Start Next-Day Postal Service

A major improvement in postal service to provide next-day delivery of first-class letter mail for six million people throughout the States of Massachusetts and Rhode Island was announced this week by Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield. Speaking for the Postmaster General was Mr. John B. DeMott, Operations Director for the New England Region of the Post Office Department.

Postal patrons in the area were assured that, barring infrequent human errors of distribution, first-class letters mailed on a business day before 5 p.m., or at a limited number of smaller offices in time for final dispatch, if made prior to 5 p.m., will be delivered anywhere within the two states on the following business day.

"Mailing early in the day thereby giving the post office time to sort and transport mail to its destination is the best way to make sure your letter is delivered the next day anywhere within the

The Shawsheen Village Improvement Association is a strong advocate of new parking regulations in Shawsheen -- daytime no-parking on 18 Village streets and parts of four other main streets in the area.

John J. Broderick, president of the Improvement group, presented the recommendation to the Selectmen Monday night.

And he promised that residents of all the streets, though they may dislike the regulations, will abide by them and refrain from parking on the streets between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m.

Mr. Broderick met with the Board, representatives of the Raytheon Co., and William Beaulieu of York st., spokesman for residents of that street. The meeting was called by the town officials in an attempt to find solutions to perplexing parking and traffic problems that continually plague the area.

ABC Overrules Licensing Board

The Alcoholic Beverages Commission has reversed a decision of the Board of Selectmen, acting as a licensing authority, and has recommended that the beer and wine package store license of Deady's, Inc. be transferred to Johnny's Supermarket on Park st.

The Selectmen, all expressing their personal regret that this happened, voted 3-2 to award the license to Johnny's.

Selectman James D. Wilson voted against the license and Chairman Eugene A. Bernardin Jr. was also recorded against it. Selectmen Philip K. Allen, William Stewart and Edward P. Hall -- stating their conviction that the license should not be granted --

Teacher Salaries Will Be Boosted

It looks like the town will be faced with at least a $25,000 increase in the school salary budget item for 1960.

The School Committee and Finance Committee figured that was a minimum amount, during discussions on next year's anticipated needs.

Causing the raise is a new state minimum for teachers -- $4,000. This is only $200 more than the Andover minimum now, but there was general agreement that the town would wish to maintain its policy of having minimum salaries some $200 higher than the minimum. This policy was established some time ago, when it was decided that such a step was necessary if the town is to be competitive with other systems in seeking out new teachers.

Seeking Data On Rate Boost

Town Manager Thomas E. Duff is going to investigate proposed Eastern Massachusetts Street Railway rate increases, before the Board of Selectmen takes any stand on them.

The Board has been notified that proposed rate changes will be considered at a hearing Nov. 17 in the State House by the Department of Public Utilities. However, the notice did not specify how the changes would affect Andover.

The Selectmen felt that they should have all the details before taking a position for or against the proposal.

U. S. BERGER

At the next meeting of the South Church Men's Club Wednesday, Nov. 18, U. S. Berger, assistant director of development of the Merrimack Valley branch of the Bell Telephone Laboratories, in North Andover, will review recent developments in long distance telephone communications techniques.

As assistant director of this laboratory, Mr. Berger is directly responsible for half of its development activity and is eminently qualified to discuss the expanding, diverse technologies being applied in this field. These technologies include both time division and frequency division, multiplexing of communication channels over wire lines, coaxial cables, and radio media. Local Musicians Won Competition

Mrs. Frank McArdle, director of music education in the Andover schools, has announced that seven vocal and instrumental students, who are members of the various musical organizations of the Andover High School, have been honored by being chosen to be members of the Northeastern Music Festival Chorus and Band, which will present a concert at the English High School Auditorium in Lynn, Saturday evening, Dec. 12.

Students from all the Senior High Schools of Northeastern Massachusetts competed in the tryouts which were held recently. All Andover High School students, who participated in the tryouts in Lynn, were selected as members of the Festival Chorus and Band.

Pamela Prendergast, Carol Gesing and Janet Workman, who are members of the A Capella Choir at Senior High, were selected for membership in the Festival Chorus. Virginia Snyder, Peggy Williamson, Doris Miller and Joan Ellen Simeone, members of the Andover All Girl Band and School Orchestra, won places in the Festival Band.

VARIETY ENTERTAINMENT SATURDAY EVENING

Many talented dancers will be seen at the variety show to be held Saturday evening at 7:30 p.m. in the Community Room in Ballardvale. Mrs. Pamela Voter of Methuen will feature her pupils in various baton, fencing, tap, cha cha and acrobatic dancing.

Replacing The Cracker Barrel Of Yesteryear

Few things in American business have changed as drastically as the traditional grocery store.

