Want To Know Whether Land Is Usable For Dump located. They had in mind that the present dump is located in an old quarry, indicating the presence of similar material in the area. Harold Rafton, chairman of the Land Acquisition Committee, agreed to walk over the area with Town Engineer Thomas Flynn and Highway Supt. Stanley Chlebowski, and to approach the subject of borings with the owner of the land.

Although the Board of Health has requested the Land Acquisition Committee to "procure" land for dump purposes, in accordance with the amended town meeting article, the Selectmen first want the area studied to be sure it is usable for the purpose.

The land, adjacent to the present dump, was specified in the study committee report as being logical for the extension of the dump.

However, the Selectmen believe that borings should be taken on the land, to find out whether there is much ledge and where it might be

Express Wonder At Large Tract

At Large Tract

The Selectmen have questioned whether it is necessary, and whether it is good business judgment, to acquire over 30 additional acres of land in southern Andover for school purposes.

The acquisition would give the town some 35 acres of good, usable land for a school, plus a few acres of swamp and wet ground that must go along with the buildable areas.

No decision seems to have been reached yet, but in discussions Monday night with Harold Rafton, chairman of the Land Committee, the Selectmen wondered why so much area must be taken. They questioned whether it might be better to obtain less, and pay less, even if the resulting piece of land is not squared off on each side. It is presently proposed to secure two parcels of land, and add them to 11 acres currently under town ownership. The present acreage is usable, and the D'Annalfo sub-division, of 10 (Continued on Page 15)

URBAN RENEWAL

Urban Renewal in Andover is far more than a pipe dream. The town voted for the study. And scores of thousands of tax dollars have been spent on it. Final plans and costs are expected next

The CO-OP could have ignored Urban Renewal, since it is outside the proposed redevelopment area. But the CO-OP has decided that Urban Renewal is far too important to ignore.

In deciding to do an independent study of Urban Renewal's economic feasibility and to prepare a preliminary sketch, the CO-OP feels that it is looking out for its members' interests as the largest business in the center of town. And because the CO-OP, with over 2700 members, represents a large segment of Andover, we hope also to be doing a service to the town as a whole.

We can make no predictions regarding the outcome of our study or regarding any future action. The ultimate decision rests with our shareholders, But we will keep the public informed of our findings.

Oscar M. Root, local chairman for National Wildlife Week, March 18-24, today pointed out some of the things that citizens can do at the local level to help preserve wet-level in a stream in its lower reaches.

Mr. Root applauded the follow-Mr. Root applauded the following local organizations for their efforts to preserve woodland and wetlands: Lawrence Park Commission; Andover Village Improvement Society; North Andover Improvement Society; Andover Sportsman's Club, and the Methuen Rod and Gun Club. In the case of the latter club, he explained that a committee of Robert Hartung, Gustav Hering, and Vernon Mackie are working toward the preservation of woodland and the furtherance of fishing and hunting by the creation of a and hunting by the creation of a dam off Tyler st., Methuen, on the grounds of the Methuen Rod and Gun Club.

Serving On Local Campaign Committee

A local fund-raising campaign among alumnae and friends of Bradford Junior College is now getting under way in the Andover area.

Serving on the committee are Mrs. Allan B. Rogers of Spring Grove rd., Mrs. John M. McCoy of Sunset Rock rd., Mrs. Donald G. Thompson of Bancroft rd., Mrs. John S. Gillies Jr. of Porter rd., and Mrs. William Kurth, 14 Cheever cir.

The local drive is part of ageneral campaign to raise $1,000,000 for a campus library and arts-study center.

At a dinner meeting held last week at the college, fund workers were told that nearly half the goal had already been achieved. Workers at the meeting mapped plans for the drive and heard the full story on the new building from

"Good Ways For Good Meals" At Cooking Party

Next Tuesday evening marks a gala event at Central Elementary School, Andover, when the Andover Consumers' Cooperative joins with the Lawrence Gas Company to present a program on meat selection, menu planning and cooking for the information and entertainment of ladies in Andover and surrounding communities. The program theme, says Jeanne Ambuter, who will act as coordinator and emcee for the Andover Gas Cooking Party is "Good Ways for Good Meals." The stage of Central Elementary School will be set up as a modern gas kitchen, in which Mrs. Jean Armstrong, Home Service Director for Lawrence Gas Co. will prepare many gourmet dishes, door prizes.

