Special Town Meeting Probable Late In September

Would Consider Zoning By-Law

A special town meeting will probably be summoned late in September or early in October.

Dr. William V. Emmons, a member of the Board of Selectmen, confirmed a report this week that the special session will in all probability be held.

The meeting will not consider any major money articles as far as the Selectmen know. Major emphasis will be on zoning, a by-law change and assorted items that have come up since the March meeting.

Dr. Emmons said shopping center zoning presumably will be a major item on the agenda. The by-laws passed last March have been ruled illegal by town counsel, who suggested re-written by-laws be submitted to a town meeting as soon as possible.

Other zoning might include the business area along Chestnut st., upon which the town meeting acted last March. The voter's action was never sent to the attorney general for approval because one house lot along the street frontage was omitted from the plan. Town Clerk George

THESE ARE YOUR TOWNSMAN TELEPHONES

The Andover Townsman will have the following telephone numbers, after the conversion to the dial system Sunday morning:

Dial - GR5-1943 or GR5-1944.

Remember to dial the two letters, plus the five digits, to place all local calls.

Competitions To Start Monday

Inter-playground competitions will be held next week.

Supervisor George Snyder announced the following schedule of events:

Monday, Aug. 18, morning competitions in checkers at Central Playground and, at Indian Ridge, both sand building and 45's; Monday afternoon, chess at Shawsheen Playground and ping pong at Ballardvale.

Tuesday morning competitions will include badminton at Ballardvale, dominoes at West Center and bean bags at Central.

SOON, JUST A MEMORY - The busy telephone switchboard in the Musgrove Building will soon be only a memory, as conversion to the dial system takes place Sunday morning. Here, Mrs. Ethel Sullivan, chief operator, looks over a section of the switchboard as operators keep busy with the normal routine. Most operators, she said, are being transferred to other offices of their choice. (Staff Photo)

HERE ARE THE NEW POLICE, FIRE NUMBERS

After 1 a.m. Sunday morning, when the dial system goes into operation throughout Andover, it will be necessary to dial police or fire headquarters.

Here are the new numbers - keep them in a place handy to your phone:

Police - dial GR5-0390 or GR5-0391. If you dial the first number and it's busy, the second one will automatically ring.

Fire - for emergencies only - GR5-1212; for routine business, dial GR5-1281.

Until residents of the town are familiar with the new numbers, they should be kept near the phone for quick reference.

Equipment Ready For Dial Conversion Sunday

More Voters Are Independent

Independent voters - those specifying no party preference - now outnumber those registered in the Republican and Democratic parties.

In a sharp gain since 1956, the year of the last state primary, the Independents now are 4,519 strong - while the combined registered strength of the two political parties is 4,233.

Town Clerk George Winslow, tabulating the statistics prior to primary day Sept. 9, announced that 8,752 men and women are eligible to vote in the primary. Those voters already having a party enrollment on the official voting list may only be given the ballot of their party. Independents wishing to vote in the primary may ask for the ballot of either party, but not both. A party designation, depending on the choice of ballots, would then be placed against their names on the lists, although a simple request to the town clerk after the primary would suffice to have the designation removed.

Breaking down the total re-

Sixty-six hundred Andover telephones will be switched to the dial system at 1:01 a.m. Sunday morning, marking an end to switch board service that started back in 1904.

William J. Chicoine, manager in the Lawrence-Andover area, this week urged all telephone users in Andover to remember that it will be necessary to dial GR plus five digits to complete all local calls.

As the time for conversion neared this week, the Telephone Co. began distributing new directories that contain some 46,400 listings. Over 55,000 will be delivered in the Greater Lawrence area.

Andover telephone customers have already received a number plate, to be attached to the phone Saturday night. If any user has not yet received this equipment, on which is printed the telephone number, a call should be placed to the business office, Mr. Chicoine stated.

Instructions for dialing locally, and in dialing to more distant points, have been sent to the approximately 5,650 customers in Andover. Any call that can be made by dialing the first two letters of the exchange, plus the five digits, falls within the local call area. Mr. Chicoine explained. Others, for which it is necessary to dial a code number first, are toll calls.

Holders of one and two party lines will be able, with the advent of the dial system early Sunday morning, to dial many parts of the

GOOD FRIENDS - These Ballardvale lads were still good friends last week, even after this free-swinging boxing match at the Playground. Cameron Mills, age 11 and Colin Sherry, right, age 10, may look mis-matched, but the youngsters select their own ring opponents. Results of this and eight other matches are contained in the news story on playground activities. (Leone)

To Hold Tree Hearings

The Board of Public Works is anticipating receipt of a formal communication from the Electric Co., spelling out the location of trees to be taken down for a new power line installation.

