Taxpayers' Insist Data Would Bolster Position

The Taxpayers Association this week refuted a statement by a representative of the state tax office that the Association's plan for a gradual imposition of the revaluation was illegal.

In a special statement issued at mid-week, the Association described its efforts to meet with the Assessors to discuss measures to ease the tax burden on home owners, resulting from the revaluation. And the Association maintained that its estimate of the affect of the revaluation on homeowners would be borne out by a summation of figures, if this is done by the Assessors at some future time.

The statement, signed by Taxpayers President Harold Haller, follows:

"By this time, the citizens of Andover have probably been able to digest the Tribune and Townsman news releases covering the Taxpayers' meeting with our assessors on July 28th. They will recall that we took the stand that the assessors owed our homeowners an explanation in detail of what was happening and that until such time as they could gather the data from which an intelligent analysis could be made they were not in a position to accept the revaluation or set a tax rate. That being so we recommended the postponement of the reassessment until 1959. The assessors disagreed. We were told, in just about so many words, that all they needed was the total valuation and that, so far as setting the rate is involved, they were not concerned with how much the tax bills of particular types of property went up or down. Apparently your elected officials do not believe that before making a drastic change in assessment procedures they need tell you, from firm data

Shopping Center By-Laws Ruled Illegal By Counsel

The Planned Shopping Center zoning voted last March at town meeting has been ruled illegal by Town Counsel Vincent Stulgis. In a written opinion to the Planning Board, he has stated that the areas zoned for that purpose revert to their former status.

Thus the West Andover center, zoned in March, would change back to Zone C residential; while the shopping center zone on No. Main st. would revert to industrial. It is understood that a shopping center is allowed under the industrial zoning, thus making it possible for the Elm Farms to develop the proposed center.

Representatives of that firm recently told the Planning Board that a shopping center would include an Elm Farms super market, plus "service" type stores. They disclosed plans for a colonial-type structure set back from the street. And at that time, they requested relief from certain provisions of the Shopping Center Zoning, relating to the amount of parking and location of signs. It was the firm's written request for relief that prompted the Planning Board to ask town counsel for his ruling.

The written opinion from town counsel was based in large part on a decision handed down in the Coolidge vs No. Andover case, which became known this June.

The opinion, as signed by the counsel, follows:

"It is my opinion that the enactment of the by-law relative to planned shopping centers has failed to accomplish its purpose.

"In the recently decided case of Coolidge vs North Andover Planning Board, 1958 advanced sheets 959, the Court said that the zoning Enabling Act does not allow a delegation of authority over zoning matters to a planning board. Such matters can only be delegated to the Selectmen or the Zoning Board of Appeals.

"The town, in enacting Section VIA (2) Planned Shopping Centers, specifically delegated authority for final approval of site plans and other matters concerning zoning to the Planning Board. It is then my opinion that this one bad section, which is not within the compliance of the statute on zoning and the Coolidge Case, causes the entire by-law or by-laws on Planned Shopping Centers to be a nullity, reverting the areas zoned for planned shopping centers to their original status.

"It is therefor suggested that these by-laws be rewritten and presented for enactment at the next town meeting."

Annual Events At Playgrounds

The annual playground field day will be held Thursday, Aug. 14, at Central Playground.

Buses will transport youngsters from all the grounds for the athletic events, starting at 10 a.m. and ending at noon.

Displays showing the arts and crafts work done on the grounds this year are on display this week in two Main st. stores. Miss Anne Marie Walsh, assisted by Miss Dorothy Ann Walsh, have been in charge of this activity.

Aug. 18 and 19 have been set as the days for all playoffs to determine the playground champions in sand building, checkers, dominoes, chess, badminton and ping pong.

And during that last week at playground activities, instructors

St. Augustine's School Guild, busy in summer as in winter, is planning a mid-summer party for the entire parish.

Committee members are working on preparations for a chicken barbeque to be held Saturday, Aug. 23, in the garden of Dr. and Mrs. Harry Byrne, 51 School st. Servings will be continuous from 5 to 7 p.m.

Co-chairmen of the event are Mrs. Joseph Sapienza, Mrs. James Dolan, Mrs. Philip Winters and Mrs. Robert Phinney.

The ticket committee members include Mrs. Stewart Anderson, Mrs. Joseph Bresnahan, Mrs. Roland Demers, Mrs. Lawrence Kidd, Mrs. Edward Harty, Mrs. Raymond Lynch, Mrs. Robert Mason, Mrs. James O'Hagan, Mrs. Ralph Schmidt and Mrs. Albert Wilde.

Extensive improvements to the electric distribution facilities in Ballardvale and along So. Main st. are planned by the Merrimack-Essex Electric co.

Officials of the firm met recently with the Board of Public Works to discuss routes and potential tree removals.

The new high-power line, to carry heavier loads in expectation of future residential demands, will start at the Ballardvale-Tewksbury line, along Dascomb rd., Clark rd., Andover st., Ballardvale rd. and along So. Main st. to the By-Pass.

Company representatives said the primary line atop the poles would be relatively free from interruption from tree limbs.

Street lights in use at this time will be changed to individual

Blood Given By Raytheon

Dangerously low blood supplies were given a much needed boost as employees of Raytheon made a record donation to the Bloodmobile, which visited the plant Friday, Aug. 1.

Red Cross authorities of the Andover Chapter stated that this was the highest one-day total ever realized in the Greater Lawrence area. 352 potential donors answered the call during the visit and 303 pints of blood were received. The supply will go to the Boston Blood Center where it will be made available to any hospital in the area.

Friday's program was made successful through the cooperation of C. F. Adams, president of Raytheon Manufacturing Company; A. E. Walden, Andover plant manager; and David Cutler, Blood Program chairman, Andover Red Cross.

WATER AT POMP'S GOOD FOR SWIMMING

The Board of Health has had water at Pomp's Pond tested and states that it is of suitable bacteriological quality for swimming. Samples from the beach area and from the center of the Pond were taken.

Sewer Entrance Request Refused

Two Lowell st. residents, Arthur Mandros, 100 Lowell st. and R. A. Woodcock, 95 Lowell st., have asked the Board of Public Works for permission to enter the Shawsheen Hylands sewer.

But the Board decided Monday night that neither should be granted the permission.

Mr. Woodcock lives directly opposite the eventual end of the line now being installed. The pipe will stop about 150 ft. in from the Lowell st. end of Arthur rd. Mr. Mandros lives around the corner of Lowell st.

Some doubt was expressed as to how the residents could be allowed to enter the sewer, when the plan did not call for it and betterments were not drawn up against the two properties.

Four-year-old Steve Gallant of Vine st. posed happily while enjoying the facilities at Pomp's Pond. (Loone)

Andover Man Wins Appeal

An Andover resident has won approval for the erection of a service station as the result of a petition he filed with the Lawrence zoning board of appeals.

Joseph M. Bresnahan, 5 Walker ave. has been granted permission to erect a three-bay service station at the junction of Winthrop ave. and Exeter st. in Lawrence.

