Tax Bills Out By Sept. 1

A struggle against time to get tax bills out before Sept. 1 continued this week in the Assessors' office.

Using a new bookkeeping machine which types the official listing, and at the same time types the bills, one clerk has been busy full-time. Another spends part-time each day on a second machine, when it is not required by the town accountant. Both clerks have also been working some evenings and Saturday mornings.

Through yesterday, they had finished the listing through the letter H.

Some 7,000 separate listings are required, for each parcel of property in the town.

Assessors' engineer Bernard Magane said every effort is being made to get the lists completed and bills finished by Sept. 1. According to a state law, no

3 Win Medals On Playgrounds

Three Playground youngsters won this year's coveted gold medal awards.

Announced this week were the recipients of the annual awards, given for the youngster on the Playground who scores the most points based on leadership, sportsmanship, participation and good conduct.

Karen Grant won the medal at the Ballardvale Playground. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Grant of Tewksbury st.

At Indian Ridge, the winner was Elizabeth Lynch, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Lynch, 26 Shawsheen rd.

Christopher George, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore C. George, 14 Stevens cir., won the medal at the Central Playground.

None were given out at Shawsheen and West Center. In addition to announcement of these top awards, contestants spent a busy two days this week in inter-playground competitions.

No One Saw Quiet Thief

A quick-footed thief took $25 and a pocketbook from the James Hair Designer shop, 66 Main st., Monday noon.

Police reported receiving a call at 12:30 p.m. from Phyllis Downing, stating that someone had opened a desk drawer, taken $25, and then had taken a pocketbook containing $1 from the top of the desk.

Officer William Tammany investigated. Sgt. William R. Hickey said no one in the establishment had seen the thief and the occupants of the building had not noticed anyone coming from the shop. The beauty shop is partitioned off, Hickey explained, and the scene of the robbery was a front office where no one happened to be at the time.

Hearing Monday Night For Tree Removals Along Power Line Route

Capacity Lacking At Vale Plant

The Board of Public Works has been advised by its consulting engineers to refuse the Realty Construction Company's request to enter the Ballardvale sewer with 35 houses.

Camp, Dresser and McKee said houses presently bordering the sewer line, plus potential homes on empty lots abutting the main, if all tied in, would tax the sewage treatment plant to capacity. Thus the firm recommended not allowing Realty to connect its 35 houses, through an extension of the Clark rd. sewer.

The Board took no action, other than to comment that, if at all possible, it would be best to have Realty tied into the sewer rather than face a sewage problem there in coming years.

A public hearing will be held next Monday night at 8 at the Board of Public Works office on the removal of 20 trees along Dascomb, Clark and Lovejoy rds.

The Merrimack-Essex Electric Co. asked permission to take the trees down as part of the firm's initial power line installation in Ballardvale and along So. Main st. Other trees along the route of the line will be trimmed, the request stated.

In a formal letter to the Board, the Company said it wishes to take down eight trees on Dascomb rd., replacing five of these at a later date; three on Lovejoy rd., with three replacements later; and nine on Clark rd., with five replacements.

The trees to be removed measure anywhere from six to 48 inches, the request stated.

Tree Department Foreman Philip Busby posted the trees Tuesday morning, in company with

State Offers Plan For Shawsheen Rd. Repairs

The State Department of Public Works has informed the town it will pay all the cost of digging out peat under the sunken section of Shawsheen rd.

The strip, about 300 feet in length, sunk soon after the state reconstructed the road last year. Engineers have since determined there to be some 15 feet of peat under the side of the road. This would be excavated for about 25 feet into bordering land, with proper fill substituted.

The promise to do the work has not yet been received in writing, the Board was told by Chairman Alex Henderson. But he said a telephone conversation with the state's engineer was specific on this point.

The town also has been asked to release the Brox Construction Co. - the contractor on Shawsheen rd. reconstruction. Chairman Henderson said he had been in-

The engineering firm reported that 120 structures are now tied into the sewer line, including the church, parsonage, a small factory and the South School. This is the equivalent of 540 persons, plus the school. Some 27 houses that could be tied in are not - the equivalent of 110 persons. About 24 lots could be built upon, for another 100 persons. And there are about 10 lots, the firm said, on the south end of Tewksbury st. that could be tied in if houses are built. These are the equivalent of 40 persons. The firm explained it had formerly stated that the treatment plant had a maximum capacity of 600 persons, excluding the school.