The Company formally announced last week that it will spend about $100,000 in the next two to three years to install a power line through Ballardvale and out to the By-Pass. BPW Chairman Alex Henderson said he understands 44 trees must be removed and extensive trimming and pruning will be required along the route.

At a hearing Monday night in the Selectmen's office, the Electric Co. asked for five pole locations on Clark rd., in place of the present six poles, as part of the over-all installation project.

It was explained that tree removals on that road, and elsewhere in the town, would be listed for BPW action. The Selectmen held up approval of the pole locations, pending final agreement between

Mrs. Chapman's Estate At $40,000

Drawn up April 15, 1955, the will of Mrs. Bessie Hiller Chapman of Andover has been recorded in the Registry of Probate. She died July 10. The estimated value of her estate is $40,000.

The woman, who nominated Fred E. Cheever of Andover as the executor, directed that no more than $1,000 be expended for the erection of a monument on her lot at Waterside cemetery, Marblehead. She left $500 to the cemetery trustees for the perpetual care of the lot.

A $15,000 legacy, with a brass candle-holder and and-irons and other contents of the testatrix' apartment, was awarded to a niece, Grace Hiller of Baltimore, Md., while $10,000 was left to a nephew, Carl Hiller of Marblehead, and $5,000 was given to the nephew's wife, Mrs. Maude Hiller.

After devising $1,000 to a grandniece, Joan Hiller Brennan, and allotting $500 to a great-grandnephew, Peter W. Brennan, the Andover resident left $1,000, a jewel box, a wedding ring, and two diamond rings to a step-daughter, Mae C. Chapman.

The residue of the property was bequeathed to the niece and the nephew, and Mrs. Chapman set forth that she was intentionally leaving no bequests to any relative omitted from the will.

League All-Stars In Game Series

An all-star team of the Two-League is meeting the League winning Tigers in a series of games this week and next.

Playing on the all-stars are Charles Souter, Doug Dunbar and Charles McCullom of the Dodgers; Jack Reilly, Paul Toomey, Charles Bowman and Richard Leete, Youngsters; Ralph and Cliff Sharpe, Bill Schindler and Dan Murphy, Ballardvale Arabs.

One of the games will be held tomorrow night at 6:15 at the Playstead. Charles Bowman Sr. and Fred Polgreen are co-managers of the all-stars.

SPECIAL MEETING IN SEPTEMBER

Winslow said this technical error in the preparation of the article prevented sending the by-law to the state but that it can be rectified at a future town meeting.

Urban renewal may well be another major item for discussion and action. Town meeting approval is required before an application can be filed with the federal government, outlining the over-all area within which the program would be carried out. Officials of the Housing Authority said that sufficient planning has been done to assure proper presentation of the facts at a special meeting.

Among other probable items in the warrant is the acceptance of Carmel rd. — on which residents have been working all summer trying to meet town requirements. The BPW was queried Monday night by the Selectmen on possible acceptance and members agreed the street probably will meet their approval, if the subject is included in the warrant.

Emergency Designation
Although financial articles are not expected, they remain a possibility.

But whether requested by citizens or municipal boards, the Finance Committee must officially declare them to be emergency items before they can be printed in a warrant for a special meeting.

The possibility of including Board of Public Works requests at a special session was mentioned some weeks ago, when that board asked the Finance Committee for a transfer of funds.

The BPW wanted sufficient money to meet extended obligations on Shawsheen rd., as an aftermath of Chapter 90 reconstruction; to reimburse the water department for money it had spent relocating water mains as a result of state construction; and funds to put a water main under Osgood st., where the new highway crosses, so that it will not be necessary to tunnel under the highway at a later date. It is expected that a decision on asking for money for any or all of these projects will be made soon.

Citizens May File
Although the meeting will be called primarily to clear away several items in official files, citizens of the town may also file articles for a special town meeting. In recent years, the Selectmen have been requiring 200 signatures on a petition accompanying the article. And, as in the case of town boards, the Finance Committee must declare any articles appropriating funds to be an emergency before the articles can be included.

It's no laughing matter when millions of acres of forests are destroyed each year. Your carelessness may have started one of these disastrous forest fires. The fact is that 9 out of 10 forest fires are caused by some person's carelessness act—as simple an act as slipping a cigarette out a car window. Because visitors to our forests have increased ten-fold since World War II, the problem is more acute than ever. Be extra careful this year.

