Winter Artistry

Cold weather of the past week provided some winter artistry on the Shawsheen River at the Ballardvale dam. Ice-capped rocks divert the river's path as it ambles through town toward its eventual joining of the Merrimack River in North Andover.

Christmas Season A Bonanza For Merchants

By Susan K. O'Neill

He's male; he's got a wife—or a girlfriend or a child—about this big ("Stand over there, won't you, Miss? Hmm...") and, even though he's up against the wall as far as time is concerned, he isn't afraid to spend his money, in quantity, for quality.

If this mystery figure sounds familiar, he should; he's the stereotypical man who shops on Christmas Eve for Christmas. This last holiday season, he and his comrades-in-arms took downtown Andover by storm, and turned the year-end into a financial success for most of the town's merchants.

The pattern cited by John Zenevitch, manager of Macartney's, seems typical of the season for downtown stores. "It went very well—a little slow in starting," he said. "The last two days, we were very busy; I guess that people forgot that there were six days less between Thanksgiving and Christmas this year."

Macartney's Christmas staple was the sweater, as was the case at Her Majesty's Shoppe. "We almost sold out on all our sweaters," said HMS owner Honey Hammersla. "We had magnificent, unique-looking sweaters this year—a lot of dressy clothes; sequined and beaded garments." Although Hammersla's season was good, she said that her Christmas Eve was "decent, but not wild. You must remember, we're off the beaten track," she added, referring to her Elm Square location.

Also off the beaten track—but to the south of the business district, rather than the north—is Papagallo. "I think this year was comparable to other seasons, very sporadic," said manager Cyndy Carter-Likas. "There were a lot of men the day before Christmas." The men bought sweaters, too—as well as rhinestone jewelry. And more: "A lot of men came in wanting blouses, slacks, belts, shoes, the whole nine yards," she said.

At one of Papagallo's neighbor stores, The Yankee Lady, owner Charlotte Martellini said that her season—which was "excellent; much better than last year"—demonstrated one outstanding trait of the last-minute shopper: "It seemed as if the more expensive the item, the better it sold."

"We sold an awful lot of leather and expensive jewelry," agreed Cheryl Hamel, owner of Gardenia. She added, "Our season started up slow and ended up being better than last year, dollar-wise. The last week was the busiest; the last day was incredible—you couldn't move in the store."

At Enzo of Andover, quality was definitely a consideration. "Our holiday season was excellent," said owner Enzo Fossella. "It came through even beyond my original projection." As for Enzo's big sellers: "Cashmere was the thing," he said. "Top coats, scarves, sweaters, gloves lined with cashmere—we sold a tremendous amount of cashmere."

Coats moved well at Russem's, according to manager Jaune DeFrancesco. "The trend was back to the traditional—chesterfields, camel hairs, houndstooth—the preppy look," she said.

Drunk Driving Cost: $3,000

Can you afford $2,792, plus loss of your driver's license, plus a criminal record?

Those are the penalties if you're convicted of drunk driving under the Massachusetts law, as explained in a free folder prepared by AAA in cooperation with the Governor's Highway Safety Bureau.

The handy folder describes in non-legal terms what will happen if you are arrested for suspected drunk driving, what the penalties will be if you are convicted and how much it will cost. Also explained are the provisions involving vehicular homicide, drinking while driving and driving after license revocation.

A person can be expected to pay a total of at least $2,792 if convicted on the first offense of drunk driving, according to the folder, which itemizes such charges as car towing and storage, bail magistrate's fee, cost for a lawyer, the fine, insurance assessment, loss of safe driver credits, court cost and witness fee. In addition, the person's license is revoked for one year. (A jail term is provided for in the law, but is not imposed unless there are unusual circumstances.)

As an alternative to license revocation, a person may receive license suspension for 30 days conditional upon attending a $480 alcohol education program.

"Massachusetts has a tough drunk driving law that I strongly support," Gov. Michael S. Dukakis says in the folder introduction. "But a tough law alone is not enough. I have committed additional law enforcement personnel to enforcement on our roads and highways."

Curling is a sport that resembles shuffleboard or lawn bowling and entails throwing stones at a house. It is played on a large strip of ice and uses a stone that weighs 38 pounds.

Centennial Aquatic Celebration

This year marks the centennial of the first YMCA pool opening in Brooklyn, N.Y., in 1855. Since then the YMCA has pioneered many methods for teaching swimming, lifesaving and other water sports.

To celebrate the centennial, the Andover-North Andover YMCA conducted a relay challenge to try to beat the present record held by the Milwaukee Y which attracted 451 swimmers in 9 hours, 5 minutes and 29 seconds.

The relay is part of the year-long celebration, and even though the local branch of the Greater Lawrence YMCA is just 11 years old, it will join many others of the 2,200 YMCAs across the country in honoring the 100 year as America's favorite swimming instructor.

It was in 1906 that famous swimmer George Corsan introduced the concept of mass swimming. The first "Learn to Swim" campaign was held in 1910 with 16,000 people being taught. This year about two million will learn to swim at a YMCA. There are 50,000 certified staff giving instruction at YMCAs across the country.

The Andover-North Andover Branch offers aquatics in synchronized, preschool, parent/child, youth, adult, diving, water polo, competitive youth and masters teams, therapeutic, arthritis, aquacises, terrified swim instruction, senior citizens swims, lifesaving, learn-to-swim campaigns, family, lap and recreational swims.

Aging: A New Look

A discussion series called "Aging: A New Look" starts Friday, Jan. 31, from 9:30 a.m. to 11 a.m. at the Andover senior center. Program author Alexandra Robbin says, "Age discrimination and negative attitudes have led most of us to fear and dislike our own aging. But, attitudes can be changed. That's why this program is important. It supports our desire to grow older with dignity and develop our human potential."

Guided by a variety of readings, recordings and activities, group members explore dozens of stimulating topics, such as age prejudice, family relationships, loss and grief, nursing homes, values, reminiscence and love and romance in one's later years.

Participants learn ways to combat age discrimination, improve communication skills, increase self-understanding, gain consumer and coping skills and join with others in reminiscing, sharing experiences and making new friends.

"Aging: A New Look," adds the author, "is packed full of information on coping with life today."

To learn more, call Andover Council on Aging.

Eagle Scout Awards

BABY TALK

by Jack Resnick

Nowadays, cribs have strict safety standards. All new cribs should meet these specific requirements: they must have a standard-size mattress that fits snugly into the frame with slats no more than two and three-eighths inches apart. Rail height must be sufficient even when in the drop position. There must be strong, baby-proof devices for locking the drop side. And there must be no hardware that can hurt the child. Use fabric-padded bumpers around the sides of the crib to protect the baby's head, but remove when the child is old enough to use the bumper as a stepping stool out of the crib.

Baby furniture by leading manufacturers is available at TINY TOTLAND. Open 9:530 Mon. & Th. 9-9 We carry everything from pacifiers to strollers. Toys for all ages ... "heaven to seven". Named Chief Financial Officer

Thomas P. Graham

Graham received a Bachelor of Science degree in accounting from Bentley College and is a certified public accountant in Massachusetts and New Hampshire. His professional memberships include the Financial Executives Institute, American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Massachusetts Society of Certified Public Accounts.

He lives at 11 Blueberry Circle.

Prior to his experience at LFE, Graham was an audit supervisor with the Boston office of Coopers & Lybrand.

EnMasse Computer Corporation has announced the appointment of Thomas P. Graham of Andover as vice president of finance and administration and chief financial officer of the company. Graham was previously vice president of finance and CFO at LFE Corporation, an $80 million-a-year international manufacturing company based in Clinton.

"Tom brings a wealth of senior financial management experience to EnMasse," said Chester C. Fennell, Jr., president and chief executive officer. "This is a newly created position, designed to give us an even stronger management base."

Graham will report directly to Fennell and will be responsible for all financial and administrative functions within the corporation. EnMasse, based in Acton, has created a hardware/software system in the area of Integrated Transaction Management and was founded in 1983. The firm has received more than $11 million in two rounds of venture financing.

In his vice president's post at LFE, Graham was responsible for all financial and treasury activities, including SEC reporting for the company, which is listed on the New York Stock Exchange. His duties included both the data processing and management information systems departments, as well as acquisitions, divestitures, relations with the financial community and participation in board of directors' meetings. During his ten years at LFE, Graham served as controller of the process control division and assistant corporate controller.

Widow, Widower Discussion

Are you a widowed Andover resident age 60 or older? If you are, there is a discussion series scheduled at the Andover senior center which may be of interest. The series will take place on Wednesdays, beginning January 29, from 12:30 p.m. to 2 p.m. for eight weeks. If you have lost a spouse, you may be feeling lonely, helpless, fearful, angry or despairing. These feelings are normal and may result in a loss of concentration, hope, motivation and energy. This program consists of a series of group meetings, designed to help deal with loss. Each session begins with a presentation followed by a discussion period with a chance to share feelings with others. Refreshments will be served.

The schedule of topics is:

January 29, Introduction;
February 5, Your Feelings are Okay;
February 12, Feeling Alone;
February 19, Grieving is Hard Work;

February 26, Reflecting on Honest Memories;
March 4, Developing New Relationships;
March 11, You Can Make It!;
March 18, Summary.
Pat Konkle will be the discussion leader.

Bank Opens Loan Center

Beverly Savings Bank opened a new loan center at 63 Park Street Village, Andover, recently. It has also opened another loan center in downtown Beverly.

The Andover loan center will be headed by Paul Nasser, manager, and Paula Caron, assistant manager, according to Peter A. Hersee, president.

"The opening of the two centers allows us to meet increased customer needs for loan services in both markets and to serve those needs more effectively," Hersee said.

Customers throughout the Andover-Lowell-Lawrence area will be able to secure loans for mortgages and commercial real estate loans from the bank's Andover office.

Office hours are from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Wednesday and Friday and until 7 p.m. on Thursday. The office will be open from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Saturday.

President

Carla Moses, medical staff services coordinator at Bon Secours Hospital, has been elected president-elect of the Massachusetts Association of Medical Staff Services for a one-year term.

The Massachusetts Association of Medical Staff Services is an affiliation of the national organization which has more than 1,000 members representing all 50 states. Membership provides an informational forum for medical staff services coordinators and keeps them up-to-date on the changes in health care services.

Special Blood Donor Hours

The American Red Cross Blood Services - Northeast Region has announced special holiday hours which will be scheduled for the Red Cross Blood Donor Center at Bon Secours Hospital in Methuen. Donor hours on and New Year's Eve will be from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m.

"The holidays are always a difficult time for blood collection, because people are busy planning celebrations," said Judy Schaefer, spokesperson for the Northeast Region Blood Services. "We are changing our operating hours on these holidays to make it more convenient for donors to give blood.

"We generally notice a decline in blood donations during major holiday periods, because donors become involved in festive activities. The week between Christmas and New Year's Day is a time of particular stress on the blood supply because these holidays fall so closely together," she said. "Throughout the summer and fall blood collections have been lower than usual, which resulted in a blood shortage in September. While this shortage has been alleviated, thanks to tremendous public response to an appeal for blood, there is always the possibility that a decline in donations during the holiday could cause serious shortages," according to Schaefer. Generally, anyone in good health, 18 years of age or older (17 years with signed American Red Cross parental/guardian consent form), who weighs at least 110 pounds and has never had hepatitis may be able to donate blood. For more information on holiday and regular hours and scheduled blood drives, call the Red Cross toll free number during business hours.

