New Orchestra Begun Here

Andover has become the focal point for a new Merrimack Valley Philharmonic orchestra, which is now rehearsing Monday nights at Phillips Academy.

Musicians are being drawn from all over the Valley, and from areas nearer Boston.

And a prominent group of advisors is serving the new orchestra. Members of this group include Prof. Rosario Mazzeo, personnel manager of the Boston Symphony Orchestra; Prof. Giuseppe deLellis, Dean Academy, Franklin; and Roland Tapely, conductor of the North Shore Philharmonic orchestra and first violinist with the Boston Symphony.

Other members include William B. Clift, chairman of the music department at Phillips and his colleagues, William Schneider,

Preliminary Town Budget Is Presented To Selectmen

Cinema Classics Will Continue

Cinema Classics, under the sponsorship of the Andover Recreation Council, presents the second of a series of superior foreign films at the Andover Junior High School Auditorium, 36 Bartlett st., Dec. 2 at 8 p.m.

The highly acclaimed Russian film "Ballad of a Soldier" is the second selection. Called "the best Russian movie made since World War II" by Time Magazine, it is part of the present United States-USSR cultural exchange.

"Ballad of a Soldier" is a lyrical, warmly drawn and sensitive portrayal of a young Russian soldier on a brief leave from the battlefield during the second World War. A good part of the film unfolds aboard a civilian train as it

The town manager's preliminary budget totals for the new year - as yet completely tentative - indicate a healthy jump in appropriations will be requested at town meeting.

Manager Thomas E. Duff has submitted departmental figures totalling $1,970,352 - an increase of slightly more than $100,000 over 1961 appropriations.

The School Department budget also in its preliminary stages, has swelled to $1,633,423 - or approximately $170,000 more than was appropriated in 1961.

In submitting the figures to the Selectmen Monday night - in absentia because he's attending a convention in Florida - Mr. Duff estimated that the grand total of appropriations may reach $3,759,825, including county and state assessments and money for the reserve fund. This would be about $300,000 more than the year before.

However, the Selectmen agreed with the manager's written com-

Vote New Schedule For Faculty Salaries

STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS IS ONE YEAR ON LAND

Since writing last week's story on Route 495 land takings, it has come to our attention that the statute of limitations runs for only one year on land seized by the state.

Thus, a property owner must satisfactorily reach agreement with the state prior to one year after the land taking, or have entered a legal action.

If this is not done, the state may then pay whatever it wishes, and the property owner has no recourse.

Some of the Route 495 land was taken last December, and many of these property owners have never received an offer from the state. It appears that they will be forced to take whatever the state offers, unless agreement is reached or legal action started prior to the anniversary date of the takings.

A basic salary schedule for teachers, starting at $4,300 and climbing to $6,800 has been approved by the School Committee.

Meeting well into Wednesday morning, the Committee hammered out its basic schedule after discussion seven different proposals submitted by groups and individuals.

The final decision, can most accurately be titled the "Sullivan Plan", although his proposals were not entirely approved by the Committee.

The new schedule, beginning with $4,300 instead of the existing $4,200, includes allowance for a merit raise of $500 on top of the basic pay.

No action was taken on the administrators' salary plan, after nearly five hours of discussion on the teachers' schedule.

On adoption of the basic plan, the Committee also approved the "tracks" proposed by a sub-com-

May Delay Renewal Plan

It appears likely that urban renewal plans for the downtown area will be presented at a special town meeting next spring.

At least, according to Housing Authority Chairman David MacDonald Jr., there is little chance that the plans will come before the voters at the annual meeting in March.

The delay of a month or two would be occasioned by the necessity of receiving complete clearance from the federal agencies dealing with urban renewal, before presenting complete cost figures to the town. The plans, which have been at the government's New York office for many weeks, probably will not be returned here with approval for a number of weeks.

Mr. MacDonald said it is his opinion that there will be insufficient time, at that point, to fully acquaint the voters with all of the financial data.

Mr. MacDonald said there has

Nearly Tied Can To Merit Plan

Andover's much-debated, and thoroughly controversial merit plan almost went out the window Tuesday night.

Superintendent Edward I. Erickson first suggested to the School Committee that the plan be halted, and the payments already in effect be absorbed into the teachers' salaries.