Thus although at the moment the plant is not being used at maximum capacity, the engineers felt that present residents and owners of long-standing house lots should have preference. The firm said there would be sufficient capacity in the plant to handle Realty's 35 houses now, but there would be insufficient capacity to handle existing dwellings, if the new houses are tied in.

Water and Sewer Department Supt. Donald Bassett told the Board that some residents, whose septic tanks are working properly, have declared their intentions of keeping their private disposal systems, rather than hooking into the sewer, even though they paid a betterment when the line ran past their houses. Some lots in the area probably will never be built on, he advised the Board.

Members felt that a decision on sewage for the Realty Construction Co. could be taken when the firm submits its plans.

At a meeting last week, representatives of the company expressed a desire to tie the 35 homes into the system, by paying for an extension of the Clark rd. sewer. But they also said it would be possible to provide septic tank disposal if the sewer could not be used. The firm is planning to build 35 homes at Lovejoy and Dascomb rds., the start of some 300 houses on a vast tract of land recently purchased from Mrs. Ray Youmans.

FRANK G. MCCARTHY
The funeral of Frank G. McCarthy, 61, 12 Wolcott ave., who died suddenly Tuesday night at the Lawrence General Hospital, will be held from the late home tomorrow morning, with a high Mass of requiem at 9 a.m. in St. Augustine's Church. Burial will be in St. Augustine's Cemetery. Friends may call today at the late home.

Mr. McCarthy was a lifelong resident of the town, born here March 31, 1897. He had operated a contracting business here for many years. He was a member of Legion Post 8, being a veteran of World War One. He attended St. Augustine's Church.

Surviving are his wife, Mary (Conlin) McCarthy; two sons, Frank G. McCarthy Jr. and John J. McCarthy, both of Andover; and three sisters, Lillian, wife of Timothy Buckley of Lawrence, Florence, wife of Warren Trull of Hollywood, Cal. and Miss Agnes McCarthy, also of Hollywood.

HUGH BULLOCK
A family memorial service was held for Hugh Bullock, 78, of West Knoll rd., who died Sunday, Aug. 17, at the Lawrence General Hospital.

Mr. Bullock, well-known in business and civic circles, was former president of the Tyer Rubber Co.

Born June 23, 1880, in Kill Buck, N.Y., on a Seneca Indian reservation in southwestern New York state, the son of the late Charles Stuart and Harriet M. (Bullard) Bullock, the rubber executive received his early tutoring from his mother and grandfather, the late Rev. Ebenezer W. Bullard.

He attended classes in the "little red schoolhouse" in Salamanca, N.Y., and was graduated from high school in Toledo Ohio, in 1898. Mr. Bullock furthered his education at the Scott Manual Training school in Toledo, the first such school in this country.

Following this training, Mr. Bullock spent two years as an employee of the U. S. Rubber Co., Naugatuck, Conn., and then joined the newly established Beacon Falls Rubber Shoe Co., Beacon Falls, Conn., where he remained until 1909.

The Andover resident moved that year to Medford and became affiliated with the Converse Rubber Shoe Co. in Malden.

After 16 years in Malden, Mr. Bullock joined the Tyer Rubber Co. and in 1935 was named its president. He served in that capacity until his retirement in 1955 after 57 years in the rubber industry. The past three years he has been a director of the company.

During the early years of his career, when the price of crude rubber soared from approximately one dollar per pound to a fantastic three dollars, Mr. Bullock spent two months in the bush country of Brazil and the Guineas investigating the possibility of a concession for a Boston syndicate.

His knowledge of the rubber industry took him to Washington at the outbreak of World War II where he served his country throughout the war years as a consultant in the Office of Rubber Director of the War Production Board. He also was recalled to Washington at the start of the Korean conflict.

From 1946 until his retirement three years ago, he was a director of the Rubber Manufacturers association.

Surviving are his wife, the former Rose Blunt, whom he married Dec. 29, 1902; three daughters, Mrs. Margaret E. Reed of Reading, Miss Emily Bullock of Houston, Texas, and Mrs. Caroline Blaker of Columbus, O.; also three grandchildren and eight great grandchildren.

Active in community affairs, Mr. Bullock was a member of and later chairman of the Andover Junior High School, auditorium and central heating plant building committee; a member of and for several years chairman of the Andover Finance committee; a member of the Andover Selective Service Board throughout World War II; a member of the Andover Board of Appeals and the Andover Historical society and an incorporator of the Andover Savings Bank.

