Drainage Policies Will Be Decided By Boards

Fund Workers Given Data

Winthrop Newcomb, United Fund individuals chairman, outlined, at a coffee hour Oct. 15, the budgetary processes of the United Fund following the campaign. Mr. Newcomb is well qualified for this task as he has been a former Budget Committee Chairman for several years.

Prior to Mr. Newcomb's talk, Dr. Nina E. Scarito, general campaign chairman, gave a short talk illustrating how Andover's people not only benefit from the three Andover member agencies but from the majority of the 27 member agencies.

The coffee hour was held at the home of Mrs. Gloria White, chairman, whose committee includes Mrs. Gordon Clement, Mrs. Thomas Dye, co-captains; Mrs. Charles W.

May Refer Brook Project To Voters

Rogers Brook reconstruction may again be presented to the voters for action at town meeting.

The Selectmen expressed some doubt Monday night that the townspeople know exactly what the project involves, even though a vote was taken to appropriate $175,000 as matching funds with the state.

Commented Selectman Edward P. Hall: "It's a big project for a small section of town. Did they know what they were voting on?" He explained that the former Board of Public Works used to present various projects for Rogers Brook and the townspeople went along with them. "Now", he continued, "it's $175,000 and I think they'd like to know where they're going".

State Agrees On Price

The subject arose when Town Manager Thomas E. Duff reported that the state now has agreed, in

The Planning Board and Selectmen will sit down to discuss drainage policy Nov. 2, concentrating on whether the town can, or should, insist on developers bearing the expense of improving town-owned drainage facilities.

The broad question of responsibility for improvements to existing town utilities, when they are taxed by new homes, was raised by Selectman William Stewart.

He stressed the importance of preventive measures, rather than being forced to solve some problem later.

Of particular importance, Stewart stated, is the drainage situation at the Wild Rose Farm, complicated by other developments in the area.

Stewart explained that a 60-inch pipe has been installed to drain the sub-division. This leads out to Lowell st., where two 24-inch drainage pipes are in the street. On several occasions, Stewart had raised the question whether the street drainage would be ample to handle the larger drain in the development. There also was talk

Few Halloween Parties Planned

Halloween parties will be held on a limited basis this year by the town Recreation Committee.

The annual events will be held at the South School Oct. 31 at 5 p.m. for Ballardvale; at the North District School at 5 o'clock; and a dance will be staged at the Jr. High for young people in that age bracket, starting at 8 p.m.

There will be no party for pre-school and elementary school children in the central district, based on a poor attendance in the past two years.

According to Frank Markey, secretary of the Committee, representatives have been invited to three different meetings to discuss the plans. The areas where parties will be held are the only ones to send anyone to the meetings.

ACCIDENT SCENE INSPECTED - Officer James Gorrie and one of the Raytheon Company's guards inspect the scene of the fatal accident on York st. last Friday morning. At right is the car involved in the accident, driven by Mrs. James McAllister, 212 Buxford st., Lawrence. Killed was John C. Buckley, 50, 34 Beaconsfield st., Lawrence. Police are still investigating the accident. (Leone)

Rev. Bradford To Be Installed

The Andover Association voted unanimously to proceed with the installation ceremony of the Rev. J. Allyn Bradford, minister of the Free Christian Church, at a council meeting held last Sunday afternoon. The date set for the installation is Nov. 1, at eight o'clock in the evening.

Mr. Bradford announced the plans for the program at the council meeting, which are as follows: Dr. J. Seelye Bixler, president of Colby College and noted lecturer,

Children Busy In Many Ways At Theatre Workshop

While rehearsals for "Tom Sawyer" take place three days a week at the Shaw barn headquarters of the Children's Theater Workshop, all the other members of the Workshop not in the cast are busily at work on other phases of the production. In homes throughout the community various groups are learning the technique of applying theatrical makeup, how to construct stage properties or scenery, how to collect or make costumes, or how to create eye-catching posters.

Mrs. Karl Roehrig, assisted by Mrs. Harry Nadler, are working with another group that will supply the cast with costumes. They are Carol Drake, Polly Holihan, Olivia Koravos, Shelia Lawlor, Christine Loebel, Ann McGinty, Ellen Marshall, Phebe Miner, Jenny Ogsbury and Kit Royce.

The posters that will be seen throughout the community will be created by a group working under the direction of Mrs. Anthony Puma. They are Mary Lou Carr, Jamie Carmichael, Rosemary Jolliffe, Michael McDonald, Wendy Prodan, Dede Puma, Alan Thompson, Pam Thornton and Denise Walker.

Stealing Pumpkins From Doorsteps

The police department has had three reports of stolen pumpkins, according to Sgt. William R. Hickey.

And in all three cases, he said, the persons reporting the thefts have been warned that the cruisers are unlikely to spot such a theft unless it takes place at just the moment the car goes past the house. Many homeowners traditionally leave the pumpkins on the front steps during the annual Halloween season.

One report, it was learned, involved a home on Shawsheen rd.

York St. Residents Ask For Full-Time Officer

York st. residents, north of Haverhill st., have petitioned the Selectmen for 24-hour police protection by foot patrolmen, following last week's fatal accident on the street.

Twenty-six signatures appeared on the petition accompanying a letter stating the residents' belief that the capacity of the thoroughfare to handle traffic has been badly exceeded by the influx of cars to the Raytheon plant. Calling attention to "unsafe conditions", the residents stated their feeling that a foot patrol would help in the enforcement of speed limits and to end "unsafe driving practices".

Police Chief David Nicoll told the group that the officer assigned to Shawsheen for many years "never went 100 square yards out of the square. He didn't move from there except to check doors at night". These, he commented, are checked by the cruiser men now. And he also informed the group that a foot patrolman couldn't cover the area as well as a man on a motorcycle, who now served the section every day.

Nicoll commented that an average of 40 tickets are handed out every morning by this officer, whose only up-town duty is during the noon hour.

He also told the group, and the Selectmen, that the problem of traffic in the area can not be completely solved as long as most of the cars in the parking areas have to drive out onto Haverhill st.

At present, he said, there are two men in Shawsheen at peak

RAILROAD FEATHERBEDDING:
$500,000,000 LOSS TO THE NATION—INCLUDING YOU—EVERY YEAR

Featherbedding on the railroads — pay for work not done or not needed — is costing the American people the shocking total of more than $500,000,000 a year. You pay for it every time you shop, because featherbedding costs are hidden in the price of everything you buy. Obsolete union work rules, involving the railroad operating employees, are responsible for this gigantic burden. Right now, for instance, these rules require every diesel locomotive to carry a fireman — even though diesels have no fires to stoke, no boilers to tend. The forthcoming negotiations between the railroads and the unions are urgently important to the whole nation. In asking the unions to drop these featherbedding rules, all the railroads ask for is a fair day's work for a fair day's pay.

traffic times, plus a man at the lights in Andover Square to handle the flow of traffic up High st. into the Square. Raytheon recently assigned two additional guards to traffic duty, he explained, and one of these was at the scene of the fatal accident last week.