Gone is the old country store with its pot-bellied stove, cracker barrel, block of cheese and pungent smell of spice from open containers.

In its place we have a modern wonder, the super-market - big, bright, efficient - with a dazzling display of pre-packaged foods.

Gone also from so many grocery stores is the friendly spirit of the old-time grocer who knew his customers personally and chatted with them intimately.

In his place we often have a cold impersonal merchandising expert.

But not at the CO-OP!

The CO-OP is more like a family store. Here the friendly spirit is a built-in quality. Our many hundreds of members have a common bond. They "belong" in our store because our store belongs to them - lock, stock and barrel.

Is it any wonder, then, that such a friendly atmosphere should pervade the CO-OP? That spirit is created by your friends and neighbors, and the CO-OP is a wonderful place to meet them as you shop.

Wants Brook Cleaned Now

Selectman Edward P. Hall has urged Town Manager Thomas E. Duff to have Rogers Brook cleaned out.

He said, at a meeting Monday, that 20-25 percent of the possible flow of water is interrupted by items in the brook bed, many of which he claimed have been there for six months to a year.

Mr. Duff explained that this project is on the list of items to be done this fall, but the highway department has been busy getting ready for winter, and has had the extra job of picking up leaves around town. In this regard, he said many persons have been raking the leaves into the gutters, when they used to burn them.

Mrs. Thomas Puglisi has returned to her home on Lincoln cir. after enjoying a visit with relatives in Plainfield, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Slate of Greenwich, N. Y. visited with friends in West Parish during the weekend.

Festival Orchestra To Offer 32nd Concert

The 32nd Annual Concert of the James C. Sawyer Foundation will take place in the auditorium of George Washington Hall, Phillips Academy, at 9:15 p.m. Friday, Nov. 20.

The featured artists will be the Cambridge Festival Orchestra. This orchestra was founded in Cambridge in 1950, and during the intervening years this virtuoso group led by Daniel Pinkham and Robert Brink has become one of Boston's leading musical organizations. Although heard in person only in the East, the reputation of the Cambridge Festival Orchestra has spread far beyond, through the medium of radio and records. Frequent concerts throughout New England, and appearances in Boston and Cambridge, such as those under the auspices of the Massachusetts Music Foundation, serve to enhance the reputation of this distinguished Boston ensemble.

The program will include: Handel's Oboe Concerto in G minor; Rach's Sinfonia to Cantata No. 15; Mozart's Eine Kleine Nachtmusik; and Pinkham's Divertimento for Violin, Oboe and Strings, among others.

Conductor Pinkham, soloist of the harpsichord, Robert Brink, violin virtuoso, and Richard Summers, oboe soloist, will be featured on the program.

The Public is invited and there is no admission charge.

THE NEW NEW ENGLAND

New "Wrinkles" In Textiles

Wrinkle-resistant sheets, wash and wear clothing of all types, even trousers that retain their sharp creases, are only a few of the many new ideas flowing from the textile industry.

These developments, together with such technological improvements as the recent introduction of the shuttleless loom, shown above, and a postwar investment of over $420 million in modernizing plants and equipment, have put New England's revitalized textile manufacturers in their strongest competitive position in years.

Over 122,000 Yankees are employed by the region's mills (15 1/2 per cent of the nation's total), while another 88,000 are engaged in converting textiles into clothing. Combined, they form the largest manufacturing labor force in our six states.

Despite the upheaval in textiles during the past 30 years, New England currently produces: 17 per cent of the nation's silk and synthetics fabrics, and 58 per cent of the nation's wool fabric for women's and children's clothing.

New England also makes 50 per cent of all the textile machinery in the United States.

This message was prepared by The New England Council for Economic Development and is published by this newspaper as a public service in cooperation with the New England Daily Newspaper Association and the New England Weekly Press Association. Taking part in the ceremony, which followed a special dinner in the Community Room, were James Butler, scoutmaster of Troop 76; Edward Grain, field Scout executive; Mrs. Harry Batchelder, William, Mr. Batchelder, Assistant Scoutmaster Garry Norris, a life scout and Walter Norris. (Leone)

Presented Top Scouting Award

Boy Scout Troop 76 held an Eagle Court of Honor banquet in the Community Room last Saturday evening, with many scouts, scouters and friends of scouting attended.

William Batchelder received the Eagle Award, presented through his mother, by Edward Grain, North Essex Council Field scout executive.

Scout Batchelder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Batchelder, received his "God and Country" award Sunday, Nov. 1, the presentation being made by Scoutmaster James Butler and the Rev. Ralph Rosenblad, chaplain of the Troop.

A meat pie supper was served by the Youth Group of the Ballard Vale United Church, assisted by the Church Guild. Following the ceremony, each scout committee member and scout presented Batchelder with a feather to make his head piece. Gary Norris received his life badge.