Gordon Confirms Alaskan Village

FAIRBANKS, Alaska - The entire population of a village in America's 49th state all became members of the Episcopal Church on the same day.

The village is Christian Village, a community of two log cabins and several "eaches", located on the Christian River north of Fork Yukon, near Arctic, Alaska.

The village's population: Jim Christian, patriarchal head of the community and a son of Chief Christian (one of the great Indian figures of the Chandalar and Christian River country), his wife, his 15 year old son, Jim, Jr., and his 80 year old mother Rachel, were confirmed by the Episcopal Bishop of Alaska, the Rt. Rev. William J. Gordon.

Bishop Gordon, who says that "Christian Village is one of the few places left in Alaska that is really remote," flew himself there for the confirmation service in his plane "Blue Box II" and lunched following the service on "nourishing caribou and moose stew."

Heavy Smoke At House Blaze

Fire Department authorities blamed careless disposal of smoking material for an early-morning fire Aug. 10 that caused considerable damage to a house on Stevens st.

the firefighters to don masks and air-pacs, came from a mattress which probably had been smoking for some time. Alexander Campbell, 48 Stevens st., said the mattress was aflame when he called the station at 1:15 a.m. Engine 3 responded and Deputy Cole ordered box 561, Brechin ter. and Shawsheen rd., sounded. Damage to the home was moderate, with the floor under the bed burned and some smoke and water damage to other parts of the structure, according to fire officials. Firefighter Willard Patterson sustained a sprained ankle while battling the blaze.

and Mrs. Arthur Mandros, 100 Lowell st., is a graduate of Andover High School. She was an honor student and elected to the Andover chapter of the National Honor society. She served as senior class marshal and was a member of the Science club chairman of the Prom committee a member of the literary committee on the School annual. The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

By His Excellency

FOSTER FURCOLO

Governor

A PROCLAMATION

THE nineteenth amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which gave women the right to vote, is an enduring memorial to one of this country's outstanding women. Also known as the Susan B. Anthony amendment, it was proclaimed in effect by the Secretary of State on August 26, 1920.

It was typical of Susan B. Anthony's indomitable convictions, tenacity of purpose, and infinite patience that a bill for women's suffrage was submitted first in 1848 and regularly every year thereafter. Active in the woman's suffrage movement, she fought constantly to secure the right of franchise for women as a sign and symbol of equality between the sexes.

A tireless campaigner and organizer, she wrote and lectured extensively, instructed colleagues, and inspired co-workers. She was arrested, tried, found guilty, and fined — a fine she refused to pay — when she made a test case of the fourteenth and fifteenth amendments by voting in the presidential election of 1872.

The greatness and nobility of her life was evident in her selfless devotion to the struggle to achieve perfect equality of civil and political rights for women. Her lively sense of social responsibility was outraged by laws which denied women control of their children and of their money. She decried the discrimination which paid women less wages than men for the same work.

She was a born leader, with an inquiring mind and executive gifts, who applied energy, character, and vision to the challenges and problems of her day. She supported the anti-slavery movement; pressed for better educational facilities for women, and organized the Woman's Temperance Society, now the Women's Christian Temperance Union.

Her influence was international in scope at the time of her death in 1906. In her last speech, on her 86th birthday, she said, "What I ask is not praise, but justice ... failure is impossible." Today we praise a great woman, a champion of justice who believed in all that was good and true, and who fought determinedly for her ideals, despite opposition and ridicule.

NOW, therefore, I, FOSTER FURCOLO, Governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, in accordance with Chapter 265 of the Acts of 1958, do hereby proclaim as

SUSAN B. ANTHONY DAY

Tuesday, August 26, 1958

and recommend its observance by the public in honor of the woman who was an ardent advocate of the successful fight for American woman suffrage.

READY TO USE DIAL SYSTEM

country. Automatic devices handle the calls, plus the proper charging and billing.

Although there has been no attempt here to call every telephone user to explain the new system, Mr. Chicoine said some 500 of the largest users were called. And in a considerable number of cases, the customers did not realize that it will be necessary to dial GR before the five digits. Those customers who do not follow this procedure will reach an "intercept" operator, who will provide instruction on how to complete the calls.

Here's How

Conversion itself, after the months of preparation, seems relatively simple.

