Blood water paint

by Joy McCullough

A first novel based on the true story of iconic artist Artemisia Gentileschi finds a talented young woman working as her famed artist father's apprentice before becoming one of the world's most talented painters in her own right, an achievement that is complicated by the brutal gender dynamics of 17th-century Rome.

Pride

by Ibi Zoboi

In a timely update of Jane Austen's Pride and Prejudice, critically acclaimed author Ibi Zoboi skillfully balances cultural identity, class, and gentrification against the heady magic of first love in her vibrant reimagining of this beloved classic.
