Hearing On Club Drew Protests

The Board of Appeals has taken under advisement the request of the Country Club Developers for approval of the plans for the Indian Ridge Country Club off Lovejoy rd. A hearing was held Monday night, at which plans for the club, and objections from residents of the area were heard. Prime objection was in terms of traffic hazards, which the residents believe will be created if the main access to the Country Club is off Lovejoy rd. as planned. A service access will also be constructed off Argilla rd., it was explained.

Atty. Richard Simmers represented the petitioners, and Paul Rogers, vice president of the corporation, also answered queries from Board members and the audience.

Although Atty. Simmers objected to the line of questioning, Board members Edmond Hammond and What animal has a snout like a pig; a tail like a rat; and many characteristics of a monkey? Florence Duguid, 167 Lowell st., can give you the answer quickly enough - it's her pet possum. The tiny animal does, indeed, have characteristics of all three animals.

Its snout, resembles a pig's - but it doesn't root in the ground like a pig.

It's tail is long and, if you saw it without seeing the rest of the body, you'd be sure you had surprised a whopping rat. But the similarity ends there, because the possum uses its tail to advantage - to hang by. Just touch your finger to the underpart of the tail and it

Agree On Counting Procedure At Primary, Extra Pay Voted

Picked teams of counters will be selected by wardens in all six precincts, in an effort to get the Sept. 13 primary ballots counted as speedily yet accurately as possible.

The men - there are no women poll workers in the town - will be paid $3 hourly for the time they work after the polls close at 7 p.m. Those who are on duty during the 12-hour period when the polls are open will also be paid their usual $17 per day.

Town Clerk George Winslow unfolded the plan before the Selectmen Monday, pointing out that it will apply only to the primary Sept. 13. If successful, he indicated, it will be used again at the national election in November.

The problems faced this year at elections are different than ever before, because for the first time the town may not count ballots prior to the closing of the polls. A new statute forbids this practice, which used to give the towns a chance to keep caught up on counting during the day.

Mr. Winslow gained the support of the Selectmen Monday night and planned to get in touch with vacationing Town Manager Thomas E. Duff, whose responsibility includes setting the hourly rate of pay.

The town clerk explained that the wardens must have plenty of time to select their teams of two men, so that they will be available Sept. 13. He indicated that, although some of the nighttime counters may be persons who work in the polls during the day, they may also be drawn from other sources.

Hearing Sept. 6 On Land Taking

Sept. 6 is the date set for a public hearing on seizure of the John Noyes property on Lovejoy rd. for a new school.

Town Manager Thomas E. Duff established the date before leaving on his vacation.

A legal requirement compels the hearing, based on the contention that the area is agricultural by use. The law states that land in such an area may not be seized until a hearing is held. The owner may enter evidence at the hearing to show that other, non-agricultural land is available for the municipal purpose.

The 32-acre site was chosen by the School Committee for the proposed new school. The Committee, by majority vote, asked that the Selectmen take the property, which is located in the heart of a growing residential area.

First Football Meeting Tuesday

The first official football practice at Andover High will be held a week from today, starting at 8:45 a.m.

Double sessions will be held that day and Sept. 2, with single practice sessions Saturday. The first intersquad scrimmage will be held Labor Day.

Starting out the season, however, will be a session next Tuesday night a 7 at the High School, when all potential team members will report for a meeting with Coach Dick Collins. Details concerning equipment and other team matters will be handled then, so that time will not be consumed Thursday when practice starts.

Collins said Line Coach Drummond Bissett will be back at that post; Will Hixon will coach the Jayvee team; and Joe Normandy will handle the freshmen.

Other assignments to coaching jobs will be announced later, he indicated.

Sgt. Hickey Ends 26 Years Of Service

WILLIAM R. HICKEY

William R. Hickey - better known to most of Andover as Ray - will wind up 26 years of police work next Wednesday.

Sgt. Hickey, whose tour on the Andover Police Department began back in April, 1934, went on the department when times were tough, in the middle of the depression.

And thus he became, quite by chance, the first man to take an examination for the job.

He recalls that 49 men applied for the one police opening that year - and the Selectmen were ill at ease. How to choose one out of 49?