Alco Taylor presented Scoutmaster Butler with a leather belt engraved with scout symbols, in recognition of his faithful and good work in scouting.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dennison, Mr. and Mrs. David Cardinal, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ingals and Edward Grain of the North Essex council of Boy Scouts of America attended the dinner and ceremony.

START NEW POSTAL SERVICE

two states," Mr. DeMott said. "This program for better first-class mail service has been in test operation throughout the Massachusetts and Rhode Island area since July 1.

"The postmasters at the 585 post offices in Massachusetts and Rhode Island have worked as a team to put it into effect," Mr. DeMott said, "and while it is primarily designed to improve the first-class service, it has resulted in improved service for mail of all classes."

The volume of letter mail handled on an average day between post offices in the two states approximates six million pieces. Population has been increasing and the resultant postal service pattern has become increasingly complex. Drastic curtailment of railroad service has been a further complication.

Many of the postal buildings and facilities in the two state area are outmoded and inadequate to efficiently meet the demands of today's growing mail load but the improved delivery of letters throughout Massachusetts and Rhode Island is being accomplished despite this handicap.

The revised service pattern makes possible the next-day delivery of first-class mail anywhere in the two state area through a closely integrated timetable which governs the work of the State's postal units and the transportation linking them together.

In announcing these service improvements, Mr. DeMott paid tribute to the postmasters and other postal personnel throughout Massachusetts and Rhode Island. He said that the improvements had been accomplished with only a nominal increase in overall cost, resulting from increases in Star Route, mail messenger and other transportation expenses.

Postmaster Stephen Boland indicated this week that the local office has found the new service to be working well.

Tests have been made on specific week days, he explained, which show that nearly 100 percent of the mail from the two states, post-marked before 5 p.m., have arrived here in time for delivery the next day. "This is a very noticeable improvement over the former service," the postmaster commented.

Andover is participating in the improvement program by collecting mail from all street boxes, starting at 5 p.m. Under the old system, the collection started at 4:20 p.m. and only a part of the boxes, where marked, were collected in the evening.

EDITORIAL THOUGHTS

Interest Needed In Town Business

Town meeting is far away in the minds of most townspeople, but not so with our elected officials.

The closing date for the annual warrant is already being established, and Town Manager Thomas E. Duff is working on department budgets for the new year. As a matter of fact, his recommendations have to be ready early in December according to the town manager charter.

It's probably too much to expect the voters to become enthused about town meeting at this early date — yet we honestly feel that it is none too early to begin thinking about this important event. March will be here almost before we know it, and the vital decisions required of the voters then should be given serious thought prior to the meeting.

There will, of course, be recommendations from the Finance Committee and other individuals or groups, but it is the basic responsibility of all voters and each voter individually, to study the questions and make decisions as reasonably and sensibly as possible. This can not be done by giving the warrant a fleeting glance a day or two ahead of the meeting.

And while we're on the subject of town meeting, let's also consider the matter of attendance. Usually, unless there's some one item of great controversy, there are in the neighborhood of 1,000 voters at the annual session. This isn't enough — it's a minority of the town's registered voters. All are eligible to go to the meeting if their names appear on the lists of voters — we should have a larger percentage of them in the Auditorium, taking an active part in their town's business affairs. Between now and next March, let's try to encourage our neighbors and friends to attend the meeting in greater numbers than ever before.

Fine Compliment

Close to 700 residents of the community paid themselves and their town a fine compliment last Thursday evening, by turning out to the conference on education.

There had been considerable doubt as to how many men and women would attend this unique conference, designed to tell residents of the town about their schools.

The fact that so many took time to attend, and to obviously thoroughly appreciate what they heard, is a tribute to the community as a whole.

Of course it is to be hoped that the conference has contributed to the public understanding of education in the town, and that the experience will be repeated in years to come. After all, better understanding usually results in a friendly, cooperative spirit — a desirable way for citizens and school administrators to move forward.

Varying Ideas On Committee

It is particularly interesting to observe the rather definite difference of opinion, as to their responsibilities, that has developed among members of the School Committee.

One school of thought is that the Committee should thoroughly review academic areas — curriculum etc. — and make decisions on these matters. Those who believe this to be a prime responsibility are urging that more time be devoted to these subjects at meetings of the Committee, or that more frequent meetings be held.

On the other hand, there is a feeling among other members that the superintendent and his assistant are hired to do the academic planning, and that this does not fall within the scope of the Committee's responsibility, other than a general review occasionally for the purpose of being informed.

This seems to be a broad division — for on one hand some members want to dig deep into educational philosophy and take part in decisions on policies along this line. The others apparently feel that this area should be left more exclusively to professional educators — and that the Committee's work should be more in the field of administrative policy, finances, new construction, etc.

