State Primary Is Tuesday, Local Candidates On Ballot

Every one of the town's 9,483 voters is eligible to take part in the primary, scheduled for Tuesday, from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. A full slate of candidates faces voters in the Republican and Democratic primaries, with state-wide contests expected to bring a heavier-than-normal number of voters.

Clearing up an item of misinformation, Town Clerk Irving O. Piper this week emphasized that all un-enrolled voters - independents - are entitled to vote in the primary. Each independent can simply ask for the ballot of his choice - Republican or Democrat. Several telephone calls to the town hall, and information from other sources, indicates that many independents believe they do not have the right to vote in the primary.

Over 400 persons have registered to vote since the end of June and most have not designated a party choice.

Local Contests
When the polls open, local voters will have a chance to select candidates.

School Board Wants Lovejoy Rd. Closed 3 Times Daily For Safety

Town Meeting Set Nov. 19

A special town meeting on Urban Renewal will be held Nov. 19. The Selectmen agreed to the date Monday night, during a long discussion with members of the Housing Authority concerning the precise plan to be acted upon at that time.

As it stands now, voters will be expected to decide on adoption or rejection of a "land assembly" plan - the acquisition of property, the razing of structures, and re-development of the land once it is prepared.

But this seems not to be a final decision - for the meeting spent a long time talking about a rehabilitation-type plan that allows structures to remain as long as certain specified work is done to them.

This plan would require possibly another year to prepare, but first must be approved in principle by the Committee by Dr.

The police department has been requested to close off Lovejoy rd. three times each day, until sidewalks are constructed on that problem street.

Action was taken by the School Committee Tuesday night, following the appearance of 11 residents of Wild Rose dr., who sought bus transportation on already scheduled routes.

The Committee considered the request, but decided that providing transportation would set a precedent for many other areas of the town where dangerous conditions are acknowledged to exist. Supt. of Schools Edward I. Erickson warned the Committee that requests would come in from all over town, as soon as it became known that special transportation was being provided for one area.

The Committee's action made formal a verbal arrangement, reported to the Committee by Dr.

Milton J. Meyers. He said a conversation with Chief David L. Nicoll indicated to him that closing the street for the three dangerous times of the day would be worked out.

Supt. Erickson also noted that he has been conferring with the chief at the site, and that plans are underway to safeguard those walking to school.

Tuesday morning, Lovejoy rd. was shut off from Holly ter., near Lowell st., to Dascomb rd. All that moved on the street were the cars of residents and the school buses, between the hours of 8:15 and 8:45.

The School Board's recommendation to the chief covers those early-morning hours, the period between 11:45 a.m. and 1:15 p.m. and from 3-3:30.

Stressing the importance of halting the traffic menace to the walking children, Dr. Meyers

3,871 Pupils In School

Public school enrollment climbed to 3,871 Monday, with the opening of the Henry C. Sanborn School on Lovejoy rd.

A total of 398 pupils entered the new school Monday morning - 18 over the estimated population of the school.

Central School continues to house the largest number of elementary grade pupils, with 605. And the South School has 492 students enrolled.

Other enrollments include: Shawsheen, 374, West, 380; Stowe, 62 sixth graders.

Thus the elementary population is 2,311.

There are 1,514 students in the town's two secondary schools - 849 at the Junior High and 680 at the High School.

Additionally, 31 pupils attend special classes at the Jackson School and 15 are in special classes at the Junior High.

Independents Can Vote In Tuesday's Primary

Andover's 4,296 independent voters have as much right to vote in the primary next Tuesday as do party members.

This large segment of the voters - 45 percent to be exact - has not lost its right to vote because its members have no party designation.

Rather, independents simply ask the election officer at their precinct for whichever ballot they wish - Republican or Democratic - and vote accordingly.

If the individual wishes to return to independent status after the primary, this can be accomplished by signing a card at the town clerk's office, or by sending a notarized letter to that effect to the clerk.

The League of Women Voters, whose aim is to get out as many voters as possible, and members of both political parties, have placed special emphasis on the ease with which independent voters can select the party primary in which they wish to take part. Some independents have inquired of local officials on the subject, believing that they are ineligible to vote.

Abbot Academy Will Open Next Tuesday

Mrs. Alexander Crane, principal, will greet 230 students Tuesday morning, Sept. 18, as Abbot Academy begins its 134th year.