So they asked the state to prepare (Continued on Page 12)

Board and Selectmen have approved the site.

But when Town Counsel Fredric S. O'Brien began investigating the legal side of the question, he ran into the hearing requirement. Formal land taking papers, drawn up for the Aug. 8 session of the Board of Selectmen, were tabled until the hearing could be held.

Dr. Milton J. Meyers, chairman of the School Committee, said this week that he doubts whether the Sept. 6 date will interfere in any way with the planned School Committee meeting that night.

He pointed out that the School Committee had selected the site, and that all the Committee could do at this point is reaffirm this decision.

TAKING OVER - The Army took over the town a week ago, in a civil affairs exercise that lasted throughout the day. Here, Capt. Clifford Stohrer reads the official proclamation putting the Army in control, while Lt. Lewis Welch, platoon officer, looks on. The "take over" involved interviews with local officials, such as would be conducted under actual conditions. An exercise the following day at Fort Devens involved some actual problems based on data gathered here.

VOTE PAY FOR ELECTION WORKERS

Instead of the usual 10-12 persons on duty during the day, there will be only six per precinct, he stated. This allows four persons to cover the positions, and two men to relieve the others.

It has been predicted that the town may not know how it has voted until the wee hours of the morning, based on the new requirement. It has normally been the middle of the evening when all precincts have reported in.

During the discussion Monday night, it was explained by one or two Board members that poll workers have said they do not want to work the additional time at night, unless the pay increases. The hourly rate, based on 12 hours for a flat $17 is insufficient, the Board agreed, when seeking to attract competent personnel.

Colonial-Modern Design For Church

A colonial-modern design has been chosen for the new Catholic church in West Andover, according to plans submitted to Building Inspector Ernest N. Hall.

He issued a building permit for the church and rectory, at an estimated total construction cost of $300,000. The church is estimated to cost $260,000.

The plans indicate it will be a one floor and basement structure. The roof will be wooden, supported by arched trusses, and will have a pink granite front. An anodized aluminum, gold engraved, cross will be placed in this front.

The front portion of the church will be of grey brick, there will be granite steps and a fieldstone wall on the sides of the entrance.

The building will be 172 x 70. A semi-circular driveway leads to the church and an ample parking area is allowed. Some of the trees on the property will be retained as part of the landscaping.

The plans for the rectory call for a two-story and basement structure, at an estimated cost of $40,000.

On the first floor will be two offices, a reception room, living room, dining room, kitchen and bedroom. The second floor will include the pastor's study, three bedrooms, a guest room, common room and two studies. A laundry, garage, equipment room and an area for filing and records will be in the basement.

Enjoyed Tour Through Europe

Mr. and Mrs. William Stewart of High Plain rd. and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Nadeau of High st., who recently returned from a month's tour of Europe and the British Isles, are still talking about the pleasure of the trip.

Flying from New York, they landed in Amsterdam; flew to Rome where they spent a few days; then to Naples, where they enjoyed a motor coach tour of Pompeii, Amalfi and Sorrento. From Munich, they went to Lucerne, leaving there for a tour that took them to see the famed Passion Play.

Sightseeing in Paris was followed by a flight to London, and then they visited Glasgow and Edinburgh in Scotland. They also visited Dublin, Cork and Shannon.

While in Scotland, Mr. Stewart visited an aunt, Mrs. Thomas, who lives in Perth, where he was born. Mr. Stewart and Mr. Nadeau also spent an interesting afternoon in Andover, England, where they were entertained by municipal officials.

POSSUM MAKES GOOD PET

automatically curls around the finger in a strong grasp.

The monkey part isn't hard to see, either.

For the small animal is nimble in trees; it holds its food in its front feet to eat; and its agility is remarkably like the monkey.

Florence - "I'm better known as Florrie" she commented - saw the tiny animal as it crossed a street in Washington, D. C., where she was visiting her cousin, Patty Nigon.

"We thought it was a rat, at first", she explained, "but then decided it wasn't. My cousin didn't want to pick it up, but I did".

The small pet is gentle - "he only bites a little when he gets real disturbed", Florrie claims, "and then he doesn't really bite just holds on".