Opposition to the proposed building was voiced at the public hearing held June 19 and as part of its decision, the zoning board ruled that the proposed service station shall not be erected less than 14 feet from the side line on Exeter street - an increase of four feet over the 10-foot set back submitted in the plot plan - and that the trailer trucks which refuel the underground tanks enter and leave from the Winthrop ave. side of the corner premises. The board announced that it is allowing two entrances or exits of 50 feet each from the street instead of the normal 30 to accommodate these large vehicles.

The service station is located in a Local Business District adjacent to a B-1 Residence District. The petitioner plans to raze a two and one-half story dwelling at the rear of the present station to make way for the larger new station.

The board's decision, filed with the city clerk, granted a variance in the zoning ordinance to provide for the construction of the building less than 100 feet from the lot line in a residence district which it abuts, and granted a special permit to provide for the erection of the building 14 feet from the Exeter street lot line.

Plan To Surface Andover Street

The town will resurface Andover st., from Woburn st. to within 200 feet of the bridge.

This decision was reached Monday night, after some Board of Public Works discussion about having too much money potentially available for the work.

It was explained that money was left, to the tune of about $4,600, in the Andover st. sewer article, to pay for resurfacing. Funds for the purpose also were included in the estimate on the new bridge job.

But Board members felt that the funds already held over from last year, under the sewer project, should be used at this time.

The state has informed the Board that bids on the new bridge, a piece of Chapter 90 construction, will be advertised early in September. A contract should be awarded by October, the state advised. Work, it is felt, should be completed by next February.

EDITORIAL THOUGHTS

Mid-Year Outlook

Andover, like other New England communities, reached the mid-summer period with renewed confidence in matters economic. Business was on the upgrade as the year went into its second half.

The New England Council reported many favorable signs, although there were still some weak spots.

According to the Council, food store sales were at record highs, and the Bureau of Labor Statistics reported job gains. The Federal Reserve Bank of Boston in its latest report on industrial production said the index indicated manufacturing was up for the first time since last September.

Steel warehouse tonnage in New England in June was five to ten per cent better than in the previous month of May. Heavy production contracts in the region for the first five months of the year were 48 per cent above the same period in 1957, and in May they showed a 37 per cent increase over the same period a year ago.

However, some parts of the economy were a little less robust. The New England shoe output was down, but less on an average than the U. S. industry as a whole. Power production was running about the same as a year ago. New car registrations at the end of April were 22 per cent under the figure for the first four months of 1957.

People were still putting a little away for a rainy day. As wages went higher so did saving bank deposits increase. Savings went up since the first of the year according to the Federal Reserve Bank.

The bank also reported commercial loans of member banks continued to decline moderately during most of the second quarter.

Requests for residential loans went up as the result of better availability of funds at lower cost.

The cost of living was still way up. The Bureau of Labor Statistics in its latest (April) consumer price index for Boston, which is taken as a sample for the local area, said the cost of living was 3.6 per cent above April of last year and 0.9 per cent higher than it was in January of the current year. The wholesale price index also advanced from 117.2 a year ago to 119.3.

Hourly wage earnings of production workers in manufacturing industries throughout New England were higher than a year ago. Non-manufacturing jobs showed a gain in May over the previous month of April and reports for the later months were also expected to show gains.

Installment credit on the books at the end of June was slightly higher than a year ago, but the rate of growth in the amount outstanding was slower than for the first six months of 1957.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics said that its August report will be an indication of the path employment will follow during the last months of the year. The bureau said that the July report, because of the peak of the vacation season, was not a proper index.

And as for vacations, everyone seemed to be on the move. Advance inquiries about New England's vacation places were at an all time high.

A great many resort areas had a great winter business and this tended to offset a cool spring. However, with the warm days of July and August attracting folks to the resort centers, operators indicated they would have a banner year.

On the whole, there was a new note of optimism in the air. Everyone was facing the future with confidence. The recession seemed to have run its course.

At The Library

Summer Hours

Summer hours at the library: Main reading room, Monday through Friday, 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Children's room, Monday through Friday, 10 a.m. to 12 noon; 2-5 p.m. Both departments will be closed on Saturdays.

Bookworms Continue Reading

The young readers of Andover who are members of the Bookworms Reading Club are enjoying the program, and reading is still one of their major pastimes, according to the circulation of children's books at the Memorial Hall Library. Each child who has read two books after signing up on the "charter" is entitled to an explorer's chart; thereafter, each two books allow a child to put a light color behind one of the planets on the chart. This seems to be a very satisfactory recognition of reading done, among the boys and girls. Further reward is the Bookworm party, to be held in the fall. There is time for new families to join in the reading fun. Full information may be had in the children's room.

Helps For Homemakers

If your home garden plot has been doing too well, and you have a surplus of growing things, now is the time to consider putting them up for the winter and saving a few pennies on each meal. The Memorial Hall Library has good books and pamphlets on preserving, freezing and pickling. Winter meals are made more interesting with the tang of spices and vinegar, relishes and chutneys. Ask to see the helps for economical cooks at the library.

Recent Fiction

The following books of fiction have been added to the Memorial Hall Library recently: Daybreak, Slaughter; The Snow Birch, Mantley; So Merciful A Queen, So Cruel A Woman, Harwood; The Cavalryman, Sinclair; The King Must Die, Renault; Strangers On Earth, Troyat; The Portuguese Escape, Bridge; The Hard, Blue Sky, Grau; Naked Under Capricorn, Ruhen; Seidman and Son, Moll; Love Is Like That, Roberts; The Selfish And The Strong, Schuster; Seasons Of Jupiter, Lall.

At a meeting of the Selectmen held Monday, it was voted to allow the town's policemen to carry loaded weapons at all times. The order affects some 39 men.

Dr. and Mrs. Selah Merrill arrived in town last Friday afternoon from Georgetown, British Guiana. Dr. Merrill holds the position of United States Consul.

Dr. T. J. Cullinane of Lowell was visiting in town Wednesday.

25 Years Ago - August, 1933

The new messhall at the Civilian Conservation Corps camp was opened last night, as over 200 young men sat down to a turkey dinner. This marked the first time that members of the Corps, at the Harold Parker State Forest, had sat down together for a meal. They had been serving themselves from an open-air counter since the camp opened in May.

A state inspector has condemned an attic room at the Stowe School, stating it may not be used as a classroom this fall unless extensive and expensive alterations are made. The room was used as a classroom last year.

Two wild dogs were in the news again this week, after attacking pigs on a Lowell st. farm. Two of the porkers, weighing over 100 pounds apiece, had to be shot. The owner said one dog jumped a five foot fence to escape from the pig pen about and not from opinion, what the effect on you will be and why.