The faculty will return to Abbot Saturday and will gather for dinner at the home of Mrs. Crane. The first faculty meeting of the year will follow dinner.

Several faculty changes have taken place for the new school year:

TO ANDOVER'S 4296 INDEPENDENT VOTERS

Are you one of Andover's 4296 Independent voters? You can vote in the September 18th Primary by asking the person at the voting place for a Democratic or Republican ballot.

The Primary is important. Its purpose is to give all of us a voice in nominating candidates for public office.

Help to put capable candidates on the ballot for the November election. Good people are often kept out of public office because good people duck the primary.

Please vote in the September 18th Primary. Naturally we hope you ask for the Democratic Primary ballot. But vote in the Primary this year!

Interim Pastor

DR. HUGH PENNEY
The West Parish Church has called Dr. Hugh Penney as interim minister.

Dr. Penney is the father of the Rev. Hugh B. Penney, who served as pastor of the Church from 1954 to 1959. He has served as interim pastor in four churches since leaving his own church in Ayer in June of 1960.

Dr. Penney served at the Chaffin Church, Holden, the First Congregational Church in Auburn, the First Congregational Church in Stoughton and presently is finishing an assignment at the First Congregational Church in West Boylston.

He has held pastorates in Sharon, Vt.; Georgetown, Providence, R.I.; Lowell and in Ayer. While at Lowell, Dr. Penney received a joint call from the Massachusetts Council of Churches and the Federated Church of Ayer to serve as pastor of the church and as liaison chaplain at Fort Devens. He served in that capacity for nearly 18 years, representing the Protestant churches of the state.

During the remainder of the month, Dr. Penney will be at the West Parish Church office Mondays and Wednesdays, from 9:30 a.m. and will be in the pulpit starting the first Sunday in October.

Decision Tuesday
On Lovejoy Rd.

The County Commissioners are expected to act on Chapter 90 reconstruction for Lovejoy rd. at their next meeting Sept. 18.

Town Manager Thomas E. Duff, who attended a hearing in Salem Tuesday morning, said he believes the commissioners will take action, rather than postpone a decision again.

That county agency, which must approve land takings under Chapter 90, held a hearing a number of weeks ago, and adjourned it to Tuesday, after hearing some opponents to the proposal.

Presented at the hearing Tuesday was a plan calling for 24 feet of paved surface, with a three-foot shoulder on each side of the road. A 50-foot total width would be established under the plan, necessitating a land-taking of about five feet on each side of the road.

Some opposition developed again Tuesday, although about 50 residents of the street signed a petition favoring the reconstruction.

Opponents wish to see the width of the paved surface reduced still further, desire to keep the trees that exist in the area that would become the road shoulder, and object to the increased speed of traffic when a road is widened and smoothly paved.

The town's position, presented by Mr. Duff, is that the state will not allow less than 24 feet of paved surface under Chapter 90, and that the road badly needs reconstruction.

At stake this year is the section between Dascomb rd. and the Henry C. Sanborn School. The land-taking, however, would cover the entire length of the street, in preparation for a 1963 project from the School to Lowell st.

Mr. Duff pointed out Tuesday that, if the county approves the project, some work might be accomplished before cold weather.

If something can be done, he hopes that sidewalks can be at least partially installed as one of the first steps - thus providing some place for the school children to walk during the winter months. But he hastened to explain that it may not be possible to get any of the work started. This depends on how quickly specifications can be sent out to bidders, when the contract is awarded and when cold weather starts.

Boosters Club
Planning Drive

Final plans for the annual Boosters Club membership drive will be made at a meeting Sept. 19, at the Holihan's reception room.

The 7:30 p.m. session will hear reports from chairman Charles O. McCullom on the Oct. 1-2-3 drive.

It is also planned to have a "dry run" the week before, when students will distribute leaflets on the Boosters.

Officers for the current season are: William Busby, president; Thomas Wallace, first vice president; James O'Reilly, second vice president; Herman Bolia, secretary; Homer Wadman, treasurer; Albert Swenson, Charles Hajj, Robert McIntyre and Charles McCullom.

WHERE DO WE GO from here? Many of these boys and girls, having just been delivered to the new Henry C. Sanborn School by bus, are wondering where they are supposed to go. They're standing in front of the kindergarten wing.