At about 1 a.m., unless emergency calls are being placed through the switch board in the Musgrove building, other callers will be asked to hang up. Mrs.

Ethel Sullivan, chief operator, will signal the dial building on Elm st. that the lines are clear. Just before the new dial equipment becomes effective, the old cables running into the Musgrove building will be severed — so for a brief interval the town will be practically out of touch with the world.

Seconds later, men stationed throughout the dial building will pull master ropes, to which are attached thousands of small pins, which have prevented the dial lines from operating to date. As these are removed, the dial tone will hum and the town will have been converted.

Mr. Chicoine predicted a heavy load of calls Sunday morning, as many residents "try out" the new system. But the load should be back to normal Sunday night, he stated.

New Tile Answers Ceiling Question

What to put on the ceiling? Many do-it-yourself handymen, contemplating adding a room or starting a remodeling job, have asked that question.

Popular answer now is a new acoustical tile with a textured look of fissured marble. It is decorative as well as sound-absorbent. The tile is equally adaptable to the living room, bedroom, rumpus or family room. It comes in an off-white ivory shade which can be painted to suit decor if desired.

Called Forestone, the new acoustical tile is low-cost and has easy installation features for the home handyman. Enough Forestone for a do-it-yourself 10 by 12 ceiling costs less than $35.

Tiles are tongue and grooved and have a nailing or stapling flange. Both features make possible rapid, error-free installation.

EDITORIAL THOUGHTS

Another Try Needed

It was regrettable that the shopping center zoning, approved at town meeting in March, has so quickly been ruled illegal.

Apparently the intent and purpose of the by-laws were proper — but the naming of the Planning Board to execute their provisions was in error. This could not have been foreseen when the by-laws were drafted, as the court decision was handed down in June, some months after the town meeting. It said that only a board of appeals or board of selectmen may be given the authority to carry out provisions contained in zoning by-laws.

Now that this legal ruling has been made, it is hoped that a properly worded by-law will be submitted to the next town meeting. For it would be unwise, in many cases, to allow shopping centers to be created in residential surroundings, without first having provided reasonable restrictions covering construction and operation.

Let's Try It

National publicity was recently given a man — and an organization — dedicated to helping communities establish special afternoon or evening courses for young people who have extraordinary talents.

Briefly, the plan as developed in other communities, finds interested laymen — engineers, chemists, specialists in many fields — devoting their free time to courses for young people who can most benefit from advanced work.

The success has been phenomenal — in one school district, enrollment in the special courses was greater than the number of candidates for the football team. This is remarkable, understanding that the extra work is purely voluntary.

This seems to be a wonderful way to challenge the ability of the young person who is gifted beyond the average. And it is a method that costs very little, for the faculty gives its time — all the community provides is the space.

Hundreds of experts in all scientific fields live in Andover. Couldn't some similar endeavor be worked out here, with the assistance of these professional men?

Down the Years with The Townsman

50 Years Ago — August, 1908

The Rev. F. A. Wilson and family have moved from Railroad st. to 5 Locke st.

Dana W. Clark is spending a few days at York Beach, Me.

The first annual picnic under the auspices of Clan Johnston 185, O.S.C. was held at Bailey's Grove, Haggett's Pond, last Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. J. W. Stark and children have gone to Kennebunk Beach for a visit.

Mrs. Felix G. Haynes and Mrs. Joseph Stott are spending their vacation at Camden, Me.

William C. Coutts and daughters, Misses Alice and Bertha Coutts, are spending a vacation at the Andover-Lawrence Cottage, York Beach, Me.

25 Years Ago — August, 1933

The Selectmen and School Committee will meet Monday night at 7:30 in the School Committee rooms to select a successor to H. Gilbert Francke, who resigned. It is expected that a new chairman of the School Committee will be named shortly afterwards, at a special School Board meeting.

Plans are progressing rapidly for the water carnival to be held Saturday, Aug. 26, at Pomp's Pond. The Legion Post is sponsoring the affair.

Three Greater Boston residents were slightly injured just before 12 o'clock Saturday morning, when their car turned over near the By-Pass. The driver said he was forced to swerve on seeing a wooden horse in the roadway near repair work.

First prize of $15 was won by the local Legion Bugle and Drum Corps in the straight marching contest at Worcester Sunday. There were 11 corps in competition.

The annual pet show will be held at 7 tonight at the Playground. Popular applause from the audience will be the basis of selecting winners.

Pomp's Pond will close Aug. 26 for the season. But senior lifeguards will be working in the area during the following week, thus, in effect, extending the season to Labor Day.