"Many organized groups, such as the Shawsheen Improvement Association, and hundreds of individual residents of Andover, aroused at the potential impact of their tax burden when the tentative rate and assessments were announced in May, approached the Taxpayers' Board with requests for action and advice. They were dissuaded by us from taking any action until we had discussed the plan with the Board of Assessors. In view of this we, in the Taxpayers' Association, feel that we would be remiss in our responsibility to our fellow townsmen if we did not step in and give them, as accurately as we can under the circumstances, the picture which, in our opinion, should have come from their officials.

"Almost three months ago when we first asked the assessors for a conference, we outlined to them what we believed caused the unusually high increases in homeowners' tax bills and what we would propose as a procedure to lighten the burden. We also pointed out that our belief was based upon estimated data and that before we firmed our proposal we would like to sit down with the assessors and obtain actual data for certain classes of property which we described to them. We were told that they would be glad to meet with us and provide these figures around the 1st of June. From that time until July 21st our representative called numerous times to check on the promised meeting. Each time he called he mentioned the breakdown of data which would be needed. Each time he was assured it would be forthcoming and was led to believe that no final action would be taken until such data were available, thoroughly discussed and released to the citizenry for their consideration and possible action before the assessors set the final rate.

"When we met on July 28th in the assessors' office, we asked for these figures and we were astonished and disappointed when told they were not available. Fortunately, we had brought with us our analysis on estimated data. This was presented to all those present. The assessors conceded that, while the estimates probably were not 100% correct, the general effect and general principle involved were substantially correct.

"Our analysis showed that, if the old assessments had been retained and the tax rate were raised by $12, residential properties would have been asked to 4:30 a.m.

The second annual bugle and drum corps competition was held Saturday, as over 800 Legionnaires gathered here from all over the state. Rockland and Marlboro took top honors. About 5,000 persons attended the event.

The Emergency Committee has decided to spend some of its surplus this summer, rather than wait for fall when members had thought the employment situation might again become acute. The money will be used to have work done on the Ballardvale school lawn, among other projects.

10 Years Ago - August, 1948

Governor Robert F. Bradford dropped into town for an informal visit. Held sidewalk conferences with various people along Main st. Governor's arrival at 9:30 a.m. at Town House was first stop in a tour of Essex County communities.

Andover's postal receipts for the fiscal year ending June 30 were up $36,889 over the previous year. Income for the period was $487,473.05.

Building construction hummed. Permits granted up to the end of the month of July amounted to nearly a million dollars. Construction amounting to $870,990 was in progress throughout the town.

Welfare officials reported that welfare costs had mounted for the first six months of the year. This was attributed to the higher cost of living rather than an additional welfare case load.

A new automatic system was installed at the Western Union office. Permits telegrams to go directly to their destination without relay in Boston.

pay a tax bill of approximately $200,000 more than in 1957. Under the new assessments they are being asked to pay approximately $500,000 more than in 1957. Why? The answer is simple.

"Under the old assessment procedures, business, industries, public utilities and other mercantile establishments paid a disproportionately large share of taxes and homeowners paid a much smaller share. Under the new procedures, this is evened out and residences pick up their correct proportionate share of the tax load. This is the democratic process and is desirable. While this may 'hurt' in the immediate future, in the long run Andover's tax rate, in the face of inflation, can be stabilized completely only through the establishment of a thriving industrial park. This can be accomplished only if a satisfactory industrial climate is created. We would hardly expect industry to be overeager to use our industrial areas if our tax structure penalizes them. However, there is no need to do that over night, particularly when the surprisingly high increase in residential taxes came to the notice of homeowners almost seven months after the start of their tax budget year. Hence, our proposal to introduce the change gradually.

"There is no point in burdening our citizens with the question of legality except for a short item: The Taxpayers did not go into this thing without a full investigation of the legal implications. Several conferences were held with legal council. The state supreme court decision cited by Mr. Wood of the Tax Commissioner's office was a Connecticut case and not Massachusetts. The supreme court decisions in the Commonwealth have all refused to compel municipal assessors to adhere to anything other than what they deem to be right. If that were not so, Mr. Wood and his office would have succeeded long ago in forcing their views on many more than the few communities who have agreed. More than 80 per cent of all Commonwealth communities have valuations which are as chaotic or more chaotic than Andover's was.

"Boston is a good example in point. Our 1957 assessment structure is not very far different from Boston's existing structure. The Taxpayers' proposal to introduce the new structure on a gradual basis is not very different from the Boston plan except that Boston plans to take much longer. Apparently, the difference is that in Boston the officials are more concerned with the human problems involved than they are with legalisms. They refuse to swallow this 1/3 up, 1/3 down and 1/3 level opinion which we get from Tax Commissioners and revaluation experts. These commissioners and experts have played that tune so long that they have hypnotized themselves into forgetting that there are exceptions to every rule.

"We feel certain that final figures, if they are ever compiled in the form we requested them, will bear out our analysis to a substantial degree. If they do not we will apologize to our assessors and Messrs. Wood and McGann publicly. If we prove to be correct, no apologies will be expected because apologies couldn't possibly repair the damage that will have been done to many more people than the 'minority' our officials talk about.

"While we are on the question of taxes, you will recall that, late last winter, in our pre-election booklet, the Taxpayers' Association stated that the best way in which our Town Government costs can be reduced is by increased efficiency of administration. We then urged you to vote for the Selectmen-Manager Charter and you did. However, that is only part of the action that must be taken. It is necessary now to make certain that you elect selectmen next March who will wholeheartedly seek the best manager Andover can afford and then give him the most complete support possible. In other words, you must elect selectmen who will abide sincerely by your decision to have the new charter and who will expend every effort to make it succeed.

"Even now there is evidence that the anti-manager group is organized to do its utmost to 'knife' the new charter. It is their plan to throw roadblocks at the charter and the manager at every possible point in order to force them to fail. They expect to accomplish this by getting you, the citizens of Andover, to vote in at least a majority of selectmen who are anti-manager. Don't let them fool you. Make sure your new selectmen will be citizens pledged to make a success of what you voted for. The Andover Civic Committee for Town Manager which supported the new charter in the last election will, undoubtedly, interview and question every candidate for selectman and will publish the results and their recommendations. Follow those recommendations and your new efficient form of administration will be put well on the way to achieving your purpose.

"Last winter the Committee for Self Government kept on asking 'What's wrong with Andover?' Take a look at your tax bill and then give them your answer at the next election."

Sound Conditioning Means Less Fatigue

Less noise means less fatigue. Homeowners can follow pioneering of industry and use acoustical tile to sound-condition noise areas such as the family room. Your lumber dealer has a new-type woodfiber acoustical tile called Forestone which brings beauty to sound-absorbent ceilings. This new tile is less expensive than perforated acoustical tile, yet has a richly textured, highly decorative surface. Forestone has become a favorite ceiling cover for living rooms, nurseries, rumpus rooms and other home areas where noise should be controlled. Tongue and groove edges and an extended flange permit rapid, error-free application by the home handyman.

Middle East Crisis Prevents Wedding

Middle East affairs, reasonably remote from Andover, have had a direct effect on one local couple. Miss Shirley E. Murray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Murray, 266 Salem st., was scheduled to marry Private, first class, Ralph L. Fearon of Methuen last Saturday.