Home improvements. College bills. Financial emergencies. They can all hit the budget pretty hard. And sometimes it's difficult to see just where the money will come from. Lawrence Savings Bank has found the source. Your home.

If you're a homeowner, our new H.O.M.E. Power program gives you immediate access to a $10,000 to $100,000 home equity line of credit. You can use the money for any purpose . . . a vacation, a new automobile, investments. It's up to you.

Using your Lawrence Savings Bank H.O.M.E. Power line of credit is easy. You simply write a H.O.M.E. Power check any time you wish. There's no need to re-apply for credit each time you need money.

Repayment terms are easy too. And, the interest rate is just 1 1/2 percent over the prime rate as published in The Wall Street Journal. That's lower than most personal loan and credit card rates.

Your home is a powerful financial asset.

H.O.M.E. Power lets you use it. And you don't even have to be a Lawrence Savings Bank customer to apply.

Visit a customer service representative at any Lawrence Savings Bank office today. Or, call for an application.

It's nice to know money is no object.

“Chocolate Chronicles”

A slide-lecture, “The Chocolate Chronicles” by Ray Broekel, will be presented at the Andover Historical Society, 97 Main St., on Wednesday, Jan. 8, at 8 p.m. (Snow date, Wednesday, Jan. 15.) The program is open to the public at a nominal fee and to museum members at no charge.

Broekel has recently published a book by the same title, telling the story of American history through the tale of its candy bars. A unique approach, the book is delightful reading on a topic that will bring back memories to young and old. His slide-lecture will present highlights of the book’s chronicle.

Appropriate refreshments will be served following the lecture and copies of the book will be available for purchase.

Broekel, an Ipswich resident, is a professional author and editor who teaches writing courses at North Shore Community College. He has produced more than 150 books of fiction and non-fiction, including many educational books for children.

The society is a non-profit, educational institution open to members and the public. For information on open hours, exhibitions, tours, special events and membership, call the society office Monday through Friday between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m.

Transfer

A $2.5 million annual state program, currently serving approximately 1,300 disabled people statewide, will be transferred January 1 from the state Department of Social Services to the Massachusetts Rehabilitation Commission.

vision and administration of the program will. The transfer is being made because it was deemed appropriate for single-service disabled clients to be served by the Rehabilitation Commission which now provides these services.

Women & Pre-Nuptial Agreements

If you are contemplating marriage or remarriage, you may be concerned that you will risk the eventual loss of some or all of your property or other assets in the event of a dissolution of your marriage by death or divorce. You may also be uneasy about raising these concerns with your prospective husband because you do not wish to seem unromantic or greedy. A properly negotiated and drafted pre-nuptial agreement can often address these very genuine concerns. The assistance of a lawyer in the negotiation and drafting process is essential if you wish your agreement to be valid and enforceable at some later time.

Embroiderers Donate Funds

The Bay Colony Society of Embroiderers donated $7,247 to the Museum of American Textile History, North Andover, to purchase contemporary books on American textile history, technology, industry, labor, design and decorative arts.

The gift is made in memory of Betty Shriner, who was an active member of the embroiderers' society. "Sewing and quilting were a large part of her life, which was enriched by the wonderful people who worked and learned at her side," says her husband, Richard W. Shriner, of Weston.

At the request of the Shriner family, the gift will be added to the museum's endowment fund and the income will be used to purchase books for the library, particularly those that can be used by staff and library patrons for teaching purposes. A special bookplate will be placed in each book purchased with these funds.

"Since the bulk of the museum's book budget now goes to the rare book side of the collection, the purchase of new books is often neglected," says Clare Sheridan, librarian. "I feel that the purchase of contemporary research will enhance personal scholarship and will benefit the educational work of the museum."

Exhibit

The paintings of Lorraine Elers of Reading will be on display each weekday from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. through January 10 at the American Mutual Insurance Companies in Wakefield.

The public is welcome.

The Bay Colony Society of Embroiderers was founded in the 1960s. It merged with the American Institute of Textile Arts in 1981 and its members voted in 1985 to dissolve the organization. The assets of the group are represented in its gift to the museum.

Among the members of the embroiderers' guild instrumental in arranging the gift to the museum are Sarah S. Reed of Dedham; Mrs. Jerome Bertolino of Chestnut Hill; Mrs. John R. Davis of Wellesley; Mrs. Ferris M. Hall of Brookline; Mrs. Roger Kinnicutt, Jr. of Holden; and Mrs. Raymond Walther of Cambridge.

Rock 'N Roll Sock Hop Follows Collins Center Performance

Chubby Checker and Danny and the Juniors will ring in the New Year with a bit of nostalgia when they stroll down memory lane, singing their greatest rock 'n roll hits of the '50s and '60s at Andover's J. Everett Collins Center for the Performing Arts on Saturday, Jan. 11, at 8 p.m.

After revving up from Checker's "The Twist" and Danny and The Juniors' "At The Hop," the audience will have a second opportunity to relive the good 'ole days at a sock hop in the Collins Center cafeteria following the concert. Lawrence radio personalities will spin favorite rock 'n roll records, pizza and soda will be available and dance contests will be in full swing. (Dance enthusiasts are encouraged to dress in 50's and 60's styles.)

Ernest "Chubby Checker" Evans was responsible for "twistmania" in the 1950s. Guys and gals decked in sweaters, skirts and letter jackets were hooked on a popular dance routine that quickly developed into a national pastime. Chubby Checker has entertained audiences worldwide in concerts, fairs, parks, clubs and colleges. He remains in the thick of rock music in the 1980s with his new album on MCA records, "The Change Has Come." One critic said that with "more fire and fervor than most musicians, Chubby Checker keeps up with the times musically. . . He proves he's capable of handling any form of pop music."

To Unveil King Work

Boston University Professor John Wilson, chosen by the National Foundation for the Arts and Mrs. Coretta Scott King to create a bust of Martin Luther King for the Rotunda of the nation's Capitol, will unveil his work January 16 in Washington, D.C., to a gathering of some of the nation's leading statesmen and human rights leaders.

Wilson, a resident of Brookline, studied at Boston's Museum of Fine Arts School before going to Tufts and a period of study in Europe and Mexico. Boston University offered him a place on the teaching staff of the School of Visual Arts in 1964.

Wilson will take part in the Martin Luther King Day celebrations at Boston University, King's alma mater, on January 20.

Danny And The Juniors

Danny and The Juniors began their career in 1957. Their first recording, "At The Hop," rocketed to the top of the national charts that year. Their top chart list also included "Rock 'n Roll is Here to Stay," "Sometimes" and "Twistin' USA." They produced 11 chart records, with sales now totalling more than 25 million. The group, who perform harmonies, dance routines, comedy and impressions, continue performing to enthusiastic audiences in concerts and night clubs throughout the world.

Admission is free to the Rock 'n Roll Sock Hop with concert ticket stub. Tickets are available at the Collins Center box office, Shawsheen Road, off Routes 133 and 93, in Andover.

For centuries, small Spanish settlements in the American southwest have celebrated Christmas Eve with torchlight or candlelight processions. Paths to hillside shrines and churches are lit with pinon wood bonfires known as shepherd's fires or "luminarias."

Comedy Hit At Lowell

"Educating Rita," the comedy hit by Willy Russell, will be presented by the Merrimack Repertory Theatre January 3-19. This comedy concerns a fiftieth professor of English and a forthright young hairdresser, hungry for education. Who teaches whom is the question to be resolved in this refreshing and humorous play.

The production will be directed by Richard Rose, MRT's production manager and director of last year's production of "A Little Night Music," which recently won the Boston Critics Circle Award for Outstanding Musical Production in the Equity Professional Theatre category.

Robin Chadwick plays Frank, the professor. He was most recently seen at MRT as Scrooge in "A Christmas Carol" and played in "MacBeth" at the North Shore Music Theatre and "The Unexpected Guest" at the American Stage Festival in Milford, N.H. Chadwick was also seen on BBC TV's series "The Brothers" for several seasons.

Cynthia Babak, who was recently seen in the American premiere of Robert Wilson's "The Golden Windows" at the Brooklyn Academy of Music, will play Rita. She trained at Emerson College and appeared in the Boston Repertory Theatre's production of "The Little Prince."

The set has been designed by Leslie Taylor, who also designed the sets this season for "The School for Wives" and "A Christmas Carol." Costumes and lights are being designed by MRT's resident costume and lighting designers, Amanda Aldridge and Kendall Smith, respectively.

The theatre's new home is Liberty Hall, part of Lowell's Memorial Auditorium complex, located in the historic downtown district.

Performances are Mondays and Wednesdays through Saturdays at 8 p.m., Sundays at 3 p.m. and 7 p.m. and a Wednesday matinee, Jan. 8, at 2 p.m. Group rates are available. Reservations are available through the box office.

The median age in the U.S. is 31.

Andover's William K. O'Brien (right) receives a recognition plaque for his volunteer efforts in helping the United Way of Massachusetts Bay raise a record $39,010,240 in this fall's annual fund-raising campaign. The presentation, by "Merlin the Magician," took place at the United Way's final dinner, "The Magic is You," held recently at the Sheraton-Boston Hotel. O'Brien, managing partner of Coopers & Lybrand, was honored for his work as chairman of United Way's Professional Division.

Fighting Snow, Ice In County

"It's the same thing every year. During the first snow-storm, the motoring public acts as if they have never been in a storm before," Walter Leszczynski, snow and ice engineer for the Massachusetts Department of Public Works (MDPW) District 5, says. He is in charge of overseeing snow and ice control on more than 1,400 lane-miles of highway in the Essex County area. Leszczynski is a 16-year veteran of the MDPDW and has been the district's snow and ice engineer for the past four years.

He has the first and last word when it comes to making decisions that govern the way traffic will move during inclement weather. It is up to him to decide if and when a road closure is necessary to protect public safety. Most commonly, according to Leszczynski, heavy drifted snow and poor visibility are the main reasons for closing a roadway.

"We have about 50 pieces of equipment in the district, including plows, spreaders and graders," says Leszczynski, who supervises a 100-member crew. He adds that when weather conditions become extreme, round-the-clock shifts are organized to insure clear roadways and the safe passage of the motoring public.

The MDPW has more than 12,000 lane-miles of highway across the Commonwealth under its jurisdiction. If a severe storm should strike the entire state, district and headquarters supervisors are able to send more than 3,000 pieces of state and contracted snow-removal equipment out to help make the roadways safe.

To further assist crews, the state has stockpiled approximately 215,000 tons of salt and 150,000 tons of sand at various locations. The two are often mixed and applied in varying amounts, depending on road conditions.

"We plan early to ensure a safe winter season for all motorists," Leszczynski says. "Our aim is to keep traffic flowing—truckers begin travelling at 4 or 5 a.m. and we have to keep that in mind."

The responsibility for safe winter driving ultimately lies with the individual motorist, according to Leszczynski. He cites lack of caution and excessive speed as the primary causes of accidents and cautions drivers to be aware that snow emergency vehicles move more slowly than the flow of traffic. "People should try to be patient. If a line of cars is starting to stack up, the snow emergency driver will usually pull over and let the cars get by."

"My life's not my own from November 15 to April 15," Leszczynski says. "The state owns me, body and soul, until the spring thaw."