He was also a member of the United Church, Beacon Falls, Conn., and of the South Congregational Church, where for many years he was active in the affairs of the church, serving as superintendent of the Sunday school and president of the Men's club.

JOHN J. COSTELLO announced his candidacy for promotion to the office of Clerk of the Superior Court.

In declaring his candidacy for the county office Register Costello said that he was seeking promotion after more than 10 years of service in his present position.

He launched his public career in 1938, when he was elected to town office in No. Andover as a 22 year old college classmate of United States Senator John F. Kennedy. Both majored in Government as undergraduates in Harvard College.

Register Costello entered county politics in 1946, when he was appointed Register of Probate of Essex County by the late Governor Maurice J. Tobin. Two years later he was elected to the office by the voters and in 1954 he received the highest vote accorded a candidate for county office.

Long prominent in the affairs of the Democratic party, he was a delegate to the 1952 Democratic National Convention from the Seventh Congressional District and in 1954 he was selected to serve as a member of the powerful rules committee of the Democratic State Convention.

Register Costello is a graduate of Johnson High School. He also attended St. John's Preparatory School in Danvers and holds a bachelor of science degree in American Government from Harvard College and a master's degree from the Boston College Graduate School.

He is a member of North Andover Council No. 3819 of the Knights of Columbus, the Men of Merrimack, and the North Andover Boosters Club.

The son of Mrs. Agnes Costello and the late John J. Costello, he resides with his mother at 88 Greene st., No. Andover.

McAnern Entering Lehigh University

One student from Andover is among the 700 freshmen who have been accepted for admission to Lehigh University this Fall, Dr. Charles A. Seidle, director of admissions, announced today.

The class of 1962, selected from 3,130 applicants, will come from 19 States, the District of Columbia, Canada, Cuba, Venezuela, and Argentina. University officials expect the distribution by curriculum to include 125 men enrolled in the College of Arts and Science, 60 taking a combined Arts and Engineering course, 95 in the College of Business Administration and 420 in the College of Engineering.

Freshman week activities will begin on the campus Tuesday, Sept. 16, giving the new students, who are graduates of 400 high and preparatory schools, a chance to get oriented before registration for the Fall semester opens Monday, Sept. 22.

Donald M. McAnern, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. McAnern, 145 Hidden rd., will enter the College of Business Administration. A graduate of Andover High School, he is a class officer, was on the student council and the yearbook staff. He won his letter in baseball and basketball.

PLAN OFFERED FOR SHAWSHEEN RD.

formed that the state will pay two-thirds of the cost of fixing road shoulders and two private walls. This would require the town to spend less than $2,000, Henderson related. And the state will set its share of the money up in a fund, so that the town will not have to pay the entire cost of the job, then be reimbursed.

A few weeks ago, the BPW asked for an emergency transfer so the town could pay the entire cost — with reimbursement when the job was completed. The Finance Committee turned the over-all BPW requests down on the grounds that the FinCom does not have enough money to grant them and still maintain funds in the emergency account.

Under the new plan, all the town would have to pay out would be its own one-third share of the cost or repairing the walls and road shoulders. Funds to do this may be available, members thought.

But they preferred to wait until receipt of written confirmation from the state before releasing the contractor and thus accepting the road.

Also involved in the transfers were the following brothers who had been teaching at the local school. Brother Allen, S.C., and Brother Cyprian, S.C., to Notre Dame High School, Fitchburg; Brother Emilian to Sacred Heart High School, Central Falls, R.I.; Brother Alexis-Ernest, S. New England's proportion of civilian income drawn from manufacturing, 40.4 per cent, is nearly nine per cent higher than the national percentage of 31.5, reports The New England Council.

EDITORIAL THOUGHTS

Is Politics To Blame?

It seems hard to believe, but the town has as yet had no word from the state about Rogers Brook reconstruction.

It was several weeks ago that the state, through its director of the Division of Waterways, promised members of the Board of Public Works that written approval of the project would be forthcoming. One condition attached to this promise, that the Selectmen would, in writing, promise to hold the state blameless for the engineering, was promptly met. There seemed to be no reason to assume that the state would do anything except send its written confirmation of the verbal promises.

Nothing happened.

