Co-Op Actively Considering Role As Urban Renewal Developer

The Andover Consumer's Co-Operative may be the developer of two commercial areas within the proposed Urban Renewal district. Stockholders of the Co-Op were told about the possibility during their annual meeting Tuesday night. The Selectmen heard about the proposal Monday night, when they agreed to an extension of time until October for the Urban Renewal special town meeting. The Housing Authority proposed the extension of time for two reasons - the Co-Op plans could not be ready for presentation by mid-May when the meeting was originally scheduled; the government has not yet given final approval to the Urban Renewal plans, and little can be done in explaining them until the local authority is certain of the approval.

The Co-Op's planning is as yet very tentative, according to Warren Lewis, one of four members present. The others were Douglas Pitman, Atty Robert Zollner and Dino G. Valz.

At this point, Mr. Lewis said the Co-Op is prepared to spend some money for an independent market analysis, and for some very preliminary plans relating to the layout of stores within the major commercial areas.

If the market analysis coincides with the figures obtained by the Housing Authority, and if other factors check out, then the local cooperative may be ready to take on the development task.

David MacDonald Jr. told the Selectmen that it is legal, and justifiable, for the Authority to negotiate the sale of land with a developer, so that town meet-

At 9 a.m., a recount of votes in the School Committee contest will begin in the town clerk's office, to establish whether Mr. Davey's seven-vote upset winover Mrs. Buchan will stand up.

Three teams will count the ballots in what is expected to be a morning-long affair. Town Clerk Irving O. Piper said he expects to be finished by noon or shortly after.

Historically, Mrs. Buchan's chances of overturning the margin appear slim. Recounts in the past have resulted in changed totals, but not in different winners. Most notable of these was the George

Tax Rate Will Stay At $26

A $26 tax rate seems well assured, following town meeting action last Saturday.

The FinCom had been hopeful that the rate could be held, providing the recommendations were followed.

The only change came when the voters approved another $10,000 for Rogers Brook, an item strongly supported by the Selectmen but disapproved by the Finance Committee.

Included in the budgets this year were raises of four percent for the town employees except school teachers, police and firefighters. The latter two departments received a 4.8 percent increase, and the teachers' raises are mandatory, after adoption by the School Committee. Non-teaching personnel at the schools received approximately the same increase as evening, when several gifts in memory of Mrs. Grace Hadley were presented to the Circle.

At Mrs. Hadley's death in June of last year, it was requested by the family that donations of money be given to the Circle instead of flowers at her funeral, and this amounted to a considerable sum, which was used to purchase a Bible, silver candelabra, and a large lace table cloth for use by the members of the Circle. A committee of three was chosen to buy the memorial, and their choices were fully approved by the gathering when they saw them displayed at the meeting.

The tablecloth was spread on a long table, the Bible in the center and a candelabrum on each side making a very beautiful setting for the dedication exercises. The Bible was handsomely inscribed by Miss Ruth Glennie in old English type, and in the candelabra were purple candles, showing forth the colors of the order, King's purple and silver. Miss Madeleine Hewes gave a loving tribute to Mrs. Hadley, telling of her interest in the Order over the years, and her devoted work for the Circle, and its many objectives.

The meeting was opened with a supper served at 6 o'clock and in spite of the inclement weather about 25 persons attended. The Birthday-Remembrance committee served. The business meeting followed the dedication, devotions being in charge of Mrs. Ernest C. Edmands, whose subject was "Mercy". The secretary's and treasurer's reports were read by Mrs. Charles Cole and Mrs. Howard Johnson, respectively, and were approved. Reports of the various committees were given, and tickets for Mrs. Rudkin's book review April 10 were given out. Other matters of business were talked over and the meeting was turned over to Mrs. Robert Hatton, who spoke on "Handmade Jewelry". Mrs. Hatton had several pieces of lovely jewelry to show, bracelets, rings, pins and necklaces, and samples of the materials of which they were made. She does it as a hobby and the results were fascinating. Mrs. Hatton also carves brooches from wood in the form of leaves and flowers.