A Punchard High School freshman was fatally injured last Saturday night when she was struck by a car on North Main st. She died 24 hours later in the Hospital. The driver of the car is being charged by police with manslaughter and operating to endanger.

The fire department was called out by an alarm from Box 24 at 1:50 this morning for a fire in a piggery off Dascomb rd., owned by Chester Abbott. The piggery was destroyed by the blaze. Fire officials suspect the origin of the fire might be deliberate, pointing out that several fires in the general area recently have all been suspicious.

A total of $22,592.50 must be appropriated at the next town meeting to meet principal and interest payments on the junior high. This is the first year that the payments will influence the tax rate, and it is expected that some 88 cents will be added to the rate for this purpose.

10 Years Ago — November, 1949

Boats now in Haggett's Pond may be confiscated by police, unless their owners haul them out quickly. The Board of Public Works issued licenses for use of the pond, but specified that all boats must be out by Nov. 1. Chief George Dane said that the owners will have to pay the costs of removing the boats if police are forced to take them out.

Women at the upper end of Summer st. are in arms over dangerous hunting procedures around their homes. They have vigorously protested to police about hunters firing too close to the houses and yards, where children play. One woman said a hunter had shot so close that the pellets landed within 15 feet of the clothes yard where she was hanging out the wash.

Quite a number of minor breaks have been attributed to boys by investigating officers.

Trial Justice Richard K. Gordon held his first session of court Monday morning, using the police chief's office as the new court room isn't quite ready. Four defendants appeared, all on traffic violations.

Snow removal operations will continue on the same scale this year, although the Eastern Mass. St. Railway has taken its snow plowing equipment off the bus routes. The Company has decided not to plow snow in any of the communities now served by its buses, but the Board of Public Works says this will not hamper the efficient operations enjoyed here in other years.

Five more of Andover's historic elms have fallen prey to the Dutch Elm disease this year, according to the tree warden.

PRACTICE TEACHING AT HIGH SCHOOL

Andover public schools are cooperating with the University of Massachusetts in its student teaching program. This semester one student from the University of Massachusetts is spending eight full weeks working with experienced teachers in the Andover High School. After a week or two of observing the school and the methods of the teachers, the student teacher gradually begins to take on certain teaching duties under the careful supervision of the regular teacher. The amount of actual teaching increases as the student shows himself competent to take on more responsibility.

In the Andover High School is C. William Hilliard of Swampscott, who will be working in the Physical Education Department.

Lecturer Coming
November 30

Carl de Suze, New England's own outstanding radio personality and "diplomat extraordinaire", will be presented Nov. 30 at 9:15 p.m. in the Memorial Auditorium, by the Women's Fellowship of the South Church.

His lecture, supplemented by slides, is entitled "Keyhole Journey, A Look at the Communist World" which covers his recent six-week trip through Russia and three satellite countries: Poland, Czechoslovakia and the newly-opened Bulgaria. He photographed parts of the Crimea, European Russia, Central Asia and Siberia, as well as a few glimpses of three cities closed to tourists. They were Szerdlorsk "The Chicago of the North", Dnieper Petrosk in the Crimea, where atomic installations exist, and Stalino, a mining city.

Returning a confirmed capitalist, de Suze views the world situation as a challenge to the individual, who, as the best ambassador for freedom, can pierce the iron curtain of the Russian mind.

General chairman for this project is Mrs. David Fox. Mrs. George Schmidt has charge of the tickets, assisted by Mrs. Grace Weaver, Mrs. May Elander, Mrs. Barbara Glines, Mrs. Peggy Van Zandt, Mrs. Alice Jenkins and Mrs. Ruth Hatton. Publicity co-chairmen are Mrs. Ruth Hatton and Mrs. Barbara Glines.

LEFT $10,000 TO RELATIVES, FRIENDS

Gifts totaling $10,000 were left to relatives, friends, a church, and two hospitals by Mrs. Annie Flint Safford of Andover, according to her will, filed in the Registry of Probate. She died Oct. 13.

The will, signed March 30, 1955, was accompanied by two codicils. Gifts of $1,000 each are left to the West Parish Church, the Huggins Hospital, Wolfeboro, N. H., and the Lankenau Hospital, Philadelphia, Pa., for use in the department of research.

Individual gifts are $1,000 to Mary MacDonald, Andover; $1,000 to Mrs. Annie Smart Angus, Andover; $1,000 to Helen Kreger, Exeter, N. H.; $1,000 to A. Houghton Farnham, North Andover; $2,000 to a nephew, George F. Mathews, Lexington, Ky.; $100 to Rosetta Ames, Philadelphia, Pa.; and $1,000 to Helen Barnard Leete, Lansdowne, Pa.