It was indicated by the Housing Authority that if other town boards - notably the Selectmen and Planning Board - want to go into a rehabilitation program, then favorable consideration probably will be given.

In the meantime, the existing plan - apparently without much, or any, rehabilitation, takes center-stage for presentation to the town.

The difference between the two plans is a legalistic one, which was explained by Counsel Fredric S. O'Brien.

The state and federal statutes do not define Urban Renewal the same way, he explained. Nor, he continued, is there any actual definition of what the word "rehabilitation" means.

At the moment, the town's plan comes under what the state calls a "land assembly" program. And under this, "substantial" rehabilitation may not take place.

But whether any rehabilitation of existing structures can be planned is a question which the lawyers are still discussing. Mr. O'Brien said the federal legal staff is preparing a memo on the subject for Andover. And until this is received, there can be no answer to the question.

On the other hand, Director Ernest N. Hall noted that other projects have actually had some structures rehabilitated, or renovated, and that this apparently is allowed to some degree.

There has been considerable talk around town in recent weeks about keeping some buildings now slated to be torn down eventually. And this has seemed to meet more favor with some town officials than has the broader, acquisition and razing program.

If the Selectmen and Planning Board - which are slated to meet next Monday night - decide to recommend that rehabilitation be studied, it could mean a lengthy delay in the action of the town, apart from the necessity of voting to shift the emphasis of the program.

STATE PRIMARY NEXT TUESDAY

dates for local office as well as for state-wide offices.

Local men are involved in contests for state representative, state senator and the office of sheriff of the county. Also of more than usual local interest is the Democratic contest for Congress.

In the representative contest, Arthur A. Williams of Haverhill st. seeks to once again represent the GOP, in the triple Fifth Essex district. Incumbent William Longworth also seeks re-nomination by the Republicans. Atty. Albert Pettoruto of Lawrence's Ward One and Joseph F. Devaney of Methuen also seek Republican support for one of the three nominations. Devaney has formerly been nominated in the Democratic primary and has run as a Democrat on several occasions. Pettoruto was a candidate in the special primary to select a candidate to fill the vacancy when Frank S. Giles resigned to accept the post of Commissioner of Public Safety for the state.

In the Democratic primary, Raymond S. LaRosa of Andover asks the endorsement of fellow-democrats, as does Augustine J. Walsh of North Andover. There are only two names on the Democratic ballot for this office, but speculation preceding the primary has it that a third nominee will be selected via the sticker route.

In the State Senate contest, two local men are asking support to become the Republican nominee, to run against James P. Rurak of Haverhill, who is opposed in the primary.

George Marad and Dean K. Webster are the GOP hopefuls. The only county office in which there is Andover participation is that of sheriff.

Earl E. Wells of Salem, the Republican incumbent, has no opposition. But two Andover men are in a five-man fight for the Democratic nomination.

They are Arthur Flynn and John J. Lynch. Their opponents are William G. Hennessey of Lynn, George R. Anderson of Methuen and Joseph W. Zabriskie of Newburyport.

The contest in the Democratic primary for congressman has plenty of local interest, because of the redistricting that took place. Congressman Thomas J. Lane - who once represented Andover in the Massachusetts legislature - is now in a three-man race for the Democratic nomination in the Fifth Congressional District. The winner will face Congressman F. Bradford Morse in November.

Seeking the support of local Democrats are Congressman Lane, Thomas J. Chiara of Lawrence and Samuel S. Pollard of Lowell.

Late-Wide Campaigns
Although none of the candidates for state office come from this community, there has been enthusiastic work done here for several candidates who are facing contests next Tuesday.

Wednesday AM Report
It looks now as though the final results of the primary may not be known for many hours after the polls close at 7 p.m.

A state law prohibits counting until after the polls close.

Two years ago, Town Clerk Irving O. Piper finished up the final tabulation about 2:15 a.m. the following day, and next Tuesday probably will be no exception to the rule.

In that election two years ago, 2,707 voters went to the six polling places. Precinct one cast 430 Republican and 153 Democratic ballots; precinct two, 214 and 169; precinct three, 386 and 305; precinct four, 249 and 162; precinct five, 93 Republicans and 69 Democrats; precinct six, 355 and 122.