Program Repeated

A special program for professionals in the chemical industry on the latest in chemical instrumentation will be repeated at Merrimack College January 28-May 13.

The non-credit course will be offered on Tuesdays from 5:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

Nuclear magnetic resonance, infrared spectroscopy, gas chromatography, high performance liquid chromatography, atomic absorption and electrochemistry are among the techniques and concepts to be covered.

The course covers theory, but the main emphasis is placed on "hands on" training with the instruments, with particular attention to the operation of the instruments and the analysis of results.

Kitchen Design

by David A. Clement, Designer

A MATTER OF COLOR

New neutral colors for appliances were unveiled by manufacturers nearly two years ago. They are slowly making their way into America's kitchens. The new neutrals, however, have a long way to go before they catch on as the first choice in appliance colors. The new colors are "toast" or "sand," which are warm tans for traditional decorating, and "platinum" or "silver" to go with cooler color schemes. These new colors face stiff competition from almond. The creamy classic accounted for 57 percent of all refrigerators and 51 percent of all ranges shipped to retailers in 1984. However, the mighty can indeed fall. Today, harvest gold, avocado, coffee and coppertone (the darlings of the 60's) together account for no more than 8 percent of shipments.

Church Sponsors Quiet Day

Verna Dozier, outstanding lay leader in the Episcopal church, will be at Christ Church, 25 Central St., on January 4 to lead a day of Bible study and reflection in a theme appropriate for the Epiphany season. She leads such events all over the United States. Ms. Dozier will provide a wonderful opportunity to reflect upon our lives in the light of the God who's revelation comes anew each year at this time.

Ms. Dozier has an electric presence and commanding way of speaking from the depths of her experience and vast knowledge of the bible. Her lively spirit is exciting and infectious.

When asked recently if the role of women in the church was changing, she replied, "Certainly women in this country are assuming more authority. Look at the increased number of women clergy. But, often an oppressed group, as it gains power, sees no model to emulate but the model of the oppressors. That's why the Biblical versions of the new tribe are so important. Jesus tells us that he is calling us to a new world, with new language, with new visions; a world in which we must be servants of all."

The Quiet Day will begin in the parish hall at 9 a.m. and end at 3 p.m. Bring a bag lunch; coffee and tea will be provided.

Holiday Punch

If serving an alcoholic punch, make it with a non-carbonated base. The body absorbs alcohol much faster when combined with a carbonated mixer such as ginger ale. Fruit juice or tea is a preferable base for party punches.

Rev. J. Everett Bodge, Was Pastor Of South Church

Rev. J. Everett Bodge

His license plate read, "Rev-Ev," which symbolized the humor and down-to-earth touch the Rev. J. Everett Bodge used to guide South Church parishoners through the often troubling results of values in upheaval, during the sixties and early seventies.

"The Rev. Bodge provided mature leadership during the tumultuous sixties and left a legacy of strong lay leadership in South Church," said Rev. Dr. Westy Egmont, Pastor of South Church.

Dr. Bodge died suddenly, Dec. 25 on Nantucket. He was 66. He was the current pastor of the First Congregation Church-Old North Vestry on Nantucket, having served there since 1978. On Sunday, Dec. 28, he was scheduled to deliver his final sermon before retirement.

He was the 14th pastor at the 274-year-old South Church in Andover from 1967 to 1977. In 1977, Dr. Bodge answered a call to become interim senior minister of the United Parish of Brookline. His resignation was tended and received with great regret. In his statement, he referred to "the strong ministry we have had together" and "the strength of the ties that will always bind us."

During Dr. Bodge's ministry, South Church joined with other congregations, both Christian and Jewish, to take on social problems or to partake in special activities like common Thanksgiving Day services.

"He was responsible for putting the Ministerial Organizations back on their feet in the sixties and early seventies. He assisted other ministers of other religious traditions, with his warmth and concern," said Roger Wiehe, 103 Salem St.

Interested in the Ecumenical movement, he was one of the founders of Greater Lawrence Ecumenical Area Ministry (Gleam). The organization conducted day care and housing programs for Hispanics in Lawrence.

"He was gifted and interested," Wiehe said. "He always went further than most in his caring for parishoners and the people of the town. He was a forerunner in the counseling ministry, his doctorate involved psychology, he would spend many hours with people with special problems and used the counseling tools he had acquired."

He was an avid reader, who brought contemporary culture and his love of the theatre to his sermons, it gave them pertinence and depth, Wiehe said.

He was known for his warm pastoral concern for the community and open to the ideas of those he would try to help, Rev. Frederick Pease, interium minister of the Northeast United Church of Christ, said.

Dr. Bodge continued the strong relationship South Church had always had with the community. He participated in several town commissions, chaplain of the Andover Militia, during the Bicentennial Celebrations, preached on the Chaplaincy of the Rev. Jonathan French, who was pastor of the South Church during the American Revolution and Chaplain of the Militia.

Dr. Bodge was a member of the executive board of the Andover Red Cross, a member of the Andover Historical Society, a trustee of the Punchard School, and a member of both the Executive Committee and the board of directors of the Greater Lawrence Drug Council. He was a member of St. Matthew's Lodge, Af&AM of Andover and active in the Lawrence Rotary Club.

"He was warm and knew the value of friendship and giving. When you saw the "Rev-Ev," license plate driving around town, you knew he was going about the Lord's business in his own unique brand of caring and humor," Rev. Pease said.

Born in Somerville in 1919, he was a graduate of Tufts University and Crane Theological School in Medford. He was ordained in 1944 and during his pastorate in Andover, he received a doctor of ministry degree from the Andover Newton Theological School in Newton and studied at Harvard University Divinity School.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. Ruth (Baker) Bodge; three sons, James Bodge of Somerville, David Bodge of Laconia, N.H., and Lawrence of Windham, N.H.; and three grandchildren, all of Laconia, N.H.

Memorial service was held Monday afternoon on Nantucket. Memorial services will be held, at a date to be announced, at the First Congregational Church, College Avenue, West Somerville. Burial was in Wyoming Cemetery, Melrose.

Henry S. Anthony

Henry S. Anthony, Jr., of Westwind Road, died Dec. 28 at his home. He was 71.

He was born in Lowell and had been an Andover resident for the past 27 years.

He held a bachelor's degree in chemistry from the former Lowell Technological Institute. He had been a chemist for many years with Converse Rubber Co. in Andover until his retirement. He was a member of the Boston Rubber Club and American Chemical Association.

He leaves his wife, Nina (Nicholas) Anthony of Andover; one daughter, Mrs. H. Jane Anthony of Andover; and one son, Henry S. Anthony III of Middleton.

A funeral service was held Tuesday afternoon at the Morse-Bayliss Funeral Home, 122 Princeton Boulevard, at Chester and Harvard Streets, Lowell. Burial followed in Westlawn Cemetery, Lowell.

Memorial contributions may be made to the South Church Organ Fund, Central Street, Andover, Mass. 01810.

Customers also loved a low-priced one-size-fits-all stretch glove. "We sold thousands of them," she said. Many of those thousands went, of course, at the last minute. "I suspect that they were in just about every stocking in Andover," said DeFrancesco.

Next door, Rena Monoxelos of Young Fashions said that her store, too, experienced a last-minute surge—but that the season as a whole was "very consistent."

Fragrances, stuffed animals and lingerie helped give R.L. Petersen's "a very good year," in the words of owner Lee Zolner. On Christmas Eve, salesperson Olivia Scileppi reported, "It was absolutely hectic—we had everybody on, and it was—" she paused, groping for a word, then grinned—"absolutely great."

Things were a bit quieter at Cristina's in the Park Street Village mall—but they were still profitable. "We did very well," said owner Cristina Canto-Kalman. "There were a few last minute shoppers—a lot of men shoppers, which was nice."

Upstairs, in The Lingerie Showroom, those male shoppers appeared in droves, their eyes lit with desperation, according to salesperson Polly Harper. "We had a real good season—it was almost like you had to close the doors on people at the last minute. This is the season when we see most of the men shoppers." Among them, according to Harper, were many a Christmas Eve customer who sized up the clerks to help gauge his own giftee's size. Others were more clever. "We sold a lot of lace body stockings, one-size-fits-all," laughed Harper, adding, "Not many men bought flannel gowns this year."

Patti Taylor of Andover Beauty Supply

sold fragrances to men, in quantity, at the last minute. "They were desperate," she said flatly.

Co-owner Jim Angle disagreed. "No, some were very calculated," he said. Then he added, as an aside, "I always like to defend the men."

Owners of two Main Street stores profited from Andoverites who spent a substantial amount of money decking their halls—and their feet—for the holiday season.

"We did fantastic, considering the renovation," said Bob Barrett, manager of

Parents, Educators To Address Lack Of Student Participation

Participation in high school activities is down. Only 80 students attended the evening Homecoming Pep Rally; 100 attended the student variety show; 100 showed up in costume to the annual Halloween Dance; a few students and their parents attended the fall play, "Harvey;" and the recent Sophomore Social drew only 30 students.

Principal Mary Jennings and the high school parents' organization are concerned about these figures. They represent a significant decline in participation over previous years.

The initial reaction of the high school's Parent Advisory Council (P.A.C.) was to suggest more student activities that might capture the young peoples' interest. Before making such an expanded commitment, however, the P.A.C. decided it should first assess what other types of social activities might be drawing students away from the organized, supervised school activities.

To accomplish this, the high school P.A.C. is sponsoring a community seminar Tuesday, Jan. 7, at 7:30 p.m. at the Collins Center. The topic is "The Teenage Social Scene in Andover—Whose Party is it?" Parents of junior high and high school students are encouraged to attend.

Panel presentations by students, parents and community leaders will introduce the topic and present possible solutions. Staff from the Greater Lawrence Psychological Center will then facilitate small group discussions to review the issues and suggest possible further directions.

Panel participants will include Andrea Bachner, Sylvia Lewis and Gayle Keene, parents; Mary Robb, Rick Sapienza, students; Rev. Westy Egmont, Dr. Larry Larsen, Atty. Charles Dalton, Principal Mary Jennings, Ruby Easton, director of guidance; and a representative from the Andover Police Department.

"The Andover High School staff and student body will be quite interested in the outcome of this seminar and further discussion groups that might grow out of it," says Jennings. "People are quite discouraged with the low participation numbers—only as a total community can we turn this around."

For further information on this seminar and follow-up activities, contact Andover High School. Officers of the high school P.A.C. would also be happy to explain the issue. They include Helen Anderson and Susan Bishop, presidents; Maureen Gerstberger and Bobbi Burnett, vice presidents; and Phyllis Katz, secretary.

The next meeting of the high school Parent Advisory Council will be Tuesday, Jan. 21, at 7:30 p.m.

Grateful Merchants Enjoyed Busy Christmas Season

Scanlon's Hardware, which is presently stuffed into approximately one-third of the space it occupied last year." Customers flocked to the store the week before Christmas, buying lights, trimming, snow implements and, of all things, humidifiers. "We practically had to throw them out the day before Christmas," said Barrett.

Customers of Daher's Shoes splurged on fashion boots for the season, said manager Ron Renaud. "Overall, it was better this year than last. The weekend after Thanksgiving surpassed everything we've done."

A number of holiday shoppers solved their gift dilemmas this year by sending flowers—which made the season merry and bright for local florists. "FTD and Teleflora specials—I ran out of both," said Marguerette Trull, who owns Valentine's Flowers with her husband.