But the Army thought otherwise. Pvt. Fearon expected to return from Kaiserlauten, Germany, for the wedding. But instead he was transferred to duty in the trouble area. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester E. Fearon, he is assigned to the 365th Quartermaster Corps.

Wedding plans are indefinite, awaiting the return of Pvt. Fearon from the Middle East.

Dike, Spillway To Cost $11,000

The Board of Public Works is planning to seek Finance Committee approval, with that of the Selectmen, for a diking and spillway system at Haggett's Pond. Water Dept. Supt. Donald Bassett said engineering studies by Camp, Dresser and McKee indicate that approximately $11,000 will be needed to do the work. He told the Board that money is available under a water study article approved in March, plus sufficient additional funds in the general water article, also voted at town meeting.

The dikes will be built at the rear of the pond, as part of an over-all plan. A spillway will handle excess water, diverting it into Fish Brook.

Bassett said the present sand dikes, reinforced with sand bags, is not adequate to insure keeping a full pond of water. The dikes can be worn down too easily, he explained, plus the problems that arise if the pond is full during the winter and the ice destroys the sand dikes.

operation — each with its photo-electric cell governing the time it goes on and when it shuts off. This will prevent several lights from going off as happens when the present circuit wiring is damaged.

The proposed installation will be done over a two or three year period, the company spokesman said. An over-all expenditure of $100,000 is anticipated to complete the job.

In preparation for it, the company's tree experts, with Tree Department Foreman Philip Busby, are surveying all street trees along the route of major line work, along with adjoining private trees. Potential hazardous conditions and methods of eliminating them will be spotted in the survey. The company told the BPW that better service and safer operation of the lines can be accomplished by elimination of dead trees and other conditions that now affect electric lines. There has been no estimate of the number of trees to be taken down along the new high-power line route.

Special Town Meeting Probable Late In September

Would Consider Zoning By-Law

A special town meeting will probably be summoned late in September or early in October.

Dr. William V. Emmons, a member of the Board of Selectmen, confirmed a report this week that the special session will in all probability be held.

The meeting will not consider any major money articles as far as the Selectmen know. Major emphasis will be on zoning, a by-law change and assorted items that have come up since the March meeting.

Dr. Emmons said shopping center zoning presumably will be a major item on the agenda. The by-laws passed last March have been ruled illegal by town counsel, who suggested re-written by-laws be submitted to a town meeting as soon as possible.

Other zoning might include the business area along Chestnut st., upon which the town meeting acted last March. The voter's action was never sent to the attorney general for approval because one house lot along the street frontage was omitted from the plan. Town Clerk George

THESE ARE YOUR TOWNSMAN TELEPHONES

The Andover Townsman will have the following telephone numbers, after the conversion to the dial system Sunday morning:

Dial - GR5-1943 or GR5-1944.

Remember to dial the two letters, plus the five digits, to place all local calls.

Competitions To Start Monday

Inter-playground competitions will be held next week.

Supervisor George Snyder announced the following schedule of events:

Monday, Aug. 18, morning competitions in checkers at Central Playground and, at Indian Ridge, both sand building and 45's; Monday afternoon, chess at Shawsheen Playground and ping pong at Ballardvale.

Tuesday morning competitions will include badminton at Ballardvale, dominoes at West Center and bean bags at Central.

SOON, JUST A MEMORY - The busy telephone switchboard in the Musgrove Building will soon be only a memory, as conversion to the dial system takes place Sunday morning. Here, Mrs. Ethel Sullivan, chief operator, looks over a section of the switchboard as operators keep busy with the normal routine. Most operators, she said, are being transferred to other offices of their choice. (Staff Photo)

HERE ARE THE NEW POLICE, FIRE NUMBERS

After 1 a.m. Sunday morning, when the dial system goes into operation throughout Andover, it will be necessary to dial police or fire headquarters.

Here are the new numbers - keep them in a place handy to your phone:

Police - dial GR5-0390 or GR5-0391. If you dial the first number and it's busy, the second one will automatically ring.

Fire - for emergencies only - GR5-1212; for routine business, dial GR5-1281.

Until residents of the town are familiar with the new numbers, they should be kept near the phone for quick reference.

Equipment Ready For Dial Conversion Sunday

More Voters Are Independent

Independent voters - those specifying no party preference - now outnumber those registered in the Republican and Democratic parties.

In a sharp gain since 1956, the year of the last state primary, the Independents now are 4,519 strong - while the combined registered strength of the two political parties is 4,233.

Town Clerk George Winslow, tabulating the statistics prior to primary day Sept. 9, announced that 8,752 men and women are eligible to vote in the primary. Those voters already having a party enrollment on the official voting list may only be given the ballot of their party. Independents wishing to vote in the primary may ask for the ballot of either party, but not both. A party designation, depending on the choice of ballots, would then be placed against their names on the lists, although a simple request to the town clerk after the primary would suffice to have the designation removed.

Breaking down the total re-

Sixty-six hundred Andover telephones will be switched to the dial system at 1:01 a.m. Sunday morning, marking an end to switch board service that started back in 1904.

William J. Chicoine, manager in the Lawrence-Andover area, this week urged all telephone users in Andover to remember that it will be necessary to dial GR plus five digits to complete all local calls.

As the time for conversion neared this week, the Telephone Co. began distributing new directories that contain some 46,400 listings. Over 55,000 will be delivered in the Greater Lawrence area.

Andover telephone customers have already received a number plate, to be attached to the phone Saturday night. If any user has not yet received this equipment, on which is printed the telephone number, a call should be placed to the business office, Mr. Chicoine stated.

Instructions for dialing locally, and in dialing to more distant points, have been sent to the approximately 5,650 customers in Andover. Any call that can be made by dialing the first two letters of the exchange, plus the five digits, falls within the local call area. Mr. Chicoine explained. Others, for which it is necessary to dial a code number first, are toll calls.

Holders of one and two party lines will be able, with the advent of the dial system early Sunday morning, to dial many parts of the

To Hold Tree Hearings

The Board of Public Works is anticipating receipt of a formal communication from the Electric Co., spelling out the location of trees to be taken down for a new power line installation.

The Company formally announced last week that it will spend about $100,000 in the next two to three years to install a power line through Ballardvale and out to the By-Pass. BPW Chairman Alex Henderson said he understands 44 trees must be removed and extensive trimming and pruning will be required along the route.

At a hearing Monday night in the Selectmen's office, the Electric Co. asked for five pole locations on Clark rd., in place of the present six poles, as part of the over-all installation project.

It was explained that tree removals on that road, and elsewhere in the town, would be listed for BPW action. The Selectmen held up approval of the pole locations, pending final agreement between

Mrs. Chapman's Estate At $40,000

Drawn up April 15, 1955, the will of Mrs. Bessie Hiller Chapman of Andover has been recorded in the Registry of Probate. She died July 10. The estimated value of her estate is $40,000.