Some of the residents expressed a belief that Raytheon has done everything it could to help solve the problem, and suggested that the town give them some more help by assigning the full-time man to the Village.

They also pointed out that the parking and traffic problems would be more critical this winter, as the need for plowing snow arises.

Town Manager Thomas E. Duff informed the gathering that Raytheon has obtained approval from the Army to spend money for an additional 500-car parking area, which will help get the cars off the streets.

It was explained, however, that the problem would continue because whenever a new area is opened, additional employees begin to drive to work, and others are hired.

Residents were critical of the practice of allowing three lanes of traffic to proceed towards the plant, blocking off the oncoming cars at the gate to the parking area. Nicoll said he had agreed to a two-lane traffic flow because it is necessary to get the cars into the area as quickly as possible. He commented that traffic would be tied up for miles if the traffic lights in Shawsheen Square were allowed to control the flow of vehicles at the peak hours.

There was also some discussion of the problem facing Raytheon guards, who, it was stated, don't get the cooperation of other employees as they direct traffic. The guards are also named special policemen by the town.

The residents were assured at the end of the meeting that they would be informed as soon as any action is taken that might help to alleviate the condition.

where pumpkins have been replaced several times.

The homeowner also reported the theft to the Townsman, with the plea that something be done to call parents' attention to the fact that the pumpkins are being stolen. The caller suggested that youngsters probably are taking the pumpkins, and believes that in most cases the thefts would not occur if the youngsters realized that "it's actually stealing".

She also suggested that the smaller children, who own the pumpkins and are eagerly awaiting a chance to cut out traditional Halloween faces in them, are very disappointed when they discover that the thefts have taken place.

DAR Heard Talk By Mrs. Neisser

The opening meeting of the 1959-'60 season of Priscilla Abbot Chapter, N.S.D.A.R., was held at the home of Mrs. George Winslow on Henderson ave., Oct. 13. About 30 members were present, and after the business was completed, they were entertained by a talk on the Pennsylvania Dutch people, given by Mrs. Wilson Neisser.

Dessert was served prior to the meeting, the hostesses being Mrs. Winslow, Mrs. Alice Damon and Mrs. William Trow. Two members who have not been able to attend the meetings for some time were welcomed back during this social hour.

Mrs. Frank Hayes, the Regent, presided and opened the business meeting. Devotions and patriotic exercises were led by the chaplain, Mrs. Roland Glines, with one verse of America being sung. Mrs. Hayes read the D.A.R. creed and an article on National Defense. The chairman of this committee, Mrs. Howard Johnson, was unable to be present. The secretary's report was read by Mrs. Edward Thompson, and the treasurer's report by Mrs. Arthur Bonner.

Mrs. Roland Weeks spoke for Approved Schools, and told how money was needed for scholarships for worthy Hillside boys to continue their education. She also spoke of the meeting in Faneuil Hall Oct. 25, when a program by the Children of The American Revolution will be presented.

Mrs. Leo O'Connor, who has had charge of having a plaque made for the Deacon Isaac Abbot house on Elm st., formerly the home of Priscilla Abbot, presented the plaque for the gathering to see. It will be put on the house in April when the occupants, the Ernest Young family, who are now in Europe, will be home.

Several other items of business were discussed, and Mrs. Arthur Bonner was chosen a delegate to the Nov. 20 meeting at the Sheraton-Plaza in Boston. Mrs. Hayes spoke about the appointment of Mrs. Edwin Otto, the vice regent, as a personal page to the national marshal in Washington, and of the appointment of Mrs. Roland Weeks, ex-regent, as chairman of Junior membership in the state. Mrs. Neisser gave a most interesting talk on the manners and customs of the Pennsylvania Dutch people. Although Mrs. Neisser took notes from a book on the subject which may be found in the library, she also has interviewed these people and knows the first-hand.

The next meeting of the Chapter will be held at the home of Mrs. Joseph Smethurst on Lucerne st. when a state officer will speak on National Defense. The date is Nov. 10.

55th Anniversary Noted By Club

The Tuesday Club of Andover held a luncheon and program meeting at the Andover Inn Tuesday afternoon in honor of the founding of the club 55 years ago.

Special guests were Mrs. Charles Shepard, first vice president of the Massachusetts Federation of Women's Clubs and Mrs. Joseph Appleyard, director of the district of the Federation.

Mrs. Frederick Smith and Mrs. Harold Leitch, former presidents of the Club, were also guests.

Miss C. Madeleine Hewes was made an active, honorary member because of 50 years of continuous membership in the club.

The following members were presented with corsages for having been Club members for 25 years or more: Mrs. Henry Bodwell, Mrs. Chester Abbott, Mrs. George Hussey, Mrs. Joseph Higgins, Mrs. Wilfred Lord, Mrs. George Winslow and Mrs. Franklin Roberts.

After the luncheon, Mrs. Louise Morse, assisted by Mrs. Ed Havener, presented the program "Mrs. Nobody Goes Somewhere".

Tips Offered Halloween Safe

Reminder to moms and dads from the National Safety Council: The highway isn't the hazardous spot for Halloween. The home and its surroundings are just as big a bobbytrap.

That tip from the Council which feels adults have an obligation to keep the trick-or-treaters from their house - served as advanced warning to parents that the observance of All Saint (Halloween, to you) is near.

"Most motorists," the Council said, "know you can't catch excited youngsters to play so they exercise extra caution when driving on Halloween."

"Many homeowners, however, haven't learned their lesson so well. Homeowners have a responsibility to keep youngsters safe at Halloween. Furthermore, in many instances homeowners are legally responsible if someone is injured on their property."

How can you guard against tragedy that may mar a Halloween? Follow these similar suggestions, the Council recommends:

1. Light your porch if you have any chance of a visit from trick-or-treaters. An excited youngster is ripe for a tumble in the dark.
2. Make sure your yard is free of obstacles for children. Tie up old cover excavations. Tie up white cloth to temporary around shrubbery or newly laid grass.
3. If you have a dog, it should be secured. The strange sight of a dog with youngsters dressed to look like ghosts and skeletons could excite it - with dire results.

200 Attend Silver Tea

Over 200 members of the Augustine's Guild gathered at the school hall Sunday afternoon for their annual Silver Tea and reception for the Sisters of St. Anne, who staff the St. Augustine School.

Mrs. S. Arthur McGovern, regent of the Guild and Mrs. Harty, a former president, presided.