The major door prize, eagerly sought by every lady attending, will be a Caloric Gas Range. "We selected the popular 30-inch model for the door prize," said Mrs. Jean Armstrong, "because it is so popular with all good cooks. The roomy oven makes it ideal for large families." This prize is now

Recount Gave Davey More Votes

Vincent P. Davey picked up a total of three votes last Saturday morning at the recount, thus widening his lead over Mrs. Reta Buchan to a margin of 10.

Davey won the School Committee contest March 5 by seven votes. The final total was 2,345 to 2,335.

In the recount, John S. Sullivan, who was re-elected, dropped four votes and Charles Liponis gained two.

two.
Atty. Alfred W. Fuller represented Mrs. Buchan and Atty.
Michael Batal Jr. acted on behalf of Mr. Davey.
The recount was without incident, and only three ballots were protested, following decisions by the Board of Registrars. The protests were withdrawn after the final tests were withdrawn after the final tally showed they would have no affect on the tally.

Sister Eleanor Gertrude, in whose class the accident happened, paid special tribute to the prompt and careful work of Paul Thomas and Vincent Santarlasci, who pulled the heavy fixture off the row of children. She also commented on the effective work of three other children, Harriet Keaney, Ellen Townsend and Ruth Wesolowski, who quickly helped set out emergency first aid supplies in the adjoining room.

Three police cruisers and the ambulance responded to the call for assistance, and rushed the children to the hospital, Dr. John J. McArdle Jr. was summoned, and the school nurses arrived soon after the accident.

Electricians and the contractor vere at the scene inspecting the fallen fixture, to determine what had happened to cause it to fall.

Even as various officials con-tinued to inspect the damage throughout the day, there was a feeling of relief that the children had not been more seriously injured when pinned under the long

EDITORIAL THOUGHTS

With Gratitude And Thanks

With reports of corruption, conspiracies, and generally unethical behavior ringing in our ears, we are more than happy to report several instances locally in which the integrity of our own officials has been lauded.

It isn't necessary to spell out the names - but it has come to our attention that one large-scale developer has specifically discussed the fact that no one in Andover has as much as asked for a favor, never mind anything

Salesmen, from time to time, have mentioned the fact that they are under no compulsion to even consider doing favors for local officials, nor is there ever the slightest indication that financial considerations should become

We should be profoundly thankful that this is the case. And we should be grateful to our dedicated municipal officials for the strict honesty with which they approach their responsibilities.

The fact that some salesmen express surprise that this is the case here, based apparently on their experiences with other communities, lends further support to our feeling that local town officials deserve our gratitude and our continuing support.

Study The Costs

It would be smart for the town to undertake a study of trash removal costs during the year.

There appears to be some sentiment throughout the town for this type of municipal service - but we believe no one currently knows what it would cost. Sure, there have been estimates and guesses - but we lack hard, factual data to back these up.

If the town is to consider providing trash collection at some future date, we certainly must have accurate information relating to costs, frequency of collection, whether it is to be contracted or municipally-operated.

The Selectmen, within whose policy-making responsibilities this eventually comes, would do well to appoint a committee to study the subject unofficially, and report the findings next fall in time for the preparation of warrant articles if this step is thought to be advisable.

How Much Is Too Much?

The Selectmen are currently examining the School Committee's proposal to acquire 40-plus acres of land off Wildwood rd. for a school site.

The acreage would have access through the DeVries development, from South Main st., through existing streets, and would generally serve that growing section

Some questions have arisen as to the actual need for over 40 acres, when the minimum requirement for the school is about 12 acres, and the maximum, under state standards, would be, at most, 18.

The Land Acquisition Committee has stated that at least 35 of the acres are usable, while the remainder probably can not be used for actual construction because of the water table.

One of the parcels involved is already a sub-division and must go through Land Court if it is to be acquired and put to use by the town. The other parcel, containing both useful and wet land, is not now a recorded sub-division.

Additionally, the town owns about 11 good acres in the area, to which these other parcels would be added.

We wonder, as did the Selectmen, whether it makes good sense - in order to get a rectangular-shaped piece of land, and a large enough piece for future recreation uses - to buy or take so much property. There are those who believe the town should acquire as much land, throughout the community, as it can. Others feel that the town has no business owning more land than it needs for the specific purpose in this case a school.

From a dollars and cents standpoint, it seems obvious that some money can be saved it all of the land is not secured.

Secondly, and this is a matter of conjecture, is the town justified in buying and holding acreage, other than that specifically needed, for future municipal uses or as

This question should be answered before the area is purchased.