He likes to climb up on his young mistress's shoulders, and occasionally ride on her head.

Seems that young possum normally ride around on their mother's back, clinging to her fur. So she's right at home in the head-riding act.

The possum even had a ride on the Duguid's dog - much to the apparent disgust of the dog and uneasiness of the possum.

Small - it's just a handful at this stage in its growth - the possum eats practically anything. Table scraps, insects, anything it's offered. "It even likes squash", Florrie laughed. For the sake of variety, the possum is let outdoors occasionally to get insects from the lawn. "It never runs off", Florrie said, "even though we don't have a leash on it". She thinks, though, that when the possum gets to be its full size - about that of a big cat - she'd better have a leash handy.

Neat and clean around the house, the possum is basically grey, but has longer white hair growing over the base coat. Soft as a kitten's fur around the head, the fur on the rest of its body is somewhat coarser.

Basically nocturnal, the possum stays in a cage when he's not riding around on Florrie's shoulder.

"I'm going to keep it as long as I can", she asserted, "but if it gets to be too much care, or if it doesn't thrive as it gets older, we'll give it to a zoo or something".

School Registration Late This Month

Registration of children who are to enter the Central Elementary, Stowe, and Jackson Schools will take place in the Central Elementary School Office Aug. 29, 30, 31 and Sept. 1 from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. and 1:30 to 3 p.m.

This registration is for children who are new to the system and who reside in the Central Elementary School District; this includes any new sixth grade pupils who would ordinarily attend the West Elementary School, but who will attend the Stowe School this year to help relieve the overcrowded situation at the West School.

All new kindergartners and first graders should present birth certificates when they register. Kindergarten parents of children in the Central district are requested to call the school office if there are any questions as to morning or afternoon assignments.

EDITORIAL THOUGHTS

Better Pay

Excellent judgment has been used by Town Clerk George Winslow, the six precinct wardens and the Selectmen, in recommending a new rate of pay for after-hours counting of ballots.

The rate, $3 hourly, must of course be established by the town manager. But in his absence on vacation, the Selectmen went on record as favoring the proposal, with the understanding that the manager will be contacted to confirm it.

Now that the town is compelled to count all its ballots after the polls close at 7 p.m., we are faced with a long night of work. Few men — and Andover uses only the male of the species at the polls — want to work from 7 to midnight or after, specially at a reduced rate of pay.

The flat rate for 12 hours at the polls during the day is $17. If this is used as a criteria, the nighttime rate would be so low that few men would put in the time.

Thus, although it is a departure from past practices, the idea of paying a premium rate of $3 an hour for the length of time it takes to count the ballots is a good one. It should make it possible to get competent help, who can do the job swiftly and accurately.

Brook Fiasco

Rogers Brook — that old thorn in the town's side — is still as much of a goad as ever.

Seems that town and state officials can't even get together for a meeting to discuss the next steps in getting this vast reconstruction project underway.

The Division of Waterways is apparently dragging its heels in setting up this meeting, although a letter has been in its files for weeks from the town urging that this be done immediately.

As far as can be learned, the engineering has been completed and the work on lining up the easements has been done. All that remains is to iron out procedure, and then advertise the bids.

We suspect that this might be true of the state — in fact it appears that the state, unless jabbed and goaded into action, will let it die. This must not be allowed to happen, if it can be prevented by the municipality, using every possible pressure on the responsible state officials.

Is this such a difficult task?

Is our present state government geared to such a slow pace that it can not possibly move with greater speed?

There are many persons who are willing to bet that the project never gets done — that neither the town nor the state actually wants to do it, although both have gone through the motions of preparing for it.

You Should Hear The Facts

A public hearing will be held Sept. 6, at 8:30, in the conference room at town hall on the proposed seizure of the Noyes property on Lovejoy rd.

The land is the suggested site for a new elementary school. But under the law, land that is classified as agricultural may not be seized without first giving the owner a chance to state why this should not happen.

There appears to be some controversy about the selection of this site, and the rather drastic steps of eminent domain that are required if the town is to secure it.

The hearing should produce interesting facts upon which reasonable townspeople can base an opinion on this subject.