Several selections were rendered by the Vocalaires, a professional singing group and were well received by the audience.

After the program the guests spent the remaining time conversing with the Nuns in their respective class rooms.

The co-chairmen for the afternoon were Mrs. Joseph S. and Mrs. Robert Phinney.

How can you guard against a tragedy that may mar a child's Halloween? Follow these, and similar, suggestions, the Council recommends:

1. Light your porch if there's any chance of a visit from trick-or-treaters. An excited youngster is ripe for a tumble in the dark.

2. Make sure your yard isn't an obstacle course for children. Cover excavations. Tie strips of white cloth to temporary fences around shrubbery or newly seeded grass.

3. If you have a dog, keep it secured. The strange sights and sounds of youngsters dressed up to look like ghosts and goblins could excite it — with dire results.

"Keep Halloween happy," the Council advised. "Don't let a needless accident spoil some child's fun."

Appeals Board Gave 4 Decisions

Four decisions were filed last week by the Board of Appeals, granting two requests and denying two others.

Robert Colombosian was refused permission to construct an addition for storage at his plant in West Andover. The 51 Argilla rd. location, the decision stated, is a non-conforming use in a Single Residence B district. The Board ruled that the storage area would be an extension of the business, which the Board has no authority to grant. Sidney P. White and Harold T. King of the Planning Board had opposed the request at a hearing.

Kenneth P. and Ruth B. Thompson had requested the right to create two apartments in a single-family house at 51 High st. The Board refused the request, stating that plans of the conversion, requested of the petitioner, had not been supplied.

William M. Lydon won permission to build a house in the industrial zone on River rd. The Board noted that it seeks to cooperate with other town groups in the use of property set aside for industrial purposes. But, the decision stated, consideration must also be given the rights of individuals to make use of their land.

The decision noted that Harold Haller, appearing for the Industrial and Development Commission at the hearing, urged the Board not to grant exceptions to the industrial zone. But, when asked to send confirmation that the Commission flatly opposed the specific request, none was forthcoming.

Hattie E. Napier also was given approval to build a house on a lot on Elm st. with less than the required area and frontage for Residential Zone B. The lot conformed to zoning requirements when it was recorded, however, and had been, at one time, sold to another person. The Board said this meets requirements set up by the statutes, and approved the lot.

Igoe Spoke To Shawsheen PTA

William Igoe, director of guidance for the public schools, spoke to the first meeting of the Shawsheen PTA Oct. 14. His subject was "Testing and Guidance in the Elementary School".

Miss Anne Harnedy, principal of the school, introduced Mr. Igoe. Second grade room mothers — Mrs. Philip Dennett, Mrs. Herbert Johnson, Mrs. Andrew Innis and Mrs. Joseph Leonardi — served refreshments.

In a cooperative effort during the past few weeks, PTA officers and directors, teachers and students have been publicizing the work of the PTA in Shawsheen. A membership drive was organized and executed by the teachers, under Miss Harnedy's direction. A bulletin, containing the year's program, treasurer's report, vacation calendar and school fund report, was published and taken home by the youngsters. Harris N. Sanfilippo is president of the PTA.

The Changing Face of Main Street

*What's going on at the CO-OP?

Having completed large parking areas, the CO-OP now takes the second step in a three-phase development program. This week, ground has been broken for the foundation of a big addition to our present store. When completed next Spring, we will have a big, new, attractive, convenient, efficient, well-stocked and thrifty supermarket right in the center of town. — Andover center's first new retail structure in a quarter of a century. This do-it-yourself rehabilitation will be an asset to our town.

*Why is the CO-OP doubling its facilities?

This big expansion represents more than material progress. It is an act of faith. It represents faith on the part of our many hundreds of owners, in the cooperative way of doing business. And it represents faith in the growing acceptance of the cooperative idea in this progressive, growing community.

We are building with that faith as our foundation, confident that we shall continue to grow even faster than the community we serve.

And we invite YOU to grow with us.

Approve Renewal Of Country Club Permit

The Selectmen have renewed a gravel pit permit for the Andover Associates at the Country Club providing the School Committee agrees to furnish transportation to school for youngsters on Beacon st.

No trucks will be allowed on Canterbury st., the Board decided. Chairman Eugene A. Benardin Jr. commented that he has seen cars parked on that street in such a way that trucks could possibly get through. And other members agreed that it would be preferable for the big vehicles to use the private way out to Beacon st.

The permit renewal will also stipulate that trucks be checked carefully for overloading and possible spillage, that speed be kept down, and that the trucks stop at the intersection at Beacon st.

The Board was told that Superintendent Edward I. Erickson, although wanting his Committee's approval, believes there is a bus available to handle the to-school traffic. The youngsters are already organized in a patrol going home from school.

Residents of Beacon st. protested that, without sidewalks, the street is highly dangerous for the youngsters, who live within the mile limit on bus transportation.

Board members also asked Town Manager Thomas E. Duff to recommend to the Country Club officials that all possible speed be used to get the gravel pit completed, so that the truck nuisance will be completely abated.

MAY REFER BROOK PROJECT TO VOTERS

writing, to pay $255,000 if the town puts up its $175,000. Construction estimates for the job, from the low end at the railroad to the east side of Whittier st., are $430,000.

However, the state has also insisted that the town assume any liability for property damage caused by the work; that the town pay for any easements or releases; and that the town maintain the project once it is completed.

The Selectmen agreed that the cost of the easements and releases have not yet been determined — a factor in an eventual decision on going ahead with the project. They also felt that 10 percent or less of the job would be incomplete, including the section east of Whittier st. to Upland rd. That portion might run upwards of $35,000, according to Duff.

It was generally conceded that the proposed project would eliminate the worst of the brook construction, however.

Among the many factors entering into a decision on the proposal is whether the state can hold the money until after town meeting. If this can be done, the members felt, then the voters would have the opportunity to voice an opinion on the complete plan.

There could be no decision, however, until Duff has the opportunity to find out whether the state will hold the money, or whether a more immediate decision must be made in order not to lose it completely.

Throughout the discussion there was mention of the necessity of interpreting the voters' intent correctly — was the appropriation meant only for 100 percent of the cost, including easements? Or were these considered to be an extra expense anyway? Would a project through Whittier st. be considered as meeting the intent of the voters, or must the plans include the extension of drainage work to Upland rd.

Answers to these questions are being sought by the town manager, who will report further to the Selectmen.

EDITORIAL THOUGHTS

Mighty Big Question

The Selectmen have concerned themselves with a basic problem, the solution of which will have a profound affect on the town's growth for years to come.

This is the extent to which developers — and we suppose this means every builder in the town — may be required to provide, or assist in building, additional public facilities that would eventually become inadequate as the result of growth.

This is what might be termed a core problem — for a decision will have tremendous impact on the community.