Troop 9

Senior Girl Scout Troop 9 was recently formed. Miss Joan Lamprey is the leader, and Mrs. Edith Eastman is the assistant leader. There are nine girls in the troop at present and they elected the following officers: president, Ellen Lugee; treasurer, Carol Eastman; secretary, Susan Kohli; and publicity chairman, Peggy Kempton. As a part of the requirements for becoming senior scouts, the girls attended the Andover town meeting. They were voted in and stayed for the entire meeting. Eventually, they hope to become a mounted troop.

Troop 68

The Brownies of Troop 68 lowered the flag outside Central School at their last meeting. They sang taps, and took proper care of the flag. The last of the Girl Scout Law scrap books were checked, and the girls worked on table setting both formal and informal. Some time was spent discussing the selection of a troop crest for next year. At the end of the meeting, they celebrated the Brownie Golden Anniversary. Donna Hungerford baked the cake for the party.

REGISTER CHILDREN FOR KINDERGARTEN

The annual survey of the children who are to enter the public school kindergartens in September is now underway.

Parents of children who will be five years of age on or before Jan. 1, 1963, should notify the principal of the school the child will attend. The child's name, address, birth date and father's name should be sent to the school.

After this information is received, parents will be notified of the registration dates.

an American architect, who after a week in Warsaw in search of a week in warsaw in search of his missing brother in the summer of 1949, went to the airport to catch a plane for home. Without warning, he was abducted by the Polish Security police and thrown into a cellar which was to become his home for the next five years. Such is the story of Mr. Field. Such is the story of Mr. Field, celebrated best seller author, eminent architect, and the central figure in a five-year cold war miscarriage of justice.

Out of this fantastic experience emerged two books, "Angry Harvest", and "Duck Lane," conceived under the direct of conditions and the content of the conten tions in collaboration with a Polish journalist and fellow cellmate named Mierzenski. The will to live which these men developed, and the strange forms it took during their five years in the cellar, makes one of the most inspiring and amazing stories ever told in an evening. Mr. Field, a Harvard graduate, has since returned to his profession as an architect, and is currently the planning director of the Tufts-New England Medical,

Crosses Were Topic Of Speech

The March meeting of the Woman's Union of the West Parish Church was held March 14.
Luncheon was served at 12:30 and the business meeting followed. Mrs. Eunice Potter of Methuen was guest speaker, on the topic "Crosses". She has an interesting collection of Crosses and showed them, explaining their meanings. The members brought a collection of spring hats to the meeting, which were sent to the Delmo Community in Missouri. Mrs. Frank Stowers, Mrs. Grant Silva and Mrs. William Trow were members of the Committee.

Over 50 hats were collected for the cause.

acres, is also good land. The white property, with about seven swampy and wet acres, also provides considerable usable, buildable land, it was noted.

When the subject came up at a recent School Committee meeting, the Land Committee recommended that the two additional parcels be secured, because of better access, and because additional area might be wanted for school recreational purposes. Alternatives suggested to the Committee were purchasing one or the other of the two parcels, and possibly selling the present town-owned parcel. But the Committee, through Mr. Rafton, did not recommend buying either of the parcels separately.

William A. Doherty, a School Committee member, who walked through the area with Mr. Rafton, agreed that the two new parcels should be acquired.

Monday night, when the Selectmen wanted to know why the School Committee wanted all of the land, Mr. Rafton pointed out that his Committee is an agent for other town boards, obtaining land where designated, in this case, by the School Committee.

He had searched the general south Andover section at the request of the School authorities, paying particular attention to the areas east of South Main st., at the suggestion of the School Committee.

The Selectmen, in response to their guestions about cost the search of the school committee.

the suggestion of the School Committee.

The Selectmen, in response to their questions about cost, were told that to try to be too economical over land purchases, when considering the eventual cost of the over-all school project, might be unwise. Mr. Rafton reminded the Board that not only must there be sufficient space for the school, but parking is a necessity, recreation is a probability and nature study is also to be considered. The minimum area required by the state for a school, according to Supt. Edward I. Erickson, is 12 acres, and the state is well satisfied with 18 acres.

At Monday's meeting, Selectman william Stewart noted that one or two nearby communities had used less than the minimum land area for schools, and still received their state aid.

Stabat Mater

At the Cross her station keeping Stood the mournful Mother weeping Close to Jesus to the last. Through her heart His sorrow sharing,

All His bitter anguish bearing, Now at length the sword has passed.