Mrs. Safford left a wrist watch to a sister, Mabel F. Keith, Woodbourne, N. Y.; her husband's pocket watch to a nephew, Paul W. Mathews, Columbia, Mo.; a brass tray to Helen B. Sweeney, Boston and all furniture, remaining jewelry and personal effects to a niece, Ruth Farnham Alley, Passaic, N. J.

She ordered the residue of her property divided into six shares. Ruth Farnham Alley and Ruth Mathews, niece, received quarter shares each.

The remainder was split into eights and given to the sister, Mabel K. Keith, Paul W. Mathews, Eleanor Keith Sweet, Milton and to Elaine F. Garvey, North Andover.

Should any of these beneficiaries die before her, Mrs. Safford wrote, their issue is to receive their shares.

Charles G. Hatch, 5 Appletree Ln., was nominated as executor. Mrs. Safford empowered him to decide whether any property received or charge incurred should be allocated to principal or income or partly to each without being "limited" to the usual rules at law for the determination of principal and income.

The first codicil cancelled a one-eighth share for A. Houghton Farnham and gave him $1000. This share was given to Elaine F. Garvey.

The second codicil left the $1000 gifts to Mrs. Angus and Helen Kreger. The codicils were signed Feb. 20, 1957 and March 31, 1959, respectively.

Suggests Contractor Pay For Bus Rides

The Cronin Co. may be asked to pick up the tab for transporting school children on Beacon st., according to a discussion by the Selectmen.

The Board received notice that there is room on a school bus that serves the general area, but that the School Committee will not pay for the extra cost. This was placed at about $150 for the balance of the school year.

Residents in the area and the Selectmen had believed that transportation of the children, who live within the walking limits of the West School ordinarily, would be far safer than allowing them to walk on Beacon st., where there are no sidewalks. The Cronin Co. is hauling gravel from the pit at the Andover Country Club, which recently asked for a renewal of its permit.

At the hearing, residents of Beacon st. objected to the continuation of the pit, based mostly on constant danger to the school children from gravel trucks. A safety patrol takes the youngsters home from school, but this can not be arranged in the morning, it was brought out.

The School Committee said it could not pay for the extra bus transportation without establishing a precedent, which would make it impossible to refuse other requests in various sections of town.

Suggests Sharp Look At Contracts

School Committeeman Milton J. Meyers expressed his concern over the method of handling school bus bids, during a recent discussion of bids on the renewal of a contract.

Dr. Meyers commented on the renewal procedures, in which the Committee customarily has called for bids, but given the contract to the driver whose contract is expiring. He also mentioned the increase in prices quoted in the bids, and wondered aloud if they wouldn't continue to climb, regardless of competition. He suggested that it might be worth taking another look at the owner-driver policy, if prices are increased continually.

The bid received by the Committee was $5,400 for a basic 75 miles a day, plus 42 cents a mile for anything over that. This was received from Gordon Hall, whose contract expires. He was given the new contract, through June of 1962.

Secretary William A. Doherty explained that drivers ordinarily have received renewals because it takes them three years to pay for the bus, and they bid low to get the first contract. He explained that most individuals will not bid when they know a renewal is a stake, because they would like the same favorable consideration that present contract-holders get on these renewals.

Thus when a new bus is put on, the bids come in very low, he continued, and the bid three years later necessarily is higher.

Dr. Meyers said he understood the procedure, but felt that the increase in price at renewal time pointed to the necessity of re-examining the policy on owner-drivers. When Mr. Hall's bid was read, it was also noted that a Brookline firm sent in prices, recognizing that it could not bid because of the restriction on owners driving the buses.

Open House At Junior High

The Junior High School will hold its first Open House of the school year Thursday evening, Nov. 19.

The program will give parents an opportunity to follow their son's or daughter's program for a typical school day, by going through a schedule of six 10-minute classes. They will have an opportunity to meet the child's teachers and to become informed of their objectives in the various subjects.

Parents are asked to report to the home rooms between 7:30 and 7:45 when the programs will be issued. The bell for the first class will ring at 7:45. At 9:15 refreshments will be served by several mothers of home room officers, in the cafeteria for seventh and eighth grade parents and in the library for ninth grade parents.

JOINT MEETING ON DRAINAGE NEXT WEEK

The Selectmen and Planning Board will meet jointly next Wednesday night, to further discuss drainage problems facing the town.

The session results from an earlier meeting, in which over-all drainage policies were discussed, along with any possible responsibility of contractors and developers for the municipal system.

The Board agreed to meet again after members had a chance to think over legal rulings by the town counsel and to review specific problem areas.

FINED ON CHARGES

Fred M. Sanborn, 45 Highland rd., was fined $40 in Lawrence District Court Monday morning on charges of operating under the influence of liquor and a charge of being drunk was filed. Andover police brought the charges, after Officers Russell Berthel and Hector Pattulo stopped the vehicle on Main st. at 5:55 Saturday night.