One can imagine that an affirmative decision, carried out to its logical conclusion, would require that every builder contribute money to a fund that would eventually be used to enlarge some public facility — drainage, sewers or water, or even schools. This would hold true because every home built here adds a little to the load these public facilities carry.

The build-up might be slow in some cases where big developments were not involved, but in time some one of the public utilities must certainly be overloaded by the most gradual addition of homes in an area. Thus, if an affirmative decision is made, it must follow that the man building one or two houses a year would have to pay something to the town, just as a big developer might be required to actually install town services — as has been the case with the Realty Construction Co. in Ballardvale. That firm has been required to install sewer mains, and to add to the Ballardvale treatment plant, all at its own expense.

On the other hand, a negative decision will have an impact just as great.

If builders are not required to pay anything towards the improvement of town facilities, then a substantial cost will be passed on to the taxpayers when the utilities become antiquated and are replaced.

One case in point is the Wild Rose Farm, where huge drains are being installed, after Planning Board approval. The big question is whether the drains will overpower the existing street drains, resulting in an expensive reconstruction project by the town.

Should the developer in that case be asked to pay for the larger street drains, or culverts to conduct the water in such a way that it will not be a town problem? And how far can this decision be carried — it might be that the developer could install some town drainage, but certainly the larger installation at one location will result in the creation of a bad condition down the street somewhere. Then should the town require the developer to also do the work in the second location? How about the third or the fourth problem area, created by the original drainage condition? Should these all be paid for by the contractor?

These are all decisions that must be made in the near future. Obviously the developers can not be expected to contribute endlessly to the expansion of town facilities, as they become further and further removed from the development site. Yet they can be expected to at least cooperate in altering facilities that will immediately become overloaded.

There must be a satisfactory middle ground, because the town would effectively stifle all residential development if the burden is placed only on the contractors' pocketbooks.

Beverly Group Takes Action

We noted with interest an item from Beverly, giving details of the formation of a decent literature committee, which will attempt to have magazine dealers make certain kinds of magazines less readily available to young people.

The magazines in question, finely printed, and with excellent pictorial craftsmanship, deal mainly with nude and semi-nude photos. And in some, the written material follows the pattern set by the photographs.

The committee in Beverly apparently does not believe in any form of censorship — rather they merely wish to have dealers assume some responsibility for the sale of the magazines, to protect those who should not be exposed to the contents.

Along this same line, we understand Judge Harrington in Salem is planning to hold a meeting with police chiefs in the area to discuss this situation.

It appears that such public participation by laymen is a natural outgrowth of the Postmaster General's plea for aroused public opinion against the mailing of "smut" — pictures, stories, and films, that are often sent to thousands of people whose names get on mailing lists prepared in distant cities. After all, one can not become concerned with the dissemination of this type of material through the mails without being aware of publications which may have a deleterious effect on public morals or tend to hug the borderline that separates decency from that which is indecent.

Down the Years with The Townsman

50 Years Ago — October, 1909

Paul Simeone, the local fruit dealer, has moved into a new home on High st., recently constructed by William J. Doherty.

Lt. Marlborough Churchill has been spending a few days in town. He is presently located in San Antonio, Texas.

A new society has been formed at St. Augustine's Church for married men of the parish.

Andover was greatly honored by the presence of Governor Eben S. Draper in the community overnight. After visiting rallies in Lawrence and Haverhill, Gov. Draper returned to the home of William M. Wood for the night.

Considerable excitement was caused in the Scotland District Saturday afternoon by the balloon Boston, belonging to Charles J. Gilliard. It left Lowell a little after three and shortly after four it settled into a field belonging to Mrs. Henrietta Knowles.

John Porter, Douglas Falconer and William McDermitt were rescued by a Coast Guard ship about 15 miles off Beverly Sunday. The men had lost control of the motor and drifted out to sea during the storm.

25 Years Ago — October, 1934

Over 300 persons, many from communities well removed from Andover, attended the open house in the Deacon Isaac Abbot Tavern, under the auspices of the Historical Society. In the evening, the Society held its meeting there.

The American Woolen Co. is the single highest taxpayer, with a gross bill of $70,077. In order, the next highest taxpayers are the Gas and Electric Co., Andover-Shawshen Realty Co. and Phillips Academy.

Two Andover men were injured Saturday morning near Martin's Pond in No. Reading, when their car turned over. They were trying to avoid an ice truck that drove into an intersection.

The Committee authorized at the last town meeting to investigate the police department and suggest ways for establishing greater efficiency has been appointed. Moderator Fred Butler has appointed Col. Valentine M. Fitzhugh, William A. Trow, William F. Barron, Edward P. Hall, and Edward E. Hammond.

A firm, reputedly employing 300, is negotiating for the use of the empty Smith and Dove buildings.

The Andover Grange, by a majority vote, took a stand against liquor and issued a statement urging residents to vote against any kind of licenses for the town.

Mrs. William G. Martin was elected president of the VFW Auxiliary at a meeting in the Post rooms last Wednesday night. The officers will be installed in November with the officers of the Post.

10 Years Ago — October, 1949

In order to eliminate a Main st. traffic hazard, it has been suggested that the grass plot at Chapel ave. be cut back. As it stands, with an increasing number of cars in use, the road is narrowed from 55 feet to 33 feet by the plot. The area used to provide a turn-around for the trolley cars, and was grassed over when the tracks came out.

Many residents of the Vale, and town officials, protested the elimination of the gatetender at the Ballardvale crossing, at a hearing in the DPU office in Boston. The B & M Railroad wants to install an automatic gate.

The School Building Survey Committee has recommended that the School Committee ask town meeting for a school building committee, to construct a central elementary school. It would replace the Stowe and John Dove schools.

The Police Relief Association has donated $100 towards the monster Halloween party planned for all the youngsters in the town.

Punchard High made it four straight Saturday afternoon, defeating a strong Ipswich eleven.

The Boosters Club is continuing with its plans to raise money to purchase 100 uniforms for the Band. The next activity will be a house-to-house canvass.

The Garden Club won a State Award of Merit at the meeting of Federation of Garden Clubs of Massachusetts.

Residents appeared before the Selectmen Monday asking for relief from the overflow of Rogers Brook, specially in the Morton st. area. The problem was referred to the construction engineers working on the veterans' housing project.

Collected 224 Pints Of Blood

Two hundred and twenty-four pints were collected at last week's bloodmobile, failing to meet the quota of 300 pints. However, it was still a satisfactory collection, according to David Cutler, chairman of the Red Cross blood program.

The most disappointing statistic was that of 123 absentees, people who were scheduled to give blood but did not appear on either day. While many of these people called to report that they were too ill to donate, the majority merely failed to arrive. However, this figure was almost balanced by that of 80 walk-in donors. The reject list of 27 was unusually small.