10 Years Ago — August, 1948

Four lots at the junction of Burnham rd. and High st. are available for veterans who are able and willing to start building within two months. A drawing will be held Aug. 16 in the Veterans Service office in the town hall.

Some 193 meters will go into operation within 10 days, following approval of the town's parking ordinances by the state. The meters have been installed along streets in the business district.

Andover's water consumption during the first six months of 1948 was far in excess of the amount used a year ago. The six-month figure a year ago was 216 million gallons, compared to 235 million this year.

Approximately 8700 young men in the area will be eligible for registration when Local Board 8 sets up an office. Under the new law, Andover is included with the Greater Lawrence communities under Board 8.

I've Been Reading Paperbacks

"I've been reading paperbacks", a program on WGBH-TV, Channel 2, on Wednesdays from 9:30 to 10:30 is concerned with a discussion of paper back books about the Orient. The program is a sign of increased interest in the Orient and indicates the large number of excellent paperbacks about the Asia available at relatively small cost.

Listeners who would like to read more about Asia will find a good selection of books at the Memorial Hall Library, many of which may be borrowed for summer loan. In addition to books discussed on the program which include Pearl Buck's "The Good Earth", Gandhi's "My Experiments With Truth, Markandaya's" Nectar in a Sieve, the Memorial Hall Library suggests the following: Wanted: An Asian Policy, Reischauer (A thought-provoking analysis of the nature of political and social change in modern Asia and of some of the problems facing American foreign policy) Anthology of Japanese Literature; ed. by Donald Keene (From the earliest times to the mid-nineteenth century); Bridge to the Sun, Terasaki (A moving account of an American-Japanese marriage); Japan; A Short Cultural History, Sansom (a standard history of Japan); Windows For the Crown Prince, Vining (intimate sketches of Japanese life by the former tutor to the Crown Prince); The Grass Roof, Kang (Sketches of childhood life in the old Korea); A Pail of Oysters, Sneider (An exciting novel with a Formosan setting); Report on Mao's China, Moraes (A recent appraisal of China by an Indian journalist); A Single Pebble, Hersey ("A magnificent novel of the Yangtze River boatmen which captures the timeless rhythm and spirit of Chinese life"); Tibetan Skylines, Ekvall (a former resident reminisces about the people and customs); Ambassador's Report, Bowles (a sympathetic study of India by a former American Ambassador); The Financial Expert, Narayan (A novel of everyday Indian life in a South Indian town); Search for the Spiny Babblers, Ripley (A naturalist reports entertainingly about the Nepalese peoples and customs); Dancers of Bali, Coast (about life, music and dance on this fascinating island).

Current and Choice

I Was a Savage, Modupe ("An astonishing autobiography about the tribal boyhood and hazardous youth of a royal African tribesman"); Fair Trial, Morris (a gallery of notable American criminal cases from Anne Hutchinson to Alger Hiss); A Dangerous Innocence, Lincoln (Miss Lincoln's first novel with an historical background, the time of witchhunting in 17th century Salem); The Astonished Muse, Denney (About the popular culture of mass media, sports and advertisements, a witty view by an associate professor at the University of Chicago); I, Rachel, Cost (a biographical novel about the "immortal" Rachel, one of the outstanding actresses of her own time and possibly of all time); The Bill of Rights, Hand (a noted jurist analyzes the role of the judiciary particularly in relation to our "Bill of Rights"); King Solomon's Ring, Lorenz (The human side of birds and animals delightfully described by one of our outstanding naturalists); As Music and Splendor, O'Brien (A novel about the fantastic, exacting world of Italian opera in the 1880's) Monticello, House of Thomas Jefferson, Truett (Amplified by the author and with superb exterior photographs by the inimitable photographer of the American scene, Samuel Chamberlain).

Plan Auction In Ballardvale

The Ballard Vale United Church Guild will sponsor an auction Aug. 23 at the Playground at 2:30. The chicken barbecue originally scheduled has been cancelled.

There will be refreshments available during the auction.

A food festival will follow the auction, with tables of interest. There will be frankforts, beans, hamburgers, cold drinks, bakery, garden vegetables and a flower table.

Dancing will be enjoyed during the evening.

Mrs. Dorothy Andrews is chairman of the auction, while Mrs. Ruth Batcheller and Mrs. Ruth Matheson are co-chairmen for the food festival.

Proceeds from the day's activities will be used to repair the church organ.

