North American Birds of Prey

Wednesday, January 17 at 7:00pm

Observe live raptors (hawks, falcons and owls) with Jim Parks of WINGMASTERS. Learn about their keen eyesight and hearing and how they are adapting in a rapidly changing world. Recommended for adults and children aged 6 & up. All children must be accompanied by an adult. Sign up at <https://mhl.org/calendar>. In Memorial Hall. Sponsored by the Friends of MHL.

Bag It: Is Your Life Too Plastic?

Saturday, January 6 at 10:00am in Activity Room

Try going a day without plastic. Plastic is everywhere and infiltrates our lives in unimaginable and frightening ways. We'll see how our crazy-for-plastic world has finally caught up to us and what we can do about it. A discussion will follow the 78-minute documentary. Sign up at <https://mhl.org/calendar>. Sponsored by the Friends of MHL.

Life By Design Workshop with Jennessa Durrani

Tuesday, January 16 from 6:30-8:30pm, Memorial Hall

Just in time for those New Year's resolutions, Jennessa is offering a repeat workshop. Are you living your life by your own conscious design? Through creative exercises and guided meditation, the business owner, Andover resident, and busy mother will help you explore what you want your life to look like. Sign up at <https://mhl.org/calendar>.

Parent & Teen/Tween Book Discussion

Thursday, January 18 from 6:30-8:30pm in Memorial Hall

Andover health teacher, Cheryl Todisco, and a YA librarian will facilitate a discussion of the novel, Posted, by John David Anderson. Parents and teens/tweens are invited to read and discuss the book. Sponsored by Parent to Parent Andover and Memorial Hall Library.

Drop-in Book Chat

Thursday, January 25 from 11:00-11:30am, Teen Room

Get the scoop on fiction with librarians, Clare Curran & Kim Lynn.