In anticipation of the primary, the town clerk has announced the following election officers - not all will work at the polls, but each man is available if needed:

Precinct one - Harold R. Barcroft, warden; Frederick E. Griffin, Wilson Knipe Jr., Alcide J. LeGendre, Joseph W. McNally, Forrest H. Noyes Jr., William Dolan, Howard C. Tyrrell, Thomas A. Farragher, Simeone E. LeGendre Jr., John B. McAllister and Lee E. Noyes.

Precinct two - Fernand J. Lusier, warden; Thomas E. Carter, James V. Gerraughty Jr., John Deyermond, Thomas F. Morrissey, George H. Winslow, Edward Cole, George Connors, Roger Collins, Thomas Brennan and James Gorrie.

Precinct three - A. Norman Warhurst, warden; William H. Ammon, John J. Broderick, Garrett J. Burke, Joseph G. Duffy, Chester M. Kopatch, Foster G. Robertson, John F. Tansey Jr., Gordon M. Thompson, Lucien Topping and Alan F. Dunlop.

Precinct four - James D. Doherty, warden; Robert J. Fraser, Roger H. Lewis, Russell C. MacLeish, Thomas B. Murphy, William J. Orr, Henry Pfaff, Francis P. Reilly, Albert R. Retelle, Charles W. Smyth and Joseph L. Walsh.

Precinct five - Eugene A. Zalla, warden; John Duke, Christopher J. Goumas, Frank W. Leslie, Wendell A. Mattheson, Laurence W. Riley, Charles T. Bentley, James L. Butler, Michael W. Mullaney, James S. O'Brien and Franklin K. Haggerty.

Precinct six - Charles E. Platt, warden; Augustine L. Delaney, Louis A. DeLucia, Edward A. Doyle, Robert N. Herrick, Raymond Hoyer, Norman D. Sproul, William A. Watson, Francis T. Kelly, Fred H. Otis, John M.

Lynch, Robert M. Nichols, Maurice F. Lynch and John J. Doyle.

"The Torch Will Light The Way" has been selected by Beta Sigma Phi International Sorority as its theme for the coming year.

The theme is not a new concept, since this symbol has brought fulfillment and success to chapter activities and individual lives since the founding of Beta Sigma Phi in 1931. The rays of the Torch represent Courage, Vision, Humility, Loyalty, Fellowship and Service, bringing to a community like Andover, through a group of dedicated persons such as Beta Sigma Phi members, countless thresholds of opportunity not previously uncovered.

Beta Mu Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi is comprised of members living in Andover. Recently the group attended a dinner meeting at the home of Mrs. Richard Homewood and plans were discussed

Many lovely prizes will be offered and the groups participating will keep in touch with one another by telephone. All the proceeds derived from this function will be used toward the support of a child adopted by the chapter. Mrs. Homewood and Mrs. George Farrell are co-chairmen of this fund-raising event.

Cultural programs for the coming year will deal with the subject "Happiness". Each member is responsible for the presentation of one program during the year. Program booklets prepared by Mrs. Lester T. Newill, president, Mrs. Richard Pagonis, Mrs. Ian Sanderson and Mrs. Louis Petersen, were presented.

Change Time For Class Session

At a meeting of the Ballard Vale United Church Council, it was voted to change the meeting time of the nursery and pre-school classes to 11 a.m., to correspond with the hour of the Sunday morning worship service.

This change allows the use of the room twice. The room is in the basement of the parsonage and is now used at 9:30 and 11 a.m. This change along with one other, eliminates the use of the community building, which was not as adequate for church school classes, according to church officials. It also eliminates the need for younger children to stay an extra hour while their parents attend morning worship service.

Planning Session
By Church Leaders

Leaders of the Free Church will meet this Saturday at the Phillips Academy Log Cabin at 1:30 p.m. to discuss plans and goals for the coming year.

The planning session, which is organized by the Christian Enlistment Committee, will be conducted by William Paterson. Committee chairmen and others making reports will put together a program which will be presented to the congregation later in the fall. A roast beef dinner will be served at six o'clock.

Bridge Sessions To Resume Sept. 20

The Andover Duplicate Bridge Club will resume its weekly session Sept. 20, at the High School. Play will begin at 7:30, and all interested bridge players in Andover are welcome to attend.

Information can be obtained from Mrs. Thomas Dye, director, and also from Leslie Bartow, Andover recreation director.