He did so in an effort to boost the basic schedule, recalling that the original study committee which suggested merit also recommended that a good basic schedule come first.

Dr. Milton J. Meyers, a long-time proponent of the plan, surprisingly agreed, stating that he believes the plan is not working properly here.

He pointed to the awarding of merit to 65 to 68 teachers applying

ELECTRICITY DOES SO MUCH... COSTS SO LITTLE

$8,300.

Actually, there is a $300 differential between Bachelor's, Master's, Master's plus 30 and Doctor's tracks.

Supt. of Schools Edward I. Erickson and Mr. Sullivan, doing some quick mathematics, estimate the cost of the new schedule at $35,472 for 1962 - this being four-tenths of the annual cost. The full-year cost would be $87,690 on this basis. This does not represent a final tabulation of costs, and it appeared that the figure might go higher when all teachers are placed on the proper step in the various "tracks".

Included in the School Committee's action Tuesday night was adoption of the study increment plan - which provides for more pay for academic achievement within the teacher's field of concentration.

Also approved was a motion that will limit the amount any teacher may receive in the first year to $500. Some, now at the $6,200 maximum, can thus move up to $6,700 - but fall $100 short of the maximum now adopted.

Others, moving from the basic scale to the various tracks above it, will also be limited to the $500, even though they may actually be placed on a schedule step that calls for more money. The balance is to be added the following year.

Merit payments remain as an additional amount, super-imposed on the schedule.

The basic schedule as adopted takes $200 steps for three years - jumps $300 in the fourth year, when tenure is attained - then moves up by $200 for two more years. If the study increment is granted at that level, the next step is worth $300, bringing the teacher to $5,700. The next three steps are valued at $200 and the final increment for the 11th year is a $300 jump.

In addition to the adopted plan, proposed principally by member Sullivan, the Committee talked about the original sub-committee plan, the teachers' Association plan, and plans proposed by Dr. Milton J. Meyers, chairman; Robert McIntyre, Supt. Erickson and William A. Doherty.

Some were at sharp variance, others coincided almost, but not quite, completely. And they ranged from complicated percentage steps and adjustments to a simple across-the-board $500 raise for all.

Each member of the original sub-committee came forward with a plan different from the one they jointly proposed, but explained that this was prompted by the Teachers' Association presentation.

not yet been a decision to actually request that a special meeting be held, but indicated that this would be more desirable than holding the matter over until the annual town meeting of 1963.

In the meantime, the Housing Authority has met for one evening-long session with the Selectmen, and plans a second meeting soon. The Planning Board is also being consulted about the changes in the downtown area, and a meeting of the two boards is coming up in the immediate future.

for it, and said he thinks this is not following the plan, as it calls for merit payments for exceptional teachers.

He didn't point the finger at the teachers at all, instead explained that the evaluating procedures apparently have failed. Dr. Meyers

Dr. Meyers continued his study of merit in theory, just stating that it isn't working here. But when it came to the adoption of a basic schedule, he agreed to "go along", apparently reluctantly, for another year.

Mr. Erickson, whose salary proposals eliminated merit, said he has no reluctance over administering it. Under recent vote of the Committee, teachers are recommended for merit by the superintendent, and need not apply for rating.

Mr. Erickson did not indicate that he strongly favors retaining the system, but also did not protest keeping it.

Dino G. Valz, who attended session as a member of the Teachers' Association, was asked one point how he stands on salary questions.

Mr. Valz said he believed the true merit plan is the "only sensible part" of the salary structure. He said that automatic salary increases based on longevity are "artificial" and stated the belief that longevity doesn't necessarily mean a teacher is improved. He also attacked the payment for additional academic work, wondering whether more education in a field of study makes the teacher better as a teacher.

Member John S. Sullivan vigorously disagreed. He believed that there should be widespread granting of merit to teachers who are doing an average job and better. Only those doing the bare minimum job required to remain in the system would not receive the benefit, he stated.

Then the two men delved into semantics, wondering in turn the other can define merit loosely or so narrowly.

Member William A. Doherty was "astonished" to find himself and the chairman agreeing on merit - indicating that he has been against it since a few months the plan was adopted.

