

Resources Shared in the Chat

11/4/2021 - Beyond the Mayflower and 1620: Native Americans in New England with Professor Christoph Strobel (Courageous Conversations)

Films:

- World Premiere of Upstander project's short documentary Bounty, focusing on Phips 1755 Bounty act against Penobscot. Free online screening Nov. 10: <https://upstanderproject.org/bounty>
- Public online screenings of Upstander Project Dawnland documentary about boarding schools, foster care and the Maine Truth and Reconciliation Commission: <https://upstanderproject.org/dawnland> and <https://www.wgbh.org/program/independent-lens/dawnland>

Podcast:

- <https://crooked.com/podcast-series/this-land> (season 1 about Oklahoma being Indigenous land and season 2 about ICWA and foster care system)

Articles:

- A couple of historical society articles on the history of Praying Towns:
 - <https://www.natickhistoricalsociety.org/naticks-beginnings>
 - <https://www.newenglandhistoricalsociety.com/praying-indians-american-revolution/>
- Enlightening article about land grant colleges/universities: <https://www.hcn.org/issues/52.4/indigenous-affairs-education-land-grab-universities>
- Resource for identifying Native Lands: <https://native-land.ca/>

A couple of ways to help:

- Wabanaki REACH helping families who have been victim to separation, foster care and boarding schools: <https://www.mainewabanakireach.org/>
- Contribute to current efforts to help Indigenous peoples buy back land: www.Bomazeenlandtrust.org

Connect to the Chelmsford Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Committee:

- <https://www.townofchelmsford.us/854/Diversity-Equity-and-Inclusion-Committee>