Girl Scouts 50 Years Old

Fifty years ago this week, a group of 12 girls met together for the first time at the home of Juliette Gordon Low at her home in Savannah, Ga. This was the birth of the Girl Scouts. Under her guidance and inspiration other troops started and other adults caught her enthusiasm and became leaders. Today there are about three million registered scouts, and about 800,000 adult leaders and helpers. There are troops in every state and foreign countries. This is certainly a marvelous record of growth for the scouts and most deserving of a year-long celebration.

Last Sunday, there was a re-dedication ceremony at the Central Catholic Auditorium, in which all the troops in the Greater Lawrence Council took part. Many troops are having a Birthday party this week to celebrate the Birthday. There will be an Art Festival here in Andover in April. The winning entries from here will be taken to Lawrence to compete in a Council-wide Art Festival in May. Several troops of girl scouts planted daffodil bulbs and yellow tulip bulbs in various places about Andover. Some troops have already planted marigold seeds to be transplanted when weather permits. All these "golden blossoms" are to remind everyone of the golden anniversary of Girl Scouts.

ing can be told about these plans as well as the entire Urban Renewal proposal.

It was explained that the law does not require competitive bidding for the sites; and it was also stressed that Co-Op is the only local group showing an interest in developing the areas.

The matter of price paid for land was also discussed, with the notation that a bidder might go so high in land costs that future rentals would be too high for local merchants.

One of the factors under investigation by the Co-Op group is the willingness of local merchants to take part in the development. They will be welcome, as investors, and as future owners-tenants, it was noted. One of the problems the consultants will tackle for the Co-Op is a survey of how the various local establishments might fit into different kinds of layouts, and how much room there would be for other stores, not now represented in the area.

Stressing that the Co-Op has not made up its mind, Mr. Lewis noted that the plans, if any, will not be available until June or after. If there is subsequent planning, this would most certainly not be available until fall - thus coinciding with the October special meeting requested by the Housing Authority.

The advantages to the town in having local people, whose feeling of responsibility to the town would be far greater than that of out-of-town developers, was pointed out to the Selectmen.

Cinema Classics Movie Friday

Maria Schell is the star of the Austrian prize winning film, "The Last Bridge", which Cinema Classics brings to Andover Junior High School Auditorium this Friday night at 8.

Miss Schell, although a popular star in Hollywood films today, has never achieved here the stature attained in the French "Gervaise" or in "The Last Bridge". These two films, because of their deep humanity, demanded of her a range of expression few actresses are called upon to give, and even more rarely are capable of demonstrating.

Of her performance as a young German doctor captured by Yugoslav partisans and forced to care for their wounded, The New York Herald Tribune wrote: "Such a sensitive performance rarely comes along on the screen"; and the New York Post: "The performance of Maria Schell is a memorable one".

Milton J. Meyers, chairman, memorial gifts committee; Walter N. Webster, chairman, corporation gifts committee, and George E. Goodman, chairman, special gifts committee.

The campaign will open with a Sponsors' Dinner, which will be held Monday, April 2, at 6 p.m. at Freedman's Banquet Hall on Broadway, Lawrence. Andover will be well represented at the event in view of the fact that during the more than 70 years that the Club has been in existence, countless Andover boys have enjoyed and profited from the opportunities that the Club has made available.

The proposed building will have the former O'Sullivan baseball park on Water Street, Lawrence, for its site, and the fund to be raised will provide for the purchase of the land from the City of Lawrence, the construction of the building and the equipment it will house for all boys who may desire to spend their leisure time in wholesome, character building environment.

The new clubhouse, which will accommodate 500 or more boys an hour, will contain a junior high school size gymnasium, a swimming pool designed particularly for swimming instruction (an urgent need in the Greater Lawrence community which the Boys' Club has been unable to meet because of the lack of swimming facilities), a large crafts room, a library, a senior games room, a junior games room, three club rooms and other basic units.