CLUB MET

Members of the "Can-Can" Club met last week at the home of Mrs. Gerald Znamierowski of Lowell Junction. During the social time, Mrs. Frank Green was presented with a birthday cake made by Mrs. James Letters.

PLAYGROUND EVENTS NEXT WEEK

Champions from all the playgrounds will meet in these final events, which will determine the town-wide winners.

Other highlights of the final week of playground activities include announcement of the gold medal winner of each playground, selected on the basis of participation and leadership. Mr. Snyder said it is not compulsory for each playground to select a winner if none of the regular attendants meet the rigid specifications.

Last Week's Events

Regular weekly events were staged at the various grounds last week.

At Shawsheen, a pet show was cancelled. But substituted for it was a "Name the Kitten Contest". A stray, but friendly kitten has been making regular visits to the playground each day, when many of the youngsters would provide bits of horse meat and other nourishment. Beverly Haefling suggested "Sleepy" as an appropriate name and won first prize for the name.

Central Playground held a costume show, with the following results: Robert Petrie, most unusual and Charles Gray, second; Doreen and Diana Falle, first and second prizes in the "prettiest" category; first in the "funniest" group was Timothy Selfridge, with Harold Falle, second. The gold ribbon winner, as best in show, was Kathleen Morrissey. This week's event will be a bubble gum contest.

Ballardvale held its annual boxing matches last Thursday evening, with some 50 spectators on hand. Results of the nine matches were: John Mills, 7 and Douglas Audette, 8, a draw; Richard Steele, 12, beat Philip Froberg, 10; Cameron Mills, 10 and Colin Sherry, 10, fought to a draw; Donald Wrigley, 10 and Bill Spencer, 8, a draw; Robert Walent, 12, outfought Henry Wrigley, 11; Philip Froberg, 10 and Bill Machin, 10, a draw; Robert St. Armand, 3, and Richard St. Armand, 2, a draw; Colin Sherry, 10, gained a decision over Peter Millet, 10; and Harry Roderick vs Al Carlson, a draw.

A costume show occupied youngsters at West Center, with these results: gold ribbon, Jimmy White; "National" category, Jimmy White, first, Jimmy Divine, second and tied for third, Mary Lyman and Russell MacLeish; "prettiest", Linda MacLeish, first, Karen Deneu, second and Alice Hill, third; "most original", Joseph Santarlasci and Linda Boucher, tied for first, Elinor McCarthy, second and Janice Richards, third. A baby picture contest will be held tomorrow at 10:30.

The results of a doll show at Indian Ridge were: "prettiest", Nancy Erler, Patricia Carney and Deidre Brucato, third; "biggest", Carolyn O'Neil, first, Barbara O'Neil and Beverly O'Neil; "smallest", Judith McLean, Kathleen Boulanger and Winifred Kirwin; "most unusual", Stephen Carney, John Keeler and Gerald Dixon.

WILL RECEIVE CERTIFICATE

Miss Joyce Nassar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Nassar, 60 Hidden rd., will be among the 85 students who will receive certificates at the closing exercises Sunday, Aug. 17, of Burnham-by-the-sea, summer school in Newport, Rhode Island, of the Mary A. Burnham School of Northampton.

Miss Nassar is a member of the Burnham-by-the-sea Glee Club and will participate in the production of "Jeanne d'Arc," which will be given Saturday in the school's Great Hall, on one wall of which is affixed a statue of Joan of Arc, carved about 1430 during her lifetime.

Miss Nassar will also be in the production of the operetta, "When Shakespeare's Ladies Meet," which was given during the final week of summer school.

HELP ALONG CLUB ENJOY OUTING

The members of the Help Along Club of Andover Grange enjoyed an Outing Sunday on the Steamer at Alton Bay, Lake Winnepesaukee, N. H. Those making the trip were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Darby and their children, Marion Bruneau, Vesta and Thelma Darby, Homer Darby, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Peterson, and Mr. and Mrs. Merwin Darby and family.

IT'S wonderful to have sandwiches already made if you have freezing facilities for them. Observe these tips to make them as good as possible.

To keep bread moist for frozen sandwiches, spread carefully with softened butter or substitute. Butter which is melted rather than softened will soak into the bread and make it soggy.