Council Meets Next Tuesday

The first regular meeting of the current church year will be held by the Andover Council of Churches at the Free Christian Church Tuesday evening, Sept. 18 at 7:30.

All interested people are cordially invited to attend and committee chairmen and official delegates are urged to be present.

The Rev. J. Allen Bradford of the Free Church is serving as president of the Council this year.

EDITORIAL THOUGHTS

It's Your Job - Do It

Tuesday next is a day of decision for candidates, seeking their party's endorsement for elective office.

Will it be your day of decision, too?

You — every registered voter reading this editorial — have the obligation to choose the candidates for whom we will all vote in November.

This is a vital part of our democratic system — selecting our candidates — for how else can we be reasonably certain that they are qualified, prudent men and women, who will serve us faithfully?

There have been too many examples of faithless performance, of corruption, of distasteful ethics, to take a chance on letting someone else do the voting.

Each of us must carry out our own responsibility. Then, at least, we can individually hold up our heads in the knowledge that we did our level best to select men of integrity and ability as candidates this November.

This is not the year to let the other fellow do our job. That practice, over the years, has paid off in grief. . . . in the type of headlines and news stories that we have witnessed all year long.

This is the year for each of us to assume our own obligation — to vote wisely in the primary. That's the only way we can get good candidates in November, and capable public officials thereafter.

Action Needed Promptly

Lovejoy rd., in its present condition, is one of the most dangerous streets in town for our children to use on their way to and from school.

And one of the smartest moves, to increase the safety factor, was the decision Tuesday to shut off the street in the morning, so that the children can walk on the side of the paved surface without fear.

Monday, the first day at the Henry C. Sanborn School, it was evident to some observers that the children were not going to be safe on that street, without additional action. Some were forced to walk in the drainage ditch, whenever two cars passed. This might be alright in an emergency, but what of the days when the ditch is soggy, or when the snow is piled up on both sides of the street?

In addition to the action taken Tuesday, in shutting off the street to traffic for a half-hour, there are two other alternatives:

The town, through its manager, can hire a bus to carry the children who normally will walk to school. Or . . .

The town can provide crossing guards to walk up and down the street with the children, who would be required to form a patrol on the way to school every morning.

There is much justification for the first suggestion — hiring a bus — and we hope our town officials will give it plenty of thought.

The School Committee can't, or perhaps won't, make this exception to its rule on walking to the elementary school if the child's residence is less than a mile away.

By providing this transportation, the School Committee would open the doors to every request, from every neighborhood, throughout the town.

But the town manager and Selectmen can provide the bus, without setting the precedent.

After all, the condition of the road and planning for its reconstruction is in the hands of the administration. And if the road is not adequate, the responsibility lies with the manager and the Selectmen, regardless of the circumstances surrounding the lack of activity there during the summer.

In the best interests of the children walking along Lovejoy rd., we urge prompt decisions, without regard for any other factor than the safety of those youngsters.

You Can Save A Life

You can save a life.

You can prevent painful, possibly maiming, injuries.

How? By driving carefully, watchfully, during the hours when hundreds of small children are gathering to take school buses, or walking to and from their schools.

Just a little extra caution can pay off in big dividends.

Won't you please make it your business to protect the lives of the children? Drive your car with great care, and save lives.

Library Hours

The library has returned to its regular schedule of hours, as follows: The main reading room will be open Monday through Friday from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. and Saturday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. The Children's room will be open Monday, through Friday from 11:30 to 12 noon, and from 2-6 p.m. On Saturday the Children's room is open from 10 a.m. to 1, and from 2-6 p.m.

Ballardvale branch room is open Monday and Thursday, from 2-5 and 6-8 p.m.

Bookworm Party

All boys and girls who have been active members of the Bookworm Reading group known as the Friendship 7 Reading Club are invited to attend the special Bookworm Party, to be held at the library Thursday afternoon, Sept. 13 at 3:45 o'clock. The ticket of admission is the Reading Log, which was given to each boy or girl who met the requirements of the club.

There will be a story, a marionette show and "book-worms."

The show is to be "Cinderella", the favorite of all fairy tales. During the summer a puppet making group has been planning for the show, and preparing marionettes. The cast is as follows: Cinderella, Peggy Ristelheuber; fairy godmother, Patricia Poremba, queen, Ruth Anderson; prince, Kathleen Anderson; step-sisters, Kathy Morrissey and Cynthia Shadlick; mother, Jennifer Shea and the courier, Kathleen Andersen.