Mrs. Reta Buchan, agreed with Mr. Sullivan that merit has not had time to work out properly, and that the theory can be made to work if sufficient time and effort are given to it.

Hart Leavitt and DeWitt Thornton; Mrs. Miriam McArdle, head of the music department of the Andover public schools; Prof. Joseph Pulvino, music director of the Lawrence public schools; Miss Virginia Klotzle of Bradford, a noted concert pianist; the Rev. Alfred Natale, O.S.A., of St. Augustine's Church, Lawrence; and John Collins of Lawrence, a scientist and lecturer.

The newly-organized orchestra plans to present concerts for residents of the Merrimack Valley, and to organize groups within the many communities, who will assist the orchestra.

Joseph A. Ierardi is directing the orchestra, which already includes many area men and women, prominent in musical circles. Professional musicians who have left the field, good amateurs - actually anyone with the ability to perform with an orchestra of this nature - are invited.

In its statement of purpose, the new orchestra indicates that its primary purpose is "to fulfill its obligation to acquaint the listeners with the masterworks of the standard orchestral literature, particular in this case, where the community is distant from a metropolitan center and the services of a professional symphony orchestra."

Numbered among the supporters of the orchestra are several Andover residents - John Bilello, John Brunell, Kenneth Cossaboom, Jessie Higgins, Robert Lane, Margaret MacInnis, Irene Peront, Barry Rosa, Joan MacInnis and Mrs. John T. O'Neal Jr.

No Parking Request Aired

Every resident of Arundel st. in Shawsheen has agreed to a request for no parking on that street from 8-5.

John Broderick, president of the Shawsheen Village Improvement Society presented a petition to the Selectmen Monday night, and said that 100 percent of the residents are agreed on it.

All of them, he explained, have made arrangements for their own cars to be parked elsewhere during those hours.

He cited the danger caused by traffic on the street, and cited the frequent shuffling around of parked cars to avoid overtime parking.

Mr. Broderick told the Board that youngsters living in homes on the street are not safe under existing conditions.

The Board took the matter under advisement, and promised to confer with town Manager Thomas E. Duff and Police Chief David L. Nicoll.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McGrath of Foster's Pond and family spent the holiday with relatives in Orono, Me.

DR. HAROLD S. COHEN

Dr. Harold S. Cohen of Haverhill, an optometrist with several years of practice in Exeter, N. H., opened an office in the Colonial Center, 166 North Main st.

Dr. Cohen will continue Exeter practice. He is also a member of the staff at Beth Israel Hospital, Boston.

The degree of Bachelor of Science was confirmed by Tufts in 1951 and he graduated cum laude from the Massachusetts College of Optometry. Dr. Cohen served the medical corps, U. S. Navy during World War II.

Married to the former Ronald Markson of Brookline, the couple has three children.

Will Be Paid Twice Monthly

Some town employees, including members of the school department, will be paid twice a month, according to town manager Thomas Duff.

He proposes to start the new system after the first of the year for all salaried personnel. Excepted from the ruling are members of the police and fire departments and those employees working on an hourly rate.

Salaried personnel will receive their pay on the 15th and 30th of the month, in an effort to relieve increasing pressure on the accounting office. Duff explained that the bookkeeping machines available are working to capacity. The twice-a-month schedule will make it possible to operate the accounting department with the same number of employees, he believes.

Duff also is suggesting that the school department look into the possibility of obtaining a new counting machine in connection with the new school under construction in West Andover.

The new system, according to Duff, will call for payment of salaries on the 15th and 30th, this would be varied slightly to allow payment in advance of those dates fall on Saturday, Sunday, or when holidays occur on the dates.

School Committee member J. Sullivan, in connection with the plan, has suggested that teachers be paid for one week in advance and one completed work week they will not be penalized by having to wait longer than the two weeks at the beginning of the school year or during vacation periods.

HOMEMAKER'S TO MEET TUESDAY

The Ballardvale Homemaker Extension Club will meet Tuesday morning, Dec. 5, at 9:30 at the home of Mrs. James Letters Tewksbury st.

Members are asked to bring Christmas "Goodies", samples and recipes. A Christmas "Swap Party" will be held. Members may also bring their macaroni wreaths to work.