Fillings for freezing are best when chopped fine or minced or

THIS WEEK'S RECIPE
Spanish Rice Supreme
 (Serves 4)

- 1 cup ripe olives
 - ¼ cup chopped onion
 - 1 minced clove of garlic
 - 1 tablespoon oil
 - 2 8-ounce cans tomato sauce
 - 1 teaspoon chili powder
 - ¾ cups cooked rice
 - 1 egg
 - 2 cups grated processed American cheese
- Cut olives into large pieces. Cook onion and garlic slowly in oil. Add tomato sauce and chili powder; heat slowly to boiling. Add remaining ingredients and pour into greased casserole. Bake in moderately hot (375° F.) oven for 20 to 25 minutes.

even ground. Use only a limited amount of mayonnaise to hold together. All these freeze well: chicken, ham, shrimp, crabmeat, tuna and peanut butter.
 All sandwiches should be wrapped separately so flavors do not mingle. Label each variety. Use moisture-vapor-proof paper.
 Wrapped sandwiches can be stored in oblong boxes to save storage space. If you freeze only a few, use the ice cube tray.

Open-faced sandwiches for parties can be placed on squares of cardboard for support. Wrap with moisture-vapor-proof material. Leave rolled or ribbon sandwiches uncut until serving time to prevent drying.

Falls Cause 1 of 6 Work Accidents

Comedians fall to get laughs, but falls aren't funny in industry. Man was made to walk on two feet, but sometimes he seems to have difficulty keeping them under him. The National Safety Council says one out of six work accidents are due to falls. About 3,000 persons are killed on the job every year because of falls. Most are preventable. Watch out for yourself and others.

LAFF OF THE WEEK

"I told you it was a tough course!"

Car Hit Pole, Power Disrupted

Power along No. Main st. was disrupted early last Friday morning, Aug. 8, after a light pole was toppled by an auto.

Andover police reported that a car driven by Aubrey S. Adair, 130 Oxford st., Lawrence, went out of control as it headed north along No. Main st., at 3:35 a.m. The accident report said Adair reported dropping a cigarette on the floor and, in reaching to pick it up, he lost control. His car struck a parked vehicle owned by Mildred P. Davis, 175 Main st., passed safely by a tree, then collided with the pole.

The report said Adair suffered cuts inside his mouth and bruises to an arm and leg.

Crabgrass party

Few people realize it but crabgrass is bad, really bad. Cool, wet weather has kept it lushly bright green and attractive. But . . .

Its sneaky actions will soon be obvious. A day or two of hot weather and bingo — old enemy crabgrass will be getting tough, ugly, wiry.

We predict that the need for Scotts Clout, the hard hitting crabgrass blaster, will be so great that more bags of it will be used in every neighborhood than of charcoal for outdoor grills.

Since we love our customers so much, we take this means to warn them about sneaky crabgrass so they can hit it with Clout before it becomes demon crabgrass and smothers good grass into oblivion.

Save your lawn at little cost. Clout, 2500 sq. ft. bag, $3.95. Two applications usually do the job.

HARDEN - CARNES
 Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carnes of Woburn st., No. Wilmington, announce the marriage of their daughter, Edythe Lenora, to Philip Gordon Harden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everel Harden of Haggett's Pond rd. July 26 in Salem, N. H.

INNES - EMMONS
 The First United Presbyterian Church in Lawrence was the setting for the marriage Sunday at 3 p.m. of Miss Barbara Ann Emmons, 182 Berkeley st., Lawrence, granddaughter of Mrs. Russell Muller of Salem, N. H. and Robert Bruce Innes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Kerr Innes of Haggett's Pond rd. The Rev. James M. Russell, D. D., officiated.

Mrs. Robert Scobie played incidental music as well as the traditional wedding marches. Potted palms and pink gladioli and silver candelabra decorated the altar and silver candleholders were set in each window.

Given in marriage by her brother, Robert, the bride wore a gown of candlelight dulcet satin with a soft V neckline and long torso bodice of Belgian re-embroidered lace, a bouffant skirt of unpressed pleats and a chapel train. A matching satin pillbox held her veil of imported French silk illusion in fingertip length and she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and Stephanotis with a pouff of white diamond dot maline.

Mrs. William Loeffler, aunt of the bride, was her matron of honor and Miss Ruth Innes, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. Gretchen Loeffler and Deborah Muller, cousins of the bride, were flower girls.

 The senior attendants wore identical frocks in waltz length of pale blue silk organza fashioned in the new trapeze fashion with an apron effect in front and a floating back panel topped with a satin bow. They wore matching accessories and carried cascade arrangements of red roses with pouffs of pale blue diamond dot maline.