The woman, who nominated Fred E. Cheever of Andover as the executor, directed that no more than $1,000 be expended for the erection of a monument on her lot at Waterside cemetery, Marblehead. She left $500 to the cemetery trustees for the perpetual care of the lot.

A $15,000 legacy, with a brass candle-holder and and-irons and other contents of the testatrix' apartment, was awarded to a niece, Grace Hiller of Baltimore, Md., while $10,000 was left to a nephew, Carl Hiller of Marblehead, and $5,000 was given to the nephew's wife, Mrs. Maude Hiller.

After devising $1,000 to a grandniece, Joan Hiller Brennan, and allotting $500 to a great-grandnephew, Peter W. Brennan, the Andover resident left $1,000, a jewel box, a wedding ring, and two diamond rings to a step-daughter, Mae C. Chapman.

The residue of the property was bequeathed to the niece and the nephew, and Mrs. Chapman set forth that she was intentionally leaving no bequests to any relative omitted from the will.

League All-Stars In Game Series

An all-star team of the Two-League is meeting the League winning Tigers in a series of games this week and next.

Playing on the all-stars are Charles Souter, Doug Dunbar and Charles McCullom of the Dodgers; Jack Reilly, Paul Toomey, Charles Bowman and Richard Leete, Youngsters; Ralph and Cliff Sharpe, Bill Schindler and Dan Murphy, Ballardvale Arabs.

One of the games will be held tomorrow night at 6:15 at the Playstead. Charles Bowman Sr. and Fred Polgreen are co-managers of the all-stars.

SPECIAL MEETING IN SEPTEMBER

Winslow said this technical error in the preparation of the article prevented sending the by-law to the state but that it can be rectified at a future town meeting.

Urban renewal may well be another major item for discussion and action. Town meeting approval is required before an application can be filed with the federal government, outlining the over-all area within which the program would be carried out. Officials of the Housing Authority said that sufficient planning has been done to assure proper presentation of the facts at a special meeting.

Among other probable items in the warrant is the acceptance of Carmel rd. — on which residents have been working all summer trying to meet town requirements. The BPW was queried Monday night by the Selectmen on possible acceptance and members agreed the street probably will meet their approval, if the subject is included in the warrant.

Emergency Designation
Although financial articles are not expected, they remain a possibility.

But whether requested by citizens or municipal boards, the Finance Committee must officially declare them to be emergency items before they can be printed in a warrant for a special meeting.

The possibility of including Board of Public Works requests at a special session was mentioned some weeks ago, when that board asked the Finance Committee for a transfer of funds.

The BPW wanted sufficient money to meet extended obligations on Shawsheen rd., as an aftermath of Chapter 90 reconstruction; to reimburse the water department for money it had spent relocating water mains as a result of state construction; and funds to put a water main under Osgood st., where the new highway crosses, so that it will not be necessary to tunnel under the highway at a later date. It is expected that a decision on asking for money for any or all of these projects will be made soon.

Citizens May File
Although the meeting will be called primarily to clear away several items in official files, citizens of the town may also file articles for a special town meeting. In recent years, the Selectmen have been requiring 200 signatures on a petition accompanying the article. And, as in the case of town boards, the Finance Committee must declare any articles appropriating funds to be an emergency before the articles can be included.

BRENDA ELDRED HELD BIRTHDAY PARTY

Miss Brenda Eldred, 8 Burnham rd. was entertained at her home Saturday afternoon, Aug. 9, in honor of her 11th birthday. Games were played and refreshments served.

Those in attendance included Susan and Joyce Ann Eldred, John Beanland, Warren Piquette, Rosemary Gurren, John McMahan and Lorraine Sorenson.

OUTDOOR WHIST

An outdoor whist, sponsored by the Catholic Daughters of America, will be held at the home of Mrs. Stephen Pettit Saturday, Aug. 16 beginning at 2 p.m. Prizes will be awarded the high scorers. Refreshments will be served. In case of rain, the affair will be held in St. Augustine's school hall.

That's rich-me careless!

It's no laughing matter when millions of acres of forests are destroyed each year. Your carelessness may have started one of these disastrous forest fires. The fact is that 9 out of 10 forest fires are caused by some person's carelessness act—as simple an act as slipping a cigarette out a car window. Because visitors to our forests have increased ten-fold since World War II, the problem is more acute than ever. Be extra careful this year.

Gordon Confirms Alaskan Village

FAIRBANKS, Alaska - The entire population of a village in America's 49th state all became members of the Episcopal Church on the same day.

The village is Christian Village, a community of two log cabins and several "eaches", located on the Christian River north of Fork Yukon, near Arctic, Alaska.

The village's population: Jim Christian, patriarchal head of the community and a son of Chief Christian (one of the great Indian figures of the Chandalar and Christian River country), his wife, his 15 year old son, Jim, Jr., and his 80 year old mother Rachel, were confirmed by the Episcopal Bishop of Alaska, the Rt. Rev. William J. Gordon.

Bishop Gordon, who says that "Christian Village is one of the few places left in Alaska that is really remote," flew himself there for the confirmation service in his plane "Blue Box II" and lunched following the service on "nourishing caribou and moose stew."

Henderson said it will be necessary to post all the trees and hold hearings before permission can be given for removals. Although pruning may be done with the permission of the BPW, Henderson said his Board will give due weight to comments of residents as to the extent of the pruning. Edward P. Heavy Smoke At House Blaze

Fire Department authorities blamed careless disposal of smoking material for an early-morning fire Aug. 10 that caused considerable damage to a house on Stevens st.

the firefighters to don masks and air-pacs, came from a mattress which probably had been smoking for some time. Alexander Campbell, 48 Stevens st., said the mattress was aflame when he called the station at 1:15 a.m. Engine 3 responded and Deputy Cole ordered box 561, Brechin ter. and Shawsheen rd., sounded. Damage to the home was moderate, with the floor under the bed burned and some smoke and water damage to other parts of the structure, according to fire officials. Firefighter Willard Patterson sustained a sprained ankle while battling the blaze.

and Mrs. Arthur Mandros, 100 Lowell st., is a graduate of Andover High School. She was an honor student and elected to the Andover chapter of the National Honor society. She served as senior class marshal and was a member of the Science club chairman of the Prom committee a member of the literary committee on the School annual. The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

By His Excellency

FOSTER FURCOLO

Governor

A PROCLAMATION

THE nineteenth amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which gave women the right to vote, is an enduring memorial to one of this country's outstanding women. Also known as the Susan B. Anthony amendment, it was proclaimed in effect by the Secretary of State on August 26, 1920.

It was typical of Susan B. Anthony's indomitable convictions, tenacity of purpose, and infinite patience that a bill for women's suffrage was submitted first in 1848 and regularly every year thereafter. Active in the woman's suffrage movement, she fought constantly to secure the right of franchise for women as a sign and symbol of equality between the sexes.