Next Monday, the Andover chapter is playing host to the annual northeastern district meeting of the Massachusetts regional blood program, at 7 p.m. at the Andover Country Club.

Materials For UN Day

The Memorial Hall Library wishes to remind its borrowers of the materials which are available at the library for those who wish to recognize United Nations Day, October 24. There are three films, Asian Earth, 22 minutes, The Challenge of Malaria, 14 minutes and Question In Togoland, 20 minutes. Several filmstrips are on hand for use in a slide projector, and books and pamphlets are on display for immediate use. Posters and pamphlets for free distribution may be found at the library.

Story Hour

"Stories With a Laugh" is the subject of Tuesday afternoon's story hour next week, Oct. 27, at 3:35 o'clock. All boys and girls who enjoy a snicker, chuckle or a good laugh should plan to attend. Parents should allow an hour for the story programs.

National Book Week

The first week of November has been set aside as National Book Week, and libraries all over the country will be showing the best in the year's autumn publications to their readers at that time. As usual, the Memorial Hall Library opens the week with its annual Open House, on Nov. 1. Full details of Open House will be elsewhere in this issue. All readers should plan an hour or so during the week to look over the new book displays in both adult and children's rooms. Here are excellent suggestions for those who add books to their Christmas shopping lists.

Open House At The Library

Mrs. Emily Flint, managing editor of the Atlantic and co-editor with Edward Weeks of "Jubilee: One Hundred Years Of The Atlantic", is to be guest speaker at the annual Open House of the Memorial Hall Library. At four o'clock on Sunday afternoon, November 1, she will address the guests of the library on a subject of her own selection — "The Excitement of Publishing." She plans to include some of the amazing and often amusing experiences which she has had in the world of publishing, not only of the Atlantic monthly, but of books as well.

There is every evidence of her critical talent in the anthology which she and Mr. Weeks prepared, selecting as they did some of the "bests" of the first hundred years of the Atlantic's prose, fiction and poetry. Writings of 123 different contributors to the Atlantic have been studied, and those items chosen which seem to have permanent value to the reading public. Thoreau, Sandburg, Mark Twain, Owen Wister, Bernard Shaw, Thornton Wilder, Dylan Thomas, Einstein, Woodrow Wilson, Emily Dickinson are represented, along with fiction writers whose work first appeared in the pages of the Atlantic.

Friends of the library are cordially invited to attend Open House, and to come early enough to allow some time for browsing among the new books in the children's room as well as in the main reading room. The best of the fall publications will be on view, and there will be an opportunity for readers to reserve those that appeal to them.

Light refreshments will be served.

MRS. AUGUSTA WETTERBERG

Mrs. Augusta (Forsander) Wetterberg, 1 Hartigan ct., died at home Tuesday morning after a long illness. She was 89 years old and had been a resident of Andover for 53 years.

Born in Tidaholm, Sweden, she was the wife of Fred C. Wetterberg. The couple had celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary three years ago. She was a member of the Andover Baptist Church.

Besides her husband, the survivors include a daughter, Ellen, wife of Joseph Holland of Andover; a son, Carl, of Andover; three grandchildren and five great-grandchildren; also several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held this afternoon, at 2 from the Lundgren Funeral Home. The Rev. Donald J. Ryder, pastor of the Andover Baptist Church, will officiate. Burial will be in Spring Grove Cemetery.

Red Cross Needs

$16,838 From U.F.

Chester T. Jenkins, treasurer of the Andover Red Cross, reports that the Red Cross hopes to realize, through the United Fund, a sum of $16,838 to support its varied activities for the coming year.

After $4,573 has been sent to the National Red Cross for use in disasters and emergencies, in service to the armed forces here and overseas, the remainder, $12,265, will be spent locally. The major expenses of the chapter are administration, the blood program, home service to veterans and men in the armed forces, supplies made for hospitalized veterans and for servicemen, and the running expenses of the Red Cross station wagon. The other departments of the chapter exist on budgets of $75 or less. Fortunately, the disaster service has spent, in the past few years, less than 25 cents.

RICHMOND ESTATE VALUE IS $66,410

Value of the estate of Albert I. Richmond of Andover is $66,410.24, according to an inventory filed in the Registry of Probate. All of his possessions consisted of personal property, it was stated.

Richmond, who died Aug. 30, 1958, signed a 1941 will which awarded the entire estate to his wife, Mrs. Nellie B. Richmond, but it was indicated that she is deceased. The probate petition listed three children as Donald I. Richmond, Charles F. Richmond, and Evelyn J. Richmond, all of Andover.

May Spend Money To Revise By-Laws

The town By-Law Committee, headed by Robert Zollner, has received the Selectmen's approval to spend as much of its $3,500 appropriation as necessary to have the by-laws properly prepared.

Mr. Zollner appeared at the meeting Monday, asking about authority to spend the money. He said a firm specializing in this sort of work is a must, because no member of the Committee could possibly do the work involved.

Although substantial changes in zoning by-laws are not intended, he said duplications and contradictions, where existing, must be straightened out. And one section of the by-laws, he said, must be in agreement with others that tie in with it.

Mr. Zollner said it may be possible to have recommendations for town meeting on the zoning articles, but the complete job for this March meeting. A member of the Committee, Prof. James J. St. Germaine, agreed that it would be foolish to rush the job merely to meet the town meeting deadline, when a former and the present committee have been working for a considerable length of time already. probably can't be done in time

Jackson ter., Lawrence, were united in marriage at a nuptial Mass at 11 o'clock Saturday morning, Oct. 10, in the Holy Rosary Church in Lawrence. The Rev. George Callaghan, O.S.A., officiated. Mrs. Irene Zannini played in the nuptial music.

Mrs. Angela Sidere was matron of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Angela Sapuppo, Miss Irene Russo and Miss Cynthia Ranger, the latter of Hamilton. Lisa Catanzaro was flower girl.

Michael Sapuppo served as best man and the ushers were Sebastian Grasso, Jay Catanzaro and John J. McKay, both of Andover.

Escorted by Joseph Catanzaro, the bride wore a gown of white peau de soie taffeta with a fitted long torso bodice designed with a re-embroidered Alencon lace neckline and long tapered sleeves. The bouffant skirt was accented with Alencon lace appliques and it formed a full double cathedral train.

Her triple-tiered veil of English illusion was attached to a fitted Alencon lace cape and she carried white chrysanthemums and Stephanotis with an orchid center.

Her attendants wore floor length gowns of snow white nylon styled with scoop necklines in fitted Grecian bodices and bouffant skirts. They wore fitted silk organza leaf caps with umbrella face veils. The maid of honor's accessories were antique gold and she carried fall chrysanthemums and the bridesmaids' were in fall green. The flower girl wore a short white nylon chiffon frock and carried a basket of variegated chrysanthemums.