Andover men serving on the Club's board of directors include: Theodore C. Burt, Maurice J. Caplan, Frederick G. Caspar, Leo F. Daley, Phillip F. Danforth, James L. Dean, Walter V. Demers, George L. count three years ago ended with a changed total, but without upsetting Mr. Stewart's close win over Mr. White.

Representing Mrs. Buchanan Saturday morning will be Atty. Robert Zollner, while Atty. Michael T. Batal Jr. will represent Mr. Davey.

Whether or not John S. Sullivan, who was elected by an ample margin March 5, will have representation present is not known. Charles Liponis, who ran fourth in the contest, is also entitled to have representatives at the recount. All candidates have been notified of their rights by the town clerk.

Mr. Piper has explained that if a candidate has three representatives in attendance to check on the ballots as they are counted, the candidate will not be allowed inside the enclosure. However, the candidate may wish to represent himself, and thus be one of the three allowed inside.

The Board of Registrars will serve in a counting capacity, and its members also rule on any contested ballots. They are Eugene A. Zalla, Harry Sellars and Walter F. McDonald. If ballots are further challenged, following a ruling of the Board, they are numbered and marked, and then set aside. Ballots so challenged - in effect, a challenge against the ruling of the Registrars - become the substance of any subsequent court action.

MISS ANDERSON ON DEAN'S LIST

Miss Donna Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Anderson, 21 Linda rd., has been named to the Dean's List at Bay Path Junior College in Longmeadow, where she is a member of the senior class majoring in the medical secretarial course.

Miss Anderson has also been named to Maroon Key, senior honor society at the college.

In Finals Of Speech Festival

Competing in the Massachusetts Speech Festival with students from 12 Eastern Massachusetts high schools, four Andover High students have successfully qualified in the preliminaries, and will enter final competition March 31.

Susan Palmer, Ron Van Dewoestine, Allan Heifetz and Terry Sickler join 25 other finalists, chosen from among 100 contestants.

Their categories are, respectively, serious prose interpretation, group discussion and prose reading.

Each contestant presented his selection three times during the day, and was rated by a different judge each time. To qualify for the finals, a contestant had to rate excellent or superior two of three times; of the five students in the entire festival rated superior twice, four came from Andover.

Mrs. Robert C. Hannigan of the English Department coached the students, and Miss Beatrice L. Stevens, head of the Department, made arrangements for local participation.

School Menu

The public school menu for next week follows:

Monday - Ravioli with meat sauce, buttered wax beans, Italian bread and butter, peach cobbler and milk.

Tuesday - Hamburg and gravy on mashed potato, parsleyed carrots, Vienna bread and butter, cookies and milk.

Wednesday - Fruit juice, tuna links on roll, mustard and relish, cabbage and carrot salad, frosted chocolate cake and milk.

Thursday - Hot turkey barbecue, green peas, potato chips, raisin rice pudding with topping and milk.

Friday - Fish sticks with ketchup or tartar sauce, parsley buttered potato, buttered green beans, bread and butter, cottage pudding, chocolate sauce and milk.

FETED BY FRIENDS

Mrs. William Wood, formerly of Chandler cir., has moved into her new home in Bowie, Md.

Before leaving, she was entertained by many of her friends at the Andover Country Club. She was also given a luncheon by Mrs. Frank Stevenson of Chandler cir.

Luncheon, Hat Show March 19

Spring will be officially launched by Andover Newcomers' Club at a luncheon and hat show to be held Monday afternoon, March 19, at Boston University Conference Center, Osgood Hill, North Andover.

Luncheon will be served at 12:30, following which Mrs. Robert Popiel, president, will conduct a short business meeting.