A tireless campaigner and organizer, she wrote and lectured extensively, instructed colleagues, and inspired co-workers. She was arrested, tried, found guilty, and fined — a fine she refused to pay — when she made a test case of the fourteenth and fifteenth amendments by voting in the presidential election of 1872.

The greatness and nobility of her life was evident in her selfless devotion to the struggle to achieve perfect equality of civil and political rights for women. Her lively sense of social responsibility was outraged by laws which denied women control of their children and of their money. She decried the discrimination which paid women less wages than men for the same work.

She was a born leader, with an inquiring mind and executive gifts, who applied energy, character, and vision to the challenges and problems of her day. She supported the anti-slavery movement; pressed for better educational facilities for women, and organized the Woman's Temperance Society, now the Women's Christian Temperance Union.

Her influence was international in scope at the time of her death in 1906. In her last speech, on her 86th birthday, she said, "What I ask is not praise, but justice ... failure is impossible." Today we praise a great woman, a champion of justice who believed in all that was good and true, and who fought determinedly for her ideals, despite opposition and ridicule.

NOW, therefore, I, FOSTER FURCOLO, Governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, in accordance with Chapter 265 of the Acts of 1958, do hereby proclaim as

SUSAN B. ANTHONY DAY

Tuesday, August 26, 1958

and recommend its observance by the public in honor of the woman who was an ardent advocate of the successful fight for American woman suffrage.

READY TO USE DIAL SYSTEM

country. Automatic devices handle the calls, plus the proper charging and billing.

Although there has been no attempt here to call every telephone user to explain the new system, Mr. Chicoine said some 500 of the largest users were called. And in a considerable number of cases, the customers did not realize that it will be necessary to dial GR before the five digits. Those customers who do not follow this procedure will reach an "intercept" operator, who will provide instruction on how to complete the calls.

Here's How

Conversion itself, after the months of preparation, seems relatively simple.

At about 1 a.m., unless emergency calls are being placed through the switch board in the Musgrove building, other callers will be asked to hang up. Mrs.

Ethel Sullivan, chief operator, will signal the dial building on Elm st. that the lines are clear. Just before the new dial equipment becomes effective, the old cables running into the Musgrove building will be severed — so for a brief interval the town will be practically out of touch with the world.

Seconds later, men stationed throughout the dial building will pull master ropes, to which are attached thousands of small pins, which have prevented the dial lines from operating to date. As these are removed, the dial tone will hum and the town will have been converted.

Mr. Chicoine predicted a heavy load of calls Sunday morning, as many residents "try out" the new system. But the load should be back to normal Sunday night, he stated.

New Tile Answers Ceiling Question

What to put on the ceiling? Many do-it-yourself handy-men, contemplating adding a room or starting a remodeling job, have asked that question.

Popular answer now is a new acoustical tile with a textured look of fissured marble. It is decorative as well as sound-absorbent. The tile is equally adaptable to the living room, bedroom, rumpus or family room. It comes in an off-white ivory shade which can be painted to suit decor if desired.

Called Forestone, the new acoustical tile is low-cost and has easy installation features for the home handyman. Enough Forestone for a do-it-yourself 10 by 12 ceiling costs less than $35.

Tiles are tongue and grooved and have a nailing or stapling flange. Both features make possible rapid, error-free installation.

EDITORIAL THOUGHTS

Another Try Needed

It was regrettable that the shopping center zoning, approved at town meeting in March, has so quickly been ruled illegal.

Apparently the intent and purpose of the by-laws were proper — but the naming of the Planning Board to execute their provisions was in error. This could not have been foreseen when the by-laws were drafted, as the court decision was handed down in June, some months after the town meeting. It said that only a board of appeals or board of selectmen may be given the authority to carry out provisions contained in zoning by-laws.

Now that this legal ruling has been made, it is hoped that a properly worded by-law will be submitted to the next town meeting. For it would be unwise, in many cases, to allow shopping centers to be created in residential surroundings, without first having provided reasonable restrictions covering construction and operation.

Let's Try It

National publicity was recently given a man — and an organization — dedicated to helping communities establish special afternoon or evening courses for young people who have extraordinary talents.

Briefly, the plan as developed in other communities, finds interested laymen — engineers, chemists, specialists in many fields — devoting their free time to courses for young people who can most benefit from advanced work.

The success has been phenomenal — in one school district, enrollment in the special courses was greater than the number of candidates for the football team. This is remarkable, understanding that the extra work is purely voluntary.

This seems to be a wonderful way to challenge the ability of the young person who is gifted beyond the average. And it is a method that costs very little, for the faculty gives its time — all the community provides is the space.

Hundreds of experts in all scientific fields live in Andover. Couldn't some similar endeavor be worked out here, with the assistance of these professional men?

Down the Years with The Townsman

50 Years Ago — August, 1908

The Rev. F. A. Wilson and family have moved from Railroad st. to 5 Locke st.

Dana W. Clark is spending a few days at York Beach, Me.

The first annual picnic under the auspices of Clan Johnston 185, O.S.C. was held at Bailey's Grove, Haggett's Pond, last Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. J. W. Stark and children have gone to Kennebunk Beach for a visit.

Mrs. Felix G. Haynes and Mrs. Joseph Stott are spending their vacation at Camden, Me.

William C. Coutts and daughters, Misses Alice and Bertha Coutts, are spending a vacation at the Andover-Lawrence Cottage, York Beach, Me.

25 Years Ago — August, 1933

The Selectmen and School Committee will meet Monday night at 7:30 in the School Committee rooms to select a successor to H. Gilbert Francke, who resigned. It is expected that a new chairman of the School Committee will be named shortly afterwards, at a special School Board meeting.

Plans are progressing rapidly for the water carnival to be held Saturday, Aug. 26, at Pomp's Pond. The Legion Post is sponsoring the affair.

Three Greater Boston residents were slightly injured just before 12 o'clock Saturday morning, when their car turned over near the By-Pass. The driver said he was forced to swerve on seeing a wooden horse in the roadway near repair work.

First prize of $15 was won by the local Legion Bugle and Drum Corps in the straight marching contest at Worcester Sunday. There were 11 corps in competition.

The annual pet show will be held at 7 tonight at the Playground. Popular applause from the audience will be the basis of selecting winners.

Pomp's Pond will close Aug. 26 for the season. But senior lifeguards will be working in the area during the following week, thus, in effect, extending the season to Labor Day.

10 Years Ago — August, 1948

Four lots at the junction of Burnham rd. and High st. are available for veterans who are able and willing to start building within two months. A drawing will be held Aug. 16 in the Veterans Service office in the town hall.

Some 193 meters will go into operation within 10 days, following approval of the town's parking ordinances by the state. The meters have been installed along streets in the business district.

Andover's water consumption during the first six months of 1948 was far in excess of the amount used a year ago. The six-month figure a year ago was 216 million gallons, compared to 235 million this year.

Approximately 8700 young men in the area will be eligible for registration when Local Board 8 sets up an office. Under the new law, Andover is included with the Greater Lawrence communities under Board 8.