A reception was held at the Colony room attended by guests from Hamilton, Medford, Rhode Island and Syracuse, N. Y.

After a trip to Miami, Fla., the couple will reside at 178 East Haverhill st., Lawrence.

The bride is a graduate of Mary's High School and the Intosh School. The bridegroom is a graduate of Lawrence High School and Merrimack College with a degree in electrical engineering. He is employed at the Raytheon Plant, Andover.

DUNBAR - ROONEY

A wedding of interest took place in St. Joseph's Church in Medford Saturday, Oct. 10, when Miss Jeanette Rooney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Rooney, was united in marriage to Francis Dunbar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Comeau of Lovejoy rd.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of tulle and Parisienne Lace with jeweled sabbina neckline and carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids, white roses and stephanotis.

The maid of honor was Nancy Doyle of Medford and the bridesmaids were Patricia Hebert of Somerville, Barbara Mallory of Boston, Sally Edwards of Beverly and Ann Quill of Medford. They were all gowned in dresses of deep rose and blue, styled in the bride's gown.

The ushers were Albert Conant of Andover, Stephen Rooney of Medford, Richard Gill of Medford and Raymond Quill of Medford.

The bride's mother was gowned in rose beige lace and the groom's mother wore blue lace both had matching accessories.

A reception followed the ceremony with 100 guests present.

Full-Time Man Employed At Dump

A full-time custodian has been appointed for the town dump.

Michael W. Mullaney, who has been a crossing attendant in Ballardvale and part-time custodian at the community center there, will take on the task of directing people where to put their refuse.

Town Manager Thomas E. Duff told the Selectmen that Mullaney will try the job for a while to see how it goes.

One of his first duties, Duff indicated, will be to check the times when many persons use the dump and the times when few loads come in. This will, in large part, govern future hours.

Duff said the dump hours will be so arranged as to meet the most demand, while trying to stay open no more than 45 hours each week. Mullaney will work that number of hours as do other town employees, and will be placed in a classification under the by-law governing salaries.

Both Selectmen Philip K. Allen and James D. Wilson urged that the dump remain open later in the evening, even if this means closing until 10 or 11 o'clock in the morning. Duff said a gate will be installed so that the facility can be locked up when the caretaker is not there.

Town equipment will be used when needed to keep the refuse under control, he explained.

Capable Cast In Department Play

The Play "The Reluctant Debutante", being presented by the Shawsheen Village Woman's Club drama department Nov. 6 and 7 at the Memorial Auditorium, has an exceptional cast of experienced players.

Mrs. Cornelius Shea is a newcomer to the drama group. She is a graduate of the Curry College of Boston, where she studied dramatics. Her experiences as director of plays at the Y.W.C.A. and in productions in and around Boston have made her an asset to the play.

Allan Chadwick, who will portray the part of the debutante's father, which he does with his usual aplomb, has been in many of the productions of the club in the last few years. The most memorable of these plays are "Late Love", "The Curious Savage", and "Four Flights Up".

Mrs. Phillip Winters, well known comedienne, will play a somewhat different part as mother of a giggling teen-ager.

The play is under the capable direction of Mrs. William Hovanasian, a graduate of Syracuse University and teacher of dramatics at Tenney High School. She has had a great deal of experience as director of the Jewish Community Center and coaching productions for church groups and cub scouts. Previously, she has had four years experience on the New York stage.

B.U. Choral Group Coming

The Boston University Choral Art Society, under the direction of Allen C. Lannom, has enjoyed a growing musical prestige throughout the United States. Many demands are made upon this choral ensemble each year in and around Greater Boston. One of the recent performances was with Arthur Fiedler and the Boston Pops Orchestra before an enthusiastic audience of 2000 people.

On a recent tour, the Choral Art Society under the direction of Mr. Lannom went to Chicago on return, stopping at all the major cities on route. The tour each year awakens in the hearts of the listeners an appreciation for the finest in choral literature and production. Each year audiences before whom this dynamic ensemble has performed, request return appearances in the next year.

The Choral Art Society is chosen from Students throughout Boston University, with the large portion coming from the College of Music. The initial group numbers close to 100 voices, the through competitive audition is reduced to approximately 40 voices, the finest at Boston University, are chosen.

This group devotes itself to the performance of a major work as well as to the smaller forms of sacred and secular music, the Motet, the Madrigal, folk songs of all countries, cantatas, and so forth. Much of this is sung in Cappella. Singing in many churches, cathedrals, civic centers and schools, the Society has become famous for the variety of its program, its technical attainments, and its enthusiastic spirit.

The South Church Sanctuary Choir is pleased to bring this group to the Memorial Auditorium in Andover, Nov. 20, at 8 p.m.

Halloween Party At South School

The annual children's Halloween party will be held at South School Saturday, Oct. 31, at 5:30 p.m.

All pre-school and school-age youngsters in the South School district are invited.

The evening will start with a costume contest. Refreshments, cartoons and other surprises are planned.

BEQUEATHED ESTATE

All of his property, whose value was not estimated, was bequeathed to his widow, Mrs. Alma E. Paradise of Andover, under terms of the will of Scott H. Paradise of that town, it was learned when the document was filed in the Register of Probate.

Mr. Paradise, who died Aug. 1, 1958 and nominated Mrs. Paradise as the executrix. Three children are listed in the probate petition. They are Mrs. Carol P. Decker of Andover, Mrs. Polly P. Russell of Wayland and Scott I. Paradise of Detroit, Mich.

Board Appoints Assistant Principals

The School Committee appointed Mrs. Dorothy T. Partridge, a teacher in the Junior High School, and William A. Decker, a former member of the School Committee, to the post of assistant principals of the Junior High School.

Dr. Milton Meyers made motion, which was seconded by Mrs. Reta Buchan. Members Sullivan and William A. Decker voted to confirm the appointment of Mrs. Partridge and Mr. Decker as assistant principals of the Junior High School.

Russell told his colleagues before the vote, that he believed the Board should not be rushed into making an appointment without first presenting the recommendation to the Committee, with giving the superintendent time to discuss the matter first.

Russell said the Committee could allow Benjamin D. Partridge to continue in the position of assistant principal of the school, to someone's services as assistant principal for the remainder of the year without making the appointment. However, Dr. Meyers stated he believes Mrs. Partridge do a good job and move into the position.

There had been considerable discussion over a period of weeks concerning the appointment of Mrs. Partridge as recommended by Mr. Dimlich in a letter to the School Committee by Edward L. Erickson. He has been given the message hours before the meeting, ever. Subsequent calls for candidates produced only one and Mr. Erickson had said would recommend Mrs. Partridge over the other applicant.

about the installation of a sewer in the street, and the drainage of private property across Lowell Street.