The highlight of the afternoon will be a display of original hat creations furnished by a local millinery salon. Members of the club who will act as models are Mrs. Allyn B. Stillman, Mrs. Frederic Yunggebauer, Mrs. Janet Danis, Mrs. Doris Underwood, Mrs. Anita Moulton, Mrs. Ann Kneeland, Mrs. Sally Kirsch and Mrs. Julia Bistany.

Mrs. Peter Kattar, program chairman, will act as narrator. Any newcomer to Andover is extended a most cordial invitation to attend this meeting and may obtain further information by calling the honorary chairman, Mrs. H. Allison Morse of Foster cir.

No Word Yet On Appointment

Although it is assumed that Postmaster Stephen A. Boland will retire Thursday as scheduled, there has as yet been no announcement concerning a successor.

It is customary for an acting postmaster to be appointed, usually to take over immediately. But it is also not completely unheard of to leave the post vacant, if there has not been a decision as to the appointee.

The position is normally subject to political endorsement, and is not necessarily a case of promoting strictly from within the department.

TOWN MEETING HONORED MRS. DOHERTY

Mrs. William J. Doherty of Chestnut st. was honored by town meeting last Saturday.

Introducing her to town meeting, Stafford A. Lindsay noted that Mrs. Doherty, at 90, has attended every regular town meeting for 60 years - even before women were entitled to vote - and has not missed voting in an annual election for many, many years. She attended this year's meeting despite having broken both hips in the last two years.

Custom Dictated Moderator's Rule

Custom ruled town meeting Saturday, as far as increasing the amounts specified in special articles is concerned.

Moderator Charles G. Hatch ruled that a motion to increase the garbage collection sum of $25,- 000, to $32,000 and provide combined trash-garbage collection, could not be acted upon. He said custom over many years dictates that no amount can be increased

The Taxpayers Association, which had agreed to offer such an article, did not do so in deference to the anticipated ruling.
But one resident, not a member

Mr. Hatch said he had talked

Town Counsel Fredric S.

ago, that he could find nothing in the statutes or decisions to indicate that this is not legal - but also noted that in most town meetings, it is not done.

3-Vote Victory For Amendment

By the slim margin of three votes, the town's zoning by-law was amended last Saturday to allow municipal uses in the various zones of the community.

A request to recount the tally
- which won because just three more than the required two-thirds was counted - was denied by Moderator Charles G. Hatch, when the request was discussed after a subsequent article.

Taxpayers President Richard Moody asked for the recount, but the moderator ruled that the item could not be discussed because he had already brought up the next article. On conclusion of that article, however, the moderator ruled that too many voters had left the hall, and that a recount would be unfair to them.

The by-law was hotly contested, with the Taxpayers Association leading the fight against adoption.
They feared that too many municipal facilities will be located in various parts of the town, and were particularly fearful that the dump might be moved.

The discussion centered around the latter possibility, although some officials noted that the Board of Health, Selectmen, Finance Committee and the Board of Appeals will all have to give approval.

The final vote was 363 for, 180 opposed. The exact two-thirds would have been 360. By the time the vote had been announced and the Taxpayers had a chance to figure out the mathematics of the situation, the meeting was already engaged in discussing another article.

Insurance Offices

An insurance office building may be located off old River rd., providing an affirmative Board of Appeals decision is obtained.

The variance concerns building the structure closer to an existing dwelling than allowed by the Industrial A requirements, according to Ronald Reader. A legal advertisement concerning --the hearing may be found in this week's issue.

Mr. Reader said the structure is the same one he had hoped to locate at the junction of Routes 133 and 93, on land re-zoned at the 1961 town meeting. However, legal problems concerning the right of way - under control of the state and the Federal Bureau matter.

EDITORIAL THOUGHTS

Delay Justified

Once again the Urban Renewal spokesmen have announced a delay in presenting their report to the voters - the special town meeting is now scheduled for October.

Although the several-times delayed subject is of paramount importance to the community, many persons have been prone to grumble whenever there has been a new timetable suggested, for valid reasons.

