

Memorial Hall Library

Summer 2024

Makerspace Volunteer Program

Information Sheet & Application for students entering 11th & 12th grades

Purpose:

Students entering 11th and 12th grades in September will gain valuable volunteer work experience and earn community service hours.

The Program:

Students will be trained to use all of Memorial Hall Library's makerspace equipment. They will be scheduled to work in the makerspace alongside a library staff person and will assist patrons as needed.

Commitment:

Acceptance into the program requires attendance at one of the mandatory training sessions (3 hours) and participation in a minimum of six 2-hour long volunteer blocks (12 hours) scheduled by the program coordinators. The minimum time commitment over the course of the summer is 15 hours.

Instructions for Students

1. Read the entire packet.
2. Fill out the application.
3. Email the application to volunteer@mhl.org.
4. Applications will be accepted on a rolling basis.
5. The final day to apply is Sunday, May 5, 2024.
6. Interviews will be scheduled for select candidates. Space in the program is limited.
7. Applicants will be accepted into the program at the discretion of the coordinators.
8. All applicants will be notified by May 28, 2024.