Now, Stewart continued, are other sub-divisions of Lowell st. area which will contribute water to the town drainage system, in addition to the Rose Farm run-off. And he said his colleagues what protection town has against future expansion if something is not done to prevent that expense from being incurred.

During the discussion pointed out that the Real Estate Co. had been required to install sewer lines, and provide funds for enlarging treatment plant in Ballardvale to handle the extra load from new homes at Dascomb rd.

In addition to stressing the importance of treating all polluters equally, Stewart said his belief that the town should forestall future expenses by requiring sufficient work to be done by the contractors. He said another meeting, stated his belief that either the contractors provide necessary facilities without future expense to town, or not be allowed by the town.

There was general agreement at the Selectmen's meeting that the problem required consultation with the Planning Board, meeting was set up for Nov. 10.

In a news story last week Townsman related some details leading up to the problem with the Wild Rose development — basically the Planning Board had approved drainage plans for a section of the town and had agreed to installation of the 50-inch sewer.

The Board had felt that amount of water it will carry the smaller section of the town can be handled by existing pipes. A further decision was made when the entire sub-drainage plan is presented to the Board for approval.

South PTA Group Plans Bakery Sale

The Ways and Means Committee of the South Elementary PTA is making plans for a sale Nov. 5, from 3-9 p.m., in the Elm Farm market in the Shawsheen Plaza.

Members of the committee include Mr. and Mrs. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Somers and Mrs. George Schmidt.

Board Appoints Assistant Principal

The School Committee has appointed Mrs. Dorothy T. Partridge, a teacher in the Junior High and former member of the School Committee, to the post of acting assistant principal of the Junior High.

Dr. Milton Meyers made the motion, which was seconded by Mrs. Reta Buchan. Members John Sullivan and William A. Doherty voted to confirm the appointment. Chairman Roy A. Russell votes only in cases of a tie.

Russell told his colleagues, before the vote, that he believed the Board should not be rushed into making an appointment to prevent embarrassment to anyone. He referred to the method used in first presenting the recommendation to the Committee, without giving the superintendent time to discuss the matter first.

Russell said the Committee could allow Benjamin Dimlich, principal of the school, to utilize someone's services as assistant for the remainder of the year without making the appointment.

However, Dr. Meyers stated that he believes Mrs. Partridge would do a good job and moved her appointment.

There had been considerable discussion over a period of many weeks concerning the appointment. Mrs. Partridge was recommended by Mr. Dimlich in a letter, read to the School Committee by Supt. Edward I. Erickson. He had only been given the message a few hours before the meeting, however. Subsequent calls for applicants produced only one other, and Mr. Erickson had said he would recommend Mrs. Partridge over the other applicant.

During the discussion it was pointed out that the Realty Construction Co. had been required to install sewer lines, and also to provide funds for enlarging the treatment plant in Ballardvale to handle the extra load from the new homes at Dascomb rd.

In addition to stressing the importance of treating all developers equally, Stewart asserted his belief that the town should forestall future expenses by requiring sufficient work to be done by the contractors. He had, in another meeting, stated his belief that either the contractors should provide necessary facilities, without future expense to the town, or not be allowed to build.

There was general agreement at the Selectmen's meeting that the problem required consultation with the Planning Board, and a meeting was set up for Nov. 2.

In a news story last week, the Townsman related some of the details leading up to the present problem with the Wild Rose Farm development - basically that the Planning Board had approved the drainage plans for a section of the development and had agreed to the installation of the 50-inch pipe. The Board had felt that the amount of water it will carry from the smaller section of the area can be handled by existing street pipes. A further decision will be made when the entire sub-division drainage plan is presented to the Board for approval.

South PTA Group Plans Bakery Sale

The Ways and Means Committee of the South Elementary School PTA is making plans for a bakery sale Nov. 5, from 3-9 p.m., at the Elm Farm market in the Shawsheen Plaza.

Members of the committee include Mr. and Mrs. Richard Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Dyke, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Somers and Mr. and Mrs. George Schmidt.

Preaching Mission Starting Sunday

REV. VICTOR F. SCALISE

The first unified preaching mission in 30 years in Greater Lawrence will be launched by the Greater Lawrence Council of Churches Sunday at 7:30 p.m. at Central Methodist Church, Lawrence, when the Rev. Victor F. Scalise preaches his first of six evangelical sermons.

It was in 1939 that Protestant churches accepted the challenge and conducted a unified effort to take the word of Christ into the homes of the community.

This year there are 24 churches supporting the Council's Preaching Mission, both by participating and financially. They come from six denominations.

The Rev. Victor F. Scalise, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church in Lowell, is a frequent speaker on the Council's annual University of Life program, and is a popular radio preacher. He has been president of the Lowell Council of Churches and the Lowell Ministers Association.

The Lowell minister will deliver six sermons starting Sunday they are: "The Challenge of the Reformation Courage"; "God's Image of Our Best Self"; "The Futility of Human Wisdom"; "The Infinite Value of Human Personality"; "Proclaiming the Majesty of God"; and "The Unconditional Love of God".

will give the Installation sermon; Dr. Arthur H. Bradford, Mr. Bradford's father, will give the Installation prayer; the charge to the minister will be delivered by the Rev. Graham Baldwin, chaplain at Phillips Academy; the charge to the congregation will be given by Dr. Albert J. Penner, president of the Massachusetts Conference of Congregational Churches. The public is invited.

At the council, the Rev. Mr. Bradford delivered a paper on "The Bible and the Contemporary World", "The Church and its Ancient Foundations", "History, its meaning in the Christian Framework", "The Place of Theology in Christian Life" and "My Concept of The Ministry".

In the Congregational tradition, the examining council is more of a sharing of ideas in Christian fellowship, than an examination.

MAY USE BUS, BUT SELECTMEN PAY FOR IT

Beacon st. children will be allowed to ride in a school bus in the morning according to a decision of the School Committee, only if the Selectmen make arrangements for the transportation and pay for it.

The School Committee did not wish to set a precedent in providing transportation for children within the mile limit established for the elementary grades. The members felt that they could give permission for use of the bus, providing the Selectmen make

Spooks & Skeletons At Supper Party

Spooks, goblins and skeletons will be the order of the day, when the Newcomer's Club holds its Halloween party at the Log Cabin Oct. 24.

Festivities will start at 5:30 with a covered dish supper. Mrs. John Gearin and Mrs. T. P. Coates are co-chairmen of the committee.

Mrs. Herbert T. Lake has arranged an evening of square, ballroom and circle dancing under the professional direction of Stan Cibril of Lincoln.