Far from being annoyed by the delay, we feel that the Urban Renewal authorities have good reasons to put off their request. It is obvious that, until Washington approves the basic plan, we can not act on it; it is equally obvious that considerable time must be taken in the educational approach to the town. This subject is understood by few, but is misunderstood by many. Only a lengthy program, involving presentation of all of the data contained in the report, will serve to properly inform the voters.

The involvement of the Co-Op in the study, as possible developers, is yet another reason why the delay is advantageous. If that organization determines to present plans for the commercial development of two areas, we should certainly wait and see them before acting on the over-all renewal proposition.

On Your Feet, Men

The question of reconsideration of a vote at town meeting is usually decided negatively - on the grounds that some voters have left the hall, following the original decision. Thus, rules the moderator, reconsideration would be unfair to them.

Last Saturday, the president of the Taxpayers Association asked for a recount - not reconsideration - of the close vote on a zoning amendment.

By the time he had done the necessary mathematics which indicated the closeness of the vote, the meeting had started to discuss the next article. The moderator ruled that any motion to recount the vote must wait until the new discussion was completed - and then ruled that it was too late to recount because some voters had left the hall.

All of this points up the personal authority vested in the moderator, and the need for speedy action when a recount is desired. For as soon as the official vote is announced, the moderator moves on to the next article, and then it is too late.

Apparently anyone thinking that it may be desirable to have a recount should be on his feet even before the vote is announced, and request it hurriedly before the next article can be called.

Such a lesson presumably has been learned, and there will be greater speed shown in the future, when recounts are indicated.

Unanimous Decision

Although much has been written over the years about the extensive authority of the Board of Appeals, apparently some townspeople do not realize that the Board must act unanimously.

Frequent references have been heard about two or three men establishing policy.

This is not the case - all three members of the Board must agree, or the petition is defeated. While this is an unusual power, granted to few boards in the Commonwealth, the Board of Appeals has this authority via the state legislature and specific statutes.

Thus, in Andover, when the Board considers such a thing as the location of a dump, all three members must be in agreement. It seems to us that this is substantial protection for the town - we can not imagine all three members agreeing on any action that would be detrimental to the town.

Keep Alert

We were frankly surprised at the unqualified endorsement given to the Rogers Brook reconstruction project at town meeting.

But now that the voters have acted, the town should move forward promptly to carry out its part of the bargain.

We will continue to keep our fingers crossed, in relation to the town's partnership with the state Division of Waterways. But if municipal officials keep their eyes wide open all the time when dealing with this organization, possibly there will be no insurmountable problems develop.

We hope not.

VERNAL BLUES

Get thee gone! March, with your bluster!
And that storm; (Boy, how we cussed her.)
Let's have no more filibuster
On sweet spring. (But dare we trust her?)

Down the Years with The Townsman

50 Years Ago - March, 1912

Charles Hudon and family removed from High st. this week to Summer st.

William Collins of Pine st. is ill with appendicitis at the Lawrence General Hospital.

Miss Eliza J. Coburn has resigned her position as a teacher at the Indian Ridge School, to go to Passaic N.J., to assume a similar position.

Frank M. Smith, the new highway surveyor, has been busy during the past week thawing out frozen culverts in various parts of the town.

The game of basketball has been abolished at Phillips Academy because of the lack of interest and because players have been compelled to report in the evening, after supper, which has proved to be unhealthful in results.

The heavy rainstorm and thaw Tuesday afternoon and night created havoc in the town streets and for a time Wednesday, had interfered with traffic on the Bay State Street Railway. Most troublesome spot was in Frye Village, at the corner of Lowell and Main sts. Hussey's pond spilled over its banks, and the run-way water joined the stream rushing down Lowell st. into the square. Uptown, water from Summer st. area ran swiftly across the fields and flooded the basement of Frank E. Dodge's barn on Park st. Fire broke out in several barrels of lime stored in the cellar, when they got wet.