The simple, plaintive tune and pitiful words on the sorrowing Mary make the Stabat Mater perhaps the most pathetic of all Christian hymns. It is translated and sung by Protestant churches as "Near the Cross was Mary Weeping." Written apparently by a Franciscan Monk, it was fostered by the Flagellants, who sang it while moving from town to town. Today it is sung to accompany the Stations of the Cross service during the Lenten season.

the reservations, and as they live mostly from the land, it has been becoming poorer in crops, and they have had to turn to other trades. They are skilled artisans with their hands when trained, and have learned to use their skills and have learned to use their skills in many ways, building dams, bridges, and municipal buildings, after being instructed. While the government sets up schools for the earlier branches of learning, it has been the task of private concerns to give the Indians college training, but this has been increasing, and more and more young men and women are going on further in education. St. Mary's College in Springfield, South Dakota, for young women, and Bacone College in Oklahoma for young men are two of the schools partly supported by the National D.A.R. and the Episcopal

Mrs. Sweet said that those who go to the Continental Congress in Washington should see the work in Washington should see the work that is done by the Indian girls from St. Mary's, as they always have a booth in the exhibition hall. She commented the local Chapter on its project of saving Indian head nickels to be used for a scholarship in one of these colleges for worthy girls and boys.

The meeting opened at 2:30, preceded by dessert served by the hostess, Mrs. Glennie, assisted by Mrs. Wilson Knipe, Mrs. Will Brown and Mrs. Ernest Edmands. Several guests were present including the Good Citizengirl, Miss Thelma Watson, and her mother, Mrs. William Watson. Miss Elizbeth Storer of Needham state. abeth Storer of Needham, state curator, attended, as she will be unable to come to the next meet-ing when the state officers will be present. A prospective member, Mrs. Olive Tanner; Miss Bernice Stimpson, formerly a teacher in the Andover schools; Miss Chris-tine Edmands, granddaughter of Mrs. Ernest Edmands and niece of Mrs. Roland Weeks, from Centralia, Wash,; were welcomed by the gathering.

Mrs. Edwin Otto, regent, opened the business meeting and routine business was transacted. Devobusiness was transacted. Devo-tions and patriotic exercises were led by Mrs. Edmands, the chap-lain, with one verse of the National Anthem being sung before the giv-ing of reports. The President General's message was read by Mrs. Earl Thornton; the secre-tary's report by Mrs. Edward Thompson for Mrs. Harry Dono-yan who has resigned as secretary

Thompson for Mrs. Harry Donovan, who has resigned as secretary on account of other duties; the treasurer's report by Mrs. William Trow, were presented. Mrs. Leo O'Connor, ex-regent, read an article on Civil Defense, about bills before Congress on the European Common Market, UN-ESCO, Income Tax, Medical Care for the Aged, and Federal Aid to Education.

Miss Watson then was given her Good Citizen pin by Mrs. Thompson, chairman of the Chapter's Good Citizen committee. Mrs. Otto said that the Flag Codes had been received and will be distributed to Girl Scouts in Andover shortly, and that the two Flags are to be presented to two organizations will be sent from Washington, just as soon as they are flown over the Capitol.

Mrs. Otto told of the forming of a C.A.R. Chapter and said that the children who had joined were very enthusiastic about the work. This chapter includes besides the local chapter, children from Lawrence, Methuen and Reading who are eligible, whether or not their parents belong to the Chapters in these towns. Mrs. Otto also spoke of the spring conference of D.A.R. in Boston next week, at which time she is a candidate for the office of state recording secretary.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. W. A. Currier, 9 Kensington st., Shawsheen, April 10, and will be State Officers Day. Roland B. Hammond will be the speaker and he will talk on Early Life in Andover.

Community Survey Now Underway

Residents of the community can look forward to receiving a questionnaire from the school department, as part of the Community Resources Survey project.

The activity is intended to find out who, within the town, will be willing to share some of their time, skills or materials with the teachers.

The school department, through Lauristan Ward, the curriculum coordinator, is working with the League of Women Voters on the project. Mrs. Virginia Cole is heading up the League committee.

A catalogue of community re-sources will be compiled from results of the questionnaire, and will be available to the teachers by next September.

The League and members of the school department have felt that there are many skills within the community which can be made available to the schools, and that many adults will wish to support their schools in that way.

BASKETBALL LEAGUE BANQUET IS MONDAY

The annual Church League banquet will be held next Monday night at 6:30 in the Junior High cafeteria.

Trophies, emblems and contest prizes will be a-warded the League champions and individual contest winners. League President Robert G. McAnern and Robert G. McAnern and Charles O. McCullom are co-chairmen of the affair.