And of course, one of the most vital pieces of information that can be provided is whether this is the only site available to meet the School Committee's specifications as to location of the new school.

We suggest that any interested resident make plans now to attend the hearing, so that facts presented by both sides in this issue can be aired before as many residents as possible.

Down the Years with The Townsman

50 Years Ago — August, 1910

A goodly number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Curtis, as well as alumni and undergraduates of Pynchard, gathered in the school hall Friday evening on the occasion of a farewell reception tendered to the retiring principal.

An important meeting of the Abbot Village Coal Society will be held in the Abbot Village hall Tuesday evening at 8:30.

The Boston and Northern Street Railway has a large force of men at work re-laying the tracks from Chapel ave. to Porter rd.

While cleaning the bricks taken from the block which has been torn down in the Square, one of the workmen found a cent bearing the date of 1775. The cent was imbedded in the brick and was undoubtedly placed there by one of the workmen who erected the building.

The Ballardvale Independency Drum Corps received second prize for marching, playing and general appearance at the grand AOH parade in Lowell Wednesday.

25 Years Ago — August, 1935

The special town meeting that had been urged by PWA officials for mid-September can not be held until late in October, because that agency has not yet given its approval to specifications for the furnishings and equipment of the new school plant.

An enrollment of 466 — an increase of 18 over last year and the highest in history — has been reported at Pynchard.

A new sidewalk project is about to start, under which homeowners can get a sidewalk installed for much less than would be paid normally. The resident pays only for materials, the town pays for hauling, and for the sand and gravel. The PWA pays for the labor. A sidewalk costing $80 normally will be available to the homeowner for $24.50.

Sgt. Len Saunders and Officer Carl Stevens showed the town how to "cow a bull" Monday night. The bull had escaped and was standing in the Reading road so that no one dared drive past. A state policeman tried to rope the animal and failed. The local officers first tried to grab the ring in the bull's nose, but found out how close his horns are to his nose. Then they went to a nearby farm, borrowed a cow, and the bull meekly followed the cow back to the barn.

10 Years Ago — August, 1950

A special town meeting will be held late in October, with the voters being asked to appropriate some one million dollars for two new elementary schools. One, in West Andover, will be six-classroom size. The other is planned to be of 18-classrooms, located in the center of town. The School Committee approved preliminary plans for the two schools, as submitted through the building committee.

Many residents of Ballardvale appeared before the Selectmen Monday night to protest the lowering of the water level at the dam, resulting in the exposure of mud flats along the river. The Selectmen advised the group that repairs are being made to the dam, at the insistence of the county engineers, and the water will be returned to normal height as soon as possible. They assured the Ballardvale residents that the height will even be increased if this is possible.

Some 2.42 inches of rain fell here during a 24-hour period last weekend. The water was a boon to gardeners, and the acute danger of forest fires was eased considerably.

There have been many chilly mornings this August, but last Tuesday at 6 a.m. residents were startled to find the thermometer at 45 degrees. By 8 o'clock, however, the temperature was back up in the 60's.

Scores of residents have registered to vote in time for the September primaries.

The Andover hand tub won first place in Class B competition at a muster in Essex last Saturday. The tub is now being called the "Brad Lewis" after its donor.

Susie Meets Karen; Result: A Verse

It was one of those coincidences that is almost commonplace in the Army.

But in order to tell it, we first have to explain that "Susie" of "Susie's Sonnets", a regular feature of this paper, is a reserve officer in the Women's Army Corps and is at present on two weeks' active duty for training at the U.S. WAC Training Center.

Susie was auditing the orientation being given by the "brass" of Fort McClellan to the newly arrived group of college juniors who are attending a four week's training program at the Center. Inevitably, the Post Commander asked: "How many of you young ladies are from New England?" One of the cadets raised her hand.

At a coffee which followed the orientation, "Susie" made a point of meeting the New Englander. She proved to be Miss Karen Trot, 398 North Main st., Shawshen Village. Miss Trot, who attended Pynchard High School 1953-'56, is now at Smith College, majoring in government. She is the daughter of Mrs. Ruth B. Trot.

