to notify all property owners of their new assessed valuations. Hearings would then be held, so that any property owner could sit down with representatives of Cole, Laver and Trumble, the revaluation firm and receive explanations of the assessments.

A delay in completing the program itself, perhaps until May 1, has pushed this schedule farther into spring. And until all the hearings have been held, and any adjustments made in valuations, there can be little action on setting the tax rate, which is based in part on the final total valuation figure.

TROOP 110 GIRL SCOUT NOTES

The sixth grade girls of Girl Scout Troop 110 in Ballardvale hiked to Andover Tuesday afternoon with their leaders, Mrs. Robert Dunn and Mrs. Robert Demers. They visited the Phillips Academy Art Gallery as well as looking over the exhibits in the archaeological department.

The fifth grade girls worked on their food charts under the direction of the leaders, Mrs. James Letters and Mrs. Robert Auchterlonie.

Mr. McBride, a retired police officer, was stricken at his home March 28 and died enroute to the Lawrence General Hospital in the Fire Department ambulance.

He had complained of illness Friday morning and his doctor had ordered him to the hospital. He had shoveled snow a day earlier. Dr. John T. Batal, medical examiner, said death was caused by a heart seizure.

Mr. McBride was known to thousands of swimmers and had probably taught more youngsters to swim at Pomp's Pond than any other individual. He was in charge of the swimming beach from 1924 to 1929 and had continued teaching swimming there voluntarily until last summer. Widely popular with the youngsters, he had developed many fine swimmers, who went on to capture honors at New England swimming meets.

Born in Magherafelt, County Londonderry, Northern Ireland Aug. 28, 1886, he came to this country at an early age. He was employed for a number of years at the Smith and Dove Manufacturing Co. When that firm suspended operations in the 1920's he had charge of disposing of some of the company's real estate.

He was a call fireman from 1924 to 1929, the year he was appointed an officer in the Police Department. He had served as a special officer for six years prior to the appointment.

Mr. McBride retired from the police force in 1947. At that time, he went to live in Brookline, where he had real estate holdings. He returned to Andover in 1953.

He was a member of Andover Council 1078, Knights of Columbus and had been custodian of the Council rooms for some years. He also was a member of the Holy Name Society of St. Augustine's Parish and the Andover Catholic Men's Club.

The Selectmen Monday night voted to advise all departments under their control that work will begin at 8:45 there will be three-quarters of an hour for lunch and closing time will be 4:30 p.m.

It is understood that the Board of Public Works, which has not kept its water department office open Monday nights, probably will do so in the future for those wishing to pay water bills. Other town hall offices will be open Monday nights until 8 o'clock under the uniform opening-closing policy.

policy-making in this field. In general, although a manager gets a five-year contract, it's a one-way street. He can be fired by a majority of the five-member Board of Selectmen after specified procedures are followed.

These are some of the highlights of the charter, summarized briefly. The full explanation of the various charter provisions appeared during the past three weeks.

We take this opportunity to urge every reader to save and re-read this series so that all will be well-informed on the charter and what it does. It is the document under which we will govern ourselves in the future and warrants careful study and understanding.

He sure was an ungrateful dog.

The one that triumphantly walked off with the seat of Officer Warren Maddox' britches, we mean.

Seems Officer Maddox investigated a complaint of prowlers up on Vine st. last Saturday. And as he roamed around the house and yard looking for burglars, peeping Toms or whatnot, wham!

Fortunately, only Maddox' feelings were hurt.

And the dog? He belonged to the person making the complaint. It's reliably reported he got quite a tongue lashing.

The prowlers? Just a group of boys filling water pistols at an outside faucet.

Party Held For William Gibbons

A birthday party was held recently in honor of William Robert Gibbons Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William Gibbons Sr., of River st., Ballardvale. William celebrated his fourth birthday and received a number of gifts. Games were played and Patty Townsend won in the contest.

The room was decorated in green in honor of St. Patrick's day. Refreshments were served, including a beautiful birthday cake made by Mrs. Townsend.

Guests included Helene Riley, Lois Nolin, Judy, Ellen and Patti Townsend, Linda, Ricky and Daniel Quinn, Michael and David Shea, Judith Lamontagne and Nancy, Kathy and William Gibbons.

Stolen Car Found On Woburn Street

A stolen car was wrecked and abandoned on Woburn st. Sunday morning.

Sgt. William R. Hickey said neighbors in the vicinity of Rattlesnake Hill rd. reported an accident, but investigating officers found only an abandoned car that had gone off the road. He reported that vehicle, belonging to Joseph Weiner, 492 Cross st., Malden, had been reported stolen March 29 from that city.

Neighbors said the occupants of the wrecked car entered a green oldsmobile that had apparently been trailing the stolen car. Two or three men, wearing T-shirts, were involved, they said.

The accident was reported at 11:45 a.m. and was investigated by Officer William F. Tammany.

Will Study Street Proposal

A thorough study of traffic conditions at Kenilworth st. and Riverina rd. is being made this week by acting police chief William R. Hickey.

The Selectmen asked him for recommendations on a petition signed by residents of the area, asking that the two streets be made one-way from No. Main st. towards Haverhill st.

The petition cited traffic bottlenecks, safety problems for school children and narrow streets as reasons for the one-way proposal. The appeal was approved by the new Shawsheen Village Improvement Association.

Residents felt that traffic could best move from the traffic lights on No. Main st. towards Haverhill st. They said parking on Kenilworth st. or Riverina rd. leaves only room enough for one car to pass by; that drivers in a hurry to and from work create traffic and speed problems daily; that turns onto Kenilworth st. in the morning, from So. Union st. or No. Main st., create safety problems for the children crossing the street at that junction.

The Selectmen debated granting the 30-day trial period requested by the residents, after explaining that the state must approve the step before it can become operative.

Some question arose as to the possibility of making the two streets one-way in the other direction, so that traffic along Haverhill st. towards Shawsheen center could turn right; and also forcing all traffic using the streets to turn right again onto So. Union st. This, the thinking went, would avoid having cars cross over traffic lines as they might do when leaving Riverina rd. and turning left onto Haverhill st.

Sgt. Hickey, acting for Chief David Nicoll while he is at the F.B.I. training school, will make a thorough study of traffic in the area, both morning and night, and make recommendations to the Selectmen by this weekend.

Lifts Ban Water Use

Water restrictions, in summer during the drought, were removed.

The Board of Public Health Monday night on the question of the continuation of Water Supt. D. C. Lett, He reported that the water supply is now running over slightly.

The Board made two recommendations - the first was to allow the use of water for the remaining end of an 18-month period. The air conditioning units apply only to large industrial units, Board members said. They felt that