All arrangements with the driver, and find a way to pay him. The Selectmen had decided to allow gravel trucks to use Beacon st. from the Country Club gravel pit, providing bus facilities were available for the to-school trip each morning. A school patrol takes care of the children on the way home.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. James Schofield of Brookline, spent the weekend with their daughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gilday of Lincoln st.

Friends of Irving Stowers of Beech cir. will be pleased to know that he is somewhat improved following a serious illness at his home.

RESIDENTS INVITED TO SEND CARDS TO SUPT.

Any interested resident of the community has been invised to indicate his or her interest in the educational conference Nov. 5 by mailing a postal card to the superintendent of schools at the Central School building.

Messages have been sent home to parents of school children, outlining the program and asking for indications of the parents' interest in attending the various discussions.

Those persons who do not have school-age children may indicate their choice of the following discussions, and mail them to the school: Grouping, reading, college-bound student, non-college student, teachers, a look ahead, and rating of schools.

Horticultural Show
Two Working On

The 47th annual Horticultural Show at the University of Massachusetts will be held from Oct. 30 to Nov. 1 in the University's Curry Hicks Gymnasium. With the help of the faculty, the show is produced annually by students in the University College of Agriculture and the Stockbridge School. Randolph A. Jester, assistant professor of horticulture, is faculty chairman for this year's event. The theme will feature a backdrop of the Holyoke Mountain Range with diminishing - scale farmsteads in the foreground. This panoramic view will be seen across a village green containing an animal pound and other relics of early Americana.

Students participating from this area include Malcolm F. Estell and Arthur Levesque.

Estell, of 55 Woodland rd., is working on the main feature and attendance for the event. A freshman at the Stockbridge School, he is majoring in landscape operations.

Levesque, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Levesque, 69 North st., is also working on the main theme of the show. A freshman at the Stockbridge School, he is majoring in vegetable crops.

Lecture On Alaska At Men's Meeting

Laurence L. Barber, historian, North American traveller, photographer, and speaker extraordinary, will describe a 14,000-mile journey through Alaska at the next meeting of the South Church Men's Club, Wednesday, Oct. 28.

His presentation, which will be illustrated by motion pictures in color, will be preceded by a catered dinner at 5:45 p.m. and a short business meeting in the South Church Fellowship Hall. All men of the community are invited and are asked to make reservations by Monday at the Church office.

Mr. Barber, a well-known resident of Arlington, is president of the Arlington Historical Society, a former president of the Bay State Historical League, and first president of The Clock Club with national-wide membership. His travels have covered most of the continent of North America from ocean to ocean and from Florida to the arctic. His coverage of our great, new, frontier state of Alaska includes all sections: Mount McKinley, the Yukon, Klondike, and others, and will show close up pictures of leaping salmon and big game.

The Friendly Guild's next meeting Oct. 25 will be held in the Parish House in the form of a Halloween party. Miss Doris is chairman and those assisting her are Miss Elizabeth Byer, Mrs. James White Jr., Mrs. Charles Byer and Miss Martha Howe. They are asked to come masked in costume.

Wants Neat Attire In High School

The attire of students at Andover High School was subject of some concern at the School Committee meeting Oct. 13.

Dr. Milton J. Meyers suggested that considerably more attention be paid to having the boys and girls properly dressed, including wearing of ties and coats by boys. He recalled that this had come up in a personal conversation with Lindsay J. Maguire, headmaster of the School, and Mr. March wanted the School Council to take steps in that direction.

However, Dr. Meyers said he believes the proper mode of dress should be spelled out and into effect by next September.

Mrs. Reta Buchan, differing with her colleague, said this is one that belongs in the school administration and not with the School Committee. However, it was general agreement that subject would be discussed at Mr. March and that he could advise something should be done by fall.

The discussion came up in a brief report on the social "Beatnik Day", in which students dressed in unusual fashions. About six were home to change, and others warned that the school administration would not tolerate any repetition of the event.

Local Men Join Anti-Aircraft Group

Two Andover young men joined the 15th (NIKE) Anti-aircraft Artillery Group Headquarters in Quincy last weekend, to receive training in electronics and guided missiles. They had chosen assignment before enlisting in the Army.

They are William P. Dobbie, Flint cir., a graduate of Andover High and Alan W. Allbee, 4 Lincoln st., who also attended Andover High.

They took basic training at Fort Dix, where their regiment won a regimental safety award and compiled one of the training center's highest averages on rifle range. Both young men will be home on leave after completing basic training.

FAMILY SERVICE AT FREE CHURCH

The Free Christian Church will hold a "Family Service" on Sunday. Families are invited to sit together in the pews. The service will be a little shorter than usual, and is arranged to meet the interest of family groups. There is to be no Sunday School and the nursery will be in operation for the younger children that day. The title for Mr. Ford's sermon is "A Tree Hidden in the Woods".

UNIQUE EXPERIENCE - Youngsters in the morning session of the South School kindergarten had an opportunity to watch a house being moved last week. The home, belonging to John Cavallaro, was moved from the By-Pass to a location nearer Andover on So. Main st. His daughter-in-law, Mrs. Mary P. Cavallaro, who teaches the kindergarten, had the children transported to the scene. In the group were Robert Bartholomew, Kristina Brainerd, Alan Brown, Susan Buchan, David Caiazzo, Jane Conway, Ernest Darby, Robert Earl, Donald Frederick, Thomas Froburg, William Gibbons, Bruce Hood, Kenneth Hopkins, Robert Keck, Marcia MacMillan, Suzanne Mitton, Pamela Passanisi, Sandra Poleatewich, Daniel Quinn, Martha Rogers, Jean Smeltzer, Donna Taylor, Diane Torres, William Van Dinter, Karen Verda and Douglas Yeiter. Paul Cavallaro, a third grade pupil, took the trip as helper. Officer Henry Gaiamo is directing traffic. (Staff Photo)

Still Investigating Fatal Accident

Andover Police Sgt. Raymond Collins and Officer James Gorrie, with the assistance of Registry Inspector George E. Hancock, are pressing their investigation of the fatal accident on York st. Friday morning, Oct. 15.

The officers are seeking witnesses known to have been standing with the victim at the curbing, it is known, who have not come forward. Raytheon officials have posted notices asking the witnesses to talk with the police and the officers are checking out lists of possible witnesses. Others, at longer distances from the accident, are also being interviewed.

The victim, John C. Buckley, 50, 34 Beaconsfield st., Lawrence, was standing at the curb waiting to cross the street to go to work. He was in collision with a car operated by Mrs. James McAllister, 212 Boxford st., Lawrence, who had just driven her husband to work. She had driven to the top of York st. and turned around, and the accident occurred about opposite the plant. Mr. Buckley apparently stepped off the curb to cross the street seconds before the accident.

ON DEAN'S LIST AT BABSON INST.