Karen, who signed up for College Junior Program at Springfield, explained to Susie that she wished to experience WAC training in order that she might see for herself the functioning of the Women's Army Corps. Susie, inevitably, reduced the meeting to a verse.

"If you don't like this Vignette, Blame Karen, the Cadet."

"Encyclopedia Dictionary of Electronics and Nuclear Engineering", edited by Robert I. Sarnbacher.

Designed for scientists, technicians and students often working together in the related fields of electronics and nuclear engineering, this work includes current terms and definitions as well as hundreds of diagrams.

"Encyclopedia of Chemical Technology", in fifteen volumes and one supplement, edited by Raymond E. Kirk and Donald F. Othmer. This work is designed to present the entire field of chemical technology for professional chemists and chemical engineers who may wish to know the methods employed in a special field, often outside of their immediate experience. Some idea of the coverage of this work can be gained from the following brief listing: Automation, Coatings (Industrial), crystallization, cosmetics, detergents, dairy products, dyes, fertilizers, ethylene amines, new patent laws, metal plating, printing inks, rosin and rosin compounds, rubber compounding, rocket propellants, thermochemistry, textile fibres, vinyl compounds.

"Directory of New England Manufactures", the 1961 edition published with the editorial cooperation of the New England Council. Certainly one of the ten reference books most frequently consulted in the Memorial Hall Library. Manufacturers are listed alphabetically with address, location of branch plants, officers, product, number of employees. There is also a listing geographically and by product.

Fiction Of The Fifties

No two people would select exactly the same list of outstanding novels of the 1950's, although, undoubtedly, there would be some titles which would appear on all lists. The following selection was made by a group of librarians in the New York Public Library and seemed interesting enough to bring to the attention of Andover readers: The Long Ships, Bengtsson - a Viking saga - The Horse's Mouth, Gary - a portrait of an artist; Advise and Consent, Drury - the Washington political scene - Knight With Armour, Duggan, by a master of Historical fiction; Justine, Durrell - one of a series of three novels about ancient Alexandria - Invisible Man, Ellison - by an outstanding American Negro writer; The Roots of Heaven, Gary - a symbolic novel with French Equatorial Africa as a setting - Warlock, Hall - our Southwest in the 80's; The Old Man and the Sea, Hemingway - a modern fable of old age and courage; Home from the Hill, Humphrey - a stark novel of the South; Jefferson Seleck, Jonas - a mid-western businessman, in illness, recalls his past life; The Greek Passion, Kazantzakes - a parable by the foremost writer of modern Greece; Bless This House, Lofts - a Suffolk house and of the generations who lived in it; Nectar In a Sieve, Markandaya - a vivid picture of Indian village life; The Cruel Sea, Monsarrat - about convoy duty during the Battle of the North Atlantic - Doctor Zhivago, Pasternak - a Russian novel of panoramic scope - The Man On a Donkey, Prescott - the turbulent period of 16th century England brilliantly recreated; The Last of the Wine, Renault - ancient Greece in the time of Socrates; O Beulah Land, Settle - a pioneer novel of late 18th century America; On the Beach, Shute - a world destroyed by atomic warfare; East of Eden, Steinbeck - a chronicle of two American families; The Makdoka Sisters, Tanizaki - the impact of change on Japanese family life; Amelie in Love, Troyat - about a French family during and after World War I; The Ponder Heart, Welty, one of our better American novelists writes about a Southern character, Uncle Daniel Ponder; The Devil's Advocate, West - a subtle study in the meaning of goodness; The Tree of Man, White - about an Australian Bush farm family - The Caine Mutiny, Wouk - Life aboard a South Pacific mine sweeper in World War II; Memoirs of Hadrian, Yourcenar - a marvelous reconstruction of the "world and career" of the Roman Emperor, Hadrian.

Scottish Memorial Service At Cathedral Of The Pines

REV. J. ALLYN BRADFORD

On Sunday, August 28th, the Rev. J. Allyn Bradford will preach at the Scottish Memorial Service, at the Cathedral of the Pines in Rindge, N. H. The service will be held at 3 p.m.