J. P. West, the local baker, will open an up-to-date store on Park st. where Buxton and Coleman were formerly located, within two weeks.

25 Years Ago - March, 1937

The town meeting took time out from local business to debate national affairs. Adopted was a resolution to be sent to all Senators and Congressmen, in opposition to the proposed legislation to "pack" the Supreme Court. The resolution noted that this attempt to dominate one branch of the government by another should be defeated.

About 900 voters were at town meeting and they kept the tax rate down, at least to $30 - the same as last year. After the Taxpayers Association put a chart up on the platform indicating what each additional appropriation meant in taxes, the voters were very careful. As soon as the $30 rate was reached, they began voting against article after article in the warrant.

Harold Walker, a guard, was elected captain of the 1938 basketball team. He is the third member of his family to lead a Punched team. His brothers Clifford and Howard (Mickey) each captained one of the Punched baseball teams.

The Board of Public Works ran into a lot of trouble at town meeting. Voters squabbled over the snow removal appropriation of $10,000, even though most of last year's $25,000 was actually needed. Then the meeting narrowly missed defeating the usual appropriation for hard-paving streets; then voted against two cars although the old ones are near-wrecks; then beat the proposed boiler for the pumping station.

Several new members were elected to the Spring Grove Cemetery Board of Trustees at town meeting, following repeated criticism that the members to this time have not been working harmoniously.

10 Years Ago - March, 1952

An appropriation of $1,268,860 for regular budgets plus $36,500 in special articles were voted at town meeting Monday night, and the meeting adjourned to the following Monday when midnight approached. Some 20 articles remain to be acted upon.

The express train to Boston will make a special stop in Andover at 1:12 p.m. Friday, to pick up Punched rooters who want to attend the 2 p.m. basketball tournament game in the Boston Garden.

A former resident, Robert W. Bates of Ventura, Cal., writes to the Townsman telling about finding the grave of a another former resident of this town, in a ghost town cemetery in Nevada. Bates said the grave was marked with a handsome marble stone, amid the wreckage of wooden markers and picket fences of old. Buried there was Asa W. Phelps, 28, second lieutenant of the Silver City Guards, who died Oct. 15, 1862. He lies in a cemetery about two miles from the famed Virginia City. Still legible carving on the stone indicates the high regard citizens of the area had for Lt. Phelps.

Ernest N. Hall has been elected chairman of the Andover Housing Authority.

What Our Readers Say—

To the Editor of the Townsman:
"One of the best features of your excellent paper appears on the editorial page and, I suspect, brings pleasure to hundreds of your readers, as it does to me. So -

Here's to Susie's Sonnets,
They're witty, timely, clever
Keep them coming to us, Forever; yes, forever."

at 2 o'clock by the Rev. George J. Gallagher, O.S.A.

The altar was banked with arrangements of white gladioli and white snapdragons with huckleberry foliage.

The bride was ushered to the altar by her father and preceded by Miss Anna Marie Sessa as maid of honor.

The bridesmaids were Miss Mildred Jalbert of Lowell, Miss Sylvia Sammataro of Lawrence and Miss Patricia Barone of Methuen.

Robert H. Jalbert was best man and the ushers were Richard Hallegan of Lowell, Ronald Jalbert of Burlington and Joseph Laberge of Manchester, N.H.

For her wedding, the bride wore a gown of bombazine silk with a scalloped neckline of re-embroidered Alencon lace, tapered sleeves and a shirred cummerbund in a lace appliqued bodice. The bouffant skirt featured self-fabric roses and a cathedral train. Her silk illusion was caught to a princess crown of scalloped lace, trimmed with pearls and iridescents. She carried a Madonna cascade of three white orchids with stephanotis.

The honor attendant wore a floor length gown of rose taffeta fashioned with a portrait neckline, cap sleeves and a bouffant skirt with long streamers. Her cabbage rose headpiece matched the gown and she carried a tapered cascade of rose pink cymbidiums with polished ivy.