Doug Howe
about this question:

"The finance company insured my new car in the deal. Now I find that I paid a higher premium, hidden charges, and lack having a local insurance agent to really fight for my claims. Can I insist that I trade my car only, and not my local agent?"

CAREER PROGRAM AT HIGH SCHOOL

...enthusiastic and encouraging. The career program is designed to assist pupils of high school in selecting a career for which they would be best suited upon graduation from high school. The program is intended, also, to assist underclassmen to develop an interest in some educational or vocational field which they may wish to pursue at a higher level of study or training.

Cubs, Scouts To Be Organized

At Church, Nov. 10, 7:15 p.m., there will be a meeting to organize a Boy Scout Troop and a Cub Pack. The ages for Cub Scouts are 11-14 and for Boy Scouts, 15-17. All boys interested in scouting must be accompanied by their parents. The new Scoutmaster will be Ted Cole. Peter R. Caswell will be the Assistant Scoutmaster. Present at this meeting will be Field Scout Executive, Everett J. W. Grain; Robert H. Dennis, Council Commissioner and District Cardinal, Andover Area Commissioner.

TEACHERS SALARIES TO BE BOOSTED

salaries by the $200, to maintain the balance between steps on the schedule, would be at least $12,400, according to Supt. Edward I. Erickson. If the additional $200 margin between Andover minimum and state minimum is retained, the budget will be increased by double this amount.

At present, the town pays a minimum of $3,900, with steps up the ladder to $5,800. Presumably this would be $4,200 to $5,200, in the light of the Committee's discussions.

There was also some consideration of the merit plan - with additional money being needed next year to pay for the merit increases awarded for part of this year and for additional merit placement during the year. In fact, the basic salaries would be increased for only four months of 1950, because the state requirement does not start until Sept. 1, 1950. Thus the full effect of any schedule adjustments at town meeting would be felt in 1951, when a complete year's appropriation would be required.

Accept Report

During the discussion there was some debate about the school population committee's report, and whether the School Committee was ready to accept it as valid. School Board members expressed their individual opinions, varying from absolute acceptance of the study group's findings to beliefs that the estimates are far too conservative.

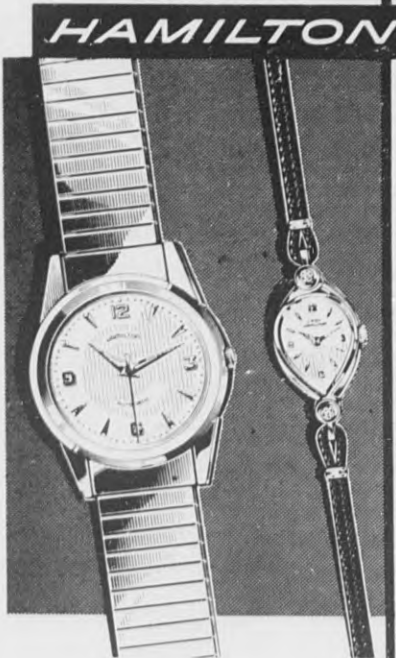

Any practical consideration of new school construction was precluded, the participants felt, until such time as the School Committee decides whether to agree on the study group's findings. School Board Member John Sullivan said he believes a new school will be needed, in use, between four and seven years from now. And he agreed that it takes at least 2 1/2 years to get a school ready for use, from the initial town meeting proposal.

During the meeting there was some debate over using the Bradlee School, as proposed by Mr. Sullivan. Secretary William A. Doherty said the fire chief has branded the building as being a "fire menace and a fire hazard".

...siastic and encouraging. The career program is designed to assist pupils of high school age in selecting a career for which they would be best suited after graduation from high school. This program is intended, also, to assist underclassmen to develop an interest in some educational or vocational field which they may wish to pursue at a higher level of study or training.

The entire student body will assemble in the High School Auditorium to hear a speech by Alan Furber of Wentworth Institute entitled, "Career Opportunities for Youth Today." Following the assembly, students will proceed to various classrooms to hear lectures, who have been carefully selected by the Guidance Office Staff.

To meet the individual needs of pupils, several changes have been made. The fields of Accounting, Social Service, F.B.I. and Cosmotology have been added to this year's program.

Following are the names of participants in the program: Dr. Albert Greenberg, Engineering; Dr. Leslie Jolliffe, Medicine; Dr. Milton Meyers, Dentistry; Mrs. Marian Dubrule, R. Recreation Report By Women Voters

The League of Women Voters turns its attention next week to a local problem, recreation. An active committee, under the chairmanship of Mrs. G. A. L. Brown, has studied recreational possibilities in Andover as offered by the Recreation Committee and private organizations.