Arrangements for the service have been made by George Keith with the cooperation of clans in this area. The Free Church Choir will sing, under the direction of Donald Amy. The Clan MacPherson Band from Lawrence will provide the Bagpipe music.

The Memorial Service is to commemorate those clansmen who have died during the past year. A colorful procession begins the service, as the sound of the pipers slowly emerges from a distance and winds its way up to the altar. The memorial wreath will be presented by Miss Linda Thomson.

Many stones from all parts of the earth have been placed in the altar there, which faces a view of Mount Monadnock.

A stone from the grave of Arthur H. Bradford, Jr., a brother of the minister, is placed in the altar of the Cathedral shrine, in honor of the Bradford family of New England. Mr. Bradford's father, Pastor Emeritus of the Central Congregational Church in Providence, R. I., was the first speaker when the shrine was formed.

Through the efforts of Mr. Keith, a stone has been placed from the ancient abbey at Abroath, Scotland.

The Cathedral of the Pines was founded by Douglas Sloane in memory of his son who was killed in World War II. It was established as a national shrine in 1958.

The following program has been arranged:

Processional, Clan MacPherson

Bagpipe Band; Call to Worship; Invocation and Lord's Prayer; Hymn, "Now Thank We All Our God"; Anthem, "O God, Our Help In Ages Past"; Croft-Mueller.

Scripture, Old Testament, Psalm 91, New Testament, John 14; Anthem, "How Lovely Is Thy Dwelling Place"; Brahms; Prayer, George Keith.

Presentation of memorial wreath, wreath bearer, Linda Thomson, piper, A. Morris Campbell.

Hymn, "Still, Still with Thee"; sermon, "Worth Remembering"; The Rev. J. Allyn Bradford; hymn "The Lord's My Shepherd"; Benediction.

The Bagpipe Band will offer several selections near Hilltop House immediately following the service.

LEFT ESTATE TO CHILDREN

The five children of Mrs. Irene W. Cole of Andover were left her property, according to her will filed in the Registry of Probate. The value of the estate was not given.

Mrs. Cole said that the bequest was being made with the expectation that the property would be distributed in accordance with suggestions she made to her son. The residue of the estate is to be shared by the five children.

They are Ralph K. Cole, 15 Mar- ion ave., Ada C. Brown, 115 Elm st., Sarah L. Lewis, 183 Lowell st., all of Andover; Irene C. Smith, Dave Gillespie, Jim Walker, Tom Daley, Arthur Jowett and Frank McBride. Len Saunders was the sergeant, and George Dane, chief. The appointing authority - the Selectmen - were Chairman Frank Hardy, Dr. Jeremiah Daly and Howell Shepherd.

Sgt. Hickey recalls with a grin that the pay was a bountiful $29.70 weekly, with a boost of a dollar a week each year for five years.

Before he reached that maximum, however, Hickey was promoted to sergeant in 1937. The pay jumped up to $42.50.

That may have been good pay in those days, but the disadvantages were there too - no time off for working overtime, and no pay for overtime either. The men worked an eight-hour day, with one day off in seven.

And working conditions varied somewhat from today.

Take the radio for example. Sgt. Hickey described it as "one-way radio" - a receiver in the single cruiser, that could receive state police broadcasts.

Thus, if the station wanted to contact the cruiser, the desk man called the state police, who telephoned to Framingham, where the state police dispatcher was. He, in turn, put out the message for the Andover officer in the cruiser to call the station on the telephone.

Pressed to recall the most important case he ever worked on, Hickey commented "I've seen about anything that comes in the line of police work. Nothing stands out specially. I've worked through hurricanes, floods, with accidents and all sorts of breaks and other cases".

But he did remember one specially amusing case that happened years ago. Seems Hickey surprised some boys in a house in Ballardvale, while making his rounds as the Ballardvale officer. After flushing the lads out, Hickey took out after one of them, who ran into the woods. He fired in the air once, then a second time.

And when he reached the lad in the woods, he was laying on the ground moaning that he was shot. Hickey knew better, but couldn't convince the young man.

Seems his toe stubbed on a root the precise moment that Hickey fired his revolver, and he "just knew" he'd been shot.

