Manager Ralph Urich this week explained that the firm is optomistic about the future, as it begins the manufacture of this new product. Some 10 million pounds of the epoxy resins, both liquid and solid, will be produced here, for sale across the country.

Equipment Price

A list of low quotations on equipment that may be hired by the town during the year has been prepared for the Board of Public Works by its office Manager, Calvin Metcalf.

The Board recently voted to hire equipment on the basis of the low quotation, reserving the right to shift to the next lowest if the performance of the least expensive machine was not satisfactory. Under backhoes, the list shows James Bateson as low, for a 3/8 (Continued on Page 13) of Public Works for the Shawsheen Hydands sewer installation.

An appropriation of $115,750 was voted by town meeting last March for the project.

Supt. Donald Bassett asked the Board to consider this figure, which he said follows a law adopted back in the late 1800's that requires the town to charge 75 percent of a cost and pay 25 percent.

He stressed that the suggested figure, $10.23, is not based on the project itself.

This figure, mentioned in the Camp, Dresser and Mckee sewer report, is estimated to be the amount which will pay for the installation, at the 75-25 ratio, of all the sewer lines proposed in the consulting engineers' report.

Bassett said it is an estimated cost of the work proposed in the report, based on today's prices. If (Continued on Page Nine)

The first Law Day ever celebrated in the country will be held today. The Selectmen have issued this proclamation calling attention to the Day:

the birthright of all Americans.
Laws and courts exist to protect every citizen, in his person and

Their purpose will be to focus public attention on the important part that law has played in the growth and achievement of the United States of America.

"Law Day — U.S.A. is to be the first national celebration of its kind ever held. The present status of world affairs makes it especially fitting that our people should at this time re-affirm their faith in the rule of law and make a determined effort to strengthen it. This is both a timely and patriotic observance emphasizing respect for law and good citizenship. It merits the support and cooperation of individuals, organizations and schools.

"Now therefore, we, Sidney P.

"Now therefore, we, Sidney P. White, Stafford A. Lindsay, William V. Emmons, Selectmen of the Town of Andover, do hereby proclaim Thursday, May 1, 1958 as Law Day — U.S.A. in said Town of Andover and call upon all citizens, organizations and schools to recognize this special day and to join in its observance."

EDITORIAL THOUGHTS Make A Fair Comparison

Seldom has there been such wide-spread interest as their now is over property valuations throughout the community.

Speculation, since the assessors released valuation totals and the estimated tax rate, has reached the heights of absurdity. For in a few cases, individuals found out what their new valuations will be, and then began yelping about the unfairness of the program. This touched off so many rumors that it has become impossible for most property owners to know where they stand.

It was a wise decision to refuse all requests for information, pending completion of the three-week job of typing all notices. Then, when all the information is ready, taxpayers will get pertinent data via the mail. This decision, although unpopular with the few who just can't wait to find out how they stand, will help to end the confusion that developed last week.

Actually, most taxpayers are content to wait and see. For they realize that this year-long task can't be rushed to a conclusion. It's no small task, with the best of help, to type over 6000 individual notices and get them ready for the mails.

A great disservice can be done the entire program by a few individuals, if they speculate on possible values to such a degree that others take to the warpath before they know exactly where they stand. It would be wise for these few persons to refrain from discussing their own probelms in public, to avoid mass-confusion and misunderstandings

It should also be made clear that there is only one valid comparison to make, between this year's probable tax bill and anything that has gone before.

If valuations had not changed, the tax rate would have stood at $76. Figure out what your tax bill would have been at that rate, on your old valuation.

Then when the new value is received, figure the tax bill on the new rate of $26.

These two figures can be compared, to find out how much your taxes have been increased as a result of the

It is a mistake to compare the 1958 tax bill with what was paid last year, because town meeting voted substantial sums this spring, which must be paid for. Increases based on these appropriations can't be blamed on the revaluation, although that appears to be what some are attempting to do.

Thus, when you get your notice, stop a few minutes and make a proper comparison before screaming that you've been hurt badly. In many cases, you'll find there is no basis for complaint.

New Route 28 Section Now Out For Bids

Bids were asked Tuesday for the construction of another major link of Interstate Rt 93 (Relocated Rt 28). State Public Works Com-missioner Anthony N. DiNatale said the section will cost more than $4,000,000 and close the gap between contracts now under construction.

Construction.

The section to be advertised for bids will begin in Wilmington near Rt 62 and run northerly through a corner of Tewksbury to a point near Dascomb rd., a distance of 3.5 miles.

Seven bridges will be constructed. One bridge will span the Shawsheen River; another will carry the proposed Rt 125 extension over the expressway. Vale st., at the Tewksbury-Andover

Law Day

A proclamation by President Eisenhower has set aside May 1, 1958 as Law Day, for the people of the United States. It states that the day has been given significance because it is fitting that our people remember with pride and guard with vigilance the heritage of liberty, justice and equality under law which we have inherited; that they realize that our government is based on the fundamental rights of individuals; that they recognize the fact that universal application of the rule of law in settlement of international disputes would go far towards a just and durable peace. To further the observation of this statement, the press and other informational media have been asked to make public recognition.

Will Plant About 60 New Trees

Two kinds of Maples, plus some small leaf Lindens, will be planted by the Tree Department planted by the Tree Department this spring.

Foreman Philip Busby said about 60 trees will be set out, including the Lindens, and both Sugar and Norway Maples.

The Lindens grow well under urban conditions, he explained, and are particularly suited for growing under wires because their height doesn't create a pruning problem.

Another reason for planting other varieties of trees than Maples is a desire to avoid the same kind of problem that faces the town with its Elms. Busby commented that the Maple Wilt, a virus currently attacking Maples in some sections of New England, could spread here. As is the case with the Dutch Elm Disease, the Maple Wilt could practically wipe out the Maples over a period of years.

Bushy also reported that all Elms that showed a positive re-action to the Dutch Elm disease test during 1957 have been re-moved, plus some that were dead and required removing.