EDITORIAL THOUGHTS

Hindsight Is Pleasing

In retrospect, Andover can be proud of the decision to assess all property in the town at 90 percent of market value — as required by the law — because the courts have now acted to enforce provisions of the law.

Some communities — in cases where the use of the property determined the percentage of assessment — now have to change their systems. Perhaps they will not go to 90 percent, as Andover has done, although this is a requirement of the state law. But they will have to disturb their assessing practices under emergency conditions, and many real estate owners will be hurt in the process. For in communities such as Springfield, where the test case originated, business and industrial property has borne more than its share of the tax burden through heavier assessments. Now homeowners will pay more.

We can be content here that there will be no need to suddenly and drastically revise our system. And we have the knowledge that ours complies with the law, as do few in the Commonwealth.

Most Powerful Group

The Board of Appeals, if it was not before, certainly will become the most powerful group in town.

The addition of the truck by-law to the town's long list of by-laws — if approved by town meeting — adds still another duty for the Board of Appeals to perform. They must, under this proposed by-law, give permits or deny them for the parking of trucks over a certain weight and size.

The Board already is involved in zoning variances; it will hear requests by individuals to use their homes for private business; it will act on truck parking; its approval must be sought for various types of construction; in other words — it wields a lot of power.

There is undeniably a tendency to refer matters to that Board, when other Boards want a check on something. It's easy, after all, to write in a provision to refer matters to the Board of Appeals when they can't be accurately described in the by-law, or when further control is required than can be spelled out in the law.

It's not necessarily bad to have the Board do these things — but it does call attention to the authority of the Board and the state requirement that the Board be unanimous in its decision to grant a variance, else turn it down.

We have remarked before that this seems to set up an unusual situation, in that most boards and committees operate on a majority basis. It's far more difficult, sometimes even impossible, to gain a unanimous decision on a matter that tends to be controversial in any way. In such situations, one man, in the minority, can completely block the will of the majority of his Board.

As this Board gets more and more power, we wonder if more attention should not be paid to this provision in the law, to see whether it can or should be changed.

It's Up To The Voters

One of the debatable points about our municipal structure is the insecurity of elected officials when they try to plan for the future.

It is next to impossible, for example, to adopt a financial plan for the next few years with any assurance that it will be retained. For town meeting this year can completely change a plan agreed upon at the same meeting of the year before.

While such action reflects the will of the voters, it is arguable as to its benefit to the town. For there are times when town meeting acts on the basis of sentiment and emotion, not cold fact.

It is also true that the School Committee faces this problem, perhaps more acutely even than the remainder of the town.

The complexion of that Committee can be changed at one election so completely that existing plans and policies might very well be drastically curtailed or eliminated.

This is one of the difficulties faced by that Committee when considering a salary schedule for teachers. It can be changed by the Committee at any time. Thus when one considers the proposal now before the Committee, there is always the danger lurking in the background that the policy and schedule may be changed — perhaps even before it gets to town meeting at all.

Suppose, for example, that the two members of the Board who face re-election in 1962 are not elected, or decide not to run again. Two new members might persuade some one other member of the Board to make wholesale changes between election and town meeting time.

This is a continuing problem faced by our town government — and one for which we don't see an available answer.

The only solution at this point is to depend on the voters at town meeting to act sensibly, according to the facts, and within the frame of reference established over the years. The voters should not let themselves be talked into changing established goals, unless sufficient evidence is presented that warrants change.

In our type of town government, the voters are really supreme, and must be depended upon to exercise the best judgment they can muster.

Christmas Giving

If you are one of the thoughtful shoppers who give books to their friends and families at Christmas, be sure to pick up your copy of the December sampler, now ready at the library. It lists all books displayed during Book Week in the main reading room. A separate listing has been made this year for the teen to twenty age group, all titles shown in the teen age exhibit during Book Week.

Parents wishing help in choosing the right book for each child may wish to speak to Miss Lane, Children's librarian, who has an inclusive display for all age groups below the ninth grade level, down to the picture book pre-school books. Remember, with children a book is a long-term gift, as most children read and re-read their favorites for years.