It leaves the town in a peculiar position. How can the project, for which the municipality appropriated $175,000 on a matching funds basis, be undertaken if nothing is done by the state? How much can the townspeople believe in the future, when the state's representatives speak, with this sort of silent treatment in their memories?

It seems incredible that the official state agency, through its top man, would make such promises if there had been no intention to carry them out. Or was this the "easy" way to get rid of a problem — or at least to get the interested town officials out of the state's hair for a while?

There is, of course, an old maxim that Republican towns get very little assistance from Democratic administrations, particularly in election years. Could this be the answer? Is the state planning to allocate its funds in communities where Democratic politicians hope to get more support than they could here?

This Sounds Sensible

The Automobile Legal Association has endorsed a plan that would give teen-agers a provisional driving license — subject to automatic suspension for the first accident or first violation of traffic laws while the car was in motion. And once revoked, the license could not be issued again until the driver reached 21.

This idea has been adopted in eight states — and seems worthy of serious consideration in Massachusetts.

Statistics tell us that drivers under 25 have the most accidents — that's why insurance rates are higher for persons in that age grouping.

It may not be possible to adopt a plan of automatic suspension for drivers over 21 — but for those under the age of legal maturity, this may well be the answer.

Naturally the younger drivers would be more careful if they knew that one mis-step would result in loss of driving privileges. This, in itself, should reduce the number of accidents.

And the other cars on the road might be a lot safer, if the state has revoked the licenses of drivers who ignore the law. How many times have we read of serious accidents, in which one of the drivers has a prior history of traffic violations? This proposal would, it seems, be a powerful preventative, making the highways a safer place for the majority.

This plan deserves careful consideration by the proper authorities, with the definite plan to present it to the Legislature next year.

Good To See Cooperation

A pleasing note of cooperation was sounded last week, when representatives of the Realty Construction Co. sat down with the Board of Public Works to discuss plans for development of the area off Lovejoy and Dascomb rds.

While the contracting firm indicated its desire to conform to town regulations — and to build at a rate thought wise by the town — the Board of Public Works, through Chairman Alex Henderson, declared its desire to be cooperative. It became apparent that the Board did not intend to throw stumbling blocks in the way of the firm.

It is to be hoped that this spirit of cooperation, on both sides, continues during the time that Realty is working here. For the firm has a substantial investment in the community and should not be arbitrarily prevented from developing the area. The town also has a large investment, in terms of water and sewage and possible extensions of these services. Thus it only makes sense for both parties to continue working together.

This is a much more sensible way to do business than has occasionally been exhibited with builders in the past.

John McCarthy, the well-known mason, is occupying his handsome new home, just completed, on Wolcott ave.

One of the largest squashes seen this year was on display at W. I. Morse's Store. It was grown by Michael Shea on the Higgins farm and weighed 62 pounds.

A deep sea fishing trip was held off Swampscott Saturday under the direction of Thomas Bentley.

The wedding of Miss Helena

Dyson and William Black took place recently at the home of the bride's parents. The Rev. F. A. Wilson performed the ceremony. The couple was attended by Miss Miriam Dyson and Alexander Black.

Five persons have filed application for the postmastership, a position that pays $3200 annually. The five are William B. Addis, Atty. Joseph L. Burns, Frederick E. Cheever, John H. McDonald and Joseph T. Remmes.

Mrs. Annie Angus was elected to the School Committee at this week's special meeting of the Selectmen and School Board. She will serve in place of H. Gilbert Francke, who resigned for business reasons.

About 50 persons gathered in town hall last night to discuss the N.R.A. and to hear pleas that the whole town get behind the National Recovery Act. Acting Postmaster Frederick Cheever presided.

This evening, weather permitting, the football squad will go through a workout on the Playstead. Quite a large group gathered Tuesday night for the first late-summer practice session, including seven members of last year's town squad.

Many instances of vandalism have been reported to the police with respect to the installation of parking meter posts. At least two have been lugged away, while 30 others have been loosened in their cement bases. The firm installing the meters has hired a special police officer to check the locations. Police Chief George Dane has warned that anyone found tampering with the posts will be prosecuted.

The names of 19 more speeders have been sent to the Registry of Motor Vehicles by the police. They were all spotted using the resurfaced section of No. Main st. as a speedway.

HEARING MONDAY ON TREE REMOVALS

The Board agreed that Bushy should discuss the pruning and trimming program with the firm's forestry men, as well as the requested removals.