Members of the committee, which includes Mrs. Theodore Burt, Mrs. James Prout, Mrs. Herbert Lake, Mrs. Howard Hamilton, Mrs. R. M. Cole, Mrs. Sherman Drake, Mrs. William Bennett, Mrs. Munro Leaf, and Mrs. Donald Sagasser, have journeyed to the nearby towns of Reading, Concord and Winchester to study the recreation programs in each. The committee has met officially with the Planning Board, the Recreation Committee, the superintendent of schools and the town manager. Nov. 17 and 19, they will present their findings to the membership and the public. The meetings are scheduled for Tuesday, Nov. 17, at 9:45 a.m., Cooley House, Phillips Academy; Tuesday, 7:45 p.m., at 59 Abbot st., home of Miss Helen Yeaw; Thursday, Nov. 19, 9:45 a.m., members may come to 93 Pine st., home of Mrs. R. M. Cole; or Thursday, 7:45 p.m., at Mrs. R. I. Anderson's, 5 Appletree ln.

Does Andover provide recreation for all ages? Is there cooperation among the various town boards in the planning of recreation? What is being planned for the future? Have school playfields been developed to their capacity? Is the present 9-10 week summer schedule adequate or would you like to see a year around program? Is there need for commercially sponsored recreation? The League Recreation Committee will give their answers to these questions and would like to hear those of interested townspeople.

WANT NO PARKING ON MANY STREETS

There was general agreement that any long-range solutions could be held off until the missile firm's new 500-car parking lot is ready. The time schedule on construction is 45 days, with work having begun more than a week ago.

During this period, town officials emphasized that they may be forced to deviate from present parking regulations, if a snow storm of any consequence occurs. Shawsheen representatives at the meeting generally concurred in the feeling that solutions to an emergency problem might have to be found during the 45-day waiting period.

But after the new lot is ready, the SVIA urges quick action on its suggestions, including the no-parking edict.

Proposals...

The suggested streets for no-parking are Poor, Windsor, Kensington, William, Kenilworth, York, Balmoral, Carisbrook, Argyle, Arundel, Enmore, Carlyle, Dumbarton, Sutherland, Stirling, Linwood, Riverina rd. and Fleming ave. Also No. Main from junction with Union to the Shawsheen River bridge; Lowell st. from Canterbury to No. Main; Haverhill st. from Riverina rd. to Stirling; and Burnham rd., from York to the Railroad underpass.

Mr. Broderick presented over 300 names on a petition asking that no parking be strictly enforced on these streets, except for Sundays and holidays.

Several other recommendations were presented by the group:

Sufficient police officers to enforce speed, driving and parking regulations.

Prevent parking on a piece of town-owned land, and adjacent private property at the corner of Enmore and Haverhill sts.

Towing A Possibility

In response to a question from Chairman Eugene A. Bernardin Jr., Mr. Broderick said he believes residents along the proposed no-parking streets would bear up under the restriction. Mr. Bernardin wondered, however, whether many would not find it inconvenient.

He suggested, instead, that careful attention be given the possibility of towing away offending vehicles after the third or fourth parking violation. This, he thought, might eventually lead to a decrease in the number of cars that break parking regulations now existing in the Village.

Other Suggestions

The lengthy discussion brought out several other suggestions from the Shawsheen Improvement group.

They propose that traffic signs — stop signs, cross walks, children, and assorted other warning messages, be placed in many areas of the Village.

It was also suggested the police officer, assigned permanently to the area, should be under complete control of the town — not in any way under the day-to-day direction of the manufacturing firm.

Cooperative Efforts

Representatives of the Raytheon Co. stressed the willingness to cooperate, and suggested that it will be in a better position to do so once a new parking area is finished. Then, according to Bernardin, the employees can be asked to either use the lots or move to the town for violation of regulations. Until the lot is ready, however, he said there is literally no place for the cars to go but on the streets. Over 100 vehicles park on the streets every day, he continued, because of lack of space. Most will use the new facility, he believed.

He also revealed that employment at the Shawsheen facility is about at its peak. Mr. Cheever said there is no truth to the rumor that 9,000 will be employed there — rather, he indicated there is an "austerity program" at the plant as far as new employees are concerned. The results, in part, he explained, because there just isn't room enough for many more people.

Ticket Payments

It was interesting to note that parking ticket fines, after they reach $2, continue at the same rate. Police Chief David Nicoll told the group that the first ticket draws a warning, the second through sixth cost $1 and the payment for any number in excess of this is $2 — for seven or more 100, as long as the violator obeys the instructions on paying within a time limit.

At this point it was suggested that towing might be the answer because those who pay little attention to several $2 tickets react to a towing charge. However, Chief Nicoll suggested that the legal aspects of the towing law be checked before any policy of that type is accepted by the Selectmen.