New Day For Story Hour

All parents and boys and girls are asked to take note of the change in the library story hours from Tuesday to Thursday afternoons, from 3:35 to 4:20 p.m. unless otherwise noted. The first of the Thursday story hours is to be on November 30, called "Pioneer Days." Among the stories which the young people will hear are "The Hide-a-ride", "Bears On Hemlock Mountain" and "The Wild Scheme".

December 7 the Christmas stories will begin to appear in each program. "The Feast Of St. Nicholas", as this program is titled, will include such stories as "How The Good Gifts Were Used By Two", "Huck-A-Buck Family" and "Slip Foot."

All good listeners are cordially invited to attend the story hours.

Robins To Meet

The Robins group of Littlest Listeners will meet at the library Wednesday morning, Dec. 6, at 10 o'clock for their usual story hour.

While the children are enjoying their stories, mothers will meet in the nearby room to see a film on child development, "The Frustrating Fours and the Fascinating Fives". This is a 20 minute film that illustrates the deviations from childish helplessness to self-assertion, from imaginative craftsmanship to inconsistent destructiveness which characterize the child of four to five.

Any mother in the community who is interested in the changes that take place in the formative years of a child's life is cordially invited to join the mothers.

November Birthdays

Louisa May Alcott and Samuel Clemens, better known as Mark Twain, were both born in the month of November, she on the 29th, in 1832, and he on the 30th, 1835. Best known for her "Little Women", other books by Louisa have held the attention of young readers through the years — "Little Men", "An Old-Fashioned Girl", "Eight Cousins" and its sequel "Rose In Bloom"; "Jo's Boys", a sequel to "Little Men"; "Aunt Jo's Scrap Bag" and "Under the Lilacs". Less well known, probably, are her "Flower Fables"; "Hospital Sketches"; "Silver Pitchers"; "Work"; "Lulu's Library" and "A Garland For Girls", to name a few.

Clemens needs no introduction to readers young or old. His "Adventures of Tom Sawyer" and "Huckleberry Finn" are beyond being merely enjoyable books, and are classics of the period. As Mark Twain their author has been called a genius, and America's greatest humorist, yet in his "A Yankee In King Arthur's Court" and "The Prince and the Pauper" there is a deeper note than the evident humor. Readers who have enjoyed "Innocents Abroad" and "Life On The Mississippi" and "Joan Of Arc", by Clemens, find that beneath the lightness there was sensitivity, affection and keen perception in the man who created the famous team of Tom and Huck.

Littlest Listeners

The Ballardvale pre-school group will meet Thursday, Dec. 7, at 10 a.m.

Down the Years with The Townsman

50 Years Ago — November, 1911

Henry D. Bodwell and L. L. Sherman are enjoying a trip in the lake region of Connecticut.

Frederick Boutwell of the Andover Savings Bank is attending a bankers' convention in New Orleans.

The 25th anniversary of the Christian Endeavor Society of the South Church was observed last Sunday night, but there were no plans for a formal program.

Charles F. Emerson has moved from Summer st. to P. J. Hannon's house on Florence st.

Scott and Bayrd's Original Two-Man Minstrel show will entertain at the 40th annual ball of the Andover Steam Fire Engine Co. in town hall.

Collins was the star of Punched's 8-0 victory over Exeter last Saturday, with the local high school winding up with an undefeated season. At the opening of the second period, Collins rushed through the Exeter captain's position and scored. In the third period he kicked a field goal.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gough have returned to Andover after several months' residence in Saugus, and are now living on North Main st.

25 Years Ago — November, 1936

The question of restoring the town employees' pay cut is likely to come up at town meeting next March, based on many wage increases now being granted by industry. The employees took the cut several years ago. The Finance Committee has asked all department heads to submit estimates of the cost of granting increases.

Six Punched High students have been selected to enter the annual Goldsmith Prize Speaking contest. They are, seniors, Helen Harkin and Frank Whiting; juniors, Virginia Batcheller and Robert Bisset; sophomores, Marjorie Higgins and Roger Davidoff.

Roland Trauschke has been elected master of Andover Grange, during a meeting last Thursday night.

The new community organization in Shawheen drew many people to its open house at the Richardson School Saturday. There are many suggested uses for the building, which has been abandoned for 12 years. The group will meet soon to come up with specific proposals for the town to consider.