On Friday, September 21, at the same hour, all other boys and girls who were not members of the club, will be invited to a repeat performance.

Teachers Visit Library

Tuesday morning, Sept. 4, the Memorial Hall Library was host to the teachers of the Andover Junior High School. More than forty of the staff were present, and after an informal coffee hour and an opportunity to look over educational materials which were on display they met in the Children's room for a brief talk given by Miss Putnam. In addition to discussing the services which the library offers to teachers Miss Putnam pointed up other features of the library program which might interest all library users, and she extended an invitation to all to make personal use of the library's holdings.

Great Books

The first meeting of the Great Books Discussion Group will be held at the Memorial Hall Library on Tuesday evening, Oct. 2, at 7:30 o'clock. The reading will be Browne's "Religio Medici"; for those who have purchased sets in the past this will be found in Boethius' "Consolation of Philosophy."

All persons who have an interest in reading, in discussion and in sharing thoughts with others are most cordially invited to be present at this meeting, if only to see how such a group functions and whether or not the idea might have an appeal. Readings are treated as independent units, and discussion does not require that members be familiar with previous subjects.

For a new experience, why not bring a friend and drop in at the opening meeting? It is informal, challenging and often very entertaining. All are welcome.

Civil War Roundtable

The Andover Civil War Roundtable will open its fall season with a meeting on Monday evening, Sept. 17, at 7:30 o'clock, in the library. Newcomers to the community may wish to join this group, the only requirement for membership being a sincere interest in the Civil War and its period. Mr. Stanley Butcher, in charge of the group, would welcome new members at this time.

First Grade Parties

Each autumn the boys and girls entering the first grade in Andover schools are invited to bring their mothers to the library for a first grade party. This makes a splendid opportunity for parent and child to see the children's room, the books purchased especially for their early years in the world of reading and to meet the library staff. From a single party for all, the library now has been required to set up four separate parties, in order to allow for all little persons. Children who attend Shawsheen and West Elementary schools are invited for Wednesday, Sept. 19; Central students for Thursday, Sept. 20. St. Augustine's, Pike and Marland schools will attend Wednesday, the 26th, and South and Sanborn on Thursday, Sept. 27. All parties are at 3:45 o'clock.

Square Dance Classes Resume

The Raytheon Employees Activities Association of the local Plant will again open its annual beginner square dance class to all adult area residents who are interested in this popular recreation.

The class will meet Friday, Sept. 21, at the Andover Junior High Memorial Gym at 8 p.m., with Paul Pratt of Chelmsford instructing, and will continue on a weekly basis for approximately five months.

Andover residents active in recruiting new members include Mr. and Mrs. Russell Lucier and Mr. and Mrs. David MacDonald Jr., secretaries and treasurers of the Rocketeers, local square dance club, composed of the three previous classes. Don Scott, association vice-president, is in charge of the activity, which is the only recreational project that is open to the general public as well as Raytheon employees.

Miss Sandra Webb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Webb of Ballardvale rd., has entered McIntosh College. She is a graduate of Andover High School, class of 1962.

Down the Years with The Townsman

50 Years Ago — September, 1912
Phillips Academy opened this week with a slightly larger enrollment than last year's 566. Nearly all senior applicants were rejected, the trustees having decided that the school is about large enough.

Punchard School opened Monday with an enrollment of 113, 15 more than last year.

Captain Harold Gates has had the first practice of his Punchard football squad.

Francis H. Foster of Central st. left town Wednesday evening for the Pasteur Institute in New York, where he is to undergo treatment as the result of being bitten last week by a mad dog.

James Christie, Chester Callum and Adam Michelini are among the Andover boys who entered the Academy this fall.

A new candy store — to be called the Candy Kitchen — will soon open on Main st. in the store formerly occupied by J. P. West.

Archibald Roosevelt, son of ex-president Roosevelt, has entered Phillips Academy.

25 Years Ago — September, 1937
Five persons were hurt, two very painfully, last night, when a Lawrence car rammed into the rear of a vehicle being driven by a Ballardvale man. The event occurred in front of the Balmoral Spa. The local man had just stopped there when the Lawrence car crashed into him, and forced the auto into an electric light pole, which broke off in four places.