The flower girls wore floor length gowns of matching blue silk organza with puff sleeves, Peter Pan collars and pleated cummerbunds. They wore matching accessories and carried miniature baskets of flower petals.

Andrew M. Innes was best man for his brother and the ushers were William Muller of Yarmouth and Richard Munroe of Burlington.

The reception was held in the church vestry with guests present from Florida, New York, Connecticut, New Hampshire, Yarmouth, Medford, Burlington and other points.

After a wedding trip the couple will reside in Pittsburg, Pa.

Realty Construction To Start With 35 Houses

The Realty Construction Co. wants to start its huge house-building project here with 5 homes near the intersection of Lovejoy and Dascomb rds.

Judge Alfred Sartorelli, meeting with the Board of Public Works Monday night, said 14 of the houses will be on lots along the streets, while 14 will be developed on back land. It has been estimated that the firm may construct about 300 houses on land it acquired from Mrs. Ray Youmans.

Members of the BPW agreed that water will be available for the 35 houses, providing proper size pipe is installed.

And the Board also seemed in general agreement that the construction firm may be allowed to extend the Clark rd. sewer, at its own expense, to provide facilities for the 35 homes.

Joseph Lawler, of the Camp, Dresser and McKee engineering firm, was on hand to discuss the proposals. He told the Board that the treatment plant in the Vale will not handle more than the 35 homes and warned that not another service could be tied in to the system after the proposed houses are hooked in. It would be possible, he explained, to double the capacity of the plant, at a cost of about $50,000. But Lawler advised against this, stating that the over-all sewer plan calls for servicing the area in other ways. Thus money spent on enlarging the plant would eventually be wasted, he warned.

Judge Sartorelli expressed complete confidence that the house lots could be individually handled with septic tanks, if necessary. But he said his firm wishes to enter the sewer if that is possible.

He said his firm will file preliminary plans with the Planning Board within 30 days and hopes to get started on construction as soon as possible after plans are approved. If sales are adequate, he said, the houses will be finished by next spring.

Mr. Sartorelli stressed his wish to build at a rate agreeable to the town and to follow the town's regulations as laid down by the Planning Board and Board of Public Works. He told Board members that it would be preferable not to file a plan for the entire development, because around a quarter of a million dollar bond would be needed; plus the probability that the 300-plus house lots would be taxed as such at a time when it would be impossible to build on them.

The BPW agreed that 35 houses seemed proper - and suggested that a plan be filed showing a somewhat larger number of lots in the sub-division itself, so that the Board's rule that only half the lots can be serviced with water in 18 months would apply, without lessening the number of actual houses to be built. This agreement was preferable, the members felt, to actually changing the rule.

TAX REFUND CHECKS AWAITING RESIDENTS

Refund checks are awaiting for two Andover residents, according to the Internal Revenue Service.

The checks could not be delivered by mail, the Service explained. The persons listed should contact the Internal Revenue Service directly.

They are John R. and Christina Donahue, 17 Linwood ave., Shawsheen; and Benita H. Riner, 63 Andover st.

The Service said either changes of address, removals or other reasons had prevented the postoffice from delivering some 2300 checks to Massachusetts residents.

MORE INDEPENDENT VOTERS HERE

Registration by party enrollments, Mr. Winslow listed 1,032 Democrats, 3,201 Republicans, with 4,519 Independents. The total registration of 8,752 is 291 more than the voting list showed eligible on July 1, 1958.

Parties Drop

It's interesting to compare the 1956 records with the figures listed this week - both political parties have fewer enrolled voters than two years ago. In that year, Independents numbered 3,591; Republicans, 3,402 and Democrats, 1,088.

Thus it can be seen that party enrollment is off slightly in both parties, while the Independent voters now have increased their strength markedly.

Precinct Strength

Precinct one is the only precinct whose registered voters enrolled in both parties outnumber the Independent voters in the precinct: 175 Democrats, 853 Republicans, 900 Independents, 1,928 total voters. In this precinct, then, there are 128 more voters with a party label than Independents.

In all other precincts, however, the non-enrolled voter is in the majority.

Precinct two, 248 Democrats, 438 Republicans, 712 Independents, 1,398 total.

Precinct three, 247 Democrats, 581 Republicans, 850 Independents, 1,678 total.

Precinct four, 152 Democrats, 409 Republicans, 730 Independents, 1,291 total.

Precinct five, 93 Democrats, 207 Republicans, 393 Independents, 693 total.

Precinct six, 117 Democrats, 713 Republicans, 934 Independents, 1,764 total.