I've Been Reading Paperbacks

"I've been reading paperbacks", a program on WGBH-TV, Channel 2, on Wednesdays from 9:30 to 10:30 is concerned with a discussion of paper back books about the Orient. The program is a sign of increased interest in the Orient and indicates the large number of excellent paperbacks about the Asia available at relatively small cost.

Listeners who would like to read more about Asia will find a good selection of books at the Memorial Hall Library, many of which may be borrowed for summer loan. In addition to books discussed on the program which include Pearl Buck's "The Good Earth", Gandhi's "My Experiments With Truth, Markandaya's" Nectar in a Sieve, the Memorial Hall Library suggests the following: Wanted: An Asian Policy, Reischauer (A thought-provoking analysis of the nature of political and social change in modern Asia and of some of the problems facing American foreign policy) Anthology of Japanese Literature; ed. by Donald Keene (From the earliest times to the mid-nineteenth century); Bridge to the Sun, Terasaki (A moving account of an American-Japanese marriage); Japan; A Short Cultural History, Sansom (a standard history of Japan); Windows For the Crown Prince, Vining (intimate sketches of Japanese life by the former tutor to the Crown Prince); The Grass Roof, Kang (Sketches of childhood life in the old Korea); A Pail of Oysters, Sneider (An exciting novel with a Formosan setting); Report on Mao's China, Moraes (A recent appraisal of China by an Indian journalist); A Single Pebble, Hersey ("A magnificent novel of the Yangtze River boatmen which captures the timeless rhythm and spirit of Chinese life"); Tibetan Skylines, Ekvall (a former resident reminisces about the people and customs); Ambassador's Report, Bowles (a sympathetic study of India by a former American Ambassador); The Financial Expert, Narayan (A novel of everyday Indian life in a South Indian town); Search for the Spiny Babblers, Ripley (A naturalist reports entertainingly about the Nepalese peoples and customs); Dancers of Bali, Coast (about life, music and dance on this fascinating island).

Current and Choice

I Was a Savage, Modupe ("An astonishing autobiography about the tribal boyhood and hazardous youth of a royal African tribesman"); Fair Trial, Morris (a gallery of notable American criminal cases from Anne Hutchinson to Alger Hiss); A Dangerous Innocence, Lincoln (Miss Lincoln's first novel with an historical background, the time of witchhunting in 17th century Salem); The Astonished Muse, Denney (About the popular culture of mass media, sports and advertisements, a witty view by an associate professor at the University of Chicago); I, Rachel, Cost (a biographical novel about the "immortal" Rachel, one of the outstanding actresses of her own time and possibly of all time); The Bill of Rights, Hand (a noted jurist analyzes the role of the judiciary particularly in relation to our "Bill of Rights"); King Solomon's Ring, Lorenz (The human side of birds and animals delightfully described by one of our outstanding naturalists); As Music and Splendor, O'Brien (A novel about the fantastic, exacting world of Italian opera in the 1880's) Monticello, House of Thomas Jefferson, Truett (Amplified by the author and with superb exterior photographs by the inimitable photographer of the American scene, Samuel Chamberlain).

Plan Auction In Ballardvale

The Ballard Vale United Church Guild will sponsor an auction Aug. 23 at the Playground at 2:30. The chicken barbecue originally scheduled has been cancelled.

There will be refreshments available during the auction.

A food festival will follow the auction, with tables of interest. There will be frankforts, beans, hamburgers, cold drinks, bakery, garden vegetables and a flower table.

Dancing will be enjoyed during the evening.

Mrs. Dorothy Andrews is chairman of the auction, while Mrs. Ruth Batcheller and Mrs. Ruth Matheson are co-chairmen for the food festival.

Proceeds from the day's activities will be used to repair the church organ.

CLUB MET

Members of the "Can-Can" Club met last week at the home of Mrs. Gerald Znamierowski of Lowell Junction. During the social time, Mrs. Frank Green was presented with a birthday cake made by Mrs. James Letters.

PLAYGROUND EVENTS NEXT WEEK

Champions from all the playgrounds will meet in these final events, which will determine the town-wide winners.

Other highlights of the final week of playground activities include announcement of the gold medal winner of each playground, selected on the basis of participation and leadership. Mr. Snyder said it is not compulsory for each playground to select a winner if none of the regular attendants meet the rigid specifications.

Last Week's Events

Regular weekly events were staged at the various grounds last week.

At Shawsheen, a pet show was cancelled. But substituted for it was a "Name the Kitten Contest". A stray, but friendly kitten has been making regular visits to the playground each day, when many of the youngsters would provide bits of horse meat and other nourishment. Beverly Haefling suggested "Sleepy" as an appropriate name and won first prize for the name.

Central Playground held a costume show, with the following results: Robert Petrie, most unusual and Charles Gray, second; Doreen and Diana Falle, first and second prizes in the "prettiest" category; first in the "funniest" group was Timothy Selfridge, with Harold Falle, second. The gold ribbon winner, as best in show, was Kathleen Morrissey. This week's event will be a bubble gum contest.

Ballardvale held its annual boxing matches last Thursday evening, with some 50 spectators on hand. Results of the nine matches were: John Mills, 7 and Douglas Audette, 8, a draw; Richard Steele, 12, beat Philip Froberg, 10; Cameron Mills, 10 and Colin Sherry, 10, fought to a draw; Donald Wrigley, 10 and Bill Spencer, 8, a draw; Robert Walent, 12, outfought Henry Wrigley, 11; Philip Froberg, 10 and Bill Machin, 10, a draw; Robert St. Armand, 3, and Richard St. Armand, 2, a draw; Colin Sherry, 10, gained a decision over Peter Millet, 10; and Harry Roderick vs Al Carlson, a draw.

A costume show occupied youngsters at West Center, with these results: gold ribbon, Jimmy White; "National" category, Jimmy White, first, Jimmy Divine, second and tied for third, Mary Lyman and Russell MacLeish; "prettiest", Linda MacLeish, first, Karen Deneu, second and Alice Hill, third; "most original", Joseph Santarlasci and Linda Boucher, tied for first, Elinor McCarthy, second and Janice Richards, third. A baby picture contest will be held tomorrow at 10:30.

The results of a doll show at Indian Ridge were: "prettiest", Nancy Erler, Patricia Carney and Deidre Brucato, third; "biggest", Carolyn O'Neil, first, Barbara O'Neil and Beverly O'Neil; "smallest", Judith McLean, Kathleen Boulanger and Winifred Kirwin; "most unusual", Stephen Carney, John Keeler and Gerald Dixon.

WILL RECEIVE CERTIFICATE

Miss Joyce Nassar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Nassar, 60 Hidden rd., will be among the 85 students who will receive certificates at the closing exercises Sunday, Aug. 17, of Burnham-by-the-sea, summer school in Newport, Rhode Island, of the Mary A. Burnham School of Northampton.