"It was very successful—a lot better than last year," said Mary Cox of Imagine That Florists. "We sent out a lot of flowers. We went about four-to-one, outgoing to incoming orders." Because their customers ordered ahead of time, both owners reported that their Christmas Eves were not outrageously busy.

Such was not the case for Andover's many gift shops, however. The last-minute shopper hit them like a tidal wave.

"The employees of the Butler's Pantry are still alive and able to tell the tale," announced owner Toni Weber from behind her store's counter. In her arms, Weber held a stuffed duck, which she stroked—for its calming effect, she indicated. "We had a good Christmas season—"

"All in one day," added one of her sales clerks.

"The day before Christmas, we were mobbed," said Barbara Phelan of Andover Yarns and Crafts. Last-minute customers added the touch of profit to an otherwise slow season for Phelan by buying such specialty items as knitting bags and needle sets.

Customers' tastes varied, insofar as gift shop items were concerned. In some cases, their purchases were somewhat off-the-wall.

"Deborah Lane of The Andovers Gift Shop in Post Office Square, credited her season's success to the skill of her buyers—her three children, aged 6, 8 and 11. She obligingly demonstrated one of their purchases, which had sold very well: a toy bicycle that, when whirled on its leash, appears to ride in circles on the carpet.

"You'd call it an executive toy, I guess," she said.

"It was a very good—very good—season," agreed Duncan Gormley, manager of Regina China and Crystal. "The Saturday before Christmas, the rush began—they bought a lot of Waterford Crystal this year." And nutcrackers, masquerading as little firemen, kings, pirates, hunters and skiers. And handmade caroling figures—"very popular," emphasized Gormley. "It's a sort of a craze."

For Sandy Fournier of Just For You, the craze was "those cloth bags of mine. I can't believe how many I sold; people were even calling me up about them." Customers also came for limited edition collectables, such as sculptor Thomas Clarke's gnome figures. "The people wanted quality stuff this year," she said.

Among hot commodities in Moose-allaneous this season were stuffed dogs and monkeys with the mechanical ability to speak up for themselves. "We had a man who came in the 24th and bought one," said Anita Karas, who co-owns the shop with Joyce Witover. "He thought it was just a cute little animal." When his new monkey spoke to him as he was leaving, said Karas, "The man was flabbergasted."

Next door at Limited Editions, shoppers bought what Jay Koffman, son of owner Mitchell Koffman, termed "stocking stuffers"—small prints. The store also sold a number of custom art works; in all, the season was "a very nice one," he said.

At the corner of Park and Florence Streets, another "new kid in town," Mission Traders, reported a good first holiday season. According to salesperson Laura Lattanzio, many customers expressed delight at the variety of gifts in the shop; no one item significantly outsold others. "I guess I'd just say that Christmas was really kind to Mission Traders," she said.

Thompson's Office Products reported a banner season. "It was our best year ever," said manager Janet Walker, "But we're also in a new location with more to offer than in years gone by."

Thompson customers filled the store right up to its 5 p.m. closing time on Christmas Eve, buying items from its International Christmas display, said Walker. Decorations from all over the world; nutcrackers, novelties and centerpieces—"They did very well," she said.

At the Andover Children's Shop, owner Cindy Hall reported that her season had been as much as 10 percent more profitable than last year. "The stuff we have here is not really commercial," she explained. "People buy basic, traditional toys—things people have been buying kids for years and years." Non-battery items; portable indoor slide and gym sets, and little wooden trains that run along little wooden tracks, powered exclusively by child-produced energy, were big sellers this year.

Both Nazarian's and Grecoe's jewelry stores met the mysterious last-minute stranger with the Cadillac tastes. "It was better than last year," said Barry Grecoe. "We were surprised; we didn't think that Monday and Tuesday would be as good as they were."

"Diamonds, pearls, fashion earrings—they all went well," said Steve Nazarian. "It was a good year—and at the last minute, it was crazy."

Shoppers for electronic presents were more conservative, according to the owners of three stores. "We had a good Christmas," said Andover Photo owner Dick Chapell. "I would not say it was a great Christmas. This year, there seemed to be a difference. We didn't go home at the end of each day, just blaaah (I wonder how you'll spell that?)," he said. "The customers kept coming and coming, but it was not overwhelming. We are ahead of last year."

"A lot of people came in the last week or so for VCR's and that sort of thing," said Dave Fraser, manager of Andover Entertainment Center in the Park Street Village mall. "At the last minute, all the parents came in with lists of tapes for their children," he added. "It's our first Christmas in the business, of course. We're still getting a lot of new people in; people still don't know we're here."

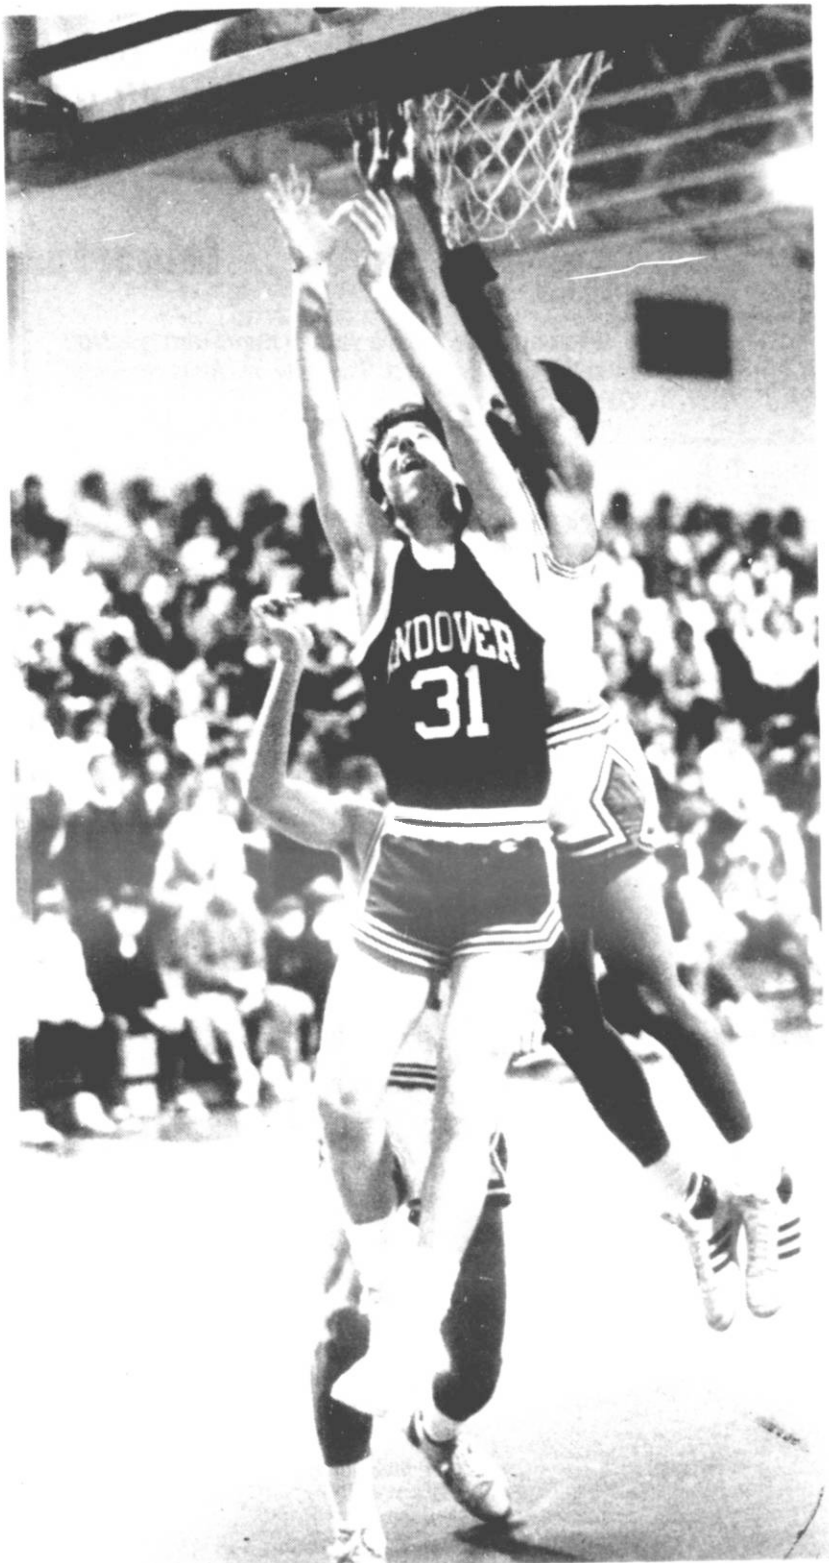

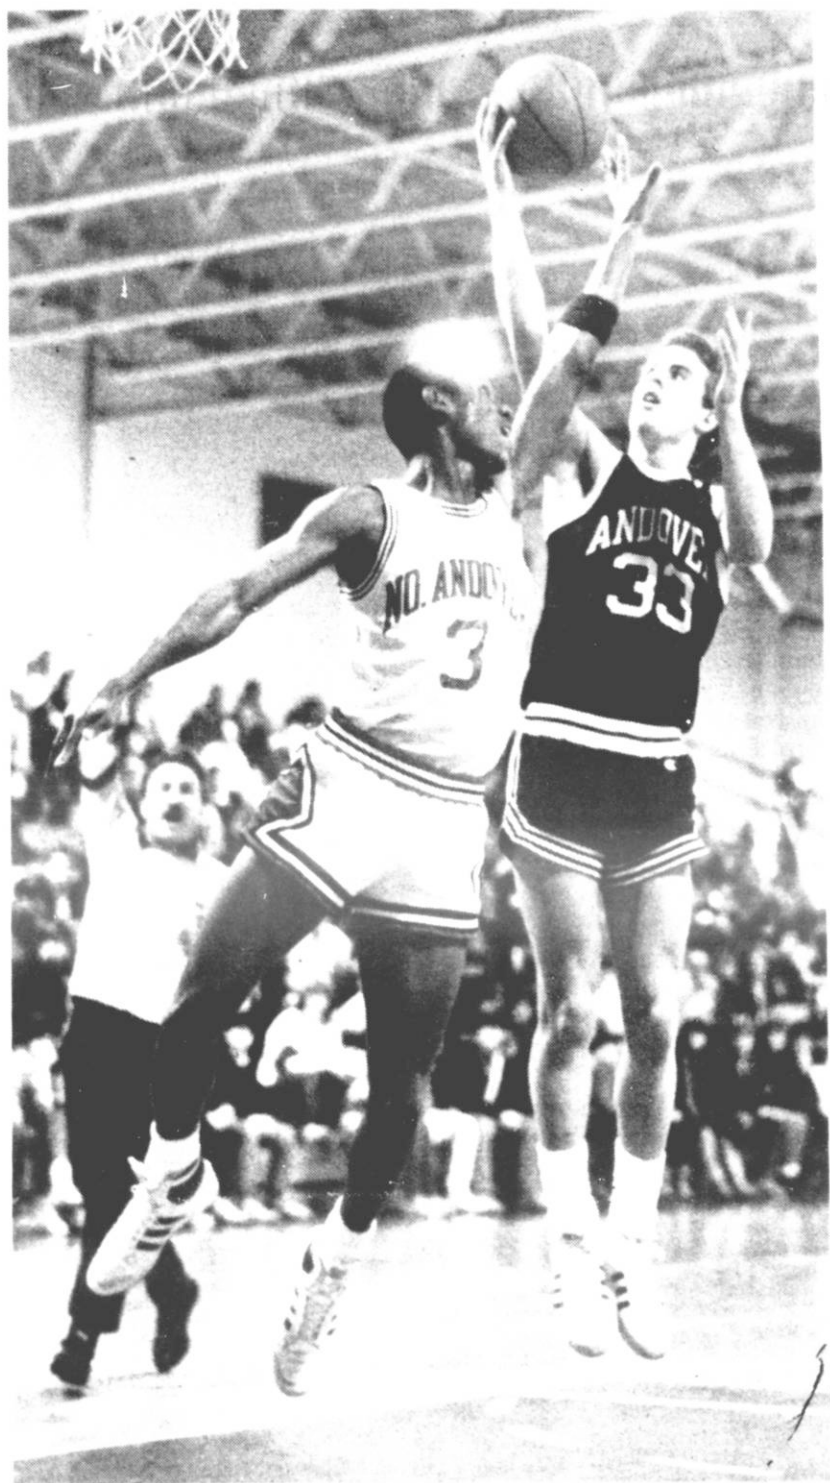

With On Line Computer Systems, the issue was not identity; it was the changing use of the computer itself. "The home market wasn't really there this year," owner Richard Bramante said. "We had a strong December on small business systems—maybe a little better than last December. It's a different mix altogether."