Over the years, Sgt. Hickey has seen the department grow to a force of 28 men; has witnessed many improvements in communications and in police work itself.

But would he do it again? "No" is the firm answer.

"I wouldn't recommend a lifetime in the police department", he asserted.

"The public is too demanding - they're so quick to knock you down and kick you, too. You have to go begging for equipment, and the public says 'You're a public servant and I help pay your salary.

You have to do what I say", Sgt. Hickey explained.

"No, I'd never pick it out, again", he stated.

One big improvement that could be made, to make the Andover department better, Hickey suggested, is to increase the pay.

"Improve the pay scale", he said as a bit of final advice to the residents, "so the men won't have to do other jobs. Then they can spend all their energy on police work. No man can do two jobs well".

BOARD HEARD CLUB PETITION

Robert Zollner wanted details of the Club's financial standing and the corporate structure.

It was explained that Country Club Developers is a separate corporation concerned with this specific site, and that this corporation will own the 202 acres of land involved. Some has been purchased, the rest is being leased from the owners under agreement to buy it in a stated period of years.

The Indian Ridge Country Club corporation will lease the land from the Development corporation.

A third corporate entity, the Indian Ridge Management corporation will be hired by the Country Club corporation to manage the business.

Mr. Rogers said he estimates the cost of the completed project as $1,100,000. He told the Board that there has been no pre-set number of memberships that must be sold prior to starting construction, and said equipment will go to work as soon as a permit is issued.

Mr. Simmers said there are now 300 members, and that the maximum membership is between 800-1,000.

The parking area will hold about 350 cars, it was stated, and this would presumably be the maximum that would be using Lovejoy rd. at any specific time as a means of getting to the club. Mr. Rogers pointed out that the maximum usage would in all probability be at night, when the extra traffic would not be harmful to youngsters in any way. He also told the audience that access to the property from Lowell st. or Dascomb rd. is impractical because golfers would have to cross the road several times if the course is laid out around the road.

The residents' objections centered on traffic, and the narrow conditions of the streets. They noted that there are no sidewalks for the children to use.

Chairman Alfred Fuller pointed out that traffic becomes a key issue at almost every hearing the Board holds, and he noted that growth in a town automatically creates extra traffic.

He reminded the group that the key issue before the Appeals Board is: does the plan for the Country Club adversely affect the neighborhood? Traffic is a consideration, he agreed, but not the key issue. The Board noted that it has letters from the fire and police chiefs approving, from the standpoints of their departments, the use of the area for a country club.

As usual, the Appeals Board did not decide the issue but took it under advisement for study and a detailed examination of the plans and the area involved.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Johnson and Arthur have returned from an automobile trip to Kentucky. They spent several days at Cumberland Falls.

Pee Wee League Meets Tonight

Specific plans will be discussed tonight, when interested citizens gather to get the Pee Wee football league underway.

All men in the community with an interest in this activity are invited to meet at the Youth Center at 8 p.m.

President of the organization is Joe Sweeney. Other officers include George Connors, vice president; Ted Nowell, secretary-treasurer; and Jim Christie, publicity.

As a general definition of the age group eligible to join, the committee has stated that boys who were born prior to Jan. 1, 1947, are not eligible. Seventh graders who weigh over 120 pounds are not eligible either.

It was explained that the age group compares generally with Little League, but attempts are being made not to deprive any youngster of the chance to play ball. Some seventh graders, who can not make the team there, thus will be allowed to enter the Pee Wee League.

According to High School Football Coach Dick Collins, all the boys who show an interest in the league, and who make the teams, will be equipped and properly inured. Coaches have not been selected yet, but those chosen will have experience in, and knowledge of the game.

Registrations for the boys will be held Saturday, Sept. 10, from 9-12 at the Youth Center, and again from 5-7 p.m. Sept. 12. Collins said the idea of Pee Wee football has been received enthusiastically, both among the men attending meetings and the boys he has talked to about it.

He explained that it seems much better to teach the boys how to play the game, with proper equipment, than to have them out playing among themselves, without proper instruction.

Although there is no indication yet of the number of boys interested, Collins said some members of the league feel that at least 100 and possibly many more will register.