Brubeck Concert Saturday Night

MRS. RICHARD E. BARTON

The Lawrence General Hospital Aid Association expects to fill the Tenney High School Auditorium in Methuen to capacity Saturday, March 17, when they present the world-famous Dave Brubeck Quartet in concert. The group has won international acclaim as one of the most successful presentations of the U.S. State Department Cultural Exchange Tours.

Each member of the Brubeck Quartet has won impressive recognition. Paul Desmond is considered by most critics to be far and away the world's number one alto saxophone player. Desmond recently won first place in the Down Beat Readers' Poll. Joe Morello has won one poll after another for his outstanding drumming. Gene Wright, the newest member of the Brubeck Quartet, joined the group in January, 1958, in time for its U.S. State Department tour of the Middle East. An outstanding bass player, Wright has been featured with Count Basie, Cal Tjader and Red Norvo before joining Brubeck.

Dave Brubeck himself needs no introduction; he is the symbol of progressive jazz in the minds of most Americans and also in the minds of people all over the world, even behind the Iron Curtain. He is considered one of the few jazz men of any era to capture the recognition of the general public while retaining high artistic standards.

Local boys who will serve as ushers at Saturday's concert are: William Weiss, Stephen Frishman, Stephen Smith, Robert Cole, Paul Giblin, William Stevens, Robert Stevens, Douglas Edwards, Josh McEneaney and Giles Larrabee. Senior ushers will be James D. Wilson, Donald G. Thompson, John M. McCoy, Richard E. Barton and Dudley Robinson.

Mrs. Dudley Robinson and Mrs. John McCoy, ticket chairmen, announce that a few tickets are still available.

Little Stories about Great Hymns

Jerusalem the Golden

*O sweet and blessed country,
The home of God's elect!
O sweet and blessed country,
That eager hearts expect!
Jesus, in mercy bring us
To that dear land of rest!
Who art, with God the Father,
And Spirit, ever blest.*

The verse is from a 3000 line poem by the monk, Bernard of Cluny. Begun as a satire on the vice and folly of his age (15th Cent.), it ends in religious fervor and rapture as he envisions his beloved heaven. This portion is contained in "Jerusalem the Golden," a beautiful and noble hymn.

Ladies' Night Next Monday

U. S. BERGER

A special program designed to appeal to the ladies is scheduled for Monday, March 19, at the Merrimack Valley Works of the Western Electric Co. in North Andover.

Featured is a talk by U. S. Berger, director of the Radio Transmission Laboratory of the Bell Telephone Laboratories, on Bell System communication systems now in use and those contemplated for the future. Some of the technical problems involved in the development of large systems will be discussed. The subject will be presented in a manner to be interesting to the layman as well as the expert. A dinner preceding the talk will be held in the Western Electric conference dining room at 6 p.m.

Camp Fire Girls Mark Anniversary

Everyone likes a birthday celebration, especially young people - more specifically the Camp Fire Girls. They are celebrating their 52nd Birthday Anniversary March 17, Founders Day, and throughout the following week to March 25.

March 18, Camp Fire Sunday, Blue Birds, girls 7-8 years old, Camp Fire Girls, 9-11 years old, Junior High Camp Fire Girls, 7th & 8th graders, and Horizon Club members, 9th graders and above, all will be wearing their red, white and blue costumes to their churches and synagogues in honor of the 52nd birthday celebration by the Merrimack Valley District. Each clergyman in the area has been asked to help recognize the girls during their birthday week.

This exciting leisure time and educational year-round program for girls was founded in 1910 by Dr. and Mrs. Luther Halsey Gulick, aided by a group of educators noted for their understanding of the special needs of children. The founders knew from experience how greatly a leisure time program can benefit a youngster when it presents enjoyable and character-building activities which supplement the training of the home, the church, the synagogue, and the school. Dr. and Mrs. Gulick developed many aspects of the program of the Camp Fire Girls with their own children and at their summer camp for girls in Maine.