Christmas Festival '85

Andover High Warriors settled for third place in the The Eleventh Anniversary Greater Lawrence Christmas Festival by defeating North Andover 76-59 last Friday. Taking first place in the tourney was Central Catholic as they defeated Lawrence High in the championship match. Andover's dream to play against Central Catholic for the championship was shattered Thursday night when Lawrence surprisingly upset the Warriors 57-46. Tim Perry was once again high scorer in Friday's game with 23 points, playing only a little more than half the game. Perry picked up a total of 126 points for the four games his team played in the festival. Other Warriors contributing to the victory were Doug Rotondi with 21 points, John Perry with 14 and Darren Currier, 10. Photos clockwise from upper left: Doug Rotondi shoots over North Andover player; John Klopacz moves the ball towards the hoop; Tim Perry lays in two points; John Perry battles against the boards; Andover High fans let everybody know who is number one; Chris Bartley prepares for his foul shot; Andover cheerleading captains, Kristen Buchanan, Jennifer Ippolito and Celeste Concemi, cheer their team on to victory.

Important Meeting

What appears to be a rather important meeting is scheduled for next Tuesday at Andover High School.

The Parents Advisory Council of the school has scheduled the session with parents, educators and community leaders to determine why attendance at school functions is at an all-time low.

As pointed out by High School Principal Mai A. Jennings, various functions scheduled throughout the first part of the school year have commanded the attention of only a handful of students.

The meeting Tuesday night is designed to examine the reasons for poor attendance and what alternatives can be offered to attract more attention to after-school activities.

The planning of this session comes at a time when Police Chief James Johnson and the TOWNSMAN have been both criticized and praised for bringing to the attention of the townspeople an increasing problem of alcohol and drug abuse at the junior high school level.

Frankly, we commend the police chief and members of his department for making the community aware of a serious problem in the town in order that action can be taken to curb the situation before it worsens.

Also, there has been a response to the pointing out of the problem by indicating a need for young people to gather, such as a teen center.

Teen centers in Andover have been tried in the past and have either been found wanting for supervised activity or have simply failed.

Such centers need some sort of supervision, either parental volunteers or paid professionals who design and oversee activities.

The volunteer efforts of the past have started off well, but deteriorated with time.

It is with such thoughts that we look toward the Tuesday night meeting at the high school with a certain degree of optimism.

Contained within the makeup of the discussion group is a nucleus of those most concerned with the problems associated with youth activities - - - parents, students, educators and those familiar with the social ramifications of being a teenager.

Most of all, the key element of the success of any program of this type is present by virtue of the sponsoring group, the Parents Advisory Council.

Contained therein is the element of parental involvement which should enable the discussion to center immediately on the problems facing the school and the town and come up with some solutions.

Attendance at the Tuesday session is highly recommended for those concerned with the youth of Andover.

Down The Years With The Townsman

75 Years Ago — January 1911

The protection front, which has hidden the new Barnard block from view so long, was removed on Thursday. The building, as it can now be seen, makes a handsome addition to the business blocks of the town.

The prize ribbons won in the recent Boston poultry show by the poultry of O.P. Chase are on exhibition in his store.

Ferncroft Inn, well known to many Andover automobilists, was burned to the ground on Tuesday night, the damage being about $25,000. It is understood that the inn will be rebuilt at once.

A gymnasium class of Pynchard School boys has been formed under the direction of sub-master Willard. The class meets at the Guild gymnasium.

A fund has been raised by the members of the Pynchard Alumni Association for the purchase of sweaters to be presented to the boys in the school who won their "P" in athletics last year. Eight boys will receive sweaters and five others who have already been presented with them will be given jerseys.

50 Years Ago — January 1910

An article asking an appropriation of $175 to build a granolithic sidewalk in front of the town hall to replace the present gravel sidewalk was filed Wednesday with the town clerk. The work would be done under the supervision of the Board of Public Works.

Many signatures have been received on the petitions which have started in circulation here last week with the purpose of rerouting through truck traffic away from Main Street. Not only those living near the street who are bothered by the back-firing but also other citizens of the town who see in this speeding traffic a menace to the public safety are signing the petition.

An overdraft of $17.57 in the school department accounts was reported at the school board meeting on Tuesday night by Supt. Henry C. Sanborn.

The Andover League of Women Voters, cooperating with the state and national leagues, is presently actively interested in realizing the passage of the Coolpland Food and Drug Act which will be brought before the present Congress. The League feels that the antiquated law passed in 1906, as it now stands, gives inadequate protection to the consumer. It allows many loopholes for unscrupulous manufacturers and falsified representation of their products, even to the point of actual danger to those who use them.

An Andover man, 23, of River Street, was arrested Monday afternoon, on a charge of attempting to fire a building as the climax of a series of fires of suspicious origin in Ballardvale.

25 Years Ago — January 1960

Voters assembled at town meeting will be asked to appropriate some $1,313,950 in special articles, according to a preliminary look at the warrant.

The TOWNSMAN proudly received three first-place awards at the annual convention of the New England Weekly Newspaper Association last Friday and Saturday in Boston. Competing in its circulation class among many New England weeklies, this newspaper took first place in the following categories, Best local advertisement, best editorial page, best local editorial.

A general pay raise, "not in excess of five percent," will be granted employees of the town, according to Town Manager Thomas E. Duff.

A full-time recreational director for the town is being recommended by Town Manager Thomas E. Duff.

10 Years Ago — January 1960

A $2,657,000 bond issue to provide improvements to Andover's water system tops the money items which have been submitted for the warrant for the annual town meeting in April.

The selectmen, courting with the idea of "civil disobedience" in scheduling a joint meeting with the Industrial Development Commission, have changed their minds. The meeting scheduled for Friday at 8 a.m. at the Sheraton Rolling Green has been cancelled, as the board wrestles with the problem of the new Open Meeting law which went into effect January 1.

Assistant Business Manager Sam Arcidy Monday night was given the additional responsibility of office manager for Andover Schools Central office.

A $10,021,520 school budget, about 11 percent higher than the current year's, will face local voters at the April Town Meeting.

Representatives of Andover teachers two bargaining groups met head on Tuesday night in a rather friendly "debate" before some 50 of the town's 375 teachers. The two groups, the Andover Education Association and the Andover Federation of Teachers, will meet again at the polls, when teachers vote on which of the two will be their bargaining agent.

Andover will have potentially 29 new positions to fill through federal funds to relieve unemployment problems.

The town's election campaign is off to a slow start, but it is expected to pick up the tempo, during next week's first full week of the new year, particularly in the races for school committee as the days progress toward the filing deadline of Jan. 27.

For Those Of Us Who Are Older

By Janet D. Lake

Do we have an exciting week planned for you! Starting Monday, Jan. 13, there will be an open house at the senior center with sample classes, exhibits of work from oil painting, drawing, oriental rug, Japanese Bunka embroidery, needleart and calligraphy classes. There will also be free demonstration classes. Look at this schedule: Monday at 10, Jazzercise; Judge Joseph Vinciguerra will demonstrate calligraphy at 12:30; and at 1 p.m., Janet Lake and Japan. At 10 on Tuesday, Jan. 14, there will be a demonstration Bodywise class for you to watch or join, as you choose, and line dancing at 2 p.m. You may see a Bunka embroidery class at work on Wednesday from 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. Easy exercises will be held at 10 a.m. Thursday and there is Dancerrama on Friday from 10 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. You could come to the senior center every day that week and watch or participate in some different and interesting activity or event. And you will have an opportunity to register for forthcoming classes in whatever specialty suits you. No need to be bored. Not only can you learn new skills, but you'll meet new people, too. Do come in. Mark your calendar now and watch for the January Council on Aging newsletter with schedules of classes and activities. A whole new experience is open to you, if you will but try it.

On Tuesday, Jan. 21, at 12:30 p.m., there will be an Income and State Tax Seminar at the center, presented by State Senator Pat McGovern and featuring Karen Gibeau, principal tax examiner from the Mass. Dept. of Revenue, and Frank Scharratta, chief tax counsel of the Dept. of Revenue, as speakers. This is your opportunity to learn the latest developments relative to tax law and estate planning. It is free and should prove enlightening.

Don't forget duplicate bridge Monday morning, Jan. 6. It is a challenging way to improve your game, playing pre-dealt game boards in competition with others.

The hot lunch program is back in operation after their Christmas holiday, so call for your reservation. The food is good. The hot things are hot; the cold, cold. And it costs only 50 cents. And there are lots of charming people—your fellow Andoverites—to eat it with. Try it. You'll like it.

ANDOVER TOWNSMAN

St. Augustine's Paces Juniors

By Jim Arnold

St. Augustine's C has taken early season possession of the Andover Church Basketball League Junior Division's pole position.

The well-balanced league has already narrowed its undefeated pool down to three teams; SAC with a 3-0 ledger and St. Robert's A and St. Augustine's B with 2-0 each.

Last week's schedule was highlighted by a St. Robert's B donnybrook with St. Augustine's D. SRB entered the fourth quarter with a comfortable 23-13 lead, then managed to concentrate just enough to win 24-22.

St. Robert's B, 24-22

The seasons highest scoring affair matched SRB with St. Augustine's D. Kevin Oppenheim tallied 7 and Robert Derba stuck 4 points to pace SRB early on.

SAD hung tough with a balanced attack that was paced by Tom Daily's two buckets, while Peter Volpe, Mike Shepard and Toby Guzowski nailed solo markers.

A ten-point third stanza put SRB in front 23-13. Ian Begg canned two hoops, while Derba, Erica Campbell and Tim McGovern struck one apiece. Only Guzowski's four SAD points kept things respectable.

St. Robert's nearly sacrificed victory in the final quarter. Guzowski poured in five more and Greg LeBreck accounted for four to cut the deficit to a single hoop, but time ran out.

Guzowski was game-high scorer with 10 points. Teammates LeBreck and Daily had 4 each and Shepard and Peter Volpe had 2 each.