Punched and Johnson held a scoreless "slip-fest" on the holiday morning. The field was so thick with mud that neither team could get a drive underway.

The first snow storm of the season struck last Tuesday but didn't call for plowing. Streets became very slippery, however, and many small accidents were reported.

10 Years Ago — November, 1951

The Thanksgiving Day game was exciting, but disappointing to the dover fans. Johnson took the lead, 14-12, in the closing minutes of the game and hung on for a victory.

Andover scored twice in the second half, and led 17-7 until the waning minutes of the game.

Much favorable comment has been heard about the Christmas lights, the first venture of the newly-organized Board of Trade.

A Lawrence man, father of three children, was killed on River rd. Thanksgiving morning, when his car hit a tree. Police found his body in the back seat, where it was thrown by the impact.

John Adams of Stratford rd. has announced that he will seek the GOP nomination for lieutenant governor.

The Recreation Committee has wound up paying $279.63 for the Halloween celebration, after deducting some $211 in donations.

Christmas Play Saturday Night

The first in a series of Christmas programs at Abbot Academy will take place Saturday evening in Davis Hall at 7:15 o'clock.

The Preparatory Class will present the mediaeval "Coventry Nativity Play." This play is one of the Christmas "Mysteries" which were developed in the 14th and 15th centuries from earlier plays presented in churches. The performance at Abbot will be presented in the round.

Your Friends and Neighbors Like To SHOP CO-OP

Mrs. J. E. Elliot
50 Tolland Road North Andover

Mrs. J. E. Elliot is one of the many hundreds of local home makers who like to shop at the Andover CO-OP. Here is what Mrs. Elliot has to say:

"Shopping CO-OP is really a pleasurable experience! I feel a warm sense of pride in the Andover Consumers' Co-operative "down-to-earth" example of people creating their own business and meeting their challenge of service and competition in their own democratic decisions. Equal to, - if not more than, - the business-like methods of acquiring increased sales volume is the emphasis on maintaining the good-will gained from the personal ownership in such a fine organization as the Andover CO-OP."

The above is one customer's reason for marketing at our store. There are other reasons which appeal to other people.

What are YOU looking for at your source of supply for groceries? Chances are that we have it in abundance.

Little Stories about Great Hymns

We Plow the Fields and Scatter

*We thank Thee, then, O Father,
For all things bright and good,
The seedtime and the harvest,
Our life, our health, our food;
Accept the gifts we offer
For all Thy love imparts,
And, what Thou most desirest
Our humble, thankful hearts.*

Matthias Claudius, when seriously ill, realized the spiritual emptiness of his life, and returned to his childhood faith. He included this hymn in a vivid description of a peasant harvest Thanksgiving.

Too Much Water In Rogers Brook

A few brave men turned out Saturday morning to help clean out Rogers Brook - then went home again because the brook was full of water.

Town department heads were on hand for the day of volunteer activity, but waited only long enough to be certain that any other volunteers were informed that the project was off.

The snow and rain last week had filled the brook to a point where nothing could be accomplished in the way of cleaning out the debris.

Mason Arnold, whose idea the project was, said it will be tried again next summer, when the brook is normally dry.

Blue Devils Took N. A., 24-0

Andover High's Blue Devils walked away from the Thanksgiving game with the Little Three championship, and retrieved the original Suburban Boosters Football trophy.

By a score of 24-0, the Blue Devils trounced North Andover, who threatened only twice during the game.

The Suburban Boosters trophy has now been won twice by one of the Little Three teams, the first being donated for the first time in 1956. It will be retired at the end of the year by the team that wins the annual competition.

The Thanksgiving Day game played before a capacity crowd and in a light drizzle, was highlighted by Andover's long-punt offense. Quarterback Ray Collins connected with end Jim White in two long-gainers, both for 45 yards. He connected with another for 45 yards, with halfback Reynolds.

All three were scoring plays, and fullback Jim Clarke accounted for the other TD, scooting in from the 15.

CINEMA CLASSICS
WILL CONTINUE

crosses a typically Russian landscape; against the background of city and farm a touching and idyllic love story develops between the soldier and a young girl he meets on the train. The camera work in this film has been especially commended for its clean, strong and luminous images; moreover the director has used the camera to pace the tempo of the story with the rhythm of the train. Members of the Cinema Classics committee who have seen Ballad of a Soldier say that it gives a suspenseful, believable and heart rending view of the pathos of life.