The Board last week anticipated receipt of the formal request, following a hearing before the Selectmen at which the company had asked permission to change pole locations on Clark rd. At that time, Edward P. Hall asked about the trimming program and was told he could discuss that subject at the time of a hearing on tree removals.

The Company has said that one safeguard against power failures is adequately trimmed trees, so that branches don't interfere with the power line.

A public hearing is required to take down public trees, but permission for trimming can be granted by the Board of Public Works without a hearing.

At the Selectmen's meeting last week, Mr. Hall was told that weight would be given residents' views on trimming when the time comes to make a decision on that portion of the Electric Company's request.

TAX BILLS DUE BY SEPT. 1

bills may be mailed until the official book has been completed for 24 hours. Thus, although bills are being prepared and inserted in envelopes ready for mailing, they may not be sent until all are completed.

Contrary to the practice in other years, only the operators of the bookkeeping machines can work on the listing. Formerly, several town hall secretaries would do portions of the official book. But after that was finished, the tax collector's office had to type all the bills. Thus, although there appears to be little saving in time in typing the official lists, it is felt that considerable time will be saved over-all, as the bills need not be typed later. The new machine carries totals and sub-totals, doing much of the necessary mathematics formerly done on separate adding machines.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gorrie entertained a group of their neighbors Sunday evening, the affair being in the form of a Pantry Shower honoring Miss Janet Holden, who is to be married Aug. 30.

Those present included Mr. and Mrs. John Rooks, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Walsh, Mr. and Mrs. James Eaton, Mr. and Mrs. Parker Holden, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Moulton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whiteside, Mr. and Mrs. William Dubocq, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bedard and Richard Bramley. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Improvements In Collecting System

Uncle Sam is taking another long step toward his goal of developing tax collecting employees into a truly "Blue Ribbon" service for the benefit of taxpayers.

That's the word from D. W. Bacon, Regional Commissioner of Internal Revenue at Boston for the states of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut.

Mr. Bacon said he will reorganize his Collection Division throughout his area as part of the national IRS program to increase career opportunities and incentives for employees, improve the efficiency of collection operations and thereby give taxpayers better service. The Collection Division in each District Director's office carries out many of the Internal Revenue functions that deal directly with individual taxpayers.

Some of these, Mr. Bacon said, are the receipt and processing of tax returns and related documents; the deposit of and accounting for tax payments; the making of determinations with respect to tax refunds, credits, penalties, and abatements; the collection of delinquent accounts, and the obtaining of delinquent returns. 1,317 out of the 3,409 employees in the region are engaged in the Collection Division activities. Mr. Bacon said studies by the Washington, D. C., IRS office and by task forces of specialists from field offices demonstrated that more effective administration could be obtained by regrouping these varied responsibilities along functional lines, with a strengthened supervisory system.

He said three major branches will be installed, Returns and Receipts, Revenue Accounting and Taxpayer Service, each with its own supervisory system, but functioning under the overall direction of a chief of collection.

Sections or units to carry out more specific responsibilities will be organized in each of these branches. Physical layouts of Internal Revenue offices will be changed to accommodate the new offices, and make them more accessible to taxpayers. Mr. Bacon said greater convenience for the public is a particular objective. In the past, taxpayers with problems have had difficulty at times making contact with proper offices, since responsibilities might be spread among several units. Hereafter most such contacts can be handled at one location, he said.

From the employee standpoint, he added, the new organization will provide greater opportunities for advancement through more clearly defined promotional lines. Promotions and improved salary schedules for a number of employees in the Region are expected to result within the next few months. Mr. Bacon said the new set-up will be installed first for his region in the office of the District Director at Hartford, starting, Sept. 2.

This office will serve as a test center for several months in order to provide experience in staffing and direction. The new organization plan then will be installed progressively in other districts in the region prior to the start of the filing period early in 1959, he explained. Mr. Bacon said the plan is being installed throughout the country. Commissioner Russell C. Harrington authorized the change after extensive testing in the Pittsburgh, Pa., and the Phoenix, Ariz., Internal Revenue Offices.