The victors were paced by Oppenheim's 8 points; Derba followed with 6, Begg and Campbell scored 4 each and McGovern added 2.

St. Robert's A, 11-8

This well played tilt featured fine defense at both ends of the floor, with SRA emerging victorious over South.

Sam McLellan notched two points while SRA countered with a Jon Iarribino bucket and Tom Tanin free throw in period one. Scott Gray tallied for South in stanza two and Jim Perry converted for SRA.

McLellan added another hoop for South in the third frame, but Sean Croteau's pair of scores gave SRA a 9-6 advantage. T.J. Weston cut the lead to one with a South basket, but Perry sealed the win with a score of his own.

Iarribino turned in an outstanding defensive effort, shutting out South's high-scoring Bob Wyatt. Brandy Companion and Sara Marchessault led South's spunky defense.

St. Robert's D, 19-5

St. Augustine's E could not keep up with the potent SRD offense.

SRD bolted to a 6-0 first-period lead, then matched baskets with St. A's in the second stanza to finish the half ahead 10-4. A 6-0 third-quarter run assured the victory.

Ryan Jacobson and John Camillus led the SRD parade with 6 points apiece, Damon Bellorado contributed 4, Frank Paone 2 and John Wyler.

Pat Walsh and Chris Corcoran notched the St. A's buckets while Dan Hansberry converted a free throw. Kirk Stockwood also put in a strong showing for SAE.

St. Augustine's C, 16-6

SAC became the first league team to claim three wins by virtue of a 16-6 thrashing of parish rival St. Augustine's A.

Two Todd Harris free throws and buckets by Paul Cassidy and Paul Allard led to a 6-2 C advantage. Bryan Hussey accounted for the lone A digits. Sean Gauthier hiked the C lead to 8-2 before Joe Shea found twine for the A team.

Harris nailed two more shots and Allard converted once in period three. Eric Burt's hoop was all that the A team could muster. Jeff Lembo closed out the scoring with a late SAC bucket.

Also contributing to the winning effort were Dan Evans and Mike McCarthy. SAA highlights included the play of Ryan Lisiak and Rob Lewis.

ST. Augustine's B, 9-8

A second-half scoring splurge by Mike McLellan enabled SAB to edge Ballardvale.

Mike Costello picked up a basket in each of the first two quarters, while Beth Daly was the only spark for SAB with a free throw.

Ballardvale could not find the range in period three, but McLellan scored four points to put SAB ahead 5-4. Costello bagged for more fourth-period points, but McLellan matched him to give SAB the win.

SAB defensive stalwarts were Jeff Arsenault and Larry Melia. Ballardvale standouts included Jennifer Msumba and Chris Blongiewicz.

Warrior Hoopsters, Icemen Off To Excellent Start

By Rick Harrison

The Andover High varsity boys' basketball and hockey teams are off to excellent starts this winter, both turning in impressive early-season performances.

The hoop squad reached the semifinals of the 11th annual Greater-Lawrence Christmas Festival at Merrimack College, beating Methuen (62-60) in the opening round and Salem, N.H. (79-55) in the quarterfinals before bowing to Lawrence High (57-46).

The hockey team registered a 4-2 Merrimack Valley League triumph over Large School Division opponent Lowell High in its opener, then stepped out of MVHL play to edge Concord-Carlisle 5-4 on a dramatic last-second goal by George Heseltine.

Basketball

Coach Tom Ryser's Golden Warriors did it the hard way in their first game, using a pair of clutch free throws by sophomore guard John Perry in the closing moments to slip past Methuen 62-60.

Senior Capt. Tim Perry, an almost sure-fire All-Scholastic choice in basketball (he recently was named in football), was the overall game catalyst as he established a new single-game tournament record by pouring through 39 points.

Also playing well for AHS were senior 6'4" center Doug Rotondi (nine points), who was a force underneath as a rebounder and defensive player, junior forward Mark Tucker, senior point-guard Chris Bartley, and forward Darren Currier.

Salem, N.H., which has given Andover fits in past Christmas Festivals, was no match for the Warriors this time around as Tim Perry was ablaze in the first half.

Andover raced to a commanding 18-8 first-period lead and never looked back.

Perry was unconscious in the opening two quarters, hitting 14-of-17 floor shots and pocketing 31 points in 16 incredible minutes.

Few of Perry's shots could be classified as easy, the majority medium to long-range bombs and twisting down-the-lane lay-ups.

He also had several steals and picked off numerous rebounds in a record-shattering performance that may never be equalled in future tournaments.

Perry cooled down a bit in the second half, when his offense really wasn't as necessary, but still completed the memorable contest with a new tourney standard 41 points.

Second-half support came from Mark Tucker and Doug Rotondi, while quality minutes were also provided by John Perry, Chris Bartley, John Klopacz and Jamie Clarke.

Andover launches regular Merrimack Valley Conference play next week, hosting Haverhill Tuesday night and Tewksbury Friday evening at the Dunn Gymnasium.

The JVs will tap off at 6:30 p.m. and the varsity at approximately 8 o'clock both nights.

Although Andover has an excellent team once again this year (18-4 last season), the MVC Large School Division will be extremely competitive.

Lawrence Central Catholic returns a veteran squad, headed by Capt. Rob Malenfant, 6-6 center Joe Bowab, Dave Belavitch and guard Jeff Smith who is an Andover resident.

The Red Raiders are also bolstered by California transfer student Joe Hart, a 6-5 junior frontcourt performer who is a former Andover resident (now living in southern New Hampshire).

Chelmsford, which showed its stuff with a 78-69 double-overtime triumph against Catholic Memorial in the Greater-Lowell Christmas Tournament and a 76-59 romp over Acton-Boxboro, has virtually everyone back from last season's deceptive .500 squad.

The Lions are well-balanced and have three potential All-Star performers in Co-Capt. Mark Brihi, junior forward Scott Bell (26 points vs. Memorial) and junior lefty guard Steve Murphy.

Lowell High graduated superstars Ramon Rivera (now at nationally-ranked University of Houston) and Scott Stapleton, but coach Charlie Ryan's (Andover resident) crew should still challenge for the MVC title with a nucleus comprised of juniors that were undefeated (37-0) both as freshmen and junior varsity players.

Names to look for when the Red Raiders hit town are point-guard Mike Crowley, sharpshooter Eric Simon, rugged forward Bill Janes and 6-4 center Lance Petka.

Lowell opened its season with a tough 75-73 loss to Leominster High.

In the Small School Division, teams which Andover faces only once in league play, the frontrunners should be Lawrence, Methuen and Tewksbury.

The Golden Warriors have already tasted how tough Lawrence and Methuen will be, Matt Jozokos leading the Rangers, while Tewksbury has six athletes from its Eastern Mass. Division II Super Bowl football champions in-

St. Augustine's And St. Robert's Undefeated

St. Augustine's C (3-0), St. Robert's A (3-0) and South A (2-0) are the only undefeated clubs left in the 13-team Intermediate Division of the Andover Church Basketball League.

In third-week action at the West Junior High gym, St. Robert's A overpowered St. Robert's C 30-13, St. Augustine's D stopped St. Augustine's A 32-20, St. Robert's B overpowered Ballardvale United 38-15, Temple Emanuel B trimmed St. Augustine's E 34-27, St. Augustine's B toppled Temple Emanuel A 48-1 and St. Augustine's C rolled over South B 31-10.

St. Robert's A, 30-13

St. Robert's A used a balance scoring attack to hand St. Robert's C (2-1) their first loss of the season.

Hot rum toddies and eggnog are traditional Yuletide "warmers" in America. In Yorkshire, England, people "sup" ale possets for luck—they're a mixture of warm milk, ale, beer and wine, often quite heavily spiced.

Boudreau, who led the Redmen grid squad in scoring this fall, played his youth basketball in Andover.

Hockey

George Heseltine has been the early-season hero for second-year Coach Charlie Donovan's team, netting a pair of goals in the opener against Lowell and pocketing the dramatic game-winner against Concord-Carlisle with just two seconds to play.

The Lowell contest was close from opening faceoff to final horn as well, goaltender Bob Pothier keeping the Red Raiders at bay with 30 saves.

Andover was clinging to a slim 3-2 advantage before junior forward Glenn Allard iced the decision by skimming home an empty-net goal in the final minute.

Steve Donovan produced the other AHS goal, while contributing strong efforts were Mark Neaves, defenseman Dave Curtis and Jeff McNeil.

Concord-Carlisle and Andover engaged in a seesaw battle, the Warriors squandering a 3-1 second-period lead as Patriots' sharpshooter Cameron McKennitt popped home three consecutive goals to boost C-C into a 4-3 advantage early in the final period.

Glenn Allard tied it a short time later, however, with his second goal and then Heseltine came through with his clutch game-winner at 14:58.

Dave Curtis and Jeff McNeil also scored, while McKennitt was the whole show for Concord-Carlisle (1-1-0) with four goals.

The Golden Warriors next host Tewksbury on Jan. 9 at Merrimack College (8 p.m.).

The Merrimack Valley Hockey League also has a strong Large School Division, perennial powers Billerica, Chelmsford and defending champ Lawrence Central joining Andover and Haverhill as teams to watch.

Chelmsford has returned virtually everyone from last year's outstanding 14-3-3 tournament qualifier, including top scorer Rob Tobin, stand-out defenseman Brian Egan and No. 1 goaltender Ron Webber.

The Lions are off to a hot start (2-0-1), beating non-league foes Barnstable (5-2) and Don Bosco (6-1) and tying Billerica (1-1).

Billerica, winner of 11 league titles in 14 years,

Morris Spoils Shutout

The Andover Pee Wee A team went down to defeat 7-1 to a physical Tewksbury club in a recent Valley Youth Hockey League game at Merrimack College. Defenseman Jim Morris' goal early in the third period made the score 4-1 and a comeback seemed within reach. He stole the puck at the red line, skated around two defenders and popped the disk into the far top corner of the net. Sean Darwin, Mike Ristuccia and Ed Thistle led several scoring rushes, but were turned back by a tough Tewksbury defense.

Chris Pothier, Frank Morey and Don Fraser kept the pressure up during the second and third periods, but found a red Tewksbury shirt wherever they turned.

Todd Allard, Gary Bleszinski and Chris Cashman had their hands full in defense, but turned in solid performances.

Goalie Mike Murnane faced 32 shots. Many of his saves were of the spectacular variety, keeping Andover in the game to the end.

To Host Alpine Ski Events

The Massachusetts Special Olympics will hold their first Eastern Alpine Invitational at Bradford Ski Area on January 19 at 10 a.m. Hosted by the Essex County Special Olympics, these athletes will compete in slalom, giant slalom and downhill events and a 10-meter ski walk and glide event. These latter two events, referred to as developmental sports, provide a program for athletes to slowly acquire skills leading to special olympic competition.

The goal of the Massachusetts Special Olympics is to provide year-round sports training and competition for institutional and community-based mentally retarded residents of the state. The program benefits mentally retarded children and adults by providing them with continuing opportunities to develop physical fitness, express courage, experience joy, gain self-confidence and participate in the sharing of gifts, skills and friendship with their families, other Special Olympians and the community. The Massachusetts Special Olympic sponsors five state-wide weekend events each year. Special Olympic athletes must compete at a local or divisional level six to nine weeks prior to the state events so that the creation of evenly matched competition brackets can be established through the state's registration process. All athletes must complete a minimum of eight hours of training prior to state competition.