To balance this work, a 20-minute French short will be shown, "Paris Week-End".

Cinema Classics has been formed by a group of interested Andover residents, with the object of bringing to the Greater Lawrence area outstanding international films both old and new. Their first two selections are still currently showing in New York. The French comedy, "Four Bags Full" and a short, "The Bespoke Overcoat" will complete the present series. In early 1962 other distinctive films, outstanding documentaries and advanced experimental shorts not shown commercially in this area will be

The committee members, all of whom volunteer their time, are Mrs. Gordon Bensley, Mrs. Herbert Boes, Mrs. Richard Comins, Mrs. James Grew, Gaspar Jako of the International Institute, Mrs. Jack Kyger, Mrs. William McKeown, Mrs. Lester Nowell, Mrs. Robert Richmond, Robert Rockwell of North Andover, Albert Santerre of Lowell, Gerald Shertzer of the Phillips Academy Art Department, Mrs. Ralph Wirtz and Mrs. Sydney Zussman.

At the initial showing, "Ikiru", difficulties with the quality of the film print made for results less than satisfying. The Committee thanks the large audience for their patience and attentiveness that night and wishes to emphasize that the "Ballad of a Soldier" print will be of sharper quality with the English captions easily legible.

Requests for further information may be mailed to Mrs. Richard Comins of Sunset Rock rd.

FIRST FIGURES ON BUDGET

ment that detailed study will be required before anything resembling a finished budget can be prepared. For one thing, the present figures are based on expenditures for only a portion of the year; obviously the 12-month expenditure figures will have a bearing on the final budget tabulation.

Mr. Duff has been quoted as stating that a $2 tax rate increase would be forthcoming, if revenue to the town remains as it has been in 1961.

There is, as yet, no way to tell accurately how much money will be coming into the town's coffers to offset the increased expenditures.

In his report to the Selectmen, Mr. Duff noted that the School Department appropriation takes into account the financial demands of the new elementary school in West Andover.

It is understood that the School Committee's action on the salary schedule will result in an additional sum being added, as the tentative figures now include only the normal increments on the present schedule. The sub-committee studying the schedule has proposed a plan that would result in close to $100,000 additional for salaries.

In making public the tentative budget figures, the Selectmen noted that the charter calls for presentation of the budget in December. They emphasized, however, that a great deal of work will be needed on the departmental requests before the final results can be determined; and it was also explained that there can be no determination of the approximate tax rate until such time as income figures are available.

FESTIVE EVENT FRIDAY - Tomorrow night, at the Andover Country Club, the Lawrence General Hospital Aid Association will stage the annual Camellia Ball. Helping prepare for the event are Mrs. Harold O. Nadler, Mrs. C. X. Larrabee, Mrs. Julius Kay, Mrs. Ralph H. Hill and Mrs. Hugh Morse.

Ratio Schedule Is Requested

The public school administrators - curriculum coordinator, principals, and directors - have requested the School Committee to adopt a percentage, or ratio, salary schedule.

This proposal, the group believes, would maintain an equitable balance between teachers' salaries as they increase on their schedule and the minimum paid to the administrative group.

In making the suggestion, it is explained by the administrators that adoption of such a ratio will keep them on schedule without annual "bartering".

The system proposes that the coordinator be placed at a minimum rating of 1.65 of the teachers' $7,200 maximum. The rating for this position would go up from the minimum to 1.70 then to 1.75.

The high school principal would be rated from 1.55 to 1.65 in three steps; junior high principal from 1.45 to 1.55; elementary school principals in the larger schools, 1.35 in three steps to 1.45; elementary principals in the smaller schools, 1.30 to 1.40; and all directors, 1.25 to 1.35.

Under the plan, then, the administrators' salaries would be that percentage of the $7,200 indicated by their rating.

For example, the coordinator, at $7,200 times 1.65, would receive a minimum of $11,880. Other salaries would increase by the same multiplication process. The group suggests, however, that three annual increments be granted to get the administrators up to their minimum.