Regional Commissioner Bacon said it is contemplated that, in the long run, the collection office will operate with fewer but better paid employees, with substantial savings to the government as the costs of turnover and training are reduced. He said reductions in staffing will be accomplished as vacancies occur and that no employees will lose their jobs as a result of the reorganization. Subscribe to the TOWNSMAN

Executive Com. Members Picked

James A. Watters, president of the newly formed South Elementary School Parent Teacher Association, has announced the members of the executive committee of the organization. The group, formed of the officers and committee chairmen of the association, had its first meeting last week.

Executive Committee members are Mrs. Franklyn K. Haggerty, first vice president; Mrs. Austin J. O'Toole, second vice president; Mrs. A. P. Seikunas, recording secretary; Mrs. Harold V. Sheaff, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Sidney Zussman, treasurer; Mrs. George M. Moss, hospitality; Mrs. J. A. Kyger, membership; Mrs. Robert Mears, ways and means; Mrs. Allan S. May, publicity; and Donald D. Sagaser, program.

Mr. Sagaser presented tentative program plans for the eight P.T.A. meetings of the coming year. The programs are planned to acquaint the members with the school's program and what it offers their children. Each phase of the various activities, curriculum and services of the school will be presented by staff members and authorities in the different fields.

Parents will have the opportunity of visiting the classrooms and learning the program of study of each individual teacher so that they will learn what their children can accomplish during the school year.

Other programs will deal with such phases of the local elementary schools as reading, guidance, curriculum, and the unusual child.

Members of the program committee include Mrs. Haggerty, Mrs. Walter Norris, Mrs. Richard Moody and John T. Andrew Jr.

Additional activities to be planned for the year were discussed by the executive committee. The first regular meeting of the organization will be Thursday, Oct. 2.

Switch-Over To Dial

THAT DID IT - At 12:55 Sunday morning, Telephone Co. workmen pulled a series of lines, thus detaching insulating pins in the telephone lines. The pins were attached to the wooden strips seen falling to the floor. Once the pins were pulled out of the maze of switches banked along the wall, the conversion to dial was completed.

Twenty-one thousand calls went through the dial system last Sunday - the first day of its existence in Andover.

The cut-over to dial went smoothly at 12:55 a.m., when the switchboard in the Musgrove Building was silent.

Telephone Co. Manager William Chicoine said Sunday's usage was about double the normal Sunday business, indicating that many residents wanted to try out the new system. There were few difficulties, with intercept operators getting only a small number of wrongly-dialed calls.

It would not be possible to tell how many persons made toll calls, until late this week when the charges are being tallied. Under the new system, many points in the country are easily dialed by single and two-party line holders.

HOMEMAKER'S CLUB

An important meeting of the Ballardvale Homemaker's club will be held Thursday morning, Sept. 4, at 9:30 at the home of Mrs. James Letters on Tewksbury st. Members are urged to attend as a change of time will be discussed.

Took Girl Down From Tree Perch

Engine 2 of the Fire Department cooperated in helping a young Ballardvale resident from her perch in a pine tree last week.

The engine was summoned when Deborah Gardner, 7, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Gardner, 70 Tewksbury st., became terrified at the thought of climbing down the tree. She was about 30 feet in the air, on a "tree house" platform. Firefighters carried the girl down an extension ladder.

Will Install Main Under Osgood St.

A 20-inch water main will be installed under the state highway at Osgood st., providing Water Supt. Donald Bassett can "find" the money.

He asked the Board of Public Works Monday night to approve installation of the big main, pointing out that the section under the highway can be installed now for $4,000. It would cost at least $20,000 after the road is built because it would be necessary to tunnel under the new road.

Bassett explained that a 20-inch main will be needed in the area in the immediate future, based on predicted growth. The short section to be installed now would be in place when the major construction begins.

The Finance Committee had turned down a request for emergency funds to do this job. Board of Public Works members approved it, providing Bassett can locate sufficient funds in the budget. They generally agreed that it would be poor business to turn down the job at $4,000, only to spend five times as much within a short time for the same project.

agreed Monday night to accept the new garage from the L. C. Cyr Construction Co. and pay a final bill of $7,318. Some $4,000 is being withheld, according to the terms of the contract, to insure completion of a few electrical details.

The Board inspected the garage Monday night.

VOTED BY BOARD

Eight 21,000 lumen street lights will be installed at intersections along Elm st., replacing 2,100 lumen lights.

A Board of Public Works vote Monday night also approved installation of six 21,000 lumen mercury vapor lights along No. Main st. on the westerly side.

A lumen is equivalent to 63 watts.