Michael White

ECAC Division III All Star

Former Andover High School student Michael White was awarded the ECAC Division III All Star recently as an offensive tackle for Amherst College.

A four-year letterman and three-year starting offensive tackle for Coach Ostendarp's Lord Jeff, White's Class of '86 provided the college with the best four-year record of any previous class, losing only four games in four years.

This team also won four consecutive "Little Three Titles," providing Amherst College with its third undefeated season in more than 100 years, and beat arch rival Williams College for four consecutive years, including this year's 100th annual game.

White is also a four-year varsity basketball player for Coach Dave Hixon, also a former Andover High School athlete.

White, the son of Richard and Rose White, 27 Bartlet St., has continued to maintain an academic honor status.

Completes Training

Navy Seaman Pasquale J. DeCunto, a 1981 graduate of Greater Lawrence Regional Vocational High School of Andover, completed recruit training at Naval Recruit Command, San Diego.

During his eight-week training cycle, DeCunto studied general military subjects designed to prepare him for further academic and on-the-job training in one of the Navy's 85 basic fields.

His studies included seamanship, close order drill, Naval history and first aid. Personnel who complete this course of instruction are eligible for three hours of college credit in Physical Education and Hygiene.

INFORMATION CONCERNING CABLE TELEVISION FOR EVERYONE.

By Jim Novo, JANUARY 2, 1986

NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTION FOR ROLLINS CABLEVISION

Resolved: A commitment to maintain our excellent product and service record, and to search for ways to improve it even further.

You can help us. Much of our office and technical activity is due to factors in control of the subscriber. The 80% - 20% adage applies in the cable business as well; roughly 80% of our activity is attributable to 20% of our subscriber base. Much of this activity could be reduced if you:

1. Please pay your bill in a timely way. Don't hope that we will forget you; you will be disconnected for non-payment. If there is a problem, let us know, we are flexible. We give you several warnings; do not ignore them if you wish to continue with the service. If we have to disconnect you, there will be a charge to reconnect. The simplest way to avoid all this is to pay for the service.

2. Please don't tamper with our equipment, and let us pick it up if you are disconnecting. Attempts to obtain additional service through tampering result in equipment failure, requiring a service call. Our equipment will not function properly in other systems; there is no point in bringing it with you. We lose a staggering amount of money each month in this area.

These requests I think are reasonable; we at Rollins Cable-Vision would like to see every subscriber receive our undivided attention.

Undefeated

Chris Shea and Mark Baker led the A team with 6 points apiece, Ryan Beal, Paul Durant, Todd Green and Chris Klein had 4 points each and Anthony Crooks netted a fieldgoal.

Mike Famiglietti and Keith Selvitelli pumped in 4 points apiece for the C team, Mike Pettoruto chipped in 3 and William Sullivan 2.

St. Robert's B, 38-15

Paul Filosi (16) and Joey Marinaro (12) hit double figures as St. Robert's B had a surprisingly easy time against Ballardvale United.

Chris Dziadosz (4), Kevin Nazarro (2), Greg Poor (2) and Ian Timmons (2) rounded out the scoring for the rapidly improving SRB squad.

Michael Henry paced the BU attack with 8 points, Colin Arsenaault, Rejji Hayes and Scott Henry accounted for single baskets and Brian Twomey converted a free throw.

Temple Emanuel B, 34-27

Trailing 23-20 after three periods, Temple Emanuel B, on the strength of a torrid shooting performance by Adam Goddess, outscored St. Augustine's E 14-4 in the final stanza to gain a come-from-behind victory.

Goddess had a league season-high 28 points, including all of his team's fourth quarter baskets while Aaron Mayers, Andy Cohen and Erik Greenstein added fieldgoals for TE.

James Landry led SAE with 10 points, John Shea followed with 9, Jimmy Hanning had 4, Andy DeBenedictis 2 and Brian Landry 2.

St. Augustine's B, 48-11

St. Augustine's B placed all ten players in the scoring column as it romped over Temple Emanuel A.

Steve Flaig paced the offense with 14 points, Adam Brown added 8, Kevin Murphy 6, Chris Hall 6, Matt Doyle 4, Rich Radulski 2, Jason Clarke 2, Jon Hines 2, Shad Flaig 2 and Todd Cadagan 2.

Mark Shapiro led TEA with 6 points, Justin Rosenblatt and Johnny Dwight had solo buckets each and Philip Boness had a foul shot.

St. Augustine's C, 31-10

Jeff Davis had 20 points to lead undefeated St. Augustine's C to a win over South B.

Jamie Lionette netted 4, John Gabriel 3, Dan Kenny 2 and Chris Davis 2 for SAC.

A.J. Rimas had 4 and Brendan O'Neil 2, while Ryan Hanson, Tim Grogean and Josh Kelly played well for South B.

Warriors

stunned Catholic school powerhouse Austin Prep (4-2) in its opener before tying Chelmsford.

The Indians lost All-Scholastic defenseman Bob Stickney, who transferred to New Prep, but they return a number of quality players including defenseman Joe Gualtieri, forwards Mike Moroconi and Paul Fraser.

Billerica goaltender Bill Paskiewicz has also looked extremely sharp thus far.

Central graduated 12 seniors from the title team, but has good balance up and down the lineup, while Haverhill is bolstered by the return of eight seniors and All-Scholastic goalie Pete Harris.

Harris has missed the first two weeks of the season with a hamstring pull, but is expected back by the first of the year.

St. Augustine's

St. Robert's C, 5-2

St. Robert's found the range just soon enough to get past Temple Emanuel B.

Both clubs blew free throws, jump shots and everything else until Temple's Andrew Male finally converted just prior to halftime.

The score remained 2-0 until the fourth period when SRC's Matt Weiner canned a bucket and charity toss. John Brodbine added a fieldgoal to round out the offense.

Brian Luti and Sean Donahue turned in strong performances for SRC while Lee Baron, Joshua Maarmer and Spencer Wise were Temple's strong suit.

Of the five great lakes, only Lake Michigan is wholly in the U.S. The others are partly in Canada.

Four Teams Still Undefeated

By Rick Harrison

St. Robert's A, Temple Emanuel, St. Robert's C and defending champ Ballardvale United remained undefeated and tied for first place in the Senior Division of the Andover Church Basketball League, all four chalking up their second victories of the young season in recent action at the Doherty and West Junior High gyms.

St. Robert's A rocked South Church, 51-22, Temple Emanuel slapped St. Augustine C, 36-12, St. Robert's C whipped St. Augustine B, 42-28, and Ballardvale raced past St. Augustine A, 20-17.

St. Robert's B also broke into the win column with a 20-17 conquest of St. Augustine A.

St. Robert's A, 51-22

Kevin Murphy, Jason Blandini and George Willard combined for 39 points as SRA coasted to its triumph over South at the Doherty.

The winners grabbed a commanding 13-4 first-quarter lead, stretched it to 21-8 at halftime, and put the game away with a 20-8 last-period run.

Murphy was game-high marksman with 17 points, Blandini and Willard added 11 apiece, and contributing four points each were Billy Tobin, Steve Spinelli and Mark Green.

A.J. Boucher and Bill Koromhas led the counter-attack for South, netting 8 points each, while A.J. Boutin added 4 and Bryan Boucher swished a fourth-quarter bucket.

Temple Emanuel, 36-12

Temple wore down St. Augustine C with its tenacious full-court press, busting open a close game (17-10) with a decisive 19-2 fourth-quarter burst sparked by Mark Leinson.

Eight different players registered points for the winners, Leinson finishing with 12 and Mickey Shallop 10.

Mike Forlizzi popped through 4 points while Jeremy Marmer, Dave Fromson, Steve Gack, Jason Weiner and Mike Zetlan (free throws) added 2 points apiece to the balanced offense.

Randy Ying, SAC's primary press-breaker, was in early foul trouble and saw limited action before exiting in the fourth period with six fouls.

Ying still led the St. Augustine C effort with 6 points, Paul Vallee pocketed 2, Dave Gibson 2 and Dave Hughes a pair.

Don Lane, Dave Ahouse, Mike Fay and Jonathan Lewis were other SAC standouts.

St. Robert's C, 42-28

St. Robert's C dominated the backboards and put eight different players in the scoring column, trimming a St. Augustine B squad that once again played very well but was out-sized.

Mike Talty, Ed Sheehan and Paul Lewis were the key performers under the boards, while Talty led all scorers with 10 points and Sheehan chipped in 8.

Matt Perry tossed through 9 points, seven of them in the third stanza when the victors turned a 17-8 lead into a 34-19 advantage.

Danny Fay and Lewis delivered 4 points each, Fay doing his damage in the first quarter and Lewis in the fourth.

Dan French pumped in 3 points, while second-half fieldgoals were produced by Matt Moynihan and Jonathan Merenda.

Mike D'Angelo, Brendan Sharkey and Pete Reming paced the equally-diversified SAB attack with 6 points each.

Contributing 2 points apiece to the cause were Sean Gill, Bob Nash, John Emmert, Jim D'Angelo and Mike Giammusso.

Ballardvale, 29-19

Brian Worcester and Bartley Parker paced the defending champion BU crew to an 8-0 first-period lead, and St. Augustine A never recovered in their duel at West Junior High.

Parker and Worcester finished as Ballardvale leaders with 8 and 7 points respectively, John Hess flipped through 6 points in the third quarter, Scott Adams had 4 in the final session, and 2 points were added by Doug Prugh (free throws) and Kenny Harvey (fieldgoal).

Andy Collins fired through 6 points for St. Augustine A, John Pike notched 5, Brett Cox 4, Steve Mollineaux 2 and Danny Schaefer 2.

Four Teams

Tim Parker and Mike LeBreck played solid defensive games.

St. Robert's B, 20-17

The winners used some professional foul shooting accuracy to pull out this come-from-behind decision over St. Augustine A.

St. Augustine carried a slender 11-10 advantage into the final period, but SRB held a 10-6 point spread in the quarter while converting 6-of-7 free throws.

Mike Cincotta was deadly down the stretch, swishing 4-of-4 charities, while John Mattola hit 2-of-2.

St. Robert's B outscored St. Augustine A 10-5 from the line, hitting 10-of-14 foul shots for the game.

Eric Cincotta emerged as high scorer with 7 points, Mike Cincotta had 5, Mike Kelley 4, John Mattola 2 and Scott Friese 2.

Dave Ward and Erik Friese also played well for the victors.

John Pike shared game-high honors with 7 points for St. Augustine A.

Danny Schaefer netted 3 points, Jon Lane 3, Ryan LeGrow 2 and Brett Cox a deuce.

Reminder

Certain recipients of Veterans Administration benefits must submit Eligibility Verification Reports (EVR) by January 1 to avoid interruption or suspension of their benefits, according to the VA in Washington, D.C. Completion of the form is required by law.

Approximately 800,000 veterans, surviving spouses and children receiving VA's "protected" pension and parents who get Dependency and Indemnity Compensation (DIC) benefits are reminded to submit the required verification.

EVRs were mailed to these individuals on October 1 in the first phase of a change in VA's income reporting procedures. The EVR replaces the old Annual Income Questionnaire which used to go to all VA pensioners at the same time. The VA is cycling income reports throughout the year. In all cases, the VA encourages an early return of the form to avoid last-minute processing bottlenecks.