The annual banquet of the Merrimack Valley District will be held in May this year.

PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. John Dixon of So. Hamilton were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Comeau of Lovejoy rd.

Apartment Zone Gets Big Vote

Garden Apartments on North Main st. sailed through two meetings Saturday, after a prolonged discussion and considerable opposition.

William D'Annolfo presented the case for the developers, whom he represented as president of the firm.

Opposing the measure was Dr. Daniel Frishman of Castle Heights rd., and several other residents of the immediate area.

The project had the approval of the Planning Board, and Henry F. Wolfson, who headed a committee studying the effect of apartments on the town. Mr. Wolfson cited the smaller number of children in apartments, while stating that the proper controls of apartments exist in the town.

Dr. Frishman based much of his argument on the numbers of children that might be living in the 100-plus apartments; he also discussed the matter of maintaining the property, and whether there are any assurances that maintenance will be kept up over the years.

One gentleman in the balcony attempted to cast doubt on the 'developer's reputation as a builder, but the moderator promptly told him that this was beyond the scope of the article.

After considerable talk about the children, and their presence in the schools at a cost to the town, former Selectman Stafford A. Lindsay jumped to his feet and shouted to the moderator that the town isn't going to keep the children out, anyway, whether they live in apartments or in other homes in the community.

The final vote was 391 favoring the apartments, with 75 opposed.

Miss Christine Edmands of Centralia, Wash., is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Ernest Edmands, 32 Maple ave. Miss Edmands is an airline stewardess for Northwestern Airlines and flew here from Seattle, Wash.

about this question:

"A neighbor doing a back-flip on our icy walk . . . the roof collapsing from snow . . . freezing and bursting of the plumbing or heating system - these are more tragic without insurance. Does a Homeowner Policy cover such liability and losses, where a standard fire policy does not?"

Cooking Party Scheduled March 27 At Central School

Some lucky lady who attends the Cooking Party in Central Elementary School on Bartlet st., Tuesday, March 27, at 7:45 p.m., will win a brand new Caloric Gas Range.

This handsome prize is one of the most popular gas ranges women select and is equipped with a famous "burner with the brain." Mrs. Jean Armstrong, home service director for the Lawrence Gas Company, which is co-sponsoring the Cooking Party, said they selected the 30-inch Caloric as a door prize because so many women want this model for its large capacity oven. Mrs. Armstrong will visit the prize winner in her home and instruct her in the use of her new range.

Every adult who attends the Cooking Party is eligible to win this gas range. The drawing will be made at the end of the program. The first portion of the program will feature six gourmet dishes prepared by Mrs. Armstrong, all of which will become door prizes eagerly anticipated by every woman attending.

The Andover Consumers Co-Operative, co-sponsoring the Cooking Party, will take over the second portion of the program with an interesting illustrated lecture on their meat department. Actual cuts of fresh meat will be used for illustrations. Weilding the knife will be Bill Roeger.

At the microphone will be Mrs. Jeanne Ambuter, food consultant and lecturer, guest director of the CO-OP, who will discuss ways to identify different meat cuts, how and why meat is graded, and will also give some tips on preparing delicious meat dishes.

During intermission United Farmers Dairy will serve refreshments. This will be followed by the awarding of many prizes.

Doors will open at 7:15 p.m. and the Party starts at 7:45. Ticket are on sale at the CO-OP now.

The Rev. Reuben Lundee, Northeastern Regional director of the Board of American Missions of the Augustana Lutheran Church, will be present to discuss the progress being made in the establishment of the Lutheran church here.

Earlier this year, Pastor Lundeen met with a group of Andover Lutherans and announced that the Board of American Missions of the Augustana Lutheran Church in America is sponsoring a mission church here. This church will be officially organized in late spring following the arrival of the resident pastor.