It was also explained that the proposed payment by Raytheon of an officer's salary was a means of obtaining an additional officer to do the work. The man would be completely responsible to the department, it was indicated.

A spokesman for Raytheon said a decision on this matter is at a "corporate" level, because the local plant does not have complete authority to decide the question. The problem of possible precedents is involved, it was indicated.

However, he said the local plant management is heartily in favor of the idea and hopes it will be approved.

School Menu

The school menu for next week is as follows:

Monday — fruit juice, corned beef hash, cheese sticks, spinach, Vienna bread, hermits and milk.

Tuesday — oven-fried chicken, gravy, whipped potato, peas, dinner roll, sliced peaches and milk.

Wednesday — tomato vegetable soup, hamburger on buttered bun, carrot curls, plantation cake with chocolate frosting, and milk.

voted for it because they said there was no other course open. Town Counsel Fredric S. O'Brien had informed the Board that if it rejected the license application again, the petitioner could have another hearing at the ABC, which would then officially grant the transfer anyway. In its recommendations to the local Board, the ABC said it found that none of the residents around Boston rd., the site of the present license, objected to the transfer. The notice also stated that the transfer would be beneficial to customers of Johnny's Supermarket and that the proprietor wanted it for their convenience.

The Selectmen had voted against the transfer of location, and a sale of stock from the Deady Corp. to Johnny's Supermarket, after hearing opposition to the plan. At that time, Atty. Richard K. Gordon, representing the opposition, said it was felt that sufficient competition is present in the business section up-town. He suggested that, if a transfer is made or a new license granted, there should be more consideration to other sections where there are people seeking a license.

WILL HOLD EXAM FOR ASSISTANCE DIRECTOR

A civil service list for the position of director of public assistance will be established, according to Town Manager Thomas E. Duff.

He said the state agency has agreed to call for an open, competitive examination as quickly as one can be arranged. The list will be available when and if the present director, Arthur Cole, retires. He is approaching the voluntary retirement age, according to Mr. Duff.

FOOTBALL IN THE MUD - This is one of the plays in last Saturday's football game that took place in a relatively dry section of the field. As play went towards the south goal posts, the field was muddier and the puddles wider. Andover lost to Amesbury, 6-2, with the climate contributing greatly to the scoring by both teams. A driving rain continued throughout the game, keeping attendance at an uncomfortable handful. (Staff Photo)

Officials Hope Residents Will Burn Own Leaves

An old New England tradition - burning leaves during this fall season - has become a matter of official concern.

It seems that non-traditionalists are just raking the leaves out into the gutter, with the expectation that the town will pick them up.

Flippantly this is a matter of grave importance to those who love the smell of a burning pile of leaves.

And seriously, it's a subject of considerable gravity to the highway department, which has an extra burden at a time of year when there are many duties to perform in readiness for winter.

Actually, it's not as simple to burn leaves now as in years past, when one simply raked and burned.

Fire Chief Henry L. Hilton, agreeing that leaves should not be left in the gutters, suggests that they be burned on the individual's own property. Permits for open fires, on one's own land, are granted whenever weather conditions permit, he explained. And the leaves may be torched in an incinerator or barrel, with screen or solid cover, without a permit of any kind.

But the old practice of burning in the gutter is forbidden under a town by-law. Chief Hilton, disclaiming any idea of preventing burning of leaves, insists that he can not give permits to burn where a by-law clearly spells out rules to the contrary. On calm days, however, a telephone call to the fire station is usually sufficient to get a permit for open-air burning on the caller's own property.

The dangers of leaving huge piles of leaves in the gutters of town streets have been stressed by Town Manager Thomas E. Duff. He recalls hearing of accidents, where cars have run over children hiding in the leaves; and of cases where there have been threats of property damage, when cars are forced for some reason to pull way over to the edge of the road, thus driving through the piles of leaves without knowledge of what lies underneath.

In still another way, the abandoned leaves pose a threat to the town itself should there be a sudden rain storm. For it is obvious, according to the town manager, that the leaves will wash down to the nearest storm drain and thoroughly plug it up, leaving the storm water without a proper place to go.

Other Problems
However, it has also been explained that burning on the roadside - not permitted but sometimes done anyway - poses a real threat to motorists. Sometimes the heavy smudge obscures vision, and once in a while someone is forced to drive through a smouldering pile, when forced to the side of the road by oncoming traffic.

And the fire department has difficulties, too because leaves that have turned into red-hot ashes blow easily, and often pose a fire threat to adjacent property.

Those, it has been pointed out, are some good reasons why burning in the street can't be allowed.

Even so, most of the concerned town officials wish most people would take care of their own leaves - either get permission to burn them or haul them away to the dump.