On Line Computer Expands for Service

There are more folks ready to serve you well at On Line Computer Systems these days. Of course, there are still the "old guard"—Richard and Salvatore Bramante, who started the business and believe in being around when their customers need them. Mark Hessman, resident "Apple Expert", who teaches clients to relate to their new electronic business partners. And office manager Mary Ann DeLanoy, who keeps things organized and tracks down those hard-to-find items. But now—because the computer business is not the simplest in the world—On Line has expanded its service to include three new specialists: Andi Goodman (small business; accounting packages), Cheryl McEnaney (small systems; home education) and, for those who mistakenly thought that all computer problems had to be sent back to the manufacturer, Doug Landry (service technician). In addition to selling their expertise, the staff at On Line sell the best in computers, word processors, auxiliary equipment, software—even the latest in adventure games. They sell serious business—like the AT&T 6300, completely IBMPC compatible, but higher in performance and screen resolution, and quicker in its ability to calculate. On Line sells magic—like the new Atari, with graphics so realistic that you could get trapped in them, as well as a very respectable memory and high-level program capability. Perfect for designing overhead projector programs and slides. It sells convenience, like the Sharp PC 7000, a personal computer so compact that the whole thing—keyboard, screen and printer—can be carted around like a portable typewriter. And economy—including complete systems for less than $1000. On Line also sells education. To find out about its seminars—on IBM, Lotus, Appleworks; on tax preparation, business, education—phone 470-3075. Check out what—and who—is new at On Line Computer Systems, Andover's complete, customer-friendly computer store. Drop in at 2 Elm Square, Andover, M-Th 9-7; Fri 9-9; Sat 9-6. —S.K.C'Neill

Come Home from the Holidays — to Spyro's

So you say the needles are dropping off the tree—right into the Persian ice bucket you got from Auntie Sylvia?

And the kids, they're putting together a concert for you with the noisemakers. Working up a little something from Twisted Sister.

All that candy's melted into little pools on the brand-new coffee table; somebody did a jig with the cookies on the living room rug. And at the mere sight of Turkey Hash a la Romana, everybody straps on their cross-country skis and stomps out—even though there's no snow.

Boyo-boyo-boy—do you need a vacation from your holidays!

Do you need a night at Spyro's! Spyro's Restaurant and Lounge, at 110 Sutton St. in North Andover, has the best post-holiday gift you can give yourself—a nice, relaxing dinner with the family that isn't leftover turkey and crumbled fruitcake. A dinner that's beautifully cooked, cheerfully served, generous in portion and priced to fit your holiday-deflated wallet.

Spyro's has super seafood, the best in beef and the most special specials in town. And Spyro's has a bar that offers you everything, from aperitif to dessert cordial; from fine imported and domestic wines to fine imported and domestic beers and ales.

Best of all, Spyro's isn't a stuffy place. It's a family restaurant; it has that pleasant family atmosphere that doesn't bar the little ones at the door. Nice, big booths and tables among the smaller sites. Waitresses who enjoy what they do, even when it includes splitting an entre between two of Spyro's smaller patrons.

You owe it to yourself to get away. Let the needles sprinkle down for one more night; leave the crumbs to lie peacefully in the shag pile. Pack up your post-holiday let down—and the family—and take off to Spyro's. Open 7 days a week, 11:30 a.m.-10 p.m. (lounge open to 1 a.m.); phone 688-0659. It'll be the most timely present you get this season.

P.S.: Spyro's also has function rooms—write it down; you might need them next year.

PLANNING BOARD
PUBLIC HEARING

In accordance with Chapter 40 G.L. Section 5, notice is hereby given that the Andover Planning Board will hold a Public Hearing, Tuesday, January 21, 1986, at 7:30 P.M., in the Third Floor Conference Room, Municipal Town Offices, 36 Bartlet Street, Andover, MA., to consider the following amendments to the Zoning Bylaw:

ARTICLE:

To see if the Town will vote to amend the Zoning Bylaw, Article VIII of the Town Bylaws, by striking out Section V.B.8.a. in its entirety and substituting the following:

"V.B.8. Industrial Districts:

a. In any property located in Industrial Districts IA and ID, which abuts or is located directly opposite on any public or private street or way, a residential district, a lot containing a dwelling in an Industrial District, or an Office Park District, the front, side or rear yard depth requirements listed for Districts IA or ID in Section V.A. shall apply, as the case may be, to all industrial facilities including parking areas, driveways, tanks, loading bays, outdoor storage or work areas and similar accessory operations on those sides of the industrial property facing the residential district, dwelling lot or office park district, except that in such districts, no non-residential structure shall be erected nearer than three hundred (300) feet to the outside wall of an existing dwelling, whether or not a public or private way lies within said three hundred (300) feet."

ARTICLE:

To see if the Town will vote to amend the Zoning Bylaw by striking out Section VI.A.7.a.(4) in its entirety and substituting the following:

"VI.A.7.a.(4) These requirements may be reduced upon determination of the Building Inspector, on advice of the Planning Board based on site plan review, that special circumstances render a lesser provision adequate for all parking needs. In order to qualify for a reduction, the petitioner must present a site plan showing that all parking spaces needed to meet the requirements of the Table of Off-Street Parking Requirements (Section VI.A.4.) could be built on the site. Those spaces to be waived shall be marked "Reserve Parking Area(s)" on the plan, which shall be kept on file by the Inspector of Buildings. No building other than parking spaces shall ever be allowed in this area."

ARTICLE:

To see if the Town will vote to amend the Zoning Bylaw, Article VIII of the Town Bylaws, as follows:

That in the second paragraph of Section VI.A.3. the phrase "(except those for single-family homes)" is deleted and the following phrase is substituted: "(except those for residential uses in zones SRA, SRB & SRC)". The resulting amended paragraph would read as follows: "All required parking spaces (except those for residential uses in zones SRA, SRB & SRC) shall be marked to provide delineation between parking stalls & aisles."

ARTICLE:

To see if the Town will vote to amend the Zoning Bylaw, Article VIII of the Town Bylaws, as follows:

That the first line of Section V.B.7.c. is amended by deleting the words "Section IV.B., Par. 5" and substituting the words "Section IV.B., Par. 3c."

WHY HOUSE SIZES CHANGE

The poor homebuyer must be a little bewildered. First he reads about new house sizes getting smaller, then a few years later, he reads they are getting bigger, then smaller. What's happening and why the up and down trend in construction of new homes? The answer is simple. It all depends on the economic situation at the time.

Builders have a product to sell. Because carrying costs for unsold homes are high, builders want to move their inventories as quickly as possible. When builders are pessimistic about the economy, they build smaller homes which are less expensive and easier to sell. When builders are optimistic about the economy and money supply, they build larger homes.

In every recession, new home sizes have decreased. In every subsequent recovery, new home sizes have increased. The record size for new homes was back in 1978 with an average size of 1-650 square feet. During the 1982 recession, the size dropped to 1-445 square feet.

REAL ESTATE GUIDELINES

Schruender Real Estate

HOW TO EVALUATE COMPETING OFFERS

In a market as lively as this one, several offers may come in at the same time on a house that is for sale. If you're the lucky seller, it could increase the selling price of your property or allow you sell it with more favorable terms than you had expected.

When faced with multiple offers, how do you pick and choose among them? Your realtor can help by setting up a chart comparing the main features of each proposal. First, there's price. Then consider the closing costs you may be asked to pay, such as loan fees or local transfer taxes. Be sure you understand any terms that might reduce your net profit. Can you work out a mutually agreeable date for you to move out and the new buyers to move in? How clean is each offer? Do any of the buyers want owner financing, or do they have other property to sell before they can settle on yours? Can you get reasonable assurances that the buyers will be able to qualify for the financing they will need?

Your agent can help you weigh the relative merits of each offer. Then you can accept or counter the best one, and perhaps line up one of the other offers as an alternate.

The professionals at Realty USA, Schruender Real Estate can guide you through each step of the home selling and buying process. Please visit our office at 73 Chickering Road, North Andover, or give us a call at 685-5000.

"ADJACENT TO PHILLIPS ACADEMY"

Only once in a very great while does a Classical Federal Colonial such as this become available. Located adjacent to Phillips Academy this home - built in 1800 - has been restored into one of the most elegant properties in the area.

The beauty and grace of the front circular staircase is offset by the two classical front fireplaced parlors. The oversized dining room with the warmth of its own hearth is ideal for entertaining. And the expansive and modern country kitchen has retained important colonial features including open hearth fireplace with built-in fireside day bed and original beams.

There are five well proportioned bedrooms, four of them with their own fireplaces, and 4½ baths.

In addition the lower level includes a fireplaced family room, laundry and utility room, and an additional bath.

The home boasts an energy saving gas heating system, a fire alarm system, intercom, and central vacuuming. The estate setting of almost an acre of land - perfect for other outside activities - is further enhanced by a spacious barn.

This home has been both carefully restored and meticulously maintained and is one of the finest properties available anywhere.

Happy New Year, Andover!

Thank you for being so good to us in 1985.

Because of you, we celebrate yet another fantastic year as
The Andovers' number one real estate office.

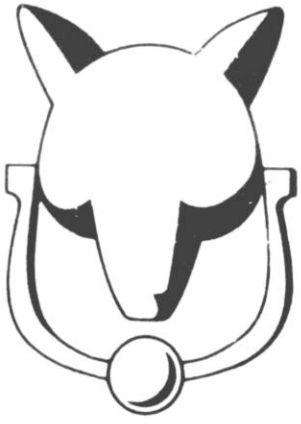

We celebrate the success that led us to double our West Boxford office. And we're going to open a new office in Methuen this coming January.

But most of all, we celebrate your continued friendship and trust.

Our very best wishes to you all for a New Year that fulfills your fondest hopes.

The recent wave of arrests by the Andover Police Department may reflect in the upcoming six-month figures, but for now, according to the semi-annual Massachusetts Crime Index for 1985, crime was up in Andover 31 percent in the first half of 1985.

"We are up in the three major categories, stolen cars, housebreaks, and larcenies," Police Chief James Johnson said.

Easy access to Routes 495, 93 and 125 make it easier for a car thief to get out of town, fast, according to Johnson. Andover's vast selection of high priced-high performance cars, make it a popular place for car thieves, the police chief said.

"We have a reputation for affluence.

You have your young urban professionals, (Yuppies) living in large developments with clusters of B.M.Ws and Mercedes with sophisticated stereo and cassette systems, which are popular items for thieves. You can't have your men sitting in the development parking lots 24 hours a day," Johnson said.

Truth in reporting may also contribute to the high statistics for Andover.

"We relate the facts, figures are submitted on a voluntary basis. We don't play games. If a $5 clothesline is reported, it is considered a larceny and entered by us. Other departments in major cities just don't have the time and may not log it in. The figures are up to the interpretation of the man reporting the statistics," Johnson said.

Andover's data is logged on a computer, it is not falsified or changed, according to the police chief.

The Andover Police Department is up to anticipated staff. Three new police officers will be coming out of the police academy next month, according to Johnson.

Car thefts and burglaries were also up in Methuen and Dracut, Haverhill and Reading this year, while robberies were down slightly. Lawrence's crime statistics were incomplete.

Overall, crime in the Bay State increased .8 percent from January to June as compared the same period in 1984, according to the semi-annual Massachusetts Crime Index for 1985.