The special congressional primary will be held Tuesday.

Town Clerk George Winslow has been named to the Retirement Board. The other two members are Edmond E. Hammond and Town Accountant Mary Collins.

The School Committee is having a survey conducted to find out whether it is worth while to install an engine at the central heating plant, to provide electricity and power for the school, and for other town departments as well.

Officer Carl Stevens was badly shaken up, but not seriously injured, when an auto struck his motorcycle head-on Monday evening. The officer was guiding a disabled truck off heavily-travelled North Main st. when hit.

10 Years Ago — September, 1952
A record number of 7,419 residents are eligible to vote at the state primaries, which will be held Tuesday next.

In an unusual situation, all voters will receive a separate rent control ballot, when they go to the polls next Tuesday. The party enrollment will not influence that ballot — but the normal procedure will be followed otherwise. The question is whether rent controls should be continued.

The Andover Teachers Association held a get-acquainted dinner party Sunday evening at the Andover Inn.

Eugene A. Bernardin Jr. of Reservation rd. has been named Andover chairman for the Greater Lawrence Community Chest.

The third auto fatality of the year has been recorded. A Corbett rd. man has died at the hospital, after being struck by a car Friday night on North Main st.

Jeep Club Has Been Formed Here

The Andover Jeep Club held its first meeting at the home of Bill Rockwell, 106 Lovejoy rd.

Another meeting will be held Sept. 30, at Mr. Rockwell's home, at 2 p.m. All owners of four-wheel drive vehicles are welcome. An election of officers, and action on establishing by-laws, will take place.

MOTTOLO WILL ATTEND WENTWORTH
An Andover resident has been accepted for admission to Wentworth Institute in Boston this Fall, according to announcement by H. Russell Beatty, Wentworth president.

Localite accepted for September admission is Robert D. Mottolo, 120 North st.

knee-deep drainage ditch, as they neared the school on the Lowell st. side. Whenever cars passed, headed in opposite directions, there was barely room on the road for the vehicles. Many youngsters were observed walking off the road.

Consideration was given Tuesday night to the probability that winter weather will further narrow the road, removing the possibility that children can get off the street when two cars approach.

Supt. Erickson, agreeing that everything possible must be done to safeguard the children, explained that Principal Joseph Normandy and Chief Nicoll reported a successful day Tuesday, when the street was shut down only in the morning.

But the residents of Wild Rose dr., whose requests had been heard earlier in the evening, were insistent that just controlling traffic on Lovejoy rd. does not lessen the problem for youngsters who must walk on their street. They noted the lack of sidewalks, and the use of the street by trucks.

It was suggested that one of the buses already headed for the school merely stop and pick up the additional children, regardless of the distance they live from school.

Matthew Medick, a resident of the street, also urged the School Committee to set some standards as to what the Committee feels is a safe street for children.

He also noted that kindergarten pupils and those in the early grades are not as mature as the older children, and perhaps should not be required to walk on streets where some maturity and judgment is needed.

Another resident immediately noted that the older children are also in danger and should not be deprived of any assistance given others.

PRESENT PLAN WORKS WELL, CHIEF SAYS

Police Chief David L. Nicoll told the Townsman Wednesday that his plan for shutting off Lovejoy rd. in the morning, and providing women crossing guards to walk with the safety patrols in the afternoon, is working out well.

At noon, the chief said, there are few children walking on Lovejoy rd.

He emphasized that everything possible is being done to provide for the children's safety.

Throughout the meeting, members of the School Committee emphasized that the town, not the Committee, has responsibility for the condition of the streets, and thus the School Board can not take action towards construction.

P.F. Group To Hold Outing

Free Church P.F.'ers will go on an outing Sunday, Sept. 16, to the Lundgren's home at Gloucester.

Program ideas will be presented by Eddie Parker, president. Projects and plans for the fall meetings will be discussed. These include Work Day for Christ, building a ping pong table, a float in the Christmas parade, sending money to the Mt. Silenda Mission, a hay ride and a tour in Boston. Closing worship will be led by Miss Karen Lundgren, chairman of the faith commission.

Cars will meet 2:30 at the Church to leave for the outing, and return at 9 p.m.

Associate Minister At South Church

South Church in Andover announces that its associate minister, beginning Sept. 15, will be Nathan James Senft.