Miss Nassar is a member of the Burnham-by-the-sea Glee Club and will participate in the production of "Jeanne d'Arc," which will be given Saturday in the school's Great Hall, on one wall of which is affixed a statue of Joan of Arc, carved about 1430 during her lifetime.

Miss Nassar will also be in the production of the operetta, "When Shakespeare's Ladies Meet," which was given during the final week of summer school.

Those making the trip were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Darby and their children, Marion Bruneau, Vesta and Thelma Darby, Homer Darby, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Peterson, and Mr. and Mrs. Merwin Darby and family.

 (Serves 4)

- 1 cup ripe olives
 - ¼ cup chopped onion

 - 1 egg

even ground. Use only a limited amount of mayonnaise to hold together. All these freeze well:
 chicken, ham, shrimp, crabmeat,
 tuna and peanut butter.

All sandwiches should be wrapped separately so flavors do not minge.
 Label each variety. Use mois-

Wrapped sandwiches can be stored in oblong boxes to save storage space. If you freeze only a few, use the ice cube tray.

Open-faced sandwiches for parties can be placed on squares of cardboard for support. Wrap with Leave rolled or ribbon sandwiches uncut until serving time to pre-

Comedians fall to get laughs, but falls aren't funny in industry.

Man was made to walk on two

 James A. Watters, president of the newly formed South Elementary School Parent Teacher Association, has announced the members of the executive committee of the organization. The group, formed of the officers and committee chairmen of the association, had its first meeting last week.

Executive Committee members are Mrs. Franklyn K. Haggerty, first vice president; Mrs. Austin J. O'Toole, second vice president; Mrs. A. P. Seikunas, recording secretary; Mrs. Harold V. Sheaff, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Sidney Zussman, treasurer; Mrs. George M. Moss, hospitality; Mrs. J. A. Kyger, membership; Mrs. Robert Mears, ways and means; Mrs. Allan S. Parents will have the opportunity of visiting the classrooms and learning the program of study of each individual teacher so that they will learn what their children can accomplish during the school year.

Other programs will deal with such phases of the local elementary schools as reading, guidance, curriculum, and the unusual child. Members of the program committee include Mrs. Haggerty, Mrs. Walter Norris, Mrs. Richard Moody and John T. Andrew Jr.

Additional activities to be planned for the year were discussed by the executive committee. The first regular meeting of the organization will be Thursday, Oct. 2.

Crabgrass party

Few people realize it but crabgrass is bad, really bad. Cool, wet weather has kept it lushly bright green and attractive. But...

Its sneaky actions will soon be obvious. A day or two of hot weather and bingo — old enemy crabgrass will be getting tough, ugly, wiry.

We predict that the need for Scotts Clout, the hard hitting crabgrass blaster, will be so great that more bags of it will be used in every neighborhood than of charcoal for outdoor grills.

Since we love our customers so much, we take this means to warn them about sneaky crabgrass so they can hit it with Clout before it becomes demon crabgrass and smothers good grass into oblivion.

Save your lawn at little cost. Clout, 2500 sq. ft. bag, $3.95. Two applications usually do the job.

Realty Construction To Start With 35 Houses

The Realty Construction Co. wants to start its huge house-building project here with 5 homes near the intersection of Lovejoy and Dascomb rds.

Judge Alfred Sartorelli, meeting with the Board of Public Works Monday night, said 14 of the houses will be on lots along the streets, while 14 will be developed on back land. It has been estimated that the firm may construct about 300 houses on land it acquired from Mrs. Ray Youmans.

Members of the BPW agreed that water will be available for the 35 houses, providing proper size pipe is installed.

And the Board also seemed in general agreement that the construction firm may be allowed to extend the Clark rd. sewer, at its own expense, to provide facilities for the 35 homes.

Joseph Lawler, of the Camp, Dresser and McKee engineering firm, was on hand to discuss the proposals. He told the Board that the treatment plant in the Vale will not handle more than the 35 homes and warned that not another service could be tied in to the system after the proposed houses are hooked in. It would be possible, he explained, to double the capacity of the plant, at a cost of about $50,000. But Lawler advised against this, stating that the over-all sewer plan calls for servicing the area in other ways. Thus money spent on enlarging the plant would eventually be wasted, he warned.

Judge Sartorelli expressed complete confidence that the house lots could be individually handled with septic tanks, if necessary. But he said his firm wishes to enter the sewer if that is possible.

He said his firm will file preliminary plans with the Planning Board within 30 days and hopes to get started on construction as soon as possible after plans are approved. If sales are adequate, he said, the houses will be finished by next spring.

Mr. Sartorelli stressed his wish to build at a rate agreeable to the town and to follow the town's regulations as laid down by the Planning Board and Board of Public Works. He told Board members that it would be preferable not to file a plan for the entire development, because around a quarter of a million dollar bond would be needed; plus the probability that the 300-plus house lots would be taxed as such at a time when it would be impossible to build on them.

The BPW agreed that 35 houses seemed proper - and suggested that a plan be filed showing a somewhat larger number of lots in the sub-division itself, so that the Board's rule that only half the lots can be serviced with water in 18 months would apply, without lessening the number of actual

TAX REFUND CHECKS AWAITING RESIDENTS

Refund checks are awaiting for two Andover residents, according to the Internal Revenue Service.

The checks could not be delivered by mail, the Service explained. The persons listed should contact the Internal Revenue Service directly.

They are John R. and Christina Donahue, 17 Linwood ave., Shawsheen; and Benita H. Riner, 63 Andover st.

The Service said either changes of address, removals or other reasons had prevented the postoffice from delivering some 2300 checks to Massachusetts residents.

MORE INDEPENDENT VOTERS HERE

Registration by party enrollments, Mr. Winslow listed 1,032 Democrats, 3,201 Republicans, with 4,519 Independents. The total registration of 8,752 is 291 more than the voting list showed eligible on July 1, 1958.

Parties Drop

It's interesting to compare the 1956 records with the figures listed this week - both political parties have fewer enrolled voters than two years ago. In that year, Independents numbered 3,591; Republicans, 3,402 and Democrats, 1,088.

Thus it can be seen that party enrollment is off slightly in both parties, while the Independent voters now have increased their strength markedly.

Precinct Strength

Precinct one is the only precinct whose registered voters enrolled in both parties outnumber the Independent voters in the precinct: 175 Democrats, 853 Republicans, 900 Independents, 1,928 total voters. In this precinct, then, there are 128 more voters with a party label than Independents.

In all other precincts, however, the non-enrolled voter is in the majority.

Precinct two, 248 Democrats, 438 Republicans, 712 Independents, 1,398 total.

Precinct three, 247 Democrats, 581 Republicans, 850 Independents, 1,678 total.

Precinct four, 152 Democrats, 409 Republicans, 730 Independents, 1,291 total.

Precinct five, 93 Democrats, 207 Republicans, 393 Independents, 693 total.

Precinct six, 117 Democrats, 713 Republicans, 934 Independents, 1,764 total.