Mr. Senft has just completed the classroom work required for a Bachelor of Divinity degree at Andover Newton Theological School and is now in his intern year. This program requires him to report back to the school on three consecutive days of each month for seminars and counseling related to his pastoral and preaching activities.

The son of a minister, Mr. Senft was born Jan. 12, 1938 at McSherrystown, Pa. He was graduated in 1959 from Franklin and Marshall College, where one of his teachers was John Noss, brother of the Rev. Frederick B. Noss, Minister of South Church.

Mr. Senft's wife, the former Anne Wallace of Ludlow, is a 1962 graduate of Andover Newton with the degree of Master of Religious Education. The couple will make their home at 50 Chestnut st.

During his training at Andover Newton, Mr. Senft served as minister to youth at the First Congregational Church in Haverhill, the South Congregational Church in Braintree, and the First Baptist Church in Plaistow. At South Church he will share in all of the pastoral and other ministerial functions in the church with special emphasis on youth work.

The Rev. M. Freeman Strickland, formerly at South Church, is now associate minister in the Melrose Highlands Congregational Church.

Contractor Establishes Routes For Collections

Town-wide collection of garbage started this week, on a twice-weekly basis.

The frequent collection will continue until the end of the month, when once-weekly pick-ups will be started. The specifications for the project call for four months of twice-a-week service, and eight months on the once-a-week basis.

A schedule for the remainder of the month has been released by the town manager - but he has cautioned that patience must be exercised during the first days of the collection.

In some cases, he explains, the contractor will find it necessary to re-arrange the routes slightly, according to the time it takes to cover the streets.

More than 5,000 homes, in addition to all business establishments and restaurants, will be serviced.

Homeowners have been asked to keep the garbage receptacle to a reasonable size, and officials have established that the pails, full, should not weigh more than 100 pounds.

The pails should be placed near the back door, or the service entrance, in plain sight.

Papers, trash and other rubbish should not be placed in the garbage, because it is to be used as feed at a Rowley pig farm. The only allowed paper is one large bag, inside the receptacle.

For the remainder of the month, the following routes have been established:

Cost Figures Are Released

Final cost estimates on Urban Renewal have been presented to town officials by the Housing Authority.

The figures indicate a gross town share of the $3,846,148 program will be $675,449.

This figure is sharply lowered by the credit-payment of $282,600 for the existing town hall, fire station and the land under these two buildings.

Then, if the town spends $231,950 on improvements to streets, utilities, drainage, etc., another credit of $202,487 is applied against the gross share.

Thirdly, the town's gross share is also reduced by the amount of one year's taxes from the area - $46,477.

The report shows a net cost to the town, as its cash share, of $143,885.

Adding the figure to the $231,950 for improvements (this is also a cash outlay by the town), the report shows a total appropriation requirement of $373,835 over a three-year period.

In figuring the total cost of the project, however, town officials emphasize that the annual cost of the bond issue concerned with building a new town hall, police station and fire station, must be added.

This figure has not yet been released by the committee of townspeople studying the problem, quite separately from Urban Renewal.

The report, in considerable detail, shows that a bond issue in the rounded-off sum of $376,000 - for 20 years - would require payment of $100,096 in interest over that period of time.

Adding these two figures together - principal and interest - produces a total cost of $476,096.

The state, according to the report, will pay one-half of this amount, during the 20-year period - much as the school construction assistance is paid off.

This latter amount, to be received over a 20-year period, amounts to $185,746.

Thus the eventual cost - subtracting the state's payments from the total cost of the bond issue - is $290,350.

The report sets forth a detailed breakdown of the cost of each street repair, sewer installation, etc. These figures are being studied by the town engineer, who will give the Selectmen revised estimates if necessary.

The cost figures reported here do not include the cost of any municipal building which will be built under the program. Urban Renewal, it has been explained, does not study construction costs nor get into the area of architectural planning on specific structures.

MANY A MAN WOULD LIKE THIS DOG'S LIFE

So this is a dog's life. Seems a local resident parked briefly at a local market Monday afternoon. And when he returned to the car, a note on the windshield announced that he was being reported to the M.S.P.C.A. because he had left his dog in the car - engine running, windows closed.

The only one happy about the whole incident is the dog.

The car was equipped with air conditioning, and was many degrees cooler, and better ventilated, than many homes and offices.